

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In The Court of Appeals

Certiorari to York County
Court of Common Pleas

The Honorable Alison R. Lee, Circuit Court Judge

Appellate Case No. 2016-001553

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,

Petitioner,

v.

TREY A. WILLIAMS,

Respondent.

RETURN TO MOTION TO PROCEED PRO SE

I was retained by Mr. Williams to represent him for the separate matter of obtaining an appeal bond. I was not retained to represent Mr. Williams for the appeal for the above-referenced matter. This has always been the understanding between Mr. Williams and myself. I am of the opinion and belief that this arrangement is proper, because obtaining a bond is a separate and distinct matter from the above-referenced appeal. Therefore, I have no objection to Mr. Williams' motion to proceed pro se on all other matter.

Respectfully submitted,

RE: Trey Williams v. State
Appellate Case No. 2016-001553

I am in need of proceeding pro se as it is clear that the counsel I had whom misrepresented my appeal bond clearly motioned the court informing the "courts" that he is not representing me in this legal case matter. I thought upon hiring him that I was getting effective assistance of counsel in the totality of this case matter however he has filed a frivolous criminality of false documentation regarding my bond and withheld/confiscated documents belonging to me which I am in the process of getting justice in. I am clearly pro se in this case or abandoned by the attorney of record in this case as you see clearly upon the record and I need a prethons of motions filed, records added to the record and my appendix is incomplete which will prejudice me and procedurally default me for federal review etc so here is my "due diligence" in attempt to raise colorable claims upon the broad discretion of this court. I need my pro se rights granted to better protect my constitutional rights... Trey Williams
