Re: Tyrone Roberson v. Ruston W. Neely
Appellate Case No. 2018-001383

Dear Mr. Roberson:

Upon reviewing your correspondence regarding your inmate trust fund account, which the Court presumes to be a request to not pay the notice of appeal filing fee, the following deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or your appeal will be dismissed:

- Any request made to this Court must be in the form of a motion and must be in compliance with Rule 240, SCACR. If you want to proceed with this appeal without paying the filing fees, then you must serve and file a motion in accordance with Rule 240 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.
- A proof of service has not been provided. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR. Specifically, the proof of service must name the document you are serving, must reflect the date of service, and must provide the name and contact information of the party being served.

Very truly yours,

CLERK
