NOW COMES Appellant, Calvin Phillips, by and through counsel of record, William G. Yarborough III and Lauren C. Hobbis, and would respectfully move this Honorable Court to extend the time to file and serve Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter by thirty (30) days.

Counsel received the transcript from the plea hearing in this case on July 17, 2018. Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter are due to be filed with the Court and served upon the Respondent on August 15, 2018. Counsel respectfully requests this extension due to our office's extensive caseload. Counsel has been simultaneously preparing the opening briefs for United States v. Antonio Crawley, case no. 18-4073 and United States v. Everette Dawkins, case no. 18-4021. Counsel has also been preparing for various trials and evidentiary hearings scheduled for next week.

On August 10, 2018, Counsel contacted counsel for the Respondent, Senior Assistant Attorney General John Benjamin Aplin, for his position on this extension request. Mr. Aplin relayed that he has no objection to this request for an extension of time.

Counsel submits that an extension would ensure adequate preparation of Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter. Counsel makes this request in the ends of justice and her ability to perfect the Appellant's appeal as his advocate.

WHEREFORE, the Appellant respectfully moves this Honorable Court to extend the time to file and serve Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter by thirty (30) days.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM G. YARBOROUGH III, ESQ.

LAUREN C. HOBBS, ESQ.
