RE: Clarence B. Jenkins v. Amazon.com and Insurance Company of the State of Pennsylvania c/o Sedgwick Claims Management Services, Inc.
Date of Accident: February 10, 2013
WCC File No.: 1303989
Our File No.: 20194.13164
Claim No.: 30130262998
Appeal No.: 2016-000598

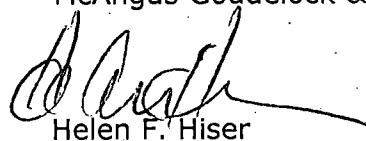

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Respondents are in receipt of Appellant's letter dated August 15, 2018. To the extent he is seeking to add material to the Record on Appeal in this case, Respondents oppose any such request. First, Appellant's August 15 letter seeks affirmative relief from this Court; however, Appellant has not submitted the required filing fee. See Rule 240(d), SCACR. Second, while Appellant seeks to add his deposition transcript to the Record on Appeal, neither party designated that transcript to be included in the Record during the briefing process. In addition, as Appellant acknowledges, that transcript is not part of the Commission file and, therefore, cannot be made a part of the appellate record. See Rule 210(c), SCACR. Third, Respondents deny the unsubstantiated and unwarranted allegations of distortions and other misconduct contained in Appellant's August 15 letter.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours truly,

McAngus Goudelock & Courie, LLC
