VS.

State of South Carolina Petitioner

Respondent motion under Rule 269 regarding petitioner frivolous appeal has been filed in your office solely for the purpose of delay at respondent request demanding immediately release at the Court which granted relief. Respondent submit the following exhibits which support motion regarding petitioner frivolous appeal and now respondent moves this Court under rule 269 deny petitioner frivolous appeal. Respondent proceed this as pro, se have not been appointed Counsel, Respondent submit petitioner with the totality of the circumstances claims is is frivolous and dont have grounds for a writ of Certiorari to grant such writ of Certiorari would be a miscarriage of justice when respondent produce overwhelming evidence at trial on the evidentiary hearing which p.c.r court granted respondent motion for relief. Respondent begs the Court to deny petitioner Certiorari if the Court is incline to grant petitioner writ Certiorari Respondent request an appeals bond, under rule 243 K
