Re: South Carolina Lottery Commission v. George S. Glassmeyer
Appellate Case No.: 2016-001112

Dear Ms. Allen:

Thank you for your time on the phone this morning. As we just discussed, this is to confirm that in my role as the State Judge Advocate for the South Carolina National Guard, I have been called to State Active Duty to assist with the State's response to Hurricane Florence. I will be on military duty for at least the remainder of this week.

I am counsel to the South Carolina Lottery Commission in the above referenced case, and oral argument is currently scheduled for September 12, 2018. In light of my military obligations and pursuant to S.C. Code Section 25-1-2260, this is to respectfully request that oral argument in this case be rescheduled to a later term of court.

If you need any additional information, please let me know. By copy to my opposing counsel, Mr. Radeker, I am making him aware of this communication with the Court.

Sincerely,

Karl S. Bowers, Jr.
