Re: Walter L. Pepperman II, and T. Ann Pepperman, Appellants, v. Henry H. Edwards, and Pamela J. Edwards, Respondents, Appellate Case No. 2016-002552.

Dear Clerk Kitchings:

My wife and I are the appellants in the captioned appeal. One year ago, we received from your office a letter to the parties dated September 22, 2017. In that letter, your office confirmed that everything we were required to do under the Rules as the appellants had been done. That letter also directed that the respondents must serve and file their final brief by September 30, 2017.

We were never served with any final brief by respondents. We are concerned that a failure by respondents to serve and file a final brief may be holding up a decision on our appeal. If such brief was in fact never served and filed, such failure and disregard of the foregoing directive is at this point causing prejudice to the orderly and timely resolution of our appeal and the Court should proceed to decide this appeal on the existing record.

Respectfully yours,

Walter L. Pepperman II
