APPELLANT LISA FISHER'S MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

(Appellant)

Appellant Lisa Fisher requests under Rule 201, SCRE, that this court take judicial notice of the contents of the related cases, Fisher v. Huckabee, 2017-000743 and Fisher v. Huckabee, 2018-000566 (“Related cases”).

The material to be noticed is material and relevant to this appeal. Appellant contends that the scope of the appeals and the existence of the appeals impacts the decision of this case. It goes to the heart of whether or not, Respondent had authority to take action and whether or not the magistrate’s court and the circuit court had jurisdiction to hear the ejection matter on appeal.

South Carolina Rule 201, Rules of Evidence, provides in part:

- (a) Scope of Rule. This rule governs only judicial notice of adjudicative facts.
- (b) Kinds of Facts. A judicially noticed fact must be one not subject to reasonable dispute in that it is either (1) generally known within the territorial jurisdiction of the trial court or (2) capable of accurate and ready determination by resort to sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.
- © When Discretionary. A court may take judicial notice, whether requested or not.
- (d) When Mandatory. A court shall take judicial notice if requested by a party and supplied with the necessary information.
- (e) Opportunity to Be Heard. A party is entitled upon timely request to an opportunity to be heard as to the propriety of taking judicial notice and the tenor of the matter noticed. In the absence of prior notification, the request may be made after judicial notice has been taken.
- (f) Time of Taking Notice. Judicial notice may be taken at any stage of the proceeding.”

As set forth in the brief, Appellant contends that many of the issues in the case are controlled by the facts set forth in the related cases.

Appellant prays that this court grant this Motion to take judicial notice in its entirety.
