Re: Kyle Pertuis v. Front Roe Restaurants, Inc.
Appellate Case No. 2016-000749

Dear Mr. Shearhouse:

I represent Kyle Pertuis in the above-captioned case in which opposing counsel, John Nichols, filed a Petition for Writ of Certiorari with the Supreme Court on April 12, 2016. I have contacted Mr. Nichols to request that he consent to an extension of time for me to respond to his Petition for Writ of Certiorari. I explained to Mr. Nichols that my second son has been going through 5 weeks of daily radiation treatment for his Stage 3 Rectal Cancer, which has just concluded. Tending to my stricken son's treatment has preoccupied me and it has caused me to fall behind in work. Mr. Nichols graciously agreed to consent to an extension, for which I am now asking the Court, by this letter. More specifically, I respectfully request a 14 day extension which would defer the date of my response on behalf of Mr. Pertuis until May 26, 2016.

I have enclosed my check for $25.00 to cover the filing fee for this request.

Should you have any questions concerning the foregoing, please do not hesitate to call.

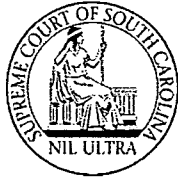

I will await notice from you as to my request for an extension.

Thanking you for your consideration of my request, I am

Very Truly Yours,

Robert C. Wilson
