Dear Mr. Dawson,

You and opposing counsel need to agree to file a supplemental appendix including anything that should have been in the Appendix. You, or opposing counsel, can then file a Supplemental Appendix.

Thank you,
Brenda F. Shealy
Chief Deputy Clerk
South Carolina Supreme Court

Lindsey:

We communicated with opposing counsel and with their consent, we are preparing an amended brief to update the citations. We will submit next week an amended brief. We will also send a courier to pick up the appendix we filed with our original brief.

In reviewing the Appendix filed by Charleston County (which the Court has elected to use for this appeal) and the Appendix we filed on behalf of University Ventures, we noticed the Charleston County Appendix does not include the Petition for Rehearing filed by University Ventures with the Court of Appeals. How should this difference between the Appendices be addressed?

Best regards,

Will

Subject: 2017-002369 Charleston County v. University Ventures: Appendix of Record

Dear Counsel:

Attached you will find a letter dated November 27, 2018, which identifies the Appendix submitted by Petitioner-Respondent as the Appendix of Record in the above-referenced case.

Please advise as to whether the Appendices filed by Respondent-Petitioner should be retained for pickup by the party, or if they should be disposed of by the Clerk's office.

Sincerely,
