RE: State v. Kendell A. Gamble; Appellate Case No. 2018-001487

Dear Kendell,

At your request I filed a Notice of Appeal. A copy of the appeal packet that I filed with the South Carolina Court of Appeals is enclosed. As part of the appeal packet, I informed the Court of Appeals that I am not aware of any issues that were raised before Judge Seals that could form the basis for appeal. I filed that statement due to my understanding of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. You will please find the statement enclosed as part of the appeal packet.

Also enclosed please find a letter from the South Carolina Court of Appeals. This letter is dated August 20, 2018. I am providing you with this letter at the direction of the Court. You will see from the letter that you have twenty (20) days to inform the Court in writing of any arguable basis that there are issues that are preserved for appeal. In other words, you have twenty (20) days to let the Court of Appeals know the reason(s) why you believe that issues are preserved for appeal. This letter must be sent by you to:

South Carolina Court of Appeals
PO Box 11629
Columbia, SC 29211

As a reminder, please keep in mind that, once your direct appeal is exhausted, you will have one (1) year to file for Post-Conviction Relief.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Hiller
