Dear Ms. Hopkins,

I am trying to finalize the record. I realize that in my amended designation, I duplicated a defendant document and did not include my opposition. I also note that I did not include pertinent portions of the deposition of John Smoak. Also, there appears to be an error in the designation of defendants (in description of the document). I need these documents in the record and am including them as the documents are being copied, however I wondered if the court wants me to file a Notice of Errata re: my designation or if I need to file a motion for an amended designation.

The record has been a challenge, and I just want to make sure that I adhere to the rules as much as I can.

Please let me know as soon as possible. Thank you.
