Hi Mr. Shearouse how are you today? I hope that this letter meets you on a great day. I'm writing to you concerning my case and a letter that I received from you back in 2016, where you stated that my case Dominic A. Leggett vs State of South Carolina Appellate Case No. 2016-001207, Lower Court Case No 2015 CP2200521 was REMITTITUR to the lower court and stated that my PCR Hearing is Under Adjudement. I'm now at two years and counting on my hearing. I have really been trying to obtain the minutes of my PCR Hearing to no avail. I have been trying to obtain these minutes so desperately because The Honorable Judge Paul M. Burch asked my trial attorney Mr. Ronald Hazzard why didn't I have my Rule 5, because I had just told the court that I never had my entire Rule 5. Mr. Hazzard stated that I was correct I never had my entire Rule 5 where as upon hearing that The Honorable Judge Paul M. Burch stated to my trial attorney Mr. Hazzard and Mrs. Caitlin Bazar Hastings that they had 20 days to get my Rule 5 to me. Here it is August 24, 2018 and I still haven't received my Rule 5, with this not happening it shows that I did not have a fair trial and goes against my RIGHTS. I haven't even spoken to my PCR Hearing attorney Steven Willard Fowler since 2016, he doesn't answer any calls or letters as a matter of fact I just received a letter back that I sent to him marked return to sender not deliverable as addressed. Unable to forward. The address that I have which is Fowler Law Firm 1019 Highway 17 South N. Myrtle Beach, S.C 29582. I apologize if this is a bit much but as you can see I am suppose to be in Society with family by now
