RE: Sabrina D.Davis v. Bankers Life And Casualty Company(Case# 2018-001716)

Dear Ms. Kitchings [Mr. Shearouse]:

I am requesting a waiver of the filing fee because this case was submitted to the Appeals Court on August 12, 2014(2014-001867) and ruled that the order was unappealable. An order that affects a substantial right is appealable. The dismissal order issued by the Greenville Circuit Court violated my due process rights and South Carolina law 15-3-20(B). The dismissal of case# 2014CP2300815 was premature because 120 days had not passed from the date of filing the complaint or the summons. Because this court refused to review any errors of law, my refiled case was filed outside the statute of limitations with no protections of tolling attached.

Also, this appeal needs to be expediated because the ruling issued by the circuit court was issued to create delay in this case. The circuit court has ruled that the federal courts have jurisdiction over case 2014CP2300815. I disagree because case# 2014CP2300815 does not meet the federal imposed requirements that grant the federal court subject-matter jurisdiction. and according to U.S.C. 28 § 1257 the only court that can review a state court's decision is the US Supreme Court.

Sincerely,
Sabrina D Davis

* Under Rule 203(d)(1)(B)(iii) and (d)(2)(B)(iii), SCACR, a filing fee is not required if the appeal is from a criminal case including juvenile delinquency matters, or if the appeal is taken by the State of South Carolina, its departments or agencies. Further, no filing fees are required in post-conviction relief cases. Rule 240(d), SCACR.

Re: Sabrina Davis v. Bankers Life (2)
Appellate Case No. 2018-001716

Dear Ms. Davis:

Upon reviewing your motion to waive filing fee, the following deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or your motion will not be considered:

- The caption/title does not comply with Rule 267(a), SCACR. Specifically, it must contain the case caption and the case number of the case for which you are requesting a waiver of the case filing fee.
- A proof of service has not been provided. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR. The proof of service must state the name(s) of document(s) served.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

CLERK
