Re: The State v Willie J. Starkey
Case No: 2018-001459

SC Court of Appeals

Dear Clerk:

1. The appellate has made every effort to provide the court with a copy of proof of service but the responsible official has denied adequate access to the courts by denying me access to copies. (See Attachment 1)
2. State failed to provide the Appellate counsel upon his request that impeded his six amendment right to be appointed counsel. Also denied effective assistance of counsel for lack the use of counsel.
3. Appellant filed several motions pursuant to Rule 110 of the SCCR to argue these issues but the State failed provide hearing which impeded first amendment rights of the appellate.
4. Appellant made a plea agreement with the State with a consent order for forfeiture to return the appellant property but the State and agency failed to return the property as ordered.

5. Appellant is unable to submit copies to support his argument cause SCDC officials are failing to provide copies of documents which is clear obstruction to the appeal courts See Strickland v Washington,

6. The State failed to indict the appellant within pursuant to former Rule 3(c) or Rule 112 of the SCDC.
