

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

v.

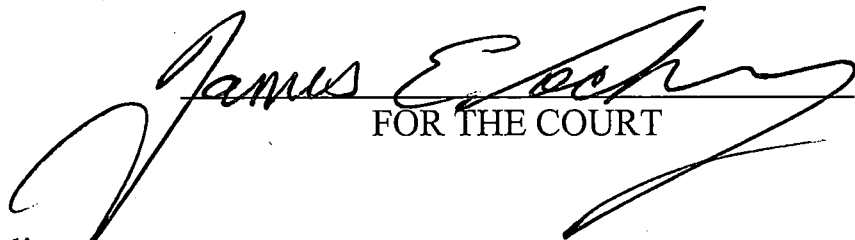

Kendall Leamon, Appellant,

Appellate Case No. 2016-002476

ORDER

Appellant's counsel has filed a motion to be relieved. Counsel explains Appellant is indigent and counsel has been representing Appellant pro bono, but he is not in the position to pay for the costs of the appeal. Counsel further explains that Appellant has been unable to pay the costs for printing the record and briefs due to his indigency, and Counsel has been unable to establish sufficient contact with Appellant.

After careful consideration, this appeal shall be held in abeyance for thirty days for Appellate Defense to screen this matter and to notify this court if Appellant is eligible to receive services. This court will consider the motion to relieve after thirty days.
