Appellate Case No. 2018-001234

Dear Judge Lockemy:

Pursuant to your Order of August 16, 2018, we filed a Motion for Clarification with Memorandum of Review of the Commission Record on August 27, 2018. Your Honor requested in the Order an update as to the status of the Motion for Clarification and as of this date, we have received nothing in response to the Motion, not even a Return.

We have received a Return to our Motion for Rehearing which was made limited to the fact that the Order was issued before the time ran for us to file a Reply to the Return.

In reference to the Return to our Motion for Rehearing, the Attorney General's office expressed no objection to whatever caption the Court feels is appropriate. I have written the Attorney's General's office again concerning the issues that I raised as to the caption both legally and ethically as I am gravely concerned about the ethics of identifying Ms. Cartee and the two defendants, the SC Judicial Department, and the State Accident in any matter outside of the actions within the Commission.

I would sincerely appreciate and would request a hearing and/or a conference before Your Honor concerning all issues, but particularly in reference to the caption. By copy of this letter, I am notifying Counsel for the Defendant of this communication pursuant to the Order of the Court.

Sincerely yours,

Preston F. McDaniel
