Hi Jeremy –

I consent. I think the weather has us all off schedule. Hope you are doing well otherwise.

Sincerely,
Melody

Subject: Extension request for Antwon Goodwin

Melody,

I am going to request a fourth extension for Antwon Goodwin's brief which is now due on Monday (it was due on Friday but that's now a holiday so I assume Monday is the new filing date). I intended to meet with Goodwin prior to filing the brief and I couldn't get a visit scheduled until this Friday due to the storm last week. Given that it's cutting it rather close, I wanted to request one extra week to make sure that I've gone over it with him sufficiently prior to filing. Do you consent to a one-week extension? Thanks!

Jeremy

RE: State of South Carolina v. Antwon D. Goodwin; 2018-000144

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

My Initial Brief of Appellant and the Designation of Matter are due to be filed on September 24, 2018. Due to my heavy State and federal trial and appellate schedules, however, I will be unable to complete my work on these documents by that date. Additionally, I intended to meet with the Appellant to review the brief with him and I have been unable to do so since the last extension was granted, due in large part to difficulties scheduling a visit with his institution during and following Hurricane Florence. Accordingly, I am requesting a one-week extension of time in which to file these documents. There have been three prior extension requests in this matter. I have obtained opposing counsel's consent to this extension request, and I enclose a copy of opposing counsel's email to me indicating the same. Given my intended meeting with the Appellant, I do not expect any further extensions to be necessary. Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions or concerns that the Court may have for me. With my thanks for the Court's assistance in this matter, and my best regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,
