Appellant hereby moves pursuant to Rule 263(b), SCACR, for an extension of the time in which to serve and file the Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal. Specifically, Appellant seeks an extension of that time to 30 days from the date that Respondent's brief is presently due of October 8, 2018. If the request is granted, Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal will be due on November 7, 2018. The grounds for this motion are that there is good cause to grant the requested extension, as the following shows:

1. Counsel recently missed time in the office due to illness and then commitments outside of the state. The aforementioned missed time has resulted in significant obligations over the next few days for the undersigned, ahead of the present October 8, 2018 deadline to serve Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter to be included on the record on appeal.
2. The Respondent consents to the requested extension.
3. Appellant has sought one previous extension in this appeal.
4. There is good cause to grant the requested extension.

WHEREFORE Appellant prays for an order extending the time in which to serve and file the Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal by 30 days, to November 7, 2018.

Respectfully submitted,
