v.

State

Appellate
Case nos: 2018-000885

Exhibit attached
of Austin Application

Now Cometh the (Sovereign) to this Courts in the following regards: (1) I have filed an Austin Review per Application because the lower Courts didn't address all issues for my 1st PCR Application 2010-CP-17091. (2) The Dillon County Clerk of Courts
Gwen T. Hyatt didn't file it kept it and, the Attorney Susan B. Hackett refused to contact the clerk about this because she misinterpreted the Austin Review was about the same exact PCR Application she represented me on for an appeal of for the appellate courts. (3) This is proof that the Attorney Susan B. Hackett purposely didn't represent me to a proper standard as an attorney should have on an appeal to have all my issues addressed as I'm entitled (one full bite of the apple) there for she was very ineffective and Dillon County Clerk Gwen T. Hyatt displayed misconduct for keeping my Austin application not filing it.

(4) There for the relief I ask is right to be given and this courts has jurisdiction to overturn this case and can free me, Grant time cut (or) 10 yr plea I asked that didn't receive at per courts stage do to hidden negotiated plea and grant me time served toward it the 10 yr favorable plea. As Missouri v. Frye speaks of as well Inflor v. Cooper.

Respectfully Submitted

Re: Your case
Our file no.: 12-431

Dear Mr. Cabbagestalk:

I wrote you a lengthy letter yesterday addressing all of your concerns contained within your letter dated January 7, 2013. We have spoken by phone regarding these concerns as well. Nevertheless, I will write you again to address the concerns mentioned in your letter. You have asked for the status of your pending PCR appeal. As you know, I have asked the Supreme Court to hold the timelines in abeyance while I get additional transcripts that you insisted I get. You are well aware of this. There is no hold up with the PCR transcript. I will not contact the Dillon County Clerk of Court regarding your PCR application for Austin review because I have not been appointed to represent you in connection with that PCR application.

I hope this letter answers your questions. Thank you for your correspondence.

Sincerely,

Susan B. Hackett
