Re: Breakfield, as Attorney-in-Fact v. Woods
2016-002016

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

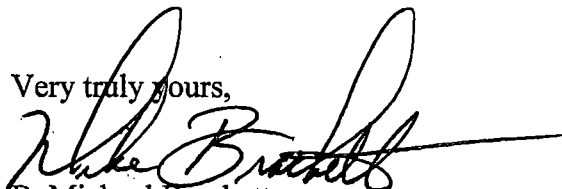

I represent the Respondent. I have just received a copy of Appellant's letter to the court reporter, Mr. Watkins, dated October 2, 2018. Your office was copied on the letter. This is just another instance of the Appellant trying to delay this appeal. He now claims that the transcript of the proceedings below is deficient and should be corrected.

The transcript as delivered to the Appellant was obviously sufficient for Appellant to prepare his initial brief and his designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal, because both were filed and served by Appellant without objection or complaint about the content of the transcript. If the transcript is altered in some way, Appellant will then ask the Court for more time to revise his initial brief and designation. More time; more time; more time; delay, delay, delay.

I served Respondent's initial brief and designation on September 18, 2018. Appellant has apparently elected to proceed without submitting a reply brief. His deadline for serving a reply brief was September 28. I have not received a reply brief as of the date of this letter.

Pursuant to Rule 210, SCACR, Appellant has until October 28 to serve the Record on Appeal. I request that your office notify Appellant of his deadline. If Appellant requests an extension for serving the ROA, I urge the Court to deny such request.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

B. Michael Brackett
