North Charleston,

Appellate Case No. 2017-002621

Respondent,

v.

John G. Singletary Jr.,

Appellant.

Appellant's First Motion for Extension for Proof of Service

Come now the Appellant, John Singletary respectfully move pursuant to Rule 240 for a 90-day extension of time in which to file Poof of Service and Final Brief and Reply Brief. This deadline has not previously been extended and would not pose and adverse affect on the opposing litigant. Appellant seeks additional time due to a certified letter received on Sept. 21, 2019 from Appellant's attorney stating Appellant's attorney was under an interim suspension and could not continue to act as Appellant's attorney. Appellant's attorney has rendered exemplary service however due to this startling revelation I am requesting 90 days to secure new council. The undersigned has communicated with opposing counsel regarding this matter and sent email and letter to opposing council regarding this recent development.
