Petitioner

I, LouShonda Myers, am now timely petitioning for an extension of time to file a Writ of Certiorari. I am petitioning for an extension of time in good faith and not for the purposes of delay. I am not an attorney and am bringing this writ due to the fact that I believe that my constitutional rights have been violated. I am employed and need additional time for research and writing to be able to properly submit this writ. In addition, I have been experiencing some medical concerns that have affected my ability to properly complete the writ; and with the preparations for Hurricane Florence I have been occupied with the safety concerns of my family.

The denial of my motion for rehearing was filed on August 16, 2018 and I received it on August 20, 2018. This extension of time will not cause any undue burden on the other party and is being requested in good faith, and in the best interest of justice. I am requesting an additional thirty (30) days to submit the writ.

Therefore, I am respectfully requesting that the time be extended to and including October 20, 2018 for my writ of certiorari to be submitted.

September 14, 2018.
