1 (The following proceedings were held July 7-8, 2 2015.)

3 THE COURT: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen.
4 Welcome to this -- we got a two-week term of court
5 starting. I've got this week, and next week you'll 6 have Judge Tanya Gee coming in. But you'll only be 7 needed this week. We worked yesterday until after 8 5:00, we got a lot done. We were here early this 9 morning getting some stuff done.

10 Let me tell you where we are. We're down, I
11 think, to one trial. We had a number of cases on 12 the trial docket that have been resolved. So we're 13 down to one trial, which is probably a two-day
14 trial. What we'll do now is pick that jury this 15 morning and start into the trial of the case, and 16 then sort of see how we run as the day progresses.
17 So what we'll do now is select the jury of 12 people
18 and two alternates. Those who are not selected will 19 be released for the balance of the day with 20 instructions to call back, just in case something
21 else come up. Those who are selected will start
22 serving with me and we'll go through today and 23 perhaps into tomorrow, just depending on where we 24 are in the case.

25 And in order to accomplish that, obviously we

1 have to make sure you're qualified. State law
2 provides for certain qualifying questions which you
3 have meet in order to be qualified. Once we go
4 through the qualifying questions, then I'll have to 5 ask you some particular questions dealing with the
6 first trial. Once we do that, then we'll be in a
7 position to select the jury. And we should have
8 that jury selected within an hour and get started
9 with the trial. Those not selected will, obviously,
10 be allowed to go home.

11 The first process though is to call the roll.
12 The clerk will call the roll in just a few minutes.
13 When your name is called, please stand and identify 14 yourself by name, please tell us where you are 15 employed, if you are working; if you are married,
16 please give us your spouse's employment. It's a
17 simple process. Just stand and, my name is Jack
18 Early, I'm employed by the Judicial Department, and 19 my wife is a homemaker. We'll get moving with that 20 in just a minute.

21 My name is Jack Early. I'm your resident judge
22 of the Second Circuit, which is Bamberg, Barnwell,
23 and Aiken. And I have the privilege of being over 24 here a lot when I'm not else where in the state. We 25 have a great staff we work with. I'm sure you met a

1 number of people this morning. So without any
2 further ado, let's start with the process. So if
3 you would, please stand and raise your right hand,
4 and let the clerk swear you in and we'll go through
5 the rollcall.

6 (Jury pool sworn.)

7 (Clerk calls roll.)

8 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen,
9 I'm going to go through the qualifying questions.
10 If any of these apply to you, please stand, once
11 again identify yourself by name and number, and 12 respond to the question.

13 Do I have any member of the jury panel who is 14 not a citizen of the United States? If so, please
15 stand.

16 Do I have any member of the jury panel who is
17 not a citizen and resident of Aiken County, South
18 Carolina? If so, please stand.

19 Yes, sir. Your name and number?

20 POTENTIAL JUROR: Jeremy Mathis, 102.
21 Edgefield County.

22 THE COURT: You live in Edgefield County?

23 POTENTIAL JUROR: I do.

24 THE COURT: How long have you lived in
25 Edgefield County?

1 POTENTIAL JUROR: Five years.

2 THE COURT: All right. You're not qualified to
3 serve in Aiken County, but you're qualified to serve
4 in Edgefield County. So I'm going to release you
5 now. You may leave.

6 Yes, ma'am?

7 POTENTIAL JUROR: April Danko, number 40. I
8 live in North Augusta.

9 THE COURT: North Augusta is Aiken County,
10 ma'am.

11 POTENTIAL JUROR: Okay.

12 THE COURT: Whereabouts in North Augusta?

13 POTENTIAL JUROR: It's the City of North
14 Augusta, Butler's Mill.

15 THE COURT: That's Aiken County. Thank you for 16 standing.

17 Do I have any member of the jury panel unable 18 to read, write, speak, or understand the English
19 language? Please stand.

20 Any member of the jury panel have less than 6th
21 grade education or its equivalent? If so, please
22 stand.

23 Any member of the jury charge unable to render 24 efficient jury service this week because of some 25 physical or mental infirmity? This normally

1 requires a doctor excuse. If so, please stand.

2 Yes, sir. Your name and number?

3 POTENTIAL JUROR: Johnny Partin, 125. I'm 4 diagnosed with cluster headaches, and I'm having 5 them now.

6 THE COURT: If at any time during the trial of 7 the case, if you're selected, you just tell me if 8 you're having problems with the headaches and I'll
9 address the situation. Thank you. You may stay
10 with us.

11 THE CLERK: Your Honor, he has a doctor's 12 excuse that's supposed to be faxed in, and we 13 haven't received it yet.

14 THE COURT: When it comes in, we'll look at it.
15 Yes, ma'am?

16 POTENTIAL JUROR: 184. My mother-in-law's
17 funeral is today at 3:00.

18 THE COURT: All right. Ma'am, I'll excuse you
19 for the balance of the week. I'm sorry for your 20 loss. You may leave.

21 Do I have any member of the jury panel who has 22 been convicted by guilty plea or trial in a state or 23 federal court of record of a crime punishable by 24 imprisonment for more than one year and your civil 25 rights have not been restored be pardon nor amnesty?

1 Punishable by more than one year means you could
2 have received a sentence of more than one year,
3 regardless of what sentence you actually received.
4 If so, please stand.

5 Yes, sir. Your name and number?

6 POTENTIAL JUROR: 109, Justin McRae. I was
7 charged with manufacturing methamphetamine.

8 THE COURT: Were you convicted or pled guilty?

9 POTENTIAL JUROR: I pled guilty.

10 THE COURT: All right. That will disqualify
11 you. You may leave.

12 POTENTIAL JUROR: May I ask -- I've told y'all
13 before when y'all have asked me about the jury duty,
14 and didn't understand why I came in this time. IN 15 the future if it's --

16 THE COURT: Sir, we'll deal with that in the 17 future. If you get another subpoena, call the clerk
18 of court, give them that information.

19 POTENTIAL JUROR: Thank you.

20 THE COURT: Sorry to inconvenience you.

21 Any member of the jury panel who is clerk or 22 deputy clerk of court, a constable, sheriff or other
23 commissioned law enforcement officer, probate judge,
24 county commissioner, magistrate, or other county
25 officer, or employed within the walls of any

1 courthouse? If so, please stand.

2 Any member of the jury panel who has previously
3 served this year.

4 Do I have any member of the jury panel who has
5 previously served on jury duty in Circuit Court
6 during this calendar year, 2015?

7 Do I have any member of the jury panel who has
8 served on the Aiken County Grand Jury during the 9 past several years? If so, please stand.

10 Mr. Slocum?

11 All right. Juror No. 41, Mr. Darby, where are 12 you? Please come forward.

13 (John Darby comes forward.)

14 THE COURT: Sir, I've got you with a number of 15 prior offenses. Is that correct?

16 POTENTIAL JUROR: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: Why didn't you say something?

18 POTENTIAL JUROR: Didn't think it was more than 19 a year.

20 THE COURT: Well, you had a robbery back in 21 1997.

22 POTENTIAL JUROR: That was shoplifting. It was 23 simple shoplifting.

24 THE COURT: I have to go by what it says on 25 here. All right. I'll disqualify you. You may

1 leave.

2 Juror No. 70, please. Martha Holiday.

3 (Martha Holiday comes forward.)

4 THE COURT: I've got that you were convicted of 5 conspiracy back in 1981. Is that right?

6 POTENTIAL JUROR: Uh-huh.

7 THE COURT: Okay. You're disqualified. You
8 may leave.

9 Ladies and gentlemen, state law also provides 10 for several exemptions to jury service. An 11 exemption means, notwithstanding the fact that 12 you're qualified, you can say, Judge, I just choose
13 not to serve.

14 The first exemption deals with those of you who 15 are 65 years of age or older. If you're 65 or 16 older, you don't have to serve if you don't want to.
17 Do I have anyone that applies to?

18 You're not required to serve more often than 19 once every three calendar years. So if I've had 20 anybody who has served on jury duty in circuit court
21 the last two calendar years, please stand if you'd 22 like to be exempt.

23 You're also not required to serve if you've
24 been on the Grand Jury in the last five calendar
25 years. You may be exempt and choose not to serve.

1 Do I have anyone who's done that?

2 Yes, ma'am. Your name and number?

3 POTENTIAL JUROR: 167, Theresa Spearmon. I
4 can't remember what jury it was on, but --

5 THE COURT: What courthouse was it in?

6 POTENTIAL JUROR: This courthouse.

7 THE COURT: When?

8 POTENTIAL JUROR: I can't remember. I know
9 it's been five years.

10 THE COURT: More than five years ago?

11 POTENTIAL JUROR: Been five years.

12 THE COURT: Within the last five years. Was 13 that the Grand Jury or this kind of jury?

14 POTENTIAL JUROR: It was criminal. I can't 15 specify the difference between grand and --

16 THE COURT: Can you tell me when it was?

17 POTENTIAL JUROR: It's been five years.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Well, that one only goes
19 back three years, so I have to let you stay with me.
20 The Grand Jury is five years, this kind of jury is 21 three years. And we like experienced jurors. We 22 don't have you on the list up here. We just ran you
23 through the --

24 POTENTIAL JUROR: Okay. Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: All right. The next exemption

1 deals with those of you who may have a small child
2 or children. You may be exempt if you have a small ,
3 child or children, they have to be under the age of
4 seven, you have to be their legal custodian, and you
5 are unable to make arrangements for their care if 6 you have to serve this week. Does that apply to 7 anyone?

8 Yes, ma'am. Your name and number?

9 POTENTIAL JUROR: Juror No. 9, Stacie Barrett.
10 I have three small children. It is hard to find
11 childcare.

12 THE COURT: What are their ages?

13 POTENTIAL JUROR: Ten, eight, and one.

14 THE COURT: Well, the ten and eight --

15 POTENTIAL JUROR: The one-year-old. And my mom
16 just had surgery, so it's even harder.

17 THE COURT: Do you work, ma'am?

18 POTENTIAL JUROR: I work in the school system
19 this year for the -- for -- so I'm out for the 20 summer. So today my baby is with my sister-in-law,
21 but she has three kids of her own.

22 THE COURT: Well, state law says if you'd like
23 to be excused, you may.

24 POTENTIAL JUROR: Okay. Thank you.

25 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am, my grandmother. Your

1 name and number, please?

2 POTENTIAL JUROR: 188, Bibian Vega. I babysit
3 my grandson, he's six months, and my daughter works
4 every day.

5 THE COURT: Are you the primary custodian?

6 POTENTIAL JUROR: Uh-huh.

7 THE COURT: No, your daughter has custody of 8 that child.

9 POTENTIAL JUROR: Right. But my daughter works
10 and I babysit my grand.

11 THE COURT: That does not apply to you. It has 12 to be the parent or the legal custodian.

13 POTENTIAL JUROR: Okay.

14 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. Name and number,
15 please?

16 POTENTIAL JUROR: Ashley Pelton, 126. I have
17 an eight-week-old. I do not work on Wednesdays
18 because I keep my child. My grandma has a doctor's
19 appointment tomorrow, and she takes care of my uncle
20 that had traumatic brain injury that --

21 THE COURT: So you need to be -- not tomorrow;
22 right?

23 POTENTIAL JUROR: Right.

24 THE COURT: I'll protect you tomorrow.

25 POTENTIAL JUROR: Thank you.

1 THE COURT: All right. The next exemption
2 deals with those of you who may be a primary
3 caretaker of someone who is 65 or older and disabled
4 and unable to provide for themselves or the primary
5 caretaker for someone who is severely disabled and 6 is unable to care for himself or herself and you're 7 unable to make provisions to provide care of that
8 person. Does that apply to anyone? Please stand.

9 All right. The next exemption deals with those 10 of you who may be attending school at this time or 11 work in some capacity with the school. I know I
12 have a lot of school people here, but if this
13 exemption applies to you, I can't excuse you, but I
14 can transfer you to a term of court which would not
15 interfere with your school activity. I assume I
16 have a lot of school people who were transferred 17 into the summertime.

18 But if I have anyone who is a full-time student
19 or teacher or who works in some capacity with the 20 school, such as a crossing guard, bus driver, and 21 you're unable to serve this week because it would
22 interfere with that school, I can transfer you.
23 Please bear in mind you've got a pretty good week
24 because I'm going to draw one jury and may not need
25 anybody else. You might get transferred to one week

1 where we start on Monday morning and go to Friday
2 afternoon. So this is a good week to serve.

3 Does that apply to anyone?

4 Yes, ma'am. Your number and name?

5 POTENTIAL JUROR: Juror 180, Latonia Thomas.
6 I'm a full-time student online and we go straight
7 through.

8 THE COURT: All right. I can transfer you.
9 When would you like to be transferred to?

10 POTENTIAL JUROR: I have no idea because --

11 THE COURT: Well, if you have no idea, I will 12 choose a week, and that may be a lot worse than this 13 week. This is a great week. But it's up to you.

14 POTENTIAL JUROR: Okay. I'll stay.

15 THE COURT: Thank you.

16 Do I have any member of the jury panel who is 17 employed at the department of corrections at a
18 penitentiary?

19 Ladies and gentlemen, that concludes the list
20 of qualifications and exemptions. It may very well
21 be that you're qualified and no exemptions apply to 22 you, but this week creates an extreme hardship for 23 you; you've had something planned, a vacation,
24 longstanding doctor appointment, any type of 25 personal hardship. I'll be glad to consider that.

1 You can either stand up and tell me or come up and
2 tell me in private. But, beware, I cannot excuse
3 you altogether, I would have to transfer you to
4 another term. And, believe me, these one-trial
5 weeks are not that difficult.

6 Okay. Yes, ma'am?

7 POTENTIAL JUROR: 33, Michelle Cook. Can I
8 come up?

9 THE COURT: You may.

10 (Michelle Cook comes forward.)

11 THE COURT: Good morning.

12 POTENTIAL JUROR: Good morning. I have a 13 prison tour tomorrow with PTI. I'm going -- I'm in 14 PTI right now and we're doing the prison tour
15 tomorrow. I have simple possession of marijuana
16 and shoplifting.

17 THE COURT: Where?

18 POTENTIAL JUROR: In Aiken. And Mr. Routzong
19 is my attorney.

20 THE COURT: I'm going to excuse you.

21 All right. Anyone else?

22 All right. Madam Solicitor, you may call your 23 first case.

24 MS. HALL: The State calls the case of William
25 Herbert McCladdie, Indictment No. 2015-GS-02-1103

1 for burglary in the first degree; Indictment
2 No. 2015-GS-02-1104 for possession of implements
3 capable of being used in a crime; Indictment --

4 THE COURT: Hold on one second, ma'am.

5 Y'all please have a seat while she's calling
6 her case. We'll get him out here in a second.

7 MS. HALL: Indictment No. 2015-GS-02-1105 for
8 possession of a stolen vehicle.

9 THE COURT: All right. Mr. McMillian, are you
10 ready to proceed?

11 MR. MCMILLIAN: I am, Judge.

12 THE COURT: Good morning, Mr. McCladdie. How 13 are you?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Good, Your Honor. How are you
15 this morning?

16 THE COURT: I am well. Thank you for asking.

17 Ladies and gentlemen, the State has called for 18 trial the case of State of South Carolina vs.
19 William Herbert McCladdie. Mr. McCladdie has been 20 indicted for the offenses of burglary in the first 21 degree, possession of implements capable of being
22 used in a crime, and possession of a stolen vehicle.

23 Is that correct?

24 MS. HALL: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: This indictment is not evidence in

1 the case. This indictment is simply a legal
2 document by way this case comes into the courtroom.
3 Mr. McCladdie has pled not guilty to each of the 4 indictments, and by pleading not guilty, he's 5 afforded the constitutional right of being presumed
6 to be innocent unless the State is able to prove his
7 guilt to you beyond a reasonable doubt as to reach
8 of the separate indictments. So please do not infer
9 anything or have any presumption from the fact that 10 he's been indicted. He's pled not guilty. This is 11 not evidence, this is simply the way we come into 12 the courtroom.

13 But in order to start the trial of this case, I
14 have to ask you several questions. And if any of 15 these questions apply to you, please stand, once
16 again give me your name and number, and we'll 17 address the question.

18 First question: Do I have any member of the 19 jury panel that is -- Mr. McCladdie, would you stand
20 and face the jury panel, please? Thank you. You
21 may be seated.

22 Do I have any member of the jury panel that is 23 related by blood or marriage now or in the past, or 24 do you now or have you in the past had a close
25 personal or social relationship with the defendant,

1 William Herbert McCladdie? If so, please stand.

2 I'm going to ask those same questions after I
3 read the list of potential witnesses in trial of the 4 case. If you're in the courtroom, please stand.

5 Mike Hess, H-E-S-S. Thank you, sir. You may 6 be seated.

7 Brent Hess with the New Ellenton Police
8 Department. This is Mr. Hess over here. Thank you.

9 Tyler Roberts with the Aiken County Sheriff's 10 Office. Thank you.

11 Wallace (Tommy) Brock with the Aiken County
12 Sheriff's Office.

13 Michael Douglas Clark. Mr. Clark, thank you.
14 Face the jury panel.

15 Evelyn Clark.

16 Jerry Ayers, Jr.

17 David Bonner, B-O-N-N-E-R.

18 Do I have any member of the jury panel related 19 by blood or marriage, or do you now or have you in 20 the past had a close personal or social relationship
21 with any of the potential witnesses who I have just 22 listed in the trial of this case? If so, please
23 stand.

24 The lawyers involved in the case, representing
25 the State from the Second Circuit Solicitor's

1 Office, Mrs. Cassie Hall, Mr. Jay Slocum. Thank
2 you.

3 Mr. McCladdie is being represented by
4 Mr. McMillian and Ms. Alves; Mr. Bradley McMillian,
5 Ms. Wallis Alves.

6 Any member of the jury panel now or in the past
7 related by blood or marriage to any of the lawyers
8 or do you now or have you in the past had a close
9 personal or social relationship with any of the 10 lawyers? If so, please stand.

11 Yes, ma'am?

12 POTENTIAL JUROR: Donna Hattaway, number 66. I
13 grew up with Cassie.

14 THE COURT: You grew up with Mrs. Hall?

15 POTENTIAL JUROR: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: How close were y'all?

17 POTENTIAL JUROR: Her sister was my best friend
18 all throughout school, so I grew up pretty close.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Well, one of my main
20 responsibilities as the trial judge is to ensure
21 that both the State and the defendant receive a fair
22 trial. And not saying that you can't be fair and 23 impartial, but sometimes it's difficult to listen to 24 one of your best friends be the lawyer, and not be a
25 little impartial to her growing up in Jackson. So

1 I'll excuse you from the trial of this case. Thank
2 you. You may stick with us, please. I can't let
3 you go back to Jackson quite yet.

4 Any member of the jury panel now or in the past
5 have had legal services performed by you by any of 6 the four lawyers? If so, please stand.

7 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury panel, let me
8 explain a little about the process that we're going
9 to go through and how it works. During the trial of 10 any case that we try all over the state, during that 11 trial we have, actually, two judges who participate;
12 the law makes me in my position the judge of the 13 law. In other words, I instruct the jurors as to 14 what the law is and what the State has to prove to 15 you beyond a reasonable doubt, the various elements
16 of the various offenses. So I have to tell you what
17 the law is, and you take an oath to accept the law
18 as I give it to you, notwithstanding the fact you
19 may have some preconceived idea of what you think
20 the law is or what it should be. You have to set
21 that aside and accept the law as the judge of the 22 law gives it to you. So I'm the judge of the law,
23 that's my main responsibility as the judge.

24 I have some collateral responsibilities; one is 25 to rule on the admissibility of evidence. And when

1 I rule on the admissibility of evidence, I may have
2 one witness who says it's green, and one witness who
3 says it's red; one witness may say it's Wednesday,
4 and one witness may say it's Saturday. That's all
5 admitted into the trial of the case but, obviously,
6 they're different. And that's where the most 7 important judge comes into play, and that's the 8 judge of the facts. So we have two judges: The 9 judge of the law and the judge of the facts.

10 The judge of the facts are 12 jurors sitting 11 collectively in the jury box, acting as the judge of 12 the facts. So your responsibility is to listen to 13 the witnesses as they testify, and you have to 14 determine and judge the credibility of the witnesses
15 who testify, and that is to determine the 16 believability or who's telling the truth and what 17 the true facts are. And once you decide what those 18 true facts are then, as the judges of the facts, you
19 have judged the witnesses and you've determined what 20 the true facts are, you apply those true facts to
21 the law as I give it to you, and you'll be in a
22 position to render a true and just verdict.

23 So not withstanding the fact that I stand up
24 here with a black robe and tell you what the law is,
25 the most important judge in the trial of the case is

1 the judge of the facts. You determine what the true
2 facts are in the case.

3 Now, having explained that, my question is
4 simple: Do I have any member of the jury panel who
5 is unable to perform that important civic duty of 6 listening to witnesses and determining the true
7 facts? Do you have any personal beliefs, religious 8 beliefs, political beliefs, any kind of belief, that 9 would keep you from performing that important civic
10 duty? I need to know now. Please stand.

11 Ladies and gentlemen, this case -- it is 12 alleged -- and these are allegations. The State has 13 the burden of proving these allegations to you
14 beyond a reasonable doubt. It is alleged that here
15 in Aiken County on or about February 21 of this 16 year -- back on February 21 of 2015, that the 17 defendant willfully and unlawfully entered a
18 dwelling located at [REDACTED] Foreman Street in Jackson
19 without permission and without consent of the owner
20 with intent to commit a crime in that dwelling in 21 which took place during the nighttime. That would 22 be the crime or the offense of burglary in the first 23 degree.

24 It's further alleged on that same date,
25 February 21, 2015, that he had in his possession

1 certain tools or implements capable of being used in
2 a crime, specifically a pry bar or crowbar. And
3 last, it's alleged that on that same date, February
4 21 of 2015, that the defendant had in his possession
5 unlawfully or had in his possession a stolen vehicle
6 which was a 2000 Nissan Altima valued at less than 7 $2,000 belonging to one Jerry Ayers.

8 So these are allegations. The allegations deal
9 with an alleged burglary on February 21, 2015 at [REDACTED]
10 Foreman Street in Jackson, South Carolina. It's 11 further alleged that he had in his possession a tool
12 capable of being used in a crime, a pry bar, and 13 also had in his possession a stolen vehicle.

14 My question is this: Any member of the jury
15 panel know anything about this case? Have you read
16 anything about it, seen anything about it on TV,
17 computer, heard anything about it on the radio?
18 Anybody discussed it with you? Any independent
19 knowledge of the facts in this case or the 20 allegations in this case? If so, please stand.

21 Do I have any member of the jury panel who is a
22 member of or a contributor to organizations which 23 have as their primary concern the promotion of law
24 enforcement or the promotion of certain groups who
25 promote the enforcement of laws such as SADD, MADD,

1 CAV, those types of organizations? Any members of
2 the jury panel that belong to those organizations or
3 a member? If so, please stand.

4 Any member of the jury panel who you or your
5 immediate family has been the victim of a burglary
6 or a robbery or some type of theft? If so, please
7 stand. All right. Please remain standing. We live
8 in a society today that it's not usual to have been 9 the victim of a crime. And I ask this question in 10 all cases. The question is this: The fact that you
11 have been the victim of some type of criminal 12 activity, would that in any way preclude or keep you
13 from being a fair and impartial juror in the trial
14 of the case? Can you set aside your personal 15 experience and try this case based solely on 16 testimony from the witness stand after you decide
17 what the true facts are and apply those facts to the 18 law as I give it to you? Are you able to do that?
19 So that's the question.

21 call-back number, if you would please call back this 22 afternoon after 6:00 to see if there's any
23 additional requirement that you come in and follow
24 the instructions of the information on the machine.
25 I'm going -- everybody else remain seated. I'm

1 going to release my jurors for the balance of the
2 day. If I don't get to see you again, I'm going to
3 thank you on behalf of the citizens of Aiken for 4 accepting this strong civic responsibility of being
5 here today. So have a pleasant summer and a
6 pleasant week and call back after 6:00. Thank you.
7 Everybody else remain seated.

8 (Balance of jury pool released at 11:24 AM.)

9 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, I'm going to 10 let you step back into the jury room just a second
11 to see where we are and we're going to go. So
12 please step back there just a second.

13 (The jury exits the courtroom at 11:26 AM.)

14 THE COURT: Ms. Hall, what do we have to 15 do before we bring the jury back?

16 MS. HALL: The Jackson v. Denno motion, Your
17 Honor.

18 THE COURT: Do we need to do that before
19 openings or can we do that at lunch? Are you going 20 to mention it in opening statements?

21 MS. HALL: No, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. Any objection to doing
23 the Jackson v. Denno over lunch, Mr. McMillian?

24 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge --

25 THE COURT: They're not going to mention it in

1 opening.

2 MR. MCMILLIAN: No, Your Honor, I don't have
3 any objection to that.

4 THE COURT: Well, any objection to anything?

5 MR. MCMILLIAN: No, sir.

6 THE COURT: Anything for the record before we 7 get started?

8 MR. MCMILLIAN: A little break would be nice,
9 Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: We just had one.

11 MR. MCMILLIAN: I didn't know if we were free
12 to go also, so I didn't use the restroom.

13 THE COURT: All right. We'll take a little 14 bathroom break. Everybody can go except for
15 Mr. McMillian.

16 MR. MCMILLIAN: Thank you, Judge.

17 (Short break.)

18 THE COURT: Is the State ready to proceed?

19 MS. HALL: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Mr. McMillian, are you ready?

21 MR. MCMILLIAN: Yes, sir, Judge.

22 THE COURT: Bring the jury in, please.

23 (The jury enters the courtroom at 11:44 AM.)

24 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury
25 panel, the first thing we have to do before we start

1 the trial of the case is you have to be sworn in for
2 this particular trial. So please stand and raise
3 your right hand, and the clerk will administer the 4 oath.

5 (Jury sworn.)

6 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen,
7 let me give you a brief overview of where we're
8 going and a few of the ground rules. First let me
9 remind you, in this particular case the fact that 10 Mr. McCladdie has been indicted for burglary in the 11 first degree, possession of implements capable of 12 being used in a crime, possession of a stolen
13 vehicle, please bear in mind this is simply the 14 formal legal document by way this case comes into 15 the courtroom. It notifies the defendant of the 16 charges against him. This is not evidence in the 17 case, so don't infer anything by the fact that he's 18 been indicted.

19 He's plead not guilty to all three indictments
20 and, obviously, a plea of not guilty, as I told you
21 earlier, he has the presumption of being presumed to 22 be innocent until the State has been able to prove
23 him guilty to you beyond a reasonable doubt.

24 And you'll be asked to consider each of the 25 indictments separate and apart from the other. The

1 State has the burden of proving each indictment to
2 you beyond a reasonable doubt. And I will explain
3 the elements of the various offenses, I'll explain
4 to you presumption of innocence, I'll explain to you
5 the term reasonable doubt at the conclusion of the 6 case, along with, as I said, the elements of the 7 three indictments.

8 Now, the way the case will proceed is, since
9 the State has the burden of proof, in just a few
10 minutes when we start, they will call their 11 witnesses first; they have the burden of proof. At 12 the conclusion of the State's case, if the defendant
13 chooses to do so, they can present their side of the 14 case, their defense. And then at the conclusion of 15 that, if the State has any reply witnesses, they can 16 put up their witness, and that will take care of all
17 of the testimony.

18 Prior to the testimony being given, each side
19 has a right to make an opening statement. Please
20 bear in mind that the opening statement is not 21 evidence in the case; it's simply a roadmap that 22 each lawyer would give you as to what they intend to 23 prove, show, what the important facts are, what to 24 look for, but that is not evidence in the case.

25 Once we do the opening statements, the

1 testimony, then the lawyers will have an opportunity
2 to make a final argument. And at the conclusion of
3 that, then I will instruct you or charge you on the 4 law, and you'll be given the case to start your 5 deliberations.

6 As I told you earlier, you'll be the judges of 7 the facts in the case. So it will be up to you to 8 determine and judge the credibility or believability
9 of the witnesses who testify in the case. You're 10 all grown and mature and you've dealt, over your 11 lives, with husbands, wives, children, husbands,
12 employees, employers, friends; you know how to judge
13 when someone is telling you the truth. Please don't 14 leave that common sense out here when you go into 15 the jury room to deliberate. Use that common sense
16 to determining what the facts are in the case. As I
17 said, you'll take those true facts and apply them to
18 the law as I give it to you, and you'll be in a
19 position to render a verdict at the conclusion of 20 this case.

21 I try to run a very efficient courtroom; I try
22 to start right on time, I try to limit my breaks to
23 very short periods of time so we can move along, I
24 make lawyers call witnesses one after another and 25 not have to wait on anybody. Not withstanding the

1 fact that we're trying to run an efficient trial in
2 the courtroom, I'm not trying to run a race. So if
3 at any time during the trial of the case you need a
4 break, you need to use the bathroom, you need a
5 something to drink, you get tired of listening to
6 me, whatever, raise your hand. I want to make sure
7 you're comfortable throughout the trial of the case,
8 so if you need anything at all, raise your hand and
9 I'll make sure whatever you need is met.

10 I'll ask you each time we take a break or you
11 leave the courtroom, the rule is this: Please do
12 not don't start any type of deliberation or 13 discussion of the case until all of the evidence is 14 in, the lawyers have made their final arguments, and 15 I instruct you on the law of the case. So you can
16 talk about anything you want to in the jury room,
17 but please don't start discussing the case until 18 we've concluded everything. It may be that last 19 witness or that last final argument that has some 20 bearing on where we're going.

21 When we take our lunch break, we'll take a
22 lunch break until about 2:15. If we're here
23 tomorrow at lunch, I'll feed you lunch. I'll get 24 you some breakfast in the morning or some snacks in 25 the morning. But at the lunch break, I need one

1 person out of the 12 regular jurors to serve as my
2 spokesperson, that's the foreperson. So y'all try
3 to select a foreperson for me and let me know after 4 lunch.

5 In just a few minutes, the lawyers will make 6 their opening statements and we'll start with the 7 testimony. And, like I said, we'll take lunch
8 around 1:00 til about 2:15, come back and try to go
9 till around 5:00 this afternoon. Is that an
10 imposition to anybody? We'll get pretty far down
11 the road if we can follow that schedule. So I'm 12 going to turn it over to the lawyers. The solicitor
13 will go first with their opening statement, followed
14 by the defendant.

15 Any objections to my opening remarks by the 16 State?

17 MS. HALL: Nothing from the State, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: By the Defense?

19 MR. MCMILLIAN: Nothing from the defendant,
20 Judge.

21 THE COURT: Mrs. Hall.

22 MS. HALL: May it please the Court.

23 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

24 MS. HALL: Mr. McMillian, Judge..

25 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, on the night

1 of February 20th of this year, the defendant in this
2 case, William McCladdie, broke into Ms. Evelyn
3 Clark's house just six weeks after her sister died
4 and left that house to her. And on the night of
5 this burglary, William McCladdie was found right
6 outside the burglarized house hiding in the bushes
7 and laying on top of a crowbar. And in his pocket,
8 he had a key to a stolen vehicle that had been 9 backed into the driveway of this house. And in that
10 stolen vehicle was William McCladdie's driver's
11 license and William McCladdie's social security card
12 and multiple items that had been stolen from inside
13 the house.

14 William McCladdie is charged with burglary in 15 the first degree, possession of tools capable of 16 being used in a crime, and possession of a stolen
17 vehicle. Now, possession of a stolen vehicle and 18 possession of tools capable of being used in a crime
19 are exactly what they sound. Burglary in the first 20 degree occurs when someone enters the dwelling of 21 another with the intent to commit a crime, without 22 consent, and when that entering or remaining occurs
23 in the nighttime.

24 And throughout this trial you're going to hear
25 a lot of details about this house, and the word

1 dwelling is likely to come up. And a dwelling is
2 simply a building where a person sleeps. And a
3 person doesn't always have to be in that house, they 4 don't even have to be in that house most of the 5 time, and a person can have multiple dwellings. And 6 the house burglarized in this case belonged to 7 Ms. Evelyn Clark.

8 In this case, the State, myself and Mr. Slocum,
9 we have the burden to prove the defendant's guilt
10 beyond a reasonable doubt. But that doesn't mean
11 all doubt. Reasonable doubt is a doubt that would 12 cause a reasonable person to hesitate to act. In 13 this case, I ask that you pay close attention as all
14 of the evidence is presented and you hear from each
15 of the witnesses. And at the conclusion of this 16 case, you'll be firmly convinced of the defendant's
17 guilt. Thank you.

18 THE COURT: Mr. McMillian.

19 MR. MCMILLIAN: Thank you, Your Honor.
20 Ms. Hall.

21 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, I spent a lot
22 of time yesterday and last night thinking about what
23 to tell y'all, what to come up here and say to you
24 this morning to give you a roadmap of where we're 25 going. And I think the judge's opening remarks are

1 probably the best start. He swore you in and you
2 took an oath that, in spite of the indictment, in
3 spite of the charge, those were just formal
4 documents, that my client, seated here with
5 Ms. Alves and I, Mr. William McCladdie, is innocent
6 until the State proves him guilty beyond a
7 reasonable doubt. What does that mean?

8 Ladies and gentlemen, you swore to the judge
9 and swore to the court that you would give him the 10 benefit of what we call the presumption of 11 innocence. That's a really fancy legal term that I
12 struggle with how to define for people. You know,
13 my mom always asked me, well, what does that even 14 really even mean? And I thought about it last 15 night, and this is where I kind of came to: If 16 y'all all would, close your eyes with me for a
17 minute and think about the nicest person you know,
18 the best person you know, whoever that person may 19 be. Me personally, it's my grandfather. My 20 grandfather was a deacon in the church, he sat on 21 the school board, just a genuinely great man.

22 Now, I want you to imagine when you woke up
23 this morn ing before you came here to the courthouse
24 and before you heard anybody's name, that you saw on 25 the news that whoever your person is, maybe it's

1 your mother or your grandmother or your grandfather,
2 an old teacher, whoever, imagine their face was on
3 the news; imagine they were charged with burglary in 4 the first degree, possession of burglary tools,
5 possession of a stolen vehicle. I can tell you when 6 I imagine that, there's an immediate pit in my
7 stomach, a knot. Something says this just isn't so,
8 this can't be.

9 That's where we start here today, ladies and
10 gentlemen. That's why the scales are tipped.
11 They're tipped in his favor. And you've agreed to 12 hear both sides of the case, to take all the 13 evidence into account and then make a determination.
14 And I'm confident, ladies and gentlemen, at the 15 close of all this, that you'll go back there and 16 return a verdict of not guilty. Thank you.

17 THE COURT: You may call your first witness.

18 MR. SLOCUM: Judge, may we approach first?

19 (Sidebar conference.)

20 THE COURT: Some things don't go as --
21 normally, I run the show. But I gave the lawyers
22 the impression that we would do opening statements
23 and then start with the witnesses right after lunch,
24 and they were relying on me when I said that. So
25 maybe I'm jumping the gun in trying to do too much.

1 before lunch. So we'll have an earlier lunch. It's
2 now 12:00. We'll take a lunch break until about
3 1:15 and just have a little longer afternoon.

4 Please don't discuss the case with anyone,
5 don't let anyone discuss it with you. When you get
6 back, try to select me a foreperson amongst the 12
7 of you. And we'll plan to go till about 5:00 this
8 afternoon. Tomorrow we'll have breakfast for you
9 and I'll buy your lunch tomorrow. Fair enough?
10 Don't discuss the case with anyone. Have a pleasant
11 lunch.

12 Everybody else remain seated, please.

13 (The jury exits the courtroom at 11:58 AM.)

14 THE COURT: All right. The Jackson v. Denno
15 will take how long?

16 MR. SLOCUM: Ten or 15 minutes max.

17 THE COURT: All right. Be back at 1:00 and 18 we'll do the Jackson v. Denno. What else do we need
19 to do?

20 MR. SLOCUM: That's it, Judge.

21 THE COURT: All right. Y'all be back here at 22 1:00.

23 (Luncheon recess at 12:02 PM.)

24 THE COURT: All right. You may call your first
25 witness on the Jackson v. Denno.

IN-CAMERA EXAMINATION OF TYLER ROBERTS BY MR. SLOCUM

61

1 Q. No alterations or deletions?

2 A. No, sir.

3 MR. SLOCUM: Judge, at this time, the State
4 moves Court's Exhibit A for purposes of this hearing
5 only.

6 THE COURT: Any objection?

7 MR. MCMILLIAN: None, Judge.

8 BY MR. SLOCUM:

9 Q. Deputy Roberts, could you please read that card
10 for us aloud.

11 A. Yes, sir. You have the right to right to 12 remain silent. Anything you say can and will be 13 used against in a court of law. You have the right
14 to talk to an attorney and have them present with 15 you while you're being questioned. If you can't 16 afford an attorney, one will be appointed to 17 represent you before questioning, if you wish. You
18 can decide at any time to exercise these rights and 19 not answer any questions or make any statements.

20 Do you understand each of these rights I have 21 explained to you? Having these rights in mind, do
22 you wish to talk to us?

23 Q. Did Mr. McCladdie acknowledge he understood
24 those rights?

25 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Did he sign anything?

2 A. No, sir; it was verbal.

3 Q. It was a verbal waiver?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. Did you ask him any questions after that?
6 Anything at all?

7 A. I did, yes, sir.

8 Q. What did you ask him?

9 A. What was his purpose being here at the 10 residence, at the incident location.

11 Q. And what did he tell you?

12 A. First it was that he was walking up and down
13 the road, which would be Main Street, right in front
14 of the residence. Next was the vehicle. I asked
15 him about the vehicle itself that was parked --
16 backed into the location itself. He told me that he 17 had driven the vehicle and borrowed it from a friend
18 over in Augusta that -- he did give me a name, but 19 it was a street name.

20 Q. Were you able to follow up with anybody based 21 on what he told you?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. Did he ever say he wanted an attorney?

24 A. No, sir.

25 Q. Did he ever say he didn't want to talk anymore?

IN-CAMERA EXAMINATION OF TYLER ROBERTS BY MR. SLOCUM

1 A. No, sir.

2 Q. Did he say anything else to you that you can
3 remember from that night --

4 A. No, sir.

5 Q. -- other than those two things you just told
6 us?

7 A. No, sir.

8 Q. As a deputy, have you ever had the chance to 9 encounter anyone under the influence of alcohol or 10 drugs?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. Did Mr. McCladdie give any appearance of being 13 under the influence of alcohol or drugs?

14 A. He denied --

15 THE COURT: Wait a minute. You're asking him
16 for an opinion?

17 Q. Did he appear, on that night of the 21st?

18 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, I'm going to object to 19 that.

20 THE COURT: Sustained. He can describe his 21 demeanor, how he looked and acted, but he can't give 22 an opinion.

23 BY MR. SLOCUM:

24 Q. Did you smell any alcohol about his person?

25 A. No, sir, no alcohol. No signs of bloodshot

1 eyes, slurred speed, staggered walking; nothing that
2 appeared to be an indicator.

3 Q. Thank you. Was this Miranda warning given on 4 audio or video recording?

5 A. Yes, sir, it was.

6 Q. And do you have that video today?

7 A. No, sir, I don't.

8 Q. Why not?

9 A. Our protocol is, when it's to assist another
10 agency, we do upload all of the videos, but there
11 is -- if it's not requested by that agency, we --
12 after a 90-day period, it actually deletes itself
13 off of our system. And at that time, that's what...

14 Q. When you were dispatched out, what agency were 15 you dispatched to assist?

16 A. Jackson Police Department.

17 Q. And did anybody from Jackson ever ask you to 18 send your in-car video over?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Have you since gone back and checked your 21 evidence inventory to see if your in-car video is 22 still available?

23 A. Yes, sir, I did.

24 Q. And is it available?

25 A. No, sir.

IN-CAMERA EXAMINATION OF TYLER ROBERTS BY MR. MCMILLIAN

65

1 Q. Did you draft a formal report from the
2 sheriff's office for this incident?

3 A. No, sir.

4 MR. SLOCUM: I beg the Court's indulgence.

5 BY MR. SLOCUM:

6 Q. Deputy Roberts, did you coerce the defendant
7 into giving you a statement? Did you threaten him
8 in any way?

9 A. No, sir.

10 Q. That's all of the questions I have for you.
11 Please answer any questions Mr. McMillian may have.

12 THE COURT: Mr. McMillian, cross?

13 MR. MCMILLIAN: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Stand up, please.

15 MR. MCMILLIAN: Certainly, Judge. I apologize.

16 EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. MCMILLIAN:

18 Q. Deputy Roberts, you say that you were 19 dispatched out at 12:15. Was that an arrival time?

20 A. Yeah. Well, 88 time is actually when I --

21 THE COURT: What is 88 time?

22 THE WITNESS: I apologize, Your Honor. In the 23 area, actually arriving on scene at that time.

24 BY MR. MCMILLIAN:

25 Q. And after -- when did you provide Mr. McCladdie

1 his rights?

2 A. After we detained him and I -- when we located
3 him, detained him, and put him in front of my patrol
4 car, at that time is when I did it.

5 Q. Why did you put him in front of your patrol
6 car?

7 A. Protocol.

8 Q. Was the dash cam running?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. While you gave him his rights?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And that's when you claim that he made these 13 differing statements about why he was on scene?

14 A. Correct; after I Mirandized him.

15 Q. And I just want to be clear, that video was 16 recorded and did exist?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. And has sense, what, fallen off the server?

19 A. It erases itself after 90 days. So many videos
20 are uploaded, and it erases after 90 days.

21 Q. You didn't think it pertinent to pull a copy of 22 that and provide it to the arrest -- or the 23 investigating agency?

24 A. Typically they request it through our agency
25 and then we provide it to them. As far as I know,

IN-CAMERA EXAMINATION OF TYLER ROBERTS BY MR. MCMILLIAN

1 there's a process that goes with that.

2 THE COURT: As far as you know, what?

3 THE WITNESS: As far as I know, Your Honor,
4 there's a process or a form. I'm not 100-percent
5 sure on that.

6 THE COURT: Don't guess, please.

7 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

8 MR. MCMILLIAN: Beg the Court's indulgence just 9 one moment.

10 BY MR. MCMILLIAN:

11 Q. Did you -- do you have any way of stating with 12 any sort of certainty when the video was erased?

13 A. No, sir.

14 Q. Do you have an approximation?

15 A. February 21st, 90 days after that.

16 Q. Ninety days. So February, March, April. It
17 would have been available May 21st-ish?

18 A. Roughly, depending on uploaded videos.

19 MR. MCMILLIAN: I don't have any further
20 questions. But I would like to be heard at the 21 appropriate time.

22 THE COURT: Anything on redirect?

23 MR. SLOCUM: Nothing on redirect, Your Honor.

24 We have more witnesses.

1 witness, please.

2 MR. SLOCUM: State calls Officer Brent Hess
3 from the New Ellenton Police Department.

4 BRENT HESS

5 being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

6 THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am.

7 THE CLERK: Have a seat in the witness box.
8 State your full name for the Court and spell your
9 last.

10 THE WITNESS: Brent Wayne Hess, H-E-S-S.

14 A. City of New Ellenton Police Department.

15 Q. And what are your duties as a police officer?

16 A. I'm a police officer.

17 Q. All right. Were you working for New Ellenton
18 on February 21st of this year?

19 A. Yes, sir, I was.

20 Q. Did you have a chance to become involved with 21 the defendant, Mr. McCladdie?

22 A. Yes, I did.

23 Q. Can you point him out and describe him for the 24 record.

25 A. He's the gentleman wearing the blue and white

1 plaid shirt, I believe it's blue jeans.

2 MR. SLOCUM: Your Honor, let the record reflect
3 the witness has identified the defendant.

4 BY MR. SLOCUM:

5 Q. How did you become involved in this case?

6 A. I responded down there as backup, as signal
7 one, backup for Officer Hess in reference to a
8 break-in possibly in progress.

9 Q. And this is in Jackson?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Under Jackson PD jurisdiction?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. So you, like Deputy Roberts, were there to 14 assist?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. At what point did you come in contact with the 17 defendant?

18 A. I was speaking to a deputy on, I believe, Main
19 Street, the road right in front of the house, and I
20 heard something moving around in the bushes. When I
21 focused my attention on the bushes, I saw the 22 suspect trying to cover himself with leaves from the 23 bushes.

24 Q. How far away from the house at [REDACTED] Foreman were 25 these bushes, just guesstimation?

IN-CAMERA EXAMINATION OF BRENT HESS BY MR. SLOCUM

70

1 MR. MCMILLIAN: Objection, Judge; calls for
2 speculation.

3 THE COURT: Overruled.

4 If you know, how far?

5 THE WITNESS: I can only give a guesstimation,
6 Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Don't guess.

8 THE WITNESS: I couldn't tell you exact
9 distance.

10 BY MR. SLOCUM:

11 Q. To what side of the house, left or right, were 12 these bushes?

13 A. If you're facing the house, it would be the 14 left side of the house.

15 Q. Okay. Could you see the house from where the 16 bushes are?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. And you said you saw the defendant in the 19 bushes. What did you do next?

20 A. I advised the defendant to show me his hands.

21 Q. And did he show you his hands?

22 A. No, he did not.

23 Q. What did you do next?

24 A. I advised him a lot louder to show me his 25 hands.

IN-CAMERA EXAMINATION OF BRENT HESS BY MR. SLOCUM

71

1 Q. Then what happened?

2 A. And about that time, officers, deputies
3 responded to my location where I was at, and we
4 started getting hands on the suspect.

5 Q. Was he detained?

6 A. Yes, he was.

7 Q. And at that point, did you ask him any
8 questions while he was detained?

9 A. No, sir, I did not.

10 Q. Did you read him any Miranda rights at that 11 point?

12 A. No, sir, I did not.

13 Q. Did he make any statements to you at that 14 point?

15 A. He made several.

16 Q. What were they?

17 A. It was, what are y'all doing, I'm just walking
18 around, I'm waiting on a friend. There were several 19 statements that he was making on the way back to the 20 patrol car.

21 Q. And at any point in time from the time you
22 apprehended him as you're going back to the patrol
23 car, did you ask him any questions or interrogate
24 him?

25 A. No, sir, I did not.

1 Q. And were you present when Deputy Roberts read
2 him his Miranda rights?

3 A. I do not believe so, no, sir.

4 Q. But you didn't ask him any further questions
5 after that point either?

6 A. No, sir.

7 THE COURT: Did you ask him any questions?

8 THE WITNESS: No, sir, I did not -- I'm sorry,
9 Your Honor. I did ask him to be quiet please.

10 THE COURT: Well, that's not a question.

11 THE WITNESS: That was when we were putting him
12 in the back of the patrol car. He just wouldn't be 13 quiet.

14 BY MR. SLOCUM:

15 Q. This all happened on the night of February 20th
16 into the night of the 21st February, 2015; correct?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. Did he say anything to you or any other
19 statements made to you before he left the scene that 20 night?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. What were they?

23 A. He made statements in reference to that he was 24 dropped off there, he was waiting on a friend to 25 come pick him up. He was asking questions of why

1 are we in his car. And as he was leaving, being
2 transported to ACDC, he made the statement, I put on
3 a good show, don't I?

4 Q. That's all the questions I have for you,
5 Officer Hess. Please answer any Mr. McMillian may 6 have for you.

7 THE COURT: Those last statements that you say
8 he made, were those in response to questions by you
9 or he was just talking?

10 THE WITNESS: He was just talking, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Mr. McMillian.

12 MR. MCMILLIAN: Thank you, Judge.

13 EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. MCMILLIAN:

15 Q. You described the bushes. Which side of the 16 property were you on?

17 A. I was in the front of the property.

18 Q. [REDACTED] Foreman Street or the adjacent property?

19 A. Foreman Street.

20 Q. Okay.

21 MR. MCMILLIAN: I don't have anything further.

22 THE COURT: Thank you.

23 Redirect?

24 MS. HALL: Nothing on redirect.

25 THE COURT: You may step down.

1 Any other witnesses?

2 MR. SLOCUM: No, sir. That's all in terms of
3 Jackson v. Denno.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 Any witnesses?

6 MR. MCMILLIAN: Yes, sir, Your Honor. We'd
7 call William McCladdie to the stand.

8 WILLIAM MCCLADDIE
9 being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

11 THE CLERK: Have a seat in the witness box.
12 State your full name for the Court and spell your
13 last.

14 THE DEFENDANT: William McCladdie,
15 M-C-C-L-A-D-D-I-E.

16 EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. MCMILLIAN:

18 Q. Mr. McCladdie, do you remember February 21st of 19 2015 --

20 A. Yes, sir, I do.

21 Q. -- when you were taken into custody?

22 A. Yes, sir, I do.

23 Q. Did any deputies or any officers ever read you
24 your Miranda rights?

25 A. No, sir, they didn't.

IN-CAMERA EXAMINATION OF WILLIAM MCCLADDIE BY MR. SLOCUM

75

1 Q. Do you recall making any statements?

2 A. No. I didn't.

3 MR. MCMILLIAN: I beg the Court's indulgence.

4 BY MR. MCMILLIAN:

5 Q. Did you make any statements regarding that
6 being your car?

7 A. No, sir, I didn't.

8 MR. MCMILLIAN: Nothing further, Judge.

9 THE COURT: Cross?

10 EXAMINATION

11 BY MR. SLOCUM:

12 Q. Mr. McCladdie, you had the key to that car in 13 your pocket, didn't you?

14 A. No, sir, I didn't.

15 MR. SLOCUM: Nothing further; Your Honor.

16 MR. MCMILLIAN: No questions, Judge.

17 THE COURT: All right. You may step down.

18 Next witness, Mr. McMillian.

19 MR. MCMILLIAN: I don't have any, Judge.

20 THE COURT: Anything in reply?

21 MR. SLOCUM: State calls Mike Hess with Jackson

22 Police Department.

23 JAMES MICHAEL HESS

24 being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

25 THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am.

IN-CAMERA EXAMINATION OF JAMES MICHAEL HESS BY MR. SLOCUM

76

1 THE CLERK: Have a seat in the witness box.
2 State your full name for the Court and spell your
3 last.

4 THE WITNESS: Officer James Michael Hess,
5 H-E-S-S.

6
7 BY MR. SLOCUM:

8 Q. Officer Hess, were you working with Jackson PD
9 on February 20th and 21st of 2015?

10 A. Yes, sir, I was.

11 Q. And did you come in contact with the defendant
12 on that date?

13 A. Yes, I did.

14 Q. How was that -- how did that happen?

15 A. On that particular date and time, prior to that 16 time at 2355, Mr. Clark came to me and advised me
17 that he sees a vehicle at his deceased aunt's house
18 backed up to the door and that no one should be
19 there.

20 Q. So 2355, that would be 11:55 on the 20th;
21 correct?

22 A. That's correct. I'm sorry.

23 Q. All right. Please continue.

24 A. Upon arrival, I observed a primer-colored
25 vehicle backed up to the door --

IN-CAMERA EXAMINATION OF JAMES MICHAEL HESS BY MR. SLOCUM

77

1 THE COURT: What color?

2 THE WITNESS: Primer-colored, sir.

3 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

4 THE WITNESS: Gray.

5 BY MR. SLOCUM:

6 Q. All right. And what did you do after you got
7 to the house and saw the car?

8 A. I touched the hood, the hood was warm. I went 9 to the back and got the tag and I started securing
10 the residence itself. I called the Aiken County
11 Sheriff's Office dispatcher and advised her of the 12 tag. As I was walking around, I was checking doors
13 and windows to see if the house was vandalized or 14 broken into.

15 As I went around to the back side of it, the 16 Aiken County Sheriff's Department advised me that 17 the car came back as stolen out of Richmond County.
18 I then got on the radio and started requesting for 19 backup. As I was walking around to the side, I saw
20 a window that was busted, and that's the reason I
21 was calling for assistant units.

22 Q. Okay. And what did you do while the assistant
23 units showed up?

24 A. I sat on the house waiting for them to get
25 there.

78

1 Q. You waited for them to get there?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. And when they got there, at what point after 4 that did you come into contact with the defendant?

5 A. Once they started detaining him, my -- Officer
6 Hess from the New Ellenton Police Department started
7 screaming let me see your hands, and we all
8 proceeded over to him.

9 Q. To the bushes?

10 A. To the bushes, yes.

11 Q. Can you describe what the defendant is wearing,
12 please.

13 A. Blue shirt, plaid o= in color with little white
14 stripes on it.

15 MR. SLOCUM: Your Honor, let the record reflect
16 Officer Hess has identified the defendant.

17 BY MR. SLOCUM:

18 Q. What, if anything, did you find on his person
19 prior to his arrest?

20 MR. MCMILLIAN: Objection, Your Honor. This is 21 outside the scope of what we put up with
22 Mr. McCladdie.

23 MR. SLOCUM: Judge --

24 MR. MCMILLIAN: This doesn't have anything to 25 do with the Denno hearing. This is strictly --

IN-CAMERA EXAMINATION OF JAMES MICHAEL HESS BY MR. SLOCUM

79

1 MR. SLOCUM: It -- it --

2 THE COURT: Hold on.

3 MR. MCMILLIAN: This is strictly regarding the
4 statement, Your Honor; whether he was Mirandized,
5 whether he was questioned, whether he made any
6 statements.

7 THE COURT: What's this got to do with the
8 statements?

9 MR. SLOCUM: Judge, for purposes of Denno
10 hearing itself, we're challenging the credibility of 11 the witness that they put up on behalf of the 12 defense and their determination of the Jackson v.
13 Denno. We're simply attacking the credibility of 14 the witness for purposes of --

15 THE COURT: You can ask him.

16 BY MR. SLOCUM:

17 Q. What, if anything, did you find on the 18 defendant?

19 A. I found a flashlight, a pocketknife, and a key.

20 Q. Okay. And a key to what?

21 A. It belonged to the vehicle that was backed in.

22 THE COURT: How do you know it belonged to that
23 vehicle?

24 THE WITNESS: Because that was the key they
25 used to get the vehicle out of the area.

1 THE COURT: What now?

2 THE WITNESS: When the wrecker service came
3 up --

4 THE COURT: That key turned the car on?

5 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: Anything else?

7 MR. SLOCUM: No, sir.

8 THE COURT: Anything?

9 MR. MCMILLIAN: No, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Any additional witnesses?

11 MR. SLOCUM: No, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Any argument by the State?

13 MR. SLOCUM: Judge, the statements made after

14 Deputy Roberts advised Mr. McCladdie of his rights,

15 they were a complete reading of those rights for

16 which Deputy Roberts testified he acknowledged, and

17 he never invoked his right to an attorney, never

18 invoked his right to silence. He responded to one

19 question asked by Deputy Roberts, what are you doing

20 in the area. And the other spontaneous statements

21 made prior to and after the reading of Miranda are

22 admissible as they are not of a custodial

23 interrogation by the law enforcement in this case.

24 THE COURT: He wasn't in custody when he made
25 those last statements?

1 MR. SLOCUM: He was in custody, he wasn't
2 interrogated.

3 THE COURT: You said a noncustodial statement.

4 MR. SLOCUM: It was a custodial statement, but 5 it was spontaneous as he was not being
6 interrogated --

7 THE COURT: I understand.

8 All right. Mr. McMillian?

9 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, I think with first
10 regarding the voluntariness, we don't believe the 11 statement was voluntary. He testified that he 12 didn't say any of these things.

13 Judge, the second ground for my objection would 14 be a Rule 5 violation. By my records, it appears
15 that we sent a Rule 5 request on March 5th
16 specifically requesting any and all statements made
17 by -- written or recorded statements made by the 18 defendant.

19 We were not provided any notice of any sort of 20 statement until, I believe, maybe about a week and 21 some change ago --

22 THE COURT: Well, what's that got to do with
23 Jackson v. Denno?

24 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge --

25 THE COURT: Isn't that the spoliation of

1 evidence?

2 MR. MCMILLIAN: -- I didn't know anything about
3 the fact that this video existed or that this video
4 may show Miranda or that this video would contain
5 any statements he might have made until today.

6 THE COURT: The video is gone.

7 MR. MCMILLIAN: Yes, sir. And that's my issue.
8 The State had notice because the Solicitor's Office
9 is presumed to know about everything law enforcement
10 has.

11 THE COURT: Well, that doesn't have anything to 12 do with whether or not the waiver was given or 13 whether or not the statement was voluntary under 14 Jackson v. Denno. You may move to preclude the 15 statement because they didn't comply with Rule 5,
16 but I don't think that's a Jackson v. Denno
17 violation.

18 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, then we'd just argue as 19 to the voluntariness, that this was not a voluntary
20 statement, and would like to reserve the Rule 5
21 objection for the appropriate time.

22 THE COURT: Certainly.

23 I find that by the preponderance of the 24 evidence that the Miranda warnings were given and 25 that the statement was voluntary by the

1 preponderance of the evidence, and it will be
2 admitted subject to your objection under Rule 5.
3 And the jury can give it whatever weight, if any, it
4 deserves. And, obviously, they have to find it was
5 voluntary beyond a reasonable doubt. So I'm going
6 to allow it at this particular point in time.

7 All right. Mr. Slocum, why was it not turned 8 over?

9 MR. SLOCUM: Judge, you want me to respond to 10 that?

11 THE COURT: Yes.

12 MR. SLOCUM: Judge, the statements that were
13 heard today were discovered by the State the exact
14 same time Mr. Bradley was notified. We found about 15 it a week or a week and a half ago and immediately
16 turned and called him by phone to give him notice.

17 THE COURT: Why didn't you know about it?

18 MR. SLOCUM: When we started preparing this 19 case for trial, when we started meeting with our 20 officers, is when we started learning about these 21 other statements. And we immediately notified
22 Mr. McMillian upon --

23 THE COURT: So you didn't know about it until 24 just recently either, and when you found out about 25 it, they were already erased, by protocol, by 90

1 days?

2 MR. SLOCUM: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: When did you find out about it?

4 MR. SLOCUM: The statements?

5 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

6 MR. SLOCUM: The end of last week.

7 THE COURT: So it was more than 90 days?

8 MR. SLOCUM: Yes, sir. More than 90 days after 9 February 21st of this year.

10 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, I'm not alleging any
11 specific wrongdoing on the part of the Solicitor's
12 Office, but, I believe, under Rule 5, in the spirit
13 of discovery, is that the State is presumed to have 14 knowledge of these things.

15 THE COURT: Do you have a case that says they 16 presume to have knowledge of a statement that they 17 didn't have in their file and learned about it when 18 they interviewed the officer?

19 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, I believe -- if you can
20 give me a few minutes, I may can find something.
21 But I believe if the officer has it and didn't
22 include it in the file, that's the State's burden,
23 Judge, to provide any and all statements, any and 24 all statements written or recorded that my client
25 may have made inculpatory or exculpatory. And in

1 failing to, I guess, investigate the case or check
2 with the other law enforcement agencies, this
3 spoliation occurred. The video essentially was 4 erased because something was recorded over it.

5 THE COURT: When was he arrested?

6 MR. MCMILLIAN: He was originally arrested,
7 Judge, on February 21st --

8 THE COURT: Same night?

9 MR. MCMILLIAN: Yes, sir. And if our -- I
10 believe we filed our Rule 5 request on March 5th, as 11 I told you earlier. We held a preliminary hearing
12 in this matter on May 6th of 2015, just inside the 13 90-day timeline that Officer Roberts testified to,
14 and still no mention was made of any of these 15 statements. There was no mention made of any 16 statements other than he was Mirandized at that 17 time.

18 And now, after that video has fallen off of the 19 server, now that's it's spoliated, we're hearing
20 about it a week before trial. I just don't think 21 it's fair to let the statements in, in lieu of this
22 violation.

23 THE COURT: So all that's going to be precluded
24 are these statements that he was just walking up and 25 down the street and made a good showing.

1 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, I'd argue that any
2 statements he made --

3 THE COURT: Well, that's all he testified to.

4 MR. MCMILLIAN: Well, not just Officer Roberts,
5 but any of the officers, because we didn't find out
6 about them, literally, until, like Mr. Slocum said,
7 last week. I believe it's the burden of the 8 officer, it's the burden of the State, to fill out a
9 supplemental report, to make --

10 THE COURT: Well, show me a case that says
11 that.

12 MR. MCMILLIAN: -- to put somebody on notice of 13 statements.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, if we may just have a
16 few moments to look into it. I wasn't expecting
17 this issue to come up with the video.

18 THE COURT: All right. We're going to start
19 the trial of the case. When you get to the point
20 that you intend to talk about anything that the 21 defendant said by way of statement, we'll stop right
22 there and we'll do a proffer. Both of y'all will 23 have an opportunity while the other is testifying to 24 do research while you're sitting there.

25 MR. MCMILLIAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Anything else?

2 MR. SLOCUM: Nothing from the State, Judge.

3 THE COURT: Well, I find it odd if you've got
4 somebody charged with burglary in the first degree
5 and you give him Miranda warnings and you talk to 6 them in the police car and got an in-car camera
7 going on, why in the world would you not reserve it?

8 MR. SLOCUM: Judge, I can clear that up.

9 THE COURT: Well, clear it up.

10 MR. SLOCUM: Deputy Roberts and Officer Brent
11 Hess with New Ellenton and Aiken County were there
12 to assist --

13 THE COURT: Well, I understand that. But 14 they're part of it.

15 MR. SLOCUM: That's right. Because they
16 weren't the agency handling the case, they don't
17 fill out the general sessions form report and dump
18 all their evidence. Pursuant to their protocol,
19 they put it in evidence, and if requested by the 20 other agency, it's then sent --

21 THE COURT: Well, that doesn't appeal to me. I
22 mean, if you've got somebody charged with burglary
23 in the first degree and they're looking at life in 24 prison and you've got a video of the statement
25 in-camera [sic] video of the Jackson v. Denno and

1 you know the case is active and you were part of the 2 arresting team that took place that night and
3 assisted, you don't have any duty or any obligation
4 to maintain that statement?

5 MR. SLOCUM: I can understand that, Judge. But
6 according to their protocol --

7 THE COURT: What if they were trying to do that 8 to you? You'd be raising cane and jumping up and 9 down for keeping it out.

10 MR. SLOCUM: Yes, sir. I'm just relaying what 11 they told me in terms of what they do when --

12 THE COURT: Well, I understand what they're 13 telling you, and they're being honest about it, but 14 it doesn't make it right.

15 MR. SLOCUM: Well, 25, 30 years ago, there was 16 no such thing as a video or audio recording and we 17 just --

18 THE COURT: But we aren't 25 or 30 years ago.

19 MR. SLOCUM: Right.

20 THE COURT: And it's something that the police
21 use as an investigation technique and something --
22 they asked for all statements. That statement was 23 in existence when they sent you the material, the 24 Rule 5 material, and during that timeframe, it just 25 erases itself or however it goes. That doesn't

1 appeal to me.

2 MR. SLOCUM: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: When you get to that point, stop.

4 All right. Call the jury in, please.

5 (State's Exhibit Nos. 1-62 marked for
6 identification.)

7 (The jury enters the courtroom at 1:37 PM.)

8 THE COURT: Okay. Sorry we're running a little 9 late. But we've been in here since 1:00 trying to 10 get some matters resolved. I haven't been sitting
11 back there watching TV.

12 Have y'all selected the foreperson?

13 THE FOREMAN: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: Congratulations.

15 All right. You may call your first witness.

16 MR. SLOCUM: Thank you, Your Honor. The State
17 calls Mr. Jerry Ayers.

18 JERRY AYERS

19 being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

20 THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am.

21 THE CLERK: Have a seat in the witness box.
22 State your full name for the Court and spell your
23 last.

24 THE WITNESS: Jerry Ayers, A-Y-E-R-S.

9 A. I live with my mother. I'm an in-care home
10 [sic] provider for my mother. I take care of her.

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. What happened that morning?

15 A. I came outside and my car was gone.

16 Q. About what time was this?

17 A. It was before sunup, I believe. Yeah, it was;
18 right when the sun was coming up.

19 Q. Was your car locked the night before?

20 A. No, sir, it wasn't.

21 Q. Why was that?

22 A. I just usually didn't lock it, you know. I
23 just didn't lock it.

24 Q. Where was the key to that car?

25 A. I keep my key on the inside of the car in the

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF JERRY AYERS BY MR. SLOCUM

1 top center right of the car, if you're driving like
2 this. It's a little thing that comes up like that.
3 And the reason I do it is my key is broken off, the
4 little latch part, and I can't connect it to another
5 key ring or anything. And it's small, I always lose
6 it all the time, so I keep it in my car.

7 (Demonstrating)

8 Q. You keep it in the sunglass thing you flip 9 down?

10 A. Yes, sir. Yes, sir, the sunglass thing.
11 That's proven to be a mistake.

12 Q. Did you give anybody permission that morning to 13 take your car?

14 A. No, sir, I did not.

15 Q. Did you give the defendant, Mr. McCladdie,
16 permission to take your car?

17 A. No, sir, I did not.

18 Q. Do you know him at all?

19 A. No, sir, I do not.

20 Q. What color was your car on the morning of 21 February 8th, 2015?

22 A. It was tan, beige -- like a tan color.

23 Q. When did you report that car stolen to the 24 police?

25 A. A couple of days later.

1 Q. Why did you wait?

2 A. I just -- I just couldn't believe it was gone.
3 I couldn't believe my car was stolen. I park it
4 right by the window of my house. And I just
5 couldn't believe it was gone. And I don't drink or
6 anything like that. And I kept on thinking, maybe I
7 forgot it somewhere or something or maybe I did let
8 someone borrow it. And I sat there and I called
9 around. And then the next day, I did the same
10 thing, I called around and said, have you seen my 11 car? Did I leave my car over there or anything like
12 that?

13 And nobody had saw it or anything, so I decided
14 that it did get stolen, so I called and made a
15 police report. I should have done that right away.

16 Q. When did you do that? When did you call the 17 police?

18 A. A couple days after that.

19 Q. Okay. How long had you had that car?

20 A. Let's see. About six months. Before that, my 21 father had it for years.

22 Q. Got it from your father?

23 A. Yes, sir. He gave it to me.

24 Q. So you'd been leaving your key inside the car
25 for six months because you couldn't attach it to

1 something else?

2 A. Yes, sir. I kept on losing it.

3 Q. And was it ever taken six months prior to
4 February 8th?

5 A. No, sir.

6 Q. And how much is that car worth?

7 A. Not much. It's worth about $580, $600.

8 Q. Where does that number come from?

9 A. From right here. I've got it in a -- it's a
10 devaluation from the insurance company or something.

11 Q. Fair enough. Did you get that car back?

12 A. Yes, sir, I did.

13 Q. And how were you notified about getting that 14 car back?

15 A. A female officer from South Carolina called me
16 one day and she said that they had recovered my car
17 in a burglary and told me to go pick it up at the 18 impound.

19 Q. Did you go pick it up at the impound yard?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. And where was that? Was that in South
22 Carolina?

23 A. South Carolina, yes, sir.

24 Q. What color was the car when you got it back?

25 A. It was primer gray.

94

1 Q. Different color than it was on February 8th?

2 A. Yes, sir. It was --

3 THE COURT: What? Primer red?

4 THE WITNESS: Primer gray. And the front end,
5 when I drove the car, the -- I'm not a mechanic.

6 Excuse my ignorance. It was just click, click,
7 click, and it just felt like it was going to fall
8 apart when I got it back.

9 BY MR. SLOCUM:

10 Q. Was it handling different than it was on --

11 A. Completely differently. I thought it was going
12 to fall apart, literally, going down the road.

13 Q. Mr. Ayers, I want to show you some pictures
14 here. These are State's Exhibit 31, 32 and 33. If 15 you could just, first off, tell me, do you recognize 16 what's in those pictures?

17 A. Yes, sir. That's the back of my car.

18 Q. 32 and 33, please, sir.

19 A. Again, the back of my car, tag.

20 Q. Do those pictures accurately reflect your car
21 as it was February 20th and 21st of this year?

22 A. You mean, before it was stolen?

23 Q. After.

24 A. Yes, sir. That's what it looks like now.

25 Q. Is that how it was when you got it back from

1 impound yard?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. Have there been any -- other than the color,
4 obviously, has anything been doctored on those 5 photos?

6 A. No, sir. It looks exactly like that now.

7 MR. SLOCUM: Judge, State moves Exhibits 31,
8 32, 33 in to evidence.

9 THE COURT: Any objection?

10 MR. MCMILLIAN: No objection.

11 (State's Exhibit Nos. 31, 32, 33 admitted in to 12 evidence.)

13 BY MR. SLOCUM:

14 Q. If you could take a look at those again,
15 Mr. Ayers. That color is the color of your car
16 still today?

17 A. Yes, sir. And I forgot to mention the hub cabs
18 are off.

19 Q. Is that your tag on the back of that car?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. Did you give anyone permission to take your car
22 into South Carolina?

23 A. No, sir, I did not.

24 MR. SLOCUM: I beg the Court's indulgence.

4 A. It was tan, like a --

5 Q. Not primer gray?

6 A. No, it wasn't primer gray. No.

7 Q. Did you -- did you get your key back?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Where did you get it from?

10 A. From the impound.

11 Q. Same key that was broken on the top?

12 A. Same key.

13 Q. Mr. Ayers, thank you. That's all of the 14 questions I have. Please answer any Mr. McMillian

2 A. Not that I know of, no, sir.

3 Q. Any family know?

4 A. Possibly.

5 THE COURT: He just said he didn't know.

6 Q. Did your father know?

7 A. Yes, my father knew. Yes, sir.

8 Q. Any other family know?

9 A. No. No one else. I made it a point, of 10 course, not to let anyone know. Obviously, that 11 wasn't good enough.

12 Q. And you testified you don't know my client?

13 A. No, I do not.

14 Q. And you don't know who actually stole your car?

15 A. No, I do not.

16 MR. MCMILLIAN: Nothing further, Judge.

17 THE COURT: Anything on redirect?

18 MR. SLOCUM: Nothing from the State, Judge.

BY MS. HALL:

10

Q. Good afternoon. Officer Hess, where do you work?

12

A. Jackson Police Department.

13

Q. And in what capacity?

14

A. I'm the patrolman, investigator, narcotics officer.

15

Q. What all does that job entail?

17

A. I -- traffic enforcement, crime scene investigations.

18

Q. How long have you been with the Jackson Police Department?

20

A. Approximately 30 years.

22

Q. Were you in law enforcement prior to going to the Jackson Police Department?

23

25

Q. When did you start your career in law

1 enforcement?

2 A. In 1987.

3 Q. What law enforcement training have you had over
4 the years?

5 A. Narcotics investigations, crime scene
6 investigations, and photography school.

7 Q. Were you working with Jackson Police Department
8 on the night of February 20th, 2015?

9 A. Yes, I was.

10 Q. How did you become involved in this case?

11 A. At 11:55 on the 20th of February I was sitting 12 stationary radar on what we call Highway 125 in the 13 median. That's pretty much where I run my radar.
14 An individual pulls up in a pickup truck by the name
15 of Doug Clark. He comes to me and says, Officer
16 Hess, I've got a vehicle at my deceased aunt's house
17 that's backed up to the door, and it's not supposed
18 to be there. I advised him to stay where he's at 19 and proceeded down to the address [REDACTED] Foreman
20 Street.

21 Q. Is [REDACTED] Foreman Street within Aiken County?

22 A. It's in the city of Jackson, Aiken County, yes,
23 ma'am.

24 Q. Okay. Can you explain how that house sits on 25 Foreman Street and the other streets surrounding the

1 house?

2 A. Foreman Street comes down, Main Street crosses.
3 The residence we're talking about is on the corner
4 of Foreman and Main Street.

5 Q. What street does the front of the house
6 actually face?

7 A. Main Street.

8 Q. Okay. What did you observe when you pulled in 9 to [REDACTED] Foreman Street?

10 A. When I pulled in to the residence, I observed a 11 vehicle backed up to the door. I got out of my 12 vehicle, of course, touched the hood of the car, it
13 was still warm, walked around --

14 Q. Let me stop you for a second. You said you
15 touched the hood of the car. What did that indicate
16 to you?

17 A. That it's freshly been parked there.

18 Q. All right. Please continue. What did you do
19 next?

20 A. I then walked around the vehicle, saw the tag,
21 advised Aiken County Sheriff's Department what I had
22 through our dispatch, and started walking around,
23 securing the residence itself, checking doors,
24 windows, shining my flashlight through the house,
25 seeing if anybody was inside or if there was any

1 forced entry.

2 As I was walking around the residence, Aiken
3 County Sheriff's Department advised me that the 4 vehicle was stolen out of Richmond County. I then
5 proceeded back to my patrol car. As I was going, I
6 observed a window that looked like it was jimmied or 7 broke, so I --

8 THE COURT: You observed a window that looked 9 like what?

10 THE WITNESS: Jimmied or broke.

11 THE COURT: Jimmied or broke?

12 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

13 I then called the Aiken County Sheriff's
14 Department and requested for back-up assistance.

15 BY MS. HALL:

16 Q. Did you notice any other indication of forced 17 entry to any other parts of the house upon your 18 initial observation?

19 A. Not in the initial observation, no, ma'am. I
20 pulled the doors, front door, side door, and walked
21 around and saw the window. That's when I started
22 requesting for backup.

23 Q. You said you pulled on the doors. Were both
24 the front door and the side door locked?

25 A. That's correct.

1 Q. Okay. And what did you do after making your
2 round? Who did you contact after --

3 A. Aiken County Sheriff's Department, and
4 requested my closest backup, which would be New
5 Ellenton Police Department at the time too.

6 Q. Okay. Do you know about how long it was before
7 backup arrived?

8 A. Roughly 10 or 15 minutes, give or take.

9 Q. Okay. And where were you while you were 10 waiting on backup?

11 A. I parked my car in front of the vehicle so the 12 vehicle couldn't leave and just kept my vehicle
13 there at that location until backup arrived or 14 assistance came in.

15 Q. Okay. So you stood back on the driveway by the 16 primer gray car?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. What other law enforcement agencies arrived on 19 scene?

20 A. New Ellenton Police Department and Aiken County
21 Sheriff's Department pulled up.

22 Q. Okay. And once they arrived, what happened
23 next?

24 A. I wanted to get in touch with the keyholder of 25 the house so we could make entry inside the house

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF JAMES MICHAEL HESS BY MS. HALL

103

1 and see if anybody was in there or if anything was
2 going on. I had -- New Ellenton and Aiken County
3 were sitting on Main Street while the other officers
4 were coming to me, and we were trying get a plan on
5 how we were going to hit the house.

6 Q. Okay. And where were the other law enforcement
7 officers positioned once they arrived?

8 A. Aiken County was on the corner of Foreman and 9 Main; New Ellenton was on Main Street itself. I was 10 on Foreman and two other officers were with me on 11 Foreman. And I was getting the keyholder to get me
12 the key to the residence.

13 Q. And who did you get the key from?

14 A. From Doug Clark, the guy that came to me about 15 his deceased aunt.

16 Q. Okay. And when you were on scene and the other
17 officers had arrived, what, if anything, did you
18 hear?

19 A. As I was trying get a game plan on how we were 20 going to hit the house, I heard an officer screaming
21 let me see your hands, let me see your hands. That 22 was going in front of the residence. Myself and the 23 other officers took off running towards -- to the 24 other officer that was screaming. As we were going
25 into a bushy area adjacent to the house itself,

1 that's when we saw Mr. McCladdie laying down.

2 Q. Okay. And these bushes, can you explain in
3 relation to the house, was it more of the front yard
4 or the back yard?

5 A. I'd say more of the back yard.

6 Q. The back yard of the front of the house?

7 A. Back yard on the front of the house, yes,
8 ma'am.

9 Q. Okay. And if you're looking at the house on 10 Main Street, was he found to the left or right of 11 the house?

12 A. To the left of the house.

13 Q. Okay. What did you observe upon getting over
14 to the bushes where Mr. McCladdie was found?

15 A. The officers were still in there hollering let 16 me see your hands. Mr McCladdie had his hands
17 underneath like this and wouldn't show his hands to 18 start off with. The officers then started grabbing
19 him and getting his hands free. Once they got him
20 cuffed and stood him up, there was a pry bar laying
21 underneath him.

22 Q. Okay. Did you take that pry bar in to
23 evidence?

24 A. I did.

25 Q. Were you wearing gloves at that time?

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF JAMES MICHAEL HESS BY MS. HALL

105

1 A. I was not at that time.

2 MS. HALL: Your Honor, permission to approach
3 the witness?

4 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

5 BY MS. HALL:

6 Q. Officer Hess, I'm showing what's been
7 previously marked State's Exhibit 45. Do you
8 recognize that?

9 A. I do.

10 Q. And what is that?

11 A. This is the pry bar that was found at the 12 location underneath Mr. McCladdie.

13 Q. And that's the pry bar that you took in to 14 evidence?

15 A. Yes, ma'am.

16 Q. And did it stay in the custody of the Jackson
17 Police Department until you brought it here today?

18 A. Yes, ma'am.

19 MS. HALL: Your Honor, at this time, the State
20 would move to enter State's Exhibit 45 in to
21 evidence.

22 THE COURT: Any objection?

23 MR. MCMILLIAN: No objection.

24 (State's Exhibit No. 45 admitted in to
25 evidence.)

1 BY MS. HALL:

2 Q. Officer Hess, what was relevant about finding
3 the crowbar there that night?

4 A. Well, once we started to look at the house, we
5 realize that the house was burglarized, it was 6 broken into. The pry bar itself lines up to the 7 markings of the door itself that was pried open.

8 Q. Okay. Going back to finding William McCladdie
9 in the bushes, the man you found there, do you see
10 him in the courtroom today?

11 A. I do.

12 Q. Can you please describe him and what he's 13 wearing?

14 A. Blue shirt, white stripes, plaid.

15 MS. HALL: Your Honor, please let the record
16 reflect the witness has identified the defendant.

17 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

18 BY MS. HALL:

19 Q. Officer Hess, once William McCladdie was take 20 into custody, what did you do?

21 A. I was trying to -- well, I patted him down for 22 weapons, of course; I took several items out of his 23 pocket --

24 Q. What did you find in his pocket?

25 A. I found a flashlight, a pocketknife, and a key.

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF JAMES MICHAEL HESS BY MS. HALL

107

1 Q. And what kind of key was it?

2 A. The key that went to the vehicle that was
3 backed up to the residence.

4 Q. The 2000 Nissan Altima?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. Were any of these events captured on the dash
7 cam of your patrol vehicle?

8 A. My patrol car, since the first of the year,
9 hasn't had a camera at all. You could -- every 10 night, I would make sure dispatch was aware I didn't 11 have a camera on it until we got one back in our 12 unit.

13 Q. After the defendant was searched, what did you
14 do next?

15 A. I did -- I Mirandized him and I put him in my 16 patrol car.

17 Q. Okay.

18 THE COURT: Let's hold on just a minute.

19 Mr. Foreman, ladies and gentlemen, if y'all
20 would step out just a second, I need to go over a
21 quick matter outside of your presence. Don't 22 discuss the case. We'll be back in just a few

24 (The jury exits the courtroom at 1:58 PM.)

25 THE COURT: All right. We're at the point of

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF JAMES MICHAEL HESS BY MS. HALL

1 the trial where he's going to talk about Miranda
2 warnings as we did in the Jackson v. Denno; is that
3 correct?

4 MS. HALL: Your Honor, Mike Hess actually was
5 not present for any of the statements. He did
6 Mirandize the defendant prior to putting him in the 7 car, even though he had already been Mirandized.
8 But he was not present when the defendant made
9 statements. So he would not be testifying as to any 10 of those statements.

11 THE COURT: So he's just going to testify about 12 giving him Miranda warnings?

13 MS. HALL: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: But he didn't elicit any statement
15 from him?

16 MS. HALL: That is correct.

17 THE COURT: Any objection to that?

18 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, I would just ask why he 19 didn't testify at the Denno hearing with regard 20 to --

21 THE COURT: Because they chose not to put him
22 up, that's why.

23 MR. MCMILLIAN: -- making any Mirandizing --

24 THE COURT: Because the witness they put up was 25 the one who gave him Miranda and answered the

1 questions, I assume.

2 Is that correct?

3 MS. HALL: Yes, Your Honor. Officer Hess
4 Mirandized him before he was placed in the vehicle
5 after all of this occurred.

6 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to allow
7 that.

8 MS. HALL: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Bring the jury back in,
10 Mr. Whittle.

11 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, at this point it may be 12 prudent to find out if they're planning to introduce 13 any statements he may have made to Officer Hess. We 14 may have to have a Denno hearing on that.

15 THE COURT: She just said that --

16 MS. HALL: There are no statements from Mike
17 Hess --

18 THE COURT: She just said that plain as day.

19 MR. MCMILLIAN: I apologize, Judge.

20 THE COURT: Well, pay attention.

21 (The jury enters the courtroom at 2:00 PM.)

22 THE COURT: You may continue.

23 MS. HALL: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 BY MS. HALL:

25 Q. Officer Hess, you stated that you yourself

1 Mirandized the defendant.

2 A. That's correct. Yes, ma'am.

3 Q. Okay. And what does that mean?

4 A. I read him his rights.

5 Q. Okay. And what did you do after you read him
6 his rights?

7 A. I put him in my patrol car.

8 Q. Okay. And what did you do after he was 9 apprehended and placed into your patrol vehicle?

10 A. Had an officer watch my patrol vehicle while we 11 went ahead and searched the house and made
12 residence -- went inside the residence of the 13 keyholder.

14 Q. Okay. And once you started going into the 15 house, did you observe any indication of forced 16 entry to the house?

17 A. Yes, I did. The door itself --

18 Q. I apologize. Which door?

19 A. The side door of the residence. It had 20 double-paned glass and it was shattered. The window
21 itself was shattered. I didn't catch that because 22 it was still solid; it wasn't broke through or 23 anything there. The door itself was actually pushed
24 and locked.

25 Once I got the keyholder, we actually went

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF JAMES MICHAEL HESS BY MS. HALL

111

1 inside and made sure there was nobody else inside
2 the residence. As we gained entry, of course we saw
3 where the door was pried open. As we gained in, we 4 saw, adjacent to the house, the porch, as we went
5 into the door, a window was open also that got him
6 inside the house itself.

7 Q. So a window in the porch that led to the 8 interior of the house?

9 A. That's correct. Yes, ma'am.

10 Q. Okay. Did you photograph the house as you
11 walked through?

12 A. I had the photographs -- yes, ma'am. I had 13 Aiken County Sheriff's Department photograph them
14 for me.

15 Q. Okay. And after you walked through the house
16 and photographed and documented that, what did you
17 do next?

18 A. Well, as we were walking through the house
19 photographing and gathering the most evidence that 20 we could as far as that goes, we noticed that the 21 front door was open. And I explained to him that,
22 you know, that door was closed when I checked the 23 house, so that showed me the door was open.

24 Q. Okay. So when you first got to the house, the 25 front door was shut and --

1 A. Was locked and secure.

2 Q. When you went back through, it was left open?

3 A. Yes, ma'am.

4 Q. Was there anybody else who would have been able
5 to go through that front door?

6 A. No, ma'am.

7 Q. Did you have the only key -- to your knowledge,
8 the only key to the house?

9 A. To my knowledge, we had the only key with the 10 keyholder, yes, ma'am.

11 Q. Did you have an opportunity to look further at 12 this primer gray car that was in the driveway?

13 A. I did. I looked at this -- a lot of overspray
14 on the car itself, the primer gray. And I found a 15 lot of items inside the vehicle itself just 16 scattered all through the vehicle.

17 Q. Okay. You said overspray. What do you mean by 18 that?

19 A. If you ever spray anything with a spray can or 20 anything, the overspray -- it's like if you don't 21 tape up something, you spray something, the 22 overspray goes all over whatever you're not trying 23 to paint.

24 Q. Was there spray paint on the windows of this 25 car?

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF JAMES MICHAEL HESS BY MS. HALL

1 A. Yes, there was. There was spray all over the
2 vehicle.

3 Q. And you said that you searched this vehicle.

4 A. Well, due to the taking the vehicle into
5 custody, we inventoried the vehicle. So once we got 6 inside the vehicle, that's when we found all the 7 contents that were inside the vehicle.

8 Q. Okay. What were some of the items that you
9 found that were relevant to your investigation?

10 A. There was a butcher knife that came from the 11 kitchen. And the reason I know it came from the 12 kitchen is because there was a set of Farberware
13 other utensils in there. There was mail inside the 14 vehicle that came out of the residence that goes to 15 that address, and also a checkbook that came from 16 that address.

17 Q. Whose checkbook was that? What name was on 18 that checkbook?

19 A. Ms. Clark -- I'm sorry. It was Ms. McDaniel,
20 Mr. Clark's grandmother.

21 Q. All right. And did you find anything of 22 William McCladdie's inside that vehicle?

23 A. I did. I found a jacket. The jacket itself
24 had a billfold in it, and the billfold contained his 25 driver's license, social security, and a credit

1 card.

2 Q. Okay. And what was done with the primer gray
3 car after y'all were done inventorying it?

4 A. We called the dispatch to have the vehicle
5 towed and put into impound.

6 Q. And the key that you found on Mr. McCladdie,
7 was that given to the tow company?

8 A. That was definitely, yes, ma'am.

9 Q. Okay.

1 Q. Officer Hess, displayed here is State's Exhibit
2 1. Can you please explain where the house is
3 located and the streets that are surrounding the
4 house.

5 A. Yes, ma'am. This road here is Foreman, this is 6 Main Street. That's the road itself, and that's the 7 woods adjacent to it. (Indicating)

8 Q. Okay. State's Exhibit 2, please. What is this 9 a picture of?

10 A. That's the residence of [REDACTED] Foreman Street.

11 Q. The front of the house?

12 A. The front of it from Main Street.

13 Q. Okay. State's 3?

14 A. That is the side on -- from Foreman Road
15 towards the house itself.

16 Q. Okay. State's 4?

17 A. The side.

18 Q. State's 5?

19 A. That's the front door.

20 Q. And that was the front door that was secured
21 when you first walked around the house?

22 A. Yes, ma'am.

23 Q. State's 6?

24 A. These -- the side of the -- excuse me. Front
25 of the house. And these are the woods we were

1 talking about adjacent to the residence itself.

2 Q. Can you point out where the defendant was 3 located?

4 A. Basically, this area right in here.

5 (Indicating)

6 Q. Okay. And can you explain the -- right here,
7 does the ground drop off?

8 A. Yes. It's kind of a slump going down. It's 9 for, I assume, water or -- I not exactly sure; for 10 drainage or something like that. But it does go
11 down. Of course this was in February, so it wasn't
12 as thick as it is now.

13 Q. Okay. State's 7, what is this a picture of?

14 A. This is the location where Mr. McCladdie was 15 laying down. Right in here is a piece of property
16 that was found underneath him.

17 Q. Okay. And what piece of property is that?

18 A. It's some type of bracelet.

19 Q. Okay. State's 8?

20 A. That's the bracelet itself.

21 Q. Okay. Did y'all move the leaves from the area
22 so you could take a picture of it?

23 A. We did.

24 Q. Okay. State's 9?

25 A. Same.

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF JAMES MICHAEL HESS BY MS. HALL

121

1 Q. Just a close-up?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. State's 10?

4 A. That was the pry bar that was underneath
5 Mr. McCladdie.

6 Q. And this is where you found it when William
7 McCladdie was lifted up off the ground?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Okay. State's 11?

10 A. Same.

11 Q. Close-up?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And what did you, if anything, recognize about
14 the size of this crowbar?

15 A. It was smaller than the average crowbar.

16 Q. Smaller than you're used to seeing?

17 A. Yes, smaller than we're used to.

18 Q. State's 12?

19 A. Mr. McCladdie, the way he was dressed that 20 night. You see the leaves where he tried to cover
21 himself when he was laying down.

22 Q. State's 13?

23 A. Same.

24 Q. And these were leaves that were on him when he 25 was found?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. State's 14?

3 A. Same as the --

4 THE COURT: Hold on one second. Y'all switch
5 sides so the court reporter can hear you better,
6 please.

7 BY MS. HALL:

8 Q. All right. This is State's 14. Can you
9 describe what's on his jacket and his stocking cap?

10 A. Leaves are all over -- debris is all over on 11 his cap, toboggan, and his jacket itself.

12 Q. Okay. State's 15?

13 A. Same picture of him with more debris on the 14 other side of him.

15 Q. Okay. State's 16?

16 A. This is the entrance where he -- well, the pry
17 marks itself were lining up. I took the pry bar
18 itself, went back to where the break-in was at, and 19 lined the pry bar up with it and took a picture.

20 Q. Is this the side door on Foreman or the front
21 door?

22 A. That's the side door on Foreman.

23 Q. Okay. State's 17?

24 A. Same thing where you see the pry mark itself
25 lines right up to it where he pried himself in.

123

1 Q. Okay. State's 18?

2 A. Damage to the door itself.

3 Q. State's 19 -- and, I apologize, go back to 18.

4 Can you explain what this is in the top left corner?

5 A. This is what I was telling you, the double-pane
6 where it was shattered. It wasn't busted out, it
7 was just shattered.

8 Q. So it wasn't a hole in the door?

9 A. No, there was no hole in the door. It
10 shattered.

11 Q. Okay. State's 19?

12 A. Damage to the door.

13 Q. Okay. What does it show on the side of the 14 door?

15 A. As far as where it was pried open, busted up,
16 you can tell there was forced entry. You also have 17 the wood debris down here where it was actually 18 forced open and freshly committed as far as it was 19 there.

20 Q. State's 20?

21 A. That was the door itself where I advised y'all
22 the window was shattered instead of busted out.
23 That's the shatter of the window itself. First I
24 thought it was just decoration.

25 Q. And this was the same door that was pried open?

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. And no holes in this glass?

3 A. Right.

4 Q. State's 21?

5 A. This is, like I said, freshly committed pieces
6 of the door, particles coming off of the door where 7 the door was pried open.

8 Q. State's 22?

9 A. This is the window that came in adjacent to the 10 house itself. This --

11 Q. What room is this? I apologize.

12 A. This is the room when you first go into the 13 room itself, the side doors, like a porch, maybe a
14 laundry room or something there. This screen came 15 off this window here where that window was open
16 where he got inside the house itself. Instead of 17 prying that door open, he went through the window
18 instead.

19 Q. What's that white object down in the bottom
20 right corner?

21 A. This is a freezer.

22 Q. Okay. Sitting in the middle of the porch?

23 A. Sitting in the middle of the porch, yes, ma'am.

24 Q. State's 23?

25 A. Same thing. This is your freezer here, door

1 here, and the window that was open where he got
2 inside.

3 Q. Where does that window open up to?

4 A. Inside the residence itself. I think it's the 5 living room area, if I'm not mistaken.

6 Q. Okay. State's 24?

7 A. Again, the same thing; the window that he came
8 through to get inside the house.

9 Q. State's 25?

10 A. This is the window itself going into the living
11 room.

12 Q. So this is the interior side of the picture we 13 just showed?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. Okay. State's 26?

16 A. This is the front door where you can see it was 17 opened. The carpet was pulled back so the front
18 door could be opened so he could get out. The front
19 door itself -- that's the front door that I tried to 20 open when I first secured the residence, and it was 21 secured. And then, of course, you see it was opened
22 as we went into the house clearing the house.

23 Q. Okay. So what was most relevant about this 24 picture to you?

25 A. The door being open, because I knew I checked

1 it to secure it.

2 Q. And there was no one else who could have
3 unlocked that with a key?

4 A. No, ma'am.

5 Q. Okay. State's 27?

6 A. Same.

7 Q. State's 28?

8 A. This is on the outside. This is what made me
9 call dispatch for backup. I went on the back side
10 of the house and saw where this was down -- the 11 screen itself was down. I think we have a picture
12 of the window I was talking about where it looked 13 like it was broke or jimmied, however you want to 14 put it.

15 Q. State's 29?

16 A. Again, this is window here -- I think we have a
17 close-up on it of where it was actually jimmied up
18 here on top where the screen was taken off. This 19 one here has a screen, and this one didn't. And the 20 screen was bent, and that's what made me call for 21 backup because I thought somebody was inside the
22 house.

23 Q. State's 30?

24 A. That's what I was talking about as part of the 25 jimmied part. They can come up through here to

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF JAMES MICHAEL HESS BY MS. HALL

1 unlock the window; they jimmy it up and go through
2 it, crack the window, as they did.

3 Q. State's 31?

4 A. This is a picture of the primered car that we
5 were talking about. If you notice, the primer
6 oversprays are all over the taillight, all over the 7 chrome parts where it should be chrome. The emblem
8 itself has spray marks, the glass itself's got 9 overspray on it. Other parts of it where it should 10 be black has overspray on it. If you ever painted,
11 you know what I'm talking about with the overspray.

12 Q. State's 32?

13 A. This is the tag. Again, another picture of the 14 overspray all over the tail end of the vehicle
15 itself that should be chrome.

16 Q. State's 33?

17 A. This is what the vehicle looked like from the 18 side view. Again you can see the overspray on the 19 windows. The hub caps were taken off and there was 20 spray all over it.

21 Q. State's 34?

22 A. This is the front of it. Overspray on the 23 headlights, overspray on the grille itself, the 24 parking lights, the windshield. This is the jacket
25 I was talking about that was located inside the

1 vehicle and --

2 Q. Where was that jacket located inside the
3 vehicle?

4 A. In the passenger's side.

5 Q. Okay. State's 35?

6 A. This is the contents inside the vehicle. I
7 talked about the knife, Farberware, I think, was the 8 name of it. This is the knife that was found, as 9 you can see, in plain view.

10 Q. That matched the other utensils in the kitchen?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. State's 36?

13 A. Other contents. This is the knife itself from 14 the other side, and this is just the contents that 15 were inside the vehicle itself.

16 Q. State's 37?

17 A. More contents that were inside the vehicle.

18 Q. This is the back seat of the vehicle?

19 A. Yes, ma'am.

20 Q. Okay. State's 38?

2 A. Yeah. I think it's the back left side of it,
3 straight down into it.

4 Q. State's 40?

5 A. Driver's side.

6 Q. State's 41, what is this?

7 A. This is the billfold that was found in his 8 jacket. This is his social security card, his 9 driver's license or ID number, and credit card that 10 was found inside the jacket itself.

11 Q. Each of these items was found in the billfold
12 in the jacket in the passenger's seat?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. Okay. State's 42?

15 A. Close-up.

16 Q. State's 43?

17 A. This is the clock that Mr. Clark advised me
18 that belonged to his grandmother and it was inside
19 the residence. We found this in the trunk of the 20 vehicle.

21 Q. Okay. State's 44?

22 A. Same picture of the clock.

23 Q. I believe we have a problem with State's 42
24 matching up with what's on here. So would you
25 explain what's been entered in to evidence as

1 State's 42 in this picture?

2 A. This was the billfold, his ID, social security
3 card, and a key that doesn't have a top once you put
4 it on the key ring itself. That's the key I found
5 in his pocket.

6 Q. And is that the key you gave to the towing
7 company?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. And we're on State's 44. Where did you find 10 this?

11 A. In the trunk.

12 Q. Okay. And what was relevant about this clock?

13 A. The keyholder identified it.

14 Q. That it was in the house --

15 A. That it was in the house before the burglary.
16 Yes, ma'am.

17 Q. All right. You can have a seat. I have a few
18 more questions for you, but I believe we're done
19 with this.

20 A. Yes, ma'am.

21 Q. Officer Hess, I'm showing you what's previously
22 been marked as State's Exhibits 53, 55 and 56. Do
23 you recognize these items?

24 A. I do, yes, ma'am.

25 Q. Where did you locate these items?

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF JAMES MICHAEL HESS BY MS. HALL

131

1 A. These were inside the vehicle itself. This was
2 inside the trunk.

3 Q. Can you open that up so we can see it.

4 A. Okay.

5 Q. What is that black film over the black casing?

6 A. I brought it in to have it fingerprinted for 7 latents to see if we could get any latents off of 8 it.

9 Q. Okay. Where did you take that for 10 fingerprinting?

11 A. To the Aiken County Sheriff's Department, to 12 their lab. I stayed with it while they were doing
13 it.

14 Q. Okay. And what did they do? What was the 15 process?

16 A. They pretty much dusted it up, put graphite
17 powder on it. And when they put powder on it, they 18 try to find a latent of your finger. And if they 19 can find a latent, they'll go ahead and peel it off.
20 Several attempts were made, but nothing but smudges
21 were found.

22 Q. So no fingerprints were developed from this 23 item?

24 A. No, ma'am.

25 Q. Okay. Thank you.

9 the car itself from it being primed.

10 Q. Where was that item found in the car?

11 A. This was found in the trunk area.

12 Q. Okay. State's 46?

13 A. State's 46 is the flashlight that was found on 14 his person.

15 Q. And State's 47?

16 A. And a pocketknife that was found on his person.

17 Q. Okay. Were each of these items seized by you

12 MS. HALL: Your Honor, at this time, the State
13 would move to enter State's 50, 51, and 52.

14 MR. MCMILLIAN: No objection, Judge.

15 (State's Exhibit Nos. 50, 51, and 52 admitted
16 in to evidence.)

17 BY MS. HALL:

18 Q. Officer Hess, I'm now showing you State's 49,
19 60, and 54.

20 A. 49 is the knife that was found on the 21 passenger's side in the vehicle in plain view.

22 Q. And what inscription is on the handle of that 23 knife?

24 A. Farberware. That's the name of the utensils
25 that were found inside the residence itself from ice

1 cream maker to -- I mean, ice cream scooper to
2 different types of spatulas and stuff that was in
3 there.

4 Q. Okay. State's 60?

5 A. This is the chain that was found underneath him
6 at the sign we -- where we were taking him in.

7 Q. Who is him?

8 A. I'm sorry. Mr. McCladdie.

9 Q. State's 54?

10 A. These are the tools that were found also inside
11 the vehicle itself.

12 Q. And each of these items were taken in to 13 evidence by you on the night of this burglary?

14 A. Yes, ma'am.

15 MS. HALL: Your Honor, at this time, the State
16 would move to enter State's 49, 60, and 54.

17 MR. MCMILLIAN: No objection.

18 (State's Exhibit Nos. 49, 54, and 60 admitted
19 in to evidence.)

20 BY MS. HALL:

21 Q. Officer Hess, you stated you sent the clock for 22 fingerprinting at the sheriff's office. Were there
23 any other items that you tried to have 24 fingerprinted?

25 A. Yes, ma'am; the knife itself and the pry bar.

1 Q. The knife in the box we just showed?

2 A. Yes, ma'am.

3 Q. I believe it's 54.

4 A. Yes, ma'am.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. And the pry bar.

7 Q. Were any fingerprints developed off of those 8 items?

9 A. No, ma'am.

10 Q. I have no further questions for you. Please
11 answer any Mr. McMillian may have.

12 THE COURT: Hold on just a second.

13 Everybody okay? Need a bathroom break?

14 All right. Please continue.

15 MR. MCMILLIAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

16 CROSS-EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. MCMILLIAN:

18 Q. Officer Hess, I believe you testified earlier
19 you've had quite an extensive law enforcement
20 career; correct?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. And when did you go through the academy?

23 A. 1991.

24 Q. And at some point during that, you certainly 25 went through some training about writing police

1 reports?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. And how important the details are?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. In fact, specifically on this incident, you
6 were very particular about the time you arrived;
7 right?

8 A. Yes, sir. I assume I was, yes, sir.

9 Q. And you arrived on Foreman Street side of the 10 house?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. And you situated your car facing Main Street?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Blocking the driveway?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Okay. And when you approached the Foreman
17 Street door, you checked it to verify that it was 18 secure -- was that the first door you checked?

19 A. It was, yes, sir. First I checked the hood of 20 the vehicle.

21 Q. But that was the first door you checked?

22 A. That's correct.

23 MR. MCMILLIAN: Permission to approach, Judge?

24 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

25 BY MR. MCMILLIAN:

1 Q. I'll try to keep these in order. I'm showing
2 you what's been marked as State's Exhibit 3.

3 A. Uh-huh. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Would that have been your approximate view
5 looking out your passenger's window when you
6 situated the car?

7 A. No, sir.

8 Q. Would you have been parked further back?
9 Further forward?

10 A. Going back towards 125 on Foreman Street.

11 Q. Okay.

12 A. Not going towards Main; going the opposite
13 direction.

14 Q. Okay. Now, it appears from this picture there
15 was a screen door.

16 A. That's correct. Yes, sir.

17 Q. And did you just check the screen door to see
18 if it was secured?

19 A. I mean, I grabbed it, it opened, and I went on.

20 Q. And you went around and the windows were 21 secure? Did you go around the house to the front or 22 did you go around the Foreman Street side of the 23 house to the front door?

24 A. I went to the Main Street, going that way.

25 Q. So you came back towards your car and then

1 around the house?

2 A. No, sir. I came straight from the door and --
3 there's a sidewalk next to the house. I walked down
4 the sidewalk.

5 Q. Okay. But on the Foreman Street side of the
6 house?

7 A. That's where I started, yes, sir, and I was 8 going towards Main Street.

9 Q. Is it this sidewalk here?

10 A. Right here.

11 Q. But this is on the Foreman Street side?

12 A. Yes, sir, going to the Main.

13 Q. Okay. So you proceeded around to the front
14 door?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. And I believe -- I'm showing you what's been 17 marked as State's Exhibit 5. This is the front
18 porch?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. And there's a screen door there also?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. And you checked that screen door and it was 23 open?

24 A. No, sir. That door was secure.

25 Q. The screen door was secure?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. So you couldn't tell whether at that point the 3 interior heavy wood door was secure, the glass door
4 was secure?

5 A. No, sir. Like I said, I thought it was
6 decoration the way it was shattered. I mean, it
7 didn't look -- it looked decorational.

8 Q. I think we're talking about different doors.
9 This front door here --

10 A. That's the door I pulled on that was secure.

11 Q. Did you secure the glass door as well as --

12 A. I couldn't. The screen door was secure.

13 Q. So you couldn't physically grab the handle to 14 the actual door, to the main door?

15 A. To the main door, no, sir.

16 Q. So it would be impossible to say whether that 17 door was secure because you couldn't get through the 18 glass door?

19 A. Do what now? I'm sorry. I misunderstood what 20 you're saying.

21 Q. Well, if you walk up and you grab the screen
22 door --

23 A. Right. Yes, sir.

24 Q. -- you can't get the door --

25 A. To the house --

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF JAMES MICHAEL HESS BY MR. MCMILLIAN

141

1 Q. -- the door knob.

2 A. Correct. Yes, sir.

3 Q. Okay. At what point during that, exactly, did
4 you radio for backup?

5 A. After I grabbed the door, started going around,
6 when I showed the picture of the window that was
7 jimmied, that's when I started asking for backup.

8 Q. Okay. And you sat and waited for that backup
9 on the Foreman Street side?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Did you see anybody leave the house?

12 A. No, sir.

13 Q. Nobody came in the house either?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Now, after y'all detained my client, that's 16 when you started clearing the house, inventorying
17 the vehicle?

18 A. That's correct, yes, sir.

19 Q. And we talked previously about how important
20 details are and I -- you used the word keyholder
21 previously --

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. -- to refer to Ms. Clark?

24 A. Well, Doug first and then --

25 Q. Or Doug first.

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. You used the word 'keyholder' because they didn't
3 live in that house, did they?

4 A. Well, I knew they had the key to it. I mean, I
5 knew they had the key to it because Doug told me he 6 did.

7 Q. To your knowledge, did anybody live in the
8 house?

9 A. At that time, no, sir.

10 Q. In fact, the lady that owned the house passed
11 away; correct?

12 A. As far as I know. I mean --

13 Q. About six weeks earlier?

14 A. As far as I know, yes, sir. I understood
15 Ms. Clark was staying there at the time, but she 16 wasn't in the residence at the time, is what I'm 17 trying to say. There was nobody in the house at the 18 time that the break-in occurred. I just want to get
19 that cleared up. I apologize.

20 Q. But your testimony here today is on that night,
21 you understood that Ms. Clark had stayed there?

22 A. I understood that somebody was staying there,
23 yes, sir.

24 MR. MCMILLIAN: I beg the Court's indulgence
25 just a moment.

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF JAMES MICHAEL HESS BY MR. MCMILLIAN

1 BY MR. MCMILLIAN:

2 Q. We had a preliminary hearing in this case,
3 didn't we?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. And we held that preliminary hearing back on 6 May 6th of 2015, didn't we?

7 A. I assume that's when it was. Yes, sir. Right
8 offhand, I don't know the date.

9 Q. You were the officer that testified at that 10 though?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, may I approach?

13 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

14 (Defendant's Exhibit No. 1 marked for 15 identification.)

16 BY MR. MCMILLIAN:

17 Q. On May 6th of 2015, do you remember telling me
18 that, to your knowledge, nobody lived in the house
19 at the time?

20 A. Yes, sir. There was nobody in the house at the 21 time.

22 Q. Do you remember also telling me that, to your 23 knowledge, no one was moving in the house?

24 A. Not to my knowledge. I don't know, sir.

25 Q. Well, you said just a minute ago that they told

1 you that she'd been staying there or that she had
2 stayed there.

3 A. I think you're getting confused here as far as
4 me telling you nobody was -- nobody was in the house
5 at the time that the burglary occurred.

6 Q. I'm going to show you what's been marked for --
7 A. Okay.

8 Q. That's a transcript of that preliminary
9 hearing.

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Would reviewing that refresh your recollection
12 of what you actually said?

13 A. Sir, I don't know what you want me to say here.
14 I don't --

15 THE COURT: Mr. McMillian, just say, this is 16 the question I asked you, this is the answer you
17 gave, and read your question and he can read the 18 answer.

19 BY MR. MCMILLIAN:

20 Q. Officer Hess, on page 8, line 19 I asked you:

21 Okay. Did anybody live in his house at that
22 time?

23 And you answered on line 21 of page 8 --

24 THE COURT: Read his answer and ask him if
25 that's what he said.

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF JAMES MICHAEL HESS BY MR. MCMILLIAN

145

1 Q. According to them, no.

2 THE COURT: Is that what you said at that time?

3 Q. Is that what you said on May 6th?

4 A. You said I did, sir. I can't recollect. If
5 that's what you say I did, sure.

6 Q. And I asked you: Did anybody -- was anybody
7 moving into or out of the house?

8 And did you answer: No. Nobody was in the 9 house, moving in or out, according to them.

10 That's when they saw the vehicle and said it
11 wasn't supposed to be there.

12 A. Yes, sir. I did say that.

13 MR. MCMILLIAN: I beg the Court's indulgence
14 just a moment.

15 BY MR. MCMILLIAN:

16 Q. And, in fact, in your report and here today,
17 you've never used the word resident, have you?

18 A. I don't know. I couldn't tell you that.

19 Q. You called them the keyholder.

20 A. Oh, yes, sir. I called the individual who 21 owned the house the keyholder. That's standard.

22 THE COURT: That's what?

23 THE WITNESS: Standard, sir. Any residence
24 we're going to, we ask for the keyholder, especially 25 when an alarm is going off or what have you.

1 BY MR. MCMILLIAN:

2 Q. But there was nobody living in this residence?

3 A. Not at the time, no, sir, that I know of.

4 Q. Okay. Now, as you went through and took the 5 pictures, did you note any other property missing
6 from inside the house?

7 A. Not me, no, sir.

8 Q. Did you notice the missing washer?

9 A. I didn't no, sir, not until prior.

10 Q. I'm sorry?

11 A. Not until prior.

12 Q. Not until prior to...

13 A. Ms. Clark coming and telling me other things
14 that were missing.

15 Q. Okay. So there was a missing washer and a
16 missing drying?

17 A. According to Ms. Clark, yes, sir.

18 Q. Now, when you went onto the porch, I believe 19 you testified on direct about a small chest freezer
20 that was on the porch.

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. To your knowledge, was that supposed to be
23 there?

24 A. I couldn't tell you, sir. I mean, I don't know
25 if it's supposed to be there or not.

147

1 Q. Okay. How big was this chest freezer?

2 A. Standard size, roughly about the size of that
3 little table over there, give or take. (Indicating)

4 Q. About the size -- slightly smaller than a
5 washing machine?

6 A. I would say it's slightly bigger than a washing
7 machine, to be honest with you. I mean --

8 Q. Okay. Is it something you could move by 9 yourself?

10 A. I imagine I could, yes, sir.

11 Q. Could you carry it out, load it up in the 12 truck?

13 A. I don't know.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. I haven't done it before. I don't know.

16 Q. You sent several items off for latent prints?

17 A. I did.

18 Q. Things that you found in the car?

19 A. Correct, and on --

20 Q. But you didn't process any of the crime scene
21 for latent prints?

22 A. No, sir, I didn't.

23 Q. Did you process the doorway on the Foreman
24 Street side?

25 A. No, sir.

1 Q. The glass door or the screen door handle?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. The physical door handle?

4 A. No, sir.

5 Q. What about the window that you determine was 6 the entryway from the porch?

7 A. No, sir.

8 Q. Did you ask anybody to dust the chest freezer?

9 A. No, sir.

10 Q. What about the front door?

11 A. No, sir.

12 MS. HALL: Objection, Your Honor; asked and 13 answered. The witness has stated that he didn't
14 dust anything inside the residence.

15 THE COURT: I'll overrule. He's on 16 cross-examination. He can explore that.

17 MR. MCMILLIAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 BY MR. MCMILLIAN:

19 Q. Did you dust the front screen door?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Not the handle, not the glass. What about the 22 main door?

23 A. No, sir.

24 Q. The knob on the inside or the outside?

25 A. Nothing was dusted, sir, except for the items

149

1 that I took to the sheriff's department. We don't
2 have the means at our department.

3 Q. But you could have called the sheriff's
4 department out to dust for latent prints; right?

5 A. We tried to call the investigation -- not the 6 investigations, but the forensics. But they were 7 not able at the time. This is the second time we've
8 tried to contact them with different other cases,
9 and they wouldn't come to us. They were just too
10 busy and couldn't come to us at the time. So...

11 Q. The scene could have been secured and they 12 could have done it later?

13 A. No, sir.

14 Q. In looking at the picture of the front porch,
15 there are two railings that go down from the front
16 porch; right?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. You didn't dust either of those for latent
19 prints either?

20 A. I didn't dust nothing, sir.

21 Q. Okay. Now, in inventorying the car -- I
22 believe I left these pictures up here. Y'all took 23 meticulous photographs of the inside of the car;
24 correct?

25 A. Yes, sir. We took pictures of the vehicle.

1 Q. Did you photograph anything that was found
2 inside the trunk where you found it?

3 A. Well, sir, we did take pictures of the trunk
4 itself, but they didn't come out, for whatever
5 reason. I don't know.

6 Q. You took some pictures and never turned them
7 over to the Solicitor's Office?

8 A. They didn't show up on the camera.

9 Q. Okay. Were any of these goods secured in boxes
10 or bags or anything like that inside the vehicle?

11 A. Inside the vehicle, no, sir.

12 Q. The mail you found --

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. -- where is the mailbox for [REDACTED] Foreman Street?

15 A. I really couldn't tell you, sir.

16 Q. To your knowledge, is it possible this mail
17 could have come out of the mailbox?

18 A. I just know the address on it, sir, is all I
19 can tell you.

20 Q. So it's possible it could have been in his 21 mailbox on February 20th?

22 A. Unless she got a PO box. I don't know, sir.

23 Q. All right. That's fair.

24 MR. MCMILLIAN: Beg the Court's indulgence just 25 a moment.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION OF JAMES MICHAEL HESS BY MS. HALL

151

1 No further questions at this time.

2 THE COURT: Anything on redirect?

3 MS. HALL: Just briefly, Your Honor.

4 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

5 BY MS. HALL:

6 Q. When you were reviewing the preliminary hearing
7 transcript, were your answers at the preliminary
8 hearing based on your knowledge at the time that you
9 answered those questions?

10 A. That's correct. Yes, ma'am.

11 Q. And Mr. McMillian spent a great deal of time
12 talking about the front door of the house and your 13 first perimeter check of that house. You stated
14 that the storm door, the glass door, was locked --

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. -- and you could not actually reach the door to 17 the house. Could you tell that that door was shut
18 and latched?

19 A. My flashlight -- I saw that it was latched and 20 closed.

21 Q. Latched and closed?

22 A. It was secure. Yes, ma'am.

23 Q. All right. And when you were waiting on 24 backup, you stated earlier that you had sat back by 25 the car that was backed into the driveway. Could

1 you see the front of the house and the front yard of
2 the house at the time you were sitting back there?

3 A. No, ma'am, I couldn't.

4 MS. HALL: No further questions, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. Sir, you may step down.

6 Mr. Foreman, ladies and gentlemen, we're going
7 to take about a 15-minute afternoon break. Please
8 don't discuss the case, don't start deliberating.
9 We'll come back and go till about 5:00 and see where 10 we stand.

11 Everybody else remain seated.

12 (The jury exits the courtroom at 2:52 PM.)

13 THE COURT: All right. We're going to take a
14 real short break. If y'all have found any cases you
15 want me to look at over the break, hand them up to 16 me or give me a cite so we can look them up on the 17 website.

18 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, if I may, after the 19 break, can we address the objection to 59 that was 20 entered in to evidence?

21 THE COURT: Remind me.

22 MR. MCMILLIAN: Thank you.

23 (Short break.)

24 THE COURT: Bring the defendant in, please.

25 (The defendant enters the courtroom.)

153

1 THE COURT: All right. Mr. McMillian, you want
2 to put your objection to Exhibit 59 on the record,
3 the photograph of some items --

4 MR. MCMILLIAN: The photograph taken back at 5 JPD. There were several items on the table, one of 6 which is a stem or a glass pipe used for smoking,
7 presumably, methamphetamine or cocaine. I think
8 it's far more prejudicial than probative to put that 9 in front of the jury. He's not on trial for any 10 sort of drug possession here, Judge, or any sort of 11 paraphernalia charge, for that matter.

12 I think looking in -- at the -- at this point,
13 probably voluminous photographs of different stuff,
14 it seems excessive to put that one in as well with
15 that --

16 THE COURT: Cumulative is what you're trying to 17 say?

18 MR. MCMILLIAN: Yes, sir.

19 MS. HALL: Your Honor --

20 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. I mean, you've already 21 put the -- most of the stuff in that picture in 22 evidence, have you not?

23 MS. HALL: Your Honor, the purpose of that 24 photograph is to show the green oil lamp. That is 25 actually not being put in to evidence so that it can

1 be given back to the victim at the conclusion of
2 this case. The purpose of the picture is so that
3 the jury can still see it, see what they heard
4 evidence about. It's not at all clear from the 5 picture that that is any kind of drug paraphernalia.
6 It looks like a glass tube. It more looks like a
7 tube of lip gloss than a crack pipe. There --

8 THE COURT: Well, if the purpose of the picture
9 is so that you're not putting the actual lamp in 10 evidence so that it can be returned to the owner,
11 here's what I'm going to do: I'm going to let that 12 lamp go to the jury, even though it's just ID, the 13 picture will not; we'll substitute the picture for 14 the lamp if you have to go up on appeal; therefor
15 the jury is not prejudiced by the pipe.

16 MR. MCMILLIAN: I think that's a fair solution,
17 Judge.

18 THE COURT: No objection?

19 MR. MCMILLIAN: None.

20 THE COURT: All right. 58 is now --

21 MR. MCMILLIAN: It's 59, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: 59 is now removed from evidence and 23 will be allowed to be substituted in the event we 24 need it for appellate purposes.

25 MS. HALL: Your Honor, I'd also ask that the

REDIRECT EXAMINATION OF JAMES MICHAEL HESS BY MS. HALL

1 candlestick also be allowed to go back to the jury
2 for the same basis.

3 THE COURT: No objection, right? It's in the 4 picture in 59.

5 MR. MCMILLIAN: I don't have a problem with
6 that.

7 THE COURT: All right. Why should I
8 exclude the statement of --

9 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, in our research, reading
10 State v. Gelmege [phonetic]: Upon the request of 11 the Defense, the Prosecution shall permit the 12 Defendant to inspect copied books, papers,
13 documents, photographs, tangible objects, et cetera.

14 There was an exemption --

15 THE COURT: Basic elementary rules; right?

16 MR. MCMILLIAN: Yes, sir. And there is, in 17 fact, an exception carved out in Gelmege that: If 18 the Prosecution does not have the material or
19 evidence sought by Defendant in its possession,
20 disclosure is not required. But the exception to 21 that exception is: Except where that evidence is in 22 possession of another government agency.

23 In this particular case, this was in the 24 possession of Aiken County Sheriff's Office, another
25 law enforcement agency, who downloaded the video,

1 presumably put it in their evidence, and just never
2 made it available.

3 Judge, reading other cases, Kyles v. Whitley
4 says: The Prosecutor has a duty to learn favorable
5 evidence acting on the government's behalf,
6 including the police, including only information
7 known only to the police and investigators and not
8 to the prosecutor.

9 In reading the case that I was provided by the
10 State, Your Honor, the case that they provided me
11 seems to deal with a due process violation, and 12 we're not alleging any due process violation --

13 THE COURT: What are you alleging?

14 MR. MCMILLIAN: Strictly a violation of Rule 5;
15 that they had this, it was in their possession, they 16 didn't make it available, and the statement should 17 be suppressed.

18 MR. SLOCUM: Judge, in reference to Rule 5,
19 this information was provided to Mr. McMillian the 20 same day it was provided to the State.

21 THE COURT: Well, that's neither here nor
22 there.

23 MR. SLOCUM: Right. And --

24 THE COURT: The police officers had it the 25 whole time and it hadn't been provided.

157

1 MR. SLOCUM: Your Honor, it wasn't, quote,
2 dropped in evidence, as Mr. McMillian says; it was
3 put on their server. Nothing goes into evidence for 4 a general sessions packet unless they have a general
5 sessions case.

6 THE COURT: I understand that. But it was
7 evidence in the case.

8 MR. SLOCUM: That's correct, Judge. In terms
9 of it -- if we're not talking about due process,
10 then it doesn't really matter about what 11 Mr. McMillian is saying that -- in terms of 12 violation issues of Rule 5.

13 But if we are going to go forward on due
14 process issue, then it has to be shown that it was 15 done in bad faith.

16 THE COURT: Well, he said it's simply a
17 violation of Rule 5 and shouldn't be admitted.

18 MR. SLOCUM: Judge, just for -- I haven't read
19 those cases he's cited. He gave us the cite about 20 five minutes before we reconvened, and we have not
21 had a chance to look at them.

22 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to deny the 23 use of it in the trial. It was, obviously, readily
24 available. If anybody wanted it, they could have 25 gotten it, and you chose not to. And I'm not going

1 to penalize the Defense for y'all failing to not use
2 it. The agency is just failing to make that part of
3 the case file in this matter. You're dealing with a
4 guy on trial for burglary first, and it would seem
5 to me that would heighten everybody's want or need
6 or responsibility to make sure that they got 7 evidence of the video of it, they would have turned
8 it over to you or at least told you about it. You
9 know, in all honesty, what he says is not
10 inculpatory or exculpatory. Anyway, I'm not going
11 to allow it, out of an abundance of caution.

12 Anything else before I bring the jury in?

13 MR. SLOCUM: No, sir.

14 MR. MCMILLIAN: No, sir.

15 (The jury enters the courtroom at 3:20 PM.)

16 THE COURT: Mr. Foreman, ladies and gentlemen
17 of the jury, we're going til 4:30 today. I have two 18 different things we need to do. I don't want to 19 make y'all sit and wait while we do that. And is 20 9:30 in the morning okay to start? Before we leave
21 this afternoon, I'll sort of tell you where we are 22 as far as how far we have to go tomorrow. But I'll 23 ask the lawyers before we step out.

24 So we'll go til about 4:30. And tomorrow
25 morning, your choices are sausage biscuits, donuts,

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF MICHAEL CLARK BY MS. HALL

159

1 fruit, bananas and stuff, yogurt, power bars,
2 sausage biscuits. Is that okay?

3 THE FOREMAN: Sausage biscuits.

4 THE COURT: All right. We'll start at 9:30 in
5 the morning, so if you want to have a sausage
6 biscuit and coffee, get here a little early because 7 I can't let you bring it in the courtroom. And if
8 we're still here at lunchtime, we'll order you
9 lunch.

10 All right. Next witness, please.

11 MS. HALL: The State calls Michael Douglas 12 Clark.

13 MICHAEL DOUGLAS CLARK

14 being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

15 THE WITNESS: I do.

16 THE CLERK: Have a seat in the witness box.
17 State your full name for the Court and spell your
18 last.

19 THE WITNESS: Michael D. Clark, Jr., C-L-A-R-K.

19 Q. Do you do that regularly?

161

1 A. I do.

2 Q. Okay. How far is your house from [REDACTED] Foreman
3 Street?

4 A. Approximately a ten-minute ride.

5 Q. So you stated that you headed towards Jackson.
6 What did you notice as you got to Jackson?

7 A. As I come into town, you know, the streetlights
8 was on, everybody was in the bed asleep, I started
9 my approach on [REDACTED] Foreman Street. And -- with that 10 residence being my aunt's residence. And normally
11 when I come into that section of town, I'll slow
12 down and kind of make a slow pass, get a little
13 general overview, make sure everything is all right.

14 At the time when I got to Main Street and
15 across the street to Foreman Street, I noticed a
16 2000 Nissan Altima sitting there.

17 Q. What color was that car?

18 A. It was primer-gray color.

19 Q. And about what time was it that you noticed the 20 car there?

21 A. My reference of time, it was around 11:20-ish,
22 11:25-ish.

23 Q. Sometime before midnight?

24 A. Yes, ma'am.

25 Q. Okay.

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF MICHAEL CLARK BY MS. HALL

162

1 A. As I made my pass by the house, like I said, I
2 noticed the vehicle was there, knowing there was not
3 supposed to be anybody that I recollect of being at 4 that residence. With that being said, I went all
5 the way down to the next street where there was a --
6 I made my turnaround, come back down Main Street,
7 and made a right turn onto Foreman Street; kind of 8 crept by the residence little bit, noticed wasn't no
9 lights on in the house.

10 So my first thought was to go see if there was 11 an officer in the general vicinity of Jackson, and 12 that's when I rode all the way up Foreman Street and 13 made a right on to Atomic Road, Highway 125. And 14 right there at the intersection where the red light
15 is is where I met up with Officer Hess. I notified
16 him of the situation, and he told me to sit tight,
17 he was going to go check it out.

18 Q. Okay. Did you talk to anybody else while you
19 were sitting up at the four-lane?

20 A. Not until Officer Hess of New Ellenton Police
21 Department come up and told me that I needed to get
22 ahold of the keyholder.

23 Q. So that's Officer Brent Hess of New Ellenton, 24 not Officer Mike Hess?

25 A. Right.

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF MICHAEL CLARK BY MS. HALL

163

1 Q. And he asked you to get in touch with the
2 keyholder?

3 A. Right.

4 Q. And the who was the keyholder?

5 A. The keyholder at the time was my grandmother,
6 Evelyn Clark.

7 Q. And what did you do next?

8 A. After that, I left out of the median, made a
9 right turn at the red light right there, proceeded
10 all the way down to First Street as I'm dialing her
11 number, blowing her phone up. Once I got ahold of 12 her, I was at Second Street. I told her, I need you
13 to get up, find the key to Aunt Margaret's house,
14 got a possible break-in in progress, police
15 department is requesting the keyholder. I'm on my 16 way to get you, I'll be there in two minutes.

17 Q. Where was your grandmother living at that time?

18 A. At [REDACTED] First Street.

19 Q. How far is that from the incident location
20 where this burglary occurred?

21 A. Right at about half a block.

22 Q. Okay. Did you go to your grandmother's house?

23 A. Yes, ma'am, I did.

24 Q. Okay. And what did you do once you got there?

25 A. Once I got to my grandmother's house, I exited

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF MICHAEL CLARK BY MS. HALL

164

1 by personal vehicle, entered her front porch,
2 knocked on the door, got her to the door, and
3 proceeded to help her get -- locate stuff she
4 needed; got her into my vehicle, and we eased on 5 down to where the incident occurred at.

6 Q. Do you know about how long it was from the time
7 you reported this suspicious car to Mike Hess to the 8 time you got to [REDACTED] Foreman Street with your 9 grandmother?

10 A. Within about a 10- or 15-minute response.

11 Q. What did you see once you arrived at [REDACTED]
12 Foreman Street?

13 A. Once I arrived on the scene at [REDACTED], there was,
14 that I could recollect, anywhere between five or six
15 deputies on scene. And as we set there, we noticed
16 that there was a lot of action happening towards the 17 front of the house facing Main Street.

18 Q. Okay. Did you see William McCladdie that 19 night?

20 A. I caught a --

21 Q. Did you -- did you see law enforcement take 22 anybody into custody that night?

23 A. That night, I did.

24 Q. Okay. Do you know William McCladdie?

25 A. No, I do not.

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF MICHAEL CLARK BY MS. HALL

165

1 Q. Do you know if he was ever given permission to
2 go into [REDACTED] Foreman Street?

3 A. No, ma'am.

4 Q. Did he have any reason, to your knowledge, to 5 be at that residence?

6 A. No, ma'am.

7 Q. Who lived at [REDACTED] Foreman Street prior to this
8 burglary -- six weeks prior to this burglary?

9 A. That would be my aunt, Margaret McDaniel.

10 Q. And when did she pass away?

11 A. She passed away six weeks prior to the 12 breaking-and-entering. January -- I believe it was 13 January 11th.

14 Q. Okay. Had you been in the house after
15 Ms. McDaniel's death and prior to this burglary?

16 A. No, ma'am.

17 Q. Okay. Had you been in the house before
18 Ms. McDaniel passed away?

19 A. Yes, ma'am.

20 Q. At that time, were all of her personal
21 belongings in the house?

22 A. Yes, ma'am.

23 Q. Okay. After Ms. McDaniel's death, were you

25 Foreman Street?

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF MICHAEL CLARK BY MS. HALL

3 after Ms. McDaniel's death?

4 A. Yes, ma'am.

5 Q. Okay. Do you know if anyone had planned to 6 move in to [REDACTED] Foreman Street?

7 A. At one time there was talk of my grandmother
8 moving in. But there was -- at the time, there was 9 really no push or urging for it.

10 Q. It took her some time?

11 A. It did.

12 Q. Okay. Do you have any personal knowledge that 13 your grandmother stayed at that house after
14 Ms. McDaniel's death and prior to this burglary?

15 A. Could you repeat the question.

16 Q. Do you remember if your grandmother, Ms. Evelyn
17 Clark, stayed at the house after Ms. McDaniel's
18 death and before this burglary, in this six-week
19 period?

20 A. In that six-week period of time, I know of one
21 time she did.

22 Q. Okay. And how do you know she did?

23 A. She called me to notify me that she was going
24 to be staying at that residence, just in case if I
25 heard on my fire radio a 911 call going out to that

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF MICHAEL CLARK BY MS. HALL

167

1 general area, I'd know what was going on at that
2 residence.

3 Q. Okay. Just to let you know where she was at?

4 A. Yes, ma'am.

5 Q. Because you regularly checked up on her?

6 A. Yes, ma'am.

7 Q. Were you familiar with the items at [REDACTED] Foreman
8 Street, the personal belongings inside the house?

12 Ellenton Police Department.

13 Q. And how long have you been with the New

15 A. Approximately seven to eight years.

16 Q. Does that encompass your entire time in law

19 Q. How long have you been involved in law
20 enforcement all together?

21 A. Approximately nine years.

22 Q. Okay. What is your training that you got to 4 morning of February 21st, 2015?

5 A. Yes, I was.

6 Q. And tell us how you got involved in this case.

7 A. I was -- I heard the call go out over the radio
8 that Officer Hess from Jackson needed assistance on 9 a possible break-in in progress, and I responded
10 down there to that location.

11 Q. Who is Officer Hess in Jackson to you?

12 A. Officer Hess in Jackson, that's my father.

13 Q. Do you normally get called to back up your 14 father?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Is that something y'all both do?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. And after you got the call from him, what did
19 you do?

20 A. I went down there and met up with him to find
21 out exactly what he had, and we decided that were 22 going to just wait for a minute, wait for more
23 officers to get there. One of the deputies parked
24 on Main Street, I walked out there and started
25 talking to him.

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF BRENT HESS BY MR. SLOCUM

173

1 Q. Before you got down to the house, where did you
2 meet your dad in Jackson, what area?

3 A. I actually met him on Foreman Road. I pulled
4 up behind him on Foreman.

5 Q. And then from there, what did you do?

6 A. I walked towards the front of the house and I
7 met up with Aiken County Sheriff's deputy.

8 Q. And who was that?

9 A. I couldn't tell you that.

10 Q. Okay. What did y'all do then?

11 A. We was talking for a minute, I was giving him a
12 brief rundown of what we had at that time. And I
13 kept hearing a noise in the bushes to the left side
14 of the house. If you're facing the front of the 15 house, to the left side, I kept hearing a noise in 16 the bushes. And it attracted my attention.

17 Q. All right. This [REDACTED] Foreman, is that in Aiken
18 County?

19 A. Yes, sir, Jackson side; the city limits of 20 Jackson and Aiken County.

21 Q. What did you do when you heard this noise?

22 A. They were going to meet up with the deputies
23 and Officer Hess was going to meet up to get a game
24 plan together on how they would go in to clear the 25 house. And I went over to investigate the noise

174

1 that I heard from the bushes.

2 Q. What did you find when you got there?

3 A. As I was walking up, I shined my flashlight
4 over underneath the bushes, and I saw something
5 blue. I thought it was a trash bag or a tarp or 6 something along those lines. As I kept getting
7 closer, I noticed it was moving and was moving
8 leaves on top of itself trying to cover it up.

9 I then advised the suspect to show me his
10 hands, which he refused. I asked several times
11 louder, and he still refused.

12 THE COURT: He still what?

13 THE WITNESS: Refused.

14 MR. SLOCUM: Permission to approach the

5 on that picture of where you were and where you
6 apprehended the suspect in the bushes?

7 A. You want from where my patrol car was all the 11 Take your time.

12 MR. MCMILLIAN: Objection, Your Honor.

21 A. Yes, sir.

6 MR. SLOCUM: Your Honor, please let the record
7 reflect that the witness has identified the 8 defendant.

9 BY MR. SLOCUM:

10 Q. Were you able to apprehend him immediately when 11 you got there?

12 A. I did not, no, sir.

13 Q. Well, tell us what happened.

14 A. When I got over there and I advised him to me
15 show his hands, I saw other deputies and officers
16 approaching my location. I kept my weapon drawn on 17 the suspect because I didn't know if he had any 18 weapons underneath him or what was -- why he was not
19 responding to commands.

20 When the other officers and deputies got there,
21 they put hands on him trying to get him out of the 22 bushes and out from underneath the leaves and get
23 him out from that area. As they were getting him
24 up, he kept taking his hand and kind of like shoving
25 his hand underneath the leaves into the bush area.

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF BRENT HESS BY MR. SLOCUM

177

1 I thought that was curious, but at that time,
2 my main concern was to get the suspect into custody.
3 Once we got the suspect out of there, I looked down
4 where the suspect was laying, and there was a
5 crowbar laying directly up underneath where he was
6 laying at. They handcuffed the suspect and we ended
7 up putting him over there in front of the deputy's
8 car and then eventually into the back of Officer
9 Hess' patrol vehicle.

10 Q. Officer Hess, I want to show you State's 11 Exhibits 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 that have been entered 12 in to evidence. Do you recognize what those are?

13 A. Yes, sir, I do.

14 Q. What are they?

15 A. 11 is the crowbar that was found underneath the 16 suspect; 9 -- give me one second. 9 and 8 was the 17 bracelet that was found where the suspect was 18 shoving his hand up underneath the leaves; 10 and 11
19 is the crowbar and 7 is the location where the 20 suspect was laying at.

21 Q. Do you recognize State's Exhibit 45?

22 A. Yes, I do.

23 Q. And State's Exhibit 60. Can you tell us what 24 they are, please, sir?

25 A. State's Exhibit 45 is the crowbar that was

1 directly up underneath the suspect, and State's
2 Exhibit 60 is the bracelet that was found up
3 underneath the leave where the suspect was shoving
4 his hand.

5 Q. And, lastly, State's Exhibit 62, do you
6 recognize what that is?

7 A. Yes, I do.

8 Q. And what is it?

9 A. That's the location.

10 Q. At [REDACTED] Foreman?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. Is that the front of [REDACTED] Foreman?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Could you please mark on that pictures the 15 bushes where you apprehended the defendant that 16 night and put your initials, please, sir.

17 A. (Witness complies).

2 MR. MCMILLIAN: I don't think I have anything

23 A. Roughly two and a half years.

24 Q. Were you employed with Aiken County back on 25 February 20th into the morning of the 21st, 2015?

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF TYLER ROBERTS BY MR. SLOCUM

183

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. How did you become involved in this case with
3 Mr. McCladdie?

4 A. When Officer Hess called for assistance, I was 5 dispatched to [REDACTED] Foreman Street in the city of 6 Jackson. I was working Beech Island that night, so
7 I responded to his location to assist.

8 Q. That address is in Aiken County?

9 A. It's within the city of Jackson in the county
10 of Aiken, yes, sir.

11 Q. Same address we've been talking about; right?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. What did you observe when you got there?

14 A. When I pulled up on scene, [REDACTED] Foreman, I
15 exited my vehicle. I spoke with other Aiken County
16 deputies, I believe it was my supervisor at the time
17 there as well. We were trying to come up with some 18 type of game plan to be able to secure the residence
19 and make sure it was safe for everybody. And 20 that's -- shortly after, I don't know the exact
21 timeframe, is when I heard Officer Brent Hess start
22 shouting, let me see your hands, let me see your
23 hands.

24 I immediately went around the front of the 25 residence, [REDACTED] Foreman, Main Street side, and that's

1 when I saw him with his flashlight at the bushes
2 lighting up something. I couldn't see until I got
3 closer to where he actually was.

4 Q. When you say him, you mean --

5 A. Officer Brent Hess.

6 Q. Okay. What did you observe when you got to 7 that location?

8 A. When I got there, I saw that there was an 9 individual, a subject on the ground, laying in the 10 bushes. He had hands tucked under him. We were 11 giving him commands to show your hands, show your 12 hands. He wouldn't do it. Other officers were 13 right on my -- right on me. We took his hands,
14 detained him, lifted him up off the ground.

15 When we lifted him up, I did observe the 16 crowbar or pry bar in the dirt laying right under 17 him where he was laying at. And we pretty much
18 immediately removed him from the bushes and escorted 19 him to the front of a patrol car.

20 Q. First off, Deputy Roberts, do you recognize 21 that individual in the courtroom?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. The one that was on the ground?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Would you please describe what he's wearing.

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF TYLER ROBERTS BY MR. SLOCUM

185

1 A. Yes, sir. It's the gentleman to my right here.
2 He's wearing a plaid -- blue and white and silver

4 MR. SLOCUM: Judge, please let the record
5 reflect Deputy Roberts has identified the defendant.

6 BY MR. SLOCUM:

7 Q. Deputy Roberts, I want to show you State's 8 Exhibit 45. Do you recognize it?

9 A. Yes, sir, I do.

10 Q. Please tell us what it is.

11 A. This is the pry bar, crowbar that was under the 12 defendant when we removed him from the bushes.

13 Q. Thank you, sir. And State's Exhibits 12, 13, 14 14 and 15. Do you recognize those?

15 A. Yes, sir, I do.

16 Q. And what are they?

17 A. These are photos of the individual that we 18 removed from the bushes.

19 Q. That same day, into the morning hours of 20 February 21st, 2015?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 MR. SLOCUM: I beg the Court's indulgence.

23 Thank you. That's all I have for you. Please 24 answer any questions Mr. McMillian has.

25 THE COURT: Any questions?

21 A. Originally from Old Ellenton, but for the 22 last -- since 1951, from Jackson, South Carolina.

23 Q. Where do you currently live in Jackson?

24 A. I live at [REDACTED] First Street.

25 Q. Have you lived in Aiken County all your life?

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF EVELYN CLARK BY MS. HALL

187

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Are you married?

3 A. I'm widowed since 1988.

4 Q. Okay. Where were you on the night of February
5 20th of this year when this burglary occurred?

6 A. I was in the bed asleep.

7 Q. What do you remember about that night?

8 A. I remember the phone rang and it was my 9 grandson Doug. And he said, Grandma, you need to 10 come down here, there's been a robbery at Nan's
11 house. He called her Nan. I got dressed and 12 started down there, and he was outside waiting for 13 me in his truck.

14 He pulled down about halfway or so on the 15 opposite side of the road and sat there in the truck
16 with me. And we saw the policeman come out with 17 Mr. McCladdie in handcuffs. And he talked with him
18 for a while outside the police car, and then put him
19 in the car and drove away.

20 Q. Do you know William McCladdie?

21 A. Do I what?

22 Q. Do you know William McCladdie?

23 A. No, I do not.

24 Q. Did you ever give him permission to be at the
25 house?

1 A. No. Never heard of him. My sister didn't
2 trust strangers, so she never had anybody like that
3 come around.

4 Q. Okay. Did you give anyone other than family
5 permission to be at that house?

6 A. I never gave anyone permission, no.

7 Q. Okay. And you say this house originally
8 belonged to your sister?

9 A. It belonged to my sister.

10 Q. Margaret McDaniel?

11 A. Margaret McDaniel, yes.

12 Q. Okay. Did your sister ever indicate who she 13 wanted to live in that house after she died?

14 A. Yes. She told me very often, will you promise
15 to move in my house, because --

16 MR. MCMILLIAN: Objection, Judge.

17 THE COURT: Hold on. The objection is what?

18 MR. MCMILLIAN: She's testifying as to what the 19 deceased plaintiff who lived there -- it's hearsay.

20 THE COURT: Sustained.

21 Disregard that, please.

22 MS. HALL: Your Honor, if I may -- may I argue
23 over the objection?

24 THE COURT: What is it?

25 MS. HALL: Your Honor, under rule 803-3, this

1 is a statement declarant's then-existing state of
2 mind and her intent as to who was to live in the 3 house after she died.

4 THE COURT: Well, you can ask her if when she 5 died did she have a will and who she'd leave it to.

6 MS. HALL: Okay.

7 BY MS. HALL:

8 Q. Ms. Clark, did your sister have a will?

9 A. Yes, she did.

10 Q. Do you know who she left the house to in her
11 will?

12 A. She left it to me and our sister Lucille Brewer
13 who died in 1996.

14 Q. Okay. So are you the only surviving person
15 named in the will?

16 A. Yes, I am.

17 Q. Okay. Ms. Clark, I'm showing you what's 18 previously been marked as State's Exhibit 57. Do 19 you recognize that?

20 A. This is her will.

21 Q. Who does -- who is the house left to in that 22 will? Is that the document that left the house to 23 you?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. Has it been changed or altered --

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF EVELYN CLARK BY MS. HALL

190

1 A. Well, it was left to me and my sister. And
2 then of course...

3 Q. And then she passed away. Okay. Has this will
4 be changed or altered in any way?

5 A. Not that I know of.

6 MS. HALL: Your Honor, at this time, the State
7 would move to enter State's Exhibit 57 in to
8 evidence.

9 MR. MCMILLIAN: Without objection, Your Honor.
10 (State's Exhibit No. 57 admitted in to 11 evidence.)

12 BY MS. HALL:

13 Q. Ms. Clark, at any point had you planned or made
14 plans to move into the house at [REDACTED] Foreman Street?

15 A. Yes. I'm working on it.

16 Q. It's just taking you some time?

17 A. Yes. It's a slow process. I don't know. I
18 got some hang-ups. I want to be there. I keep
19 thinking maybe I'll feel her presence.

20 Q. It's okay. It's okay.

21 A. I don't know.

22 Q. We understand.

23 A. I'm sorry.

24 Q. Ms. Clark, did this house have water and 25 electricity the whole time after your sister's

1 death?

2 A. Yes. It's still on.

3 Q. Okay. And who pays those bills? That's okay.

4 Take a minute. It's okay.

5 A. I'm sorry.

6 Q. Take as much time as you need.

7 Who pays the water and electric bill at the
8 house?

9 A. I do.

10 Q. Okay. Was the yard maintained after your 11 sister died, the lawn care?

12 A. Well, Mr. Don Adams next door, he's always cut
13 her grass for her. And I've done what raking needed
14 to be done. But I haven't done much lately, I'm 15 afraid.

16 Q. That's understandable. Did anyone check the 17 mail at [REDACTED] Foreman Street?

18 A. I do daily. Still do.

19 Q. Did you check the mail on February 20th? Would 20 you have checked it on the Friday this burglary
21 happened?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Do you know what time the mail comes?

24 A. Usually around 11:00. He's pretty punctual.

25 Q. Okay.

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF EVELYN CLARK BY MS. HALL

192

1 A. So I kind of know what time to go out. If I've
2 got it in mine, then I'll go down to hers.

3 Q. Okay. Did you ever stay at the house at [REDACTED]
4 Foreman Street after your sister died and before
5 this burglary happened, in that six-week period?

6 A. Yes, once.

7 Q. And why did you stay there that night?

8 A. I think I just wanted to -- wanted to feel
9 her -- see if I could feel her around.

10 Q. I understand. It's all right. Take a minute.

11 A. I'm sorry.

12 Q. That's okay.

13 Ms. Clark, do you have any of your personal
14 items or clothes at the house now at [REDACTED] Foreman
15 Street?

16 A. Any what?

17 Q. Any clothes or personal items?

18 A. Yes, I have some.

19 Q. Were you familiar with the items at your 20 sister's house prior to this burglary?

21 A. Yes, I was.

22 Q. Okay. I'm showing you what's previously been 23 marked as State's Exhibit 56. Do you recognize 24 this?

25 A. That's her clock.

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF EVELYN CLARK BY MS. HALL

193

1 Q. You recognize that as being your sister's?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And it was in the house prior to the burglary?

4 A. Yes, it was.

5 Q. Do you know if any other items were taken that
6 wasn't recovered from law enforcement?

7 A. You know, it's hard to tell at somebody else's
8 house, even though I was there daily. There was a
9 washer and a dryer taken, a little rolltop desk, a
10 vacuum, a large vacuum and a stick vacuum.

11 Q. That's okay if you don't remember.

12 A. I can't remember everything. I'm sorry.

13 Q. That's okay. I'll show you a picture real 14 quick.

15 I'm showing you what's previously been marked
16 as State's Exhibit 22. Do you recognize that 17 picture?

18 A. Yes. This was -- let's see. That was her back
19 door.

20 Q. Is this the porch?

21 A. Yeah. This is her -- it was a little back
22 porch and she had had it screened -- had it glassed
23 in.

24 Q. Okay. What's this item in the bottom right
25 corner, that big, white --

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF EVELYN CLARK BY MR. MCMILLIAN

1 A. That was her little freezer.

2 Q. Okay. Where was that prior to the burglary?

3 A. It was in the laundry room just off the 4 kitchen. You go into the kitchen and then right of 5 the kitchen was the laundry room.

6 Q. So it wasn't left in the middle of the porch
7 the last time you were there?

8 A. Huh?

9 Q. It wasn't left in the middle of the porch?

10 A. Oh, no, no, no.

11 Q. Ms. Clark, that's all the questions I have for 12 you. Mr. McMillian is going to ask you some 13 questions. Please answer any he has for you. Okay?

14 A. I certainly will. Thank you.

15 THE COURT: Any questions?

16 MR. MCMILLIAN: Yes, sir, Judge, just a few.

17 CROSS-EXAMINATION

18 BY MR. MCMILLIAN:

19 Q. Good afternoon, Ms. Clark. How are you?

20 A. I'm sorry?

21 Q. I'm sorry. I'll speak up. How are you today,
22 Ms. Clark?

23 A. Not real good.

24 Q. I could imagine. I just have a few questions.
25 On February 20th or 21st, the date that this

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF EVELYN CLARK BY MR. MCMILLIAN

1 incident happened, you were living at [REDACTED] First
2 Street?

3 A. Yes. I still am.

4 Q. Okay. And I think just a few minutes ago,
5 Ms. Hall asked you if you had any of your things --
6 any of your personal belongings at the house now,
7 and you said yes.

8 A. Yes, I have. I spent the night down there with 9 my sister before when she wasn't feeling good.

10 Q. Okay. Were your personal things there on 11 February 20th or 21st?

12 A. I'm sure they were. Probably.

13 THE COURT: Speak up for me, please, ma'am.

14 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. You know, there's 15 just some things you leave if you're not going to 16 use them at home.

17 BY MR. MCMILLIAN:

18 Q. Yes, ma'am. Now --

19 MR. MCMILLIAN: Permission to approach, Judge?

20 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

21 BY MR. MCMILLIAN:

22 Q. -- you and Ms. Hall talked about your sister's
23 will.

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Has this been probated yet?

1 A. It will be finished in October, about the 8th
2 of October, I believe. I went to probate, my
3 daughter took me, but --

4 Q. So, technically, the house doesn't belong to 5 you yet, but it will in October?

6 A. I guess.

7 Q. Okay. And you said you were still thinking
8 about moving in in February?

9 A. Thinking.

10 Q. So you haven't decided that for sure that 11 you're going to move in there?

12 A. Not completely. I guess.

13 Q. I know the feeling.

14 And to your recollection, you only stayed there
15 one time since your sister's passing?

16 A. I believe so. I believe it was one time when 17 she was sick. She was very ill; she was diabetic,
18 she had lost one of her legs.

19 Q. Yes, ma'am.

20 A. That's why I went down there so many times a
21 day to check on her.

22 Q. Can you tell me -- speaking of going down
23 there, you said you checked the mail there pretty 24 regular?

25 A. I got the mail for her every day. And I still

1 go down and check her mail, even though I have
2 recently asked them to transfer any mail to my box.
3 So doesn't get very much and -- so really I haven't
4 found anything down there.

5 Q. Yes, ma'am. Do you know for sure if you
6 checked the mail on February 20th?

7 A. Yeah. That was a Saturday, I believe. Yeah.
8 The only day I didn't check it was Sunday.

9 Q. Okay. Now, Ms. Hall asked you some about
10 things missing from the house, and you named a
11 washer and a dryer and a vacuum --

12 A. Two vacuums. One was a small stick.

13 Q. -- and a rolltop desk.

14 A. Yeah, a rolltop desk.

15 Q. Do you recall if you were missing a TV?

16 A. I'm sorry?

17 Q. Do you recall if you were missing a television?

18 A. You know, I was thinking that I did, but come
19 to find out, I had forgotten that Doug, my grandson,
20 got the TVs because I told him he could have them.

21 Q. Okay. And talking about that freezer, you
22 said -- I'm going to show you a couple of pictures.

23 MR. MCMILLIAN: And, Judge, I'll be sure and 24 call those numbers this time. Permission to 25 approach?

1 THE COURT: You may, sir.

2 BY MR. MCMILLIAN:

3 Q. I'm going to show you what's been marked as
4 State's Exhibit 25. Is this your sister's kitchen?

5 A. That's her dining room. The kitchen is right
6 over here. This is the dining room at the very back
7 of the house, the porch is just -- back porch is 8 right behind it, the glassed-in porch.

9 Q. So does this window go to that glassed-in 10 porch?

11 A. Yes, it does.

12 Q. Okay. This window right here in the center of 13 the picture, this one with the pink drapes?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And you're telling me that the kitchen is over
16 here to the left in State's Exhibit 25?

17 A. In the back, goes into the kitchen.

18 Q. And that the freezer was in a laundry room
19 there --

20 A. Just off the kitchen.

21 Q. Okay. So that freezer had been moved a little 22 bit?

23 A. Yes. It was moved that night. Because I was 24 there that day and it wasn't moved.

25 Q. Do you happen to know -- is that freezer heavy?

/

1 A. I would think so.

2 Q. Yes, ma'am.

3 A. Well, to me it would be. I don't know about to 4 a man, but to me it would be --

5 Q. I'm not that strong, Ms. Clark.

6 A. -- let me clarify.

7 Q. Do you think it would take two people to move
8 it?

9 A. Depends on how strong a person was, you know.
10 It would be hard for me to say because some men are 11 strong. I don't know.

12 Q. Okay. And I don't want to beat a dead horse,
13 but I just want to ask you two more questions. On 14 February 20th or 21st, you didn't live at [REDACTED]
15 Foreman Street?

16 A. No, I didn't.

17 Q. And as of today, you have not decided for sure
18 that you want to live at [REDACTED] Foreman Street?

19 A. Kinda. Nothing is written in stone with me.

20 Q. Yes, ma'am. And that's good enough. I
21 appreciate it. Thank you, Ms. Clark.

22 MR. MCMILLIAN: I don't have any further
23 questions, Judge.

24 THE COURT: Any other questions, Mrs. Hall?

25 MS. HALL: Nothing, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right. You can step down.

2 Next witness, please, ma'am.

3 MS. HALL: Your Honor, at this time, the State
4 rests and reserves the right to call any rebuttal
5 witnesses.

6 THE COURT: Mr. Foreman, ladies and gentlemen,
7 that concludes all the evidence by the State. The 8 Defense has an opportunity to now put up any 9 witnesses. But it's 4:15. There's a little bit of 10 stuff I have to do with them before I start my other
11 stuff at 4:30, so I'm going to let y'all off a
12 little early today.

13 Is 9:30 in the morning -- well, first of all,
14 Mr. McMillian, let me see y'all over here a second.

15 MR. MCMILLIAN: Certainly, Judge.

16 (Sidebar conference.)

17 THE COURT: We'll start right at 9:30 in the 18 morning, it appears. We got one witness left,
19 maybe. So we ought to be through with the testimony
20 around 10:30-ish. The lawyers will do their 21 arguments, I'll do the charge, so we'll get the case
22 before lunch. We'll order lunch in. And we should 23 be in a position to finish it up some time tomorrow.
24 Should finish the testimony in the morning and 25 arguments.

1 So have a pleasant evening. Don't discuss the
2 case, don't let anyone discuss it with you. Don't
3 start any deliberations until we finish. Please
4 don't do any independent research tonight on any of 5 these issues. Have a very pleasant evening. See
6 you in the morning starting at 9:30. Thank you.

7 (The jury exits the courtroom at 4:16 PM.)

8 THE COURT: All right. Anything from the 9 State, now that you've rested, before we break for 10 the evening?

11 MS. HALL: Nothing from the State, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Mr. McMillian, any motions?

13 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, at this time, Defense
14 would move for a directed verdict on the charge of 15 burglary in the first degree. I think the 16 testimony, virtually across the board, is that 17 nobody lived in this house on February 20th or 18 21st --

19 THE COURT: Well, do they have to live in it to 20 be a dwelling?

21 MR. MCMILLIAN: Well, I certainly don't believe
22 so, Judge. But in talking with Ms. Hall about the 23 issues, she cited a couple cases to me Ferebee,
24 which I have three copies --

25 THE COURT: Pass them up.

1 MR. MCMILLIAN: Certainly.

2 She cited Ferebee, Your Honor, as well as State
3 v. Moore. State v. Moore is a slip opinion and
4 doesn't really have any precedential value. So I
5 didn't shepardize it any further than that. But
6 under Ferebee, there has to be an identifiable
7 occupant and the occupant has to have some intent to 8 return to the dwelling.

9 I think the testimony from Ms. Clark herself
10 was that she's stayed there once in six weeks and 11 that she's still not real sure that she wants to 12 live there or not. She maintained an entire other 13 residence. She goes down there and checks about the 14 property from time to time, but she's certainly not 15 residing there, at least not in the classical sense
16 of the word reside.

17 I did, for Your Honor as well, shepardize and 18 print the Shepard's report for Ferebee as well, if 19 you'd like to see that. It appears to me, Judge,
20 that the test is whether or not the occupant has 21 left with the intent to return.

22 THE COURT: Any other cases?

23 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, under the Shepard's
24 report, I'd state State vs. Glenn, State vs. Evans,
25 and State vs. White. I can provide the Solicitor's

1 Office, obviously, the citations.

2 THE COURT: Tell me what you want me to look at
3 in State vs. Glenn.

4 MR. MCMILLIAN: Well, those cases, Your Honor,
5 all follow Ferebee in that it's the occupant's
6 intent to return to the property that controls. You
7 know, certainly if this were a vacation house and --
8 I think -- for what it's worth, I think the other
9 opinion that Ms. Hall gave me, the unpublished
10 opinion of State vs. Moore is instructed and that 11 there, the family that has inherited this house,
12 which is the decision here --

13 THE COURT: Which case is that?

14 MR. MCMILLIAN: State vs. Moore.

15 THE COURT: Well, you didn't give me that.

16 MR. MCMILLIAN: No, sir. It's an unpublished
17 opinion. I have a copy of it.

18 THE COURT: You know what precedential value
19 unpublished opinions have.

20 MR. MCMILLIAN: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: But you can argue it.

22 MR. MCMILLIAN: It seems to be the only case
23 relatively on point with our facts, Judge. There,
24 the family inherited a house after the owner was 25 deceased. And for several years, they used the

1 house several -- I believe the direct quote would be
2 several times a year for two to three weeks at a
3 time.

4 In this particular case, Judge, this lady
5 passed away six weeks prior, and the house was used
6 once. And there was testimony that the yard was 7 kept up and that the power and the lights remained
8 on, but this will hasn't even been probated.
9 Essentially, this house is still owned by the 10 Estate. And without an identifiable occupant, Your 11 Honor, this house is just a building and not a
12 dwelling.

13 THE COURT: Mrs. Hall.

14 MS. HALL: Your Honor, I would argue that the 15 case most on point would be State v. Evans in which 16 the Court of Appeals upheld the denial of the 17 directed verdict motion in which the owner testified
18 that the house burglarized was a secondary home.
19 The owner went there every -- once every month or 20 every two weeks.

21 On cross-examination the owner even admitted
22 that this house was really just used for storage.
23 They actually had not stayed in the house in over
24 three years due to the owner's wife's health. The 25 Court stated that the test terms on whether the

1 occupant left with the intent to return.

2 Ms. Evelyn --

3 THE COURT: Are you saying that Ms. Clark is an
4 owner, she's an occupant?

5 MS. HALL: Yes, Your Honor. She would be the
6 identifiable occupant. She had stayed in this house
7 in that short six-week period since the house had
8 essentially --

9 THE COURT: Well, does ownership equate to 10 occupancy?

11 MS. HALL: Not necessarily.

12 THE COURT: Well, has she ever occupied that
13 house?

14 MS. HALL: She did. She stayed the night --

15 THE COURT: One night.

16 MS. HALL: One night.

17 THE COURT: But had her own house. So how
18 could she return to that house to occupy --

19 MS. HALL: Your Honor, this house was left to 20 her in the will.

21 THE COURT: It was.

22 MS. HALL: The lights and water were left on 23 the entire time, which would evidence an intent to 24 return. Why else would the water and electricity
25 stay on?

1 THE COURT: To keep people from coming in and
2 breaking in.

3 MS. HALL: That's a hefty bill for Ms. Clark to 4 pay just to -- just for that purpose. Ms. Clark
5 checked the mail every day, the lawn was kept up,
6 the house remained fully furnished. And Ms. Clark
7 even had her own personal items in this house, which
8 also shows an intent to return.

9 If the house in State v. Evans in which the 10 owners hadn't actually stayed the night in three 11 years qualifies as dwelling, this certainly would 12 qualify as a dwelling.

13 Furthermore, the case of State v. Ferebee, that 14 was a case in which an apartment was at issue.

15 THE COURT: I just read it.

16 MS. HALL: And in that case, there had been no
17 one planning to move in. It was absolutely vacated
18 by the former tenants, and no one had intended to 19 move in. There was discussion in the case about 20 possibly the owner of that apartment complex being
21 the identifiable occupant. And the Court stated:
22 There's no evidence indicating that the owner ever
23 occupied or intended to occupy dwell in the 24 apartment. Here, there is evidence that the owner
25 intended to occupy the dwelling.

1 THE COURT: It says: The test whether a
2 building is a dwelling terms on whether the occupant
3 has left with the intention to return. Well,
4 Ms. Clark never has left because she never lived
5 there. She may have spent one night there. But how 6 can she leave with the intent to return if she never
7 had been there?

8 All right. I will take it under advisement and 9 make a ruling in the morning. If y'all have 10 anything to add to what you've given me, y'all both 11 have my e-mail address, send it to me over the 12 e-mail.

13 MR. MCMILLIAN: Certainly, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: If I grant your motion for directed
15 verdict, where does that leave us on the burglary
16 charge? That leaves us with second degree burglary?

17 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, I would argue that the 18 State indicted it for burglary first, they failed to 19 meet the elements of that, and we go forward on 20 possession of burglary tools and possession of a
21 stolen vehicle less than $2,000.

22 THE COURT: What's the State's position?

23 MS. HALL: Your Honor, being that burglary
24 second violent is a lesser included of burglary
25 first, I think it -- it's allowable for the State to

1 proceed under burglary second violent being that
2 it's a lesser included of burg first. And we'd also
3 proceed under the accompanying possession of 4 burglary tools and possession of stolen vehicle.

5 THE COURT: Find me some case law on that.
6 Both of you support your positions on that.

7 All right. Mr. McCladdie, would you please
8 stand for me, raise your right hand.

9 WILLIAM MCCLADDIE

10 being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

12 THE COURT: You may have a seat.

13 All right. The State has concluded their
14 testimony or their evidence. And we're at the stage
15 now where you have the opportunity to tell your side
16 of the story -- I think I told you that yesterday --
17 present whatever witnesses you want to present, or 18 you can testify and tell your side of the story.

19 If you decide to testify, you will be subjected 20 to cross-examination on any relevant issues like
21 anybody else who testifies.

22 Does he have a record that's impeachable?

23 MS. HALL: Yes, Your Honor. The State would 24 intend to question on a theft without consent out of 25 Ohio, another theft out of Ohio, and false

1 information to police.

2 THE COURT: It's a possibility -- anything
3 else?

4 MS. HALL: I apologize. There are three
5 thefts; two out of Ohio and one out of Georgia.

6 THE COURT: The State would attempt to
7 introduce, if you testify, your prior convictions
8 for theft. I would tell the jury that they could 9 only assume those for determining your credibility
10 or your believability; in other words, they could 11 use those to attack your credibility. They 12 obviously could not use prior convictions as 13 evidence of guilt in this case. So if you take the 14 stand, that may come in after I make certain
15 assessments as to whether or not it's more probative
16 than prejudicial and that sort of thing.

17 On the other hand, you have the constitutional
18 right to remain silent. You have absolutely no
19 burden to prove anything, you're not required to 20 prove anything. So you don't have to get up and 21 prove anything; you're presumed to be innocent. And 22 you have the constitutional right to remain silent.
23 If you exercise that right to remain silent, I
24 have -- part of my jury instruction is, he's not 25 testified in this case, he's exercised his right to

1 remain silent, therefore I tell you, ladies and
2 gentlemen of the jury, that you cannot hold the fact
3 that he did not testify against him in any manner
4 whatsoever, there's nothing to be inferred or 5 presumed from the fact he didn't testify. You have 6 that right.

7 And I will tell them that they're not to 8 consider the fact that you didn't testify, they're 9 not even to talk about it, it shouldn't enter their 10 deliberations. And I'll tell the foreperson that 11 that's one of his duties if anyone says anything
12 about you not testifying, he has to tell them that's 13 not proper. So I will instruct them fully and 14 strongly that you have that right and they can't use
15 that against you. So if you don't testify I would 16 tell them that. If you don't testify and you don't 17 put up any witnesses, you also get the last 18 argument.

19 So that right is yours and nobody can make you
20 do it or not make you do it. You have to make that 21 decision yourself. You can talk to Ms. Alves or 22 your lawyers and -- Mr. McMillian, and they can have 23 some input in it, but the decision is solely yours.
24 I'm not going to make you tell me you wish to or 25 your don't want to until tomorrow morning. But I

1 wanted to make sure you heard it from me. Do you
2 understand what I've said?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: Do you have any questions you'd
5 like to ask of me as to anything about that?

6 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

7 THE COURT: We'll sort of mull over that over
8 the evening, and you can tell me in the morning. Is 9 that fair?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. I appreciate you.

11 THE COURT: Anything else I can do for you?

12 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir. I appreciate you.

13 THE COURT: Okay. We'll stand at ease until 14 9:30 in the morning.

15 (Court in recess for the evening at 4:31 PM.)

16 THE COURT: All right. The first thing this
17 morning, on the motion for directed verdict,
18 obviously at this stage of the game, the Court is 19 concerned with the existence of evidence, not the 20 weight of evidence. And, obviously, the defendant
21 is entitled to a directed verdict when the State
22 fails to present evidence on a material element of 23 the offense charged. And, obviously, one of the 24 material elements of the offense of burglary in the 25 first degree is to prove that it is a dwelling. And

1 the case law is pretty clear on that and what we
2 have to look at to determine whether or not there is
3 in fact -- whether or not the place that was
4 burglarized is, in fact, a dwelling or simply a
5 building.

6 Instructive on that were a number of cases
7 presented to me for review, including State vs.
8 Ferebee, State vs. Evans. Those cases, obviously,
9 defines a dwelling house as any house, outhouse,
10 apartment, building, shed, or box in which there
11 sleeps a person who lodges there with a view to the 12 protection of property.

13 The test of whether a building is a dwelling
14 house terms on when whether the occupant has left
15 with intention to return. The person can have more
16 than a single dwelling house, any of which might be
17 the object of burglary, despite the occupant's
18 absence for extended periods of time, so long as he 19 or she had an intention to return. That's pretty 20 much the language that is cited throughout all of 21 the cases, including State vs. White, I think I
22 mentioned State vs. Glenn, the unpublished opinion
23 of State vs. Moore.

24 So in light of that, I went and reviewed the 25 testimony of Ms. Clark who testified yesterday.

1 And, obviously, the person who owned the house had
2 died, she has left it to Ms. Clark in her will, so
3 Ms. Clark is at least the de facto owner of the 4 house. The testimony was uncontradicted that she
5 had spent at least one night in the house subsequent
6 to her sister's death, which had occurred about six
7 months [sic] prior to the burglary. The testimony
8 was that she is, quote, working on it, unquote,
9 about planning to move into the house at [REDACTED] Foreman
10 Street. She said it's a slow progress, I know, and 11 there's some hang-ups, but I want to be there; keep
12 thinking maybe I'll feel her presence.

13 She's maintained at her own expense the 14 electricity and water since her sister's death, she 15 pays for those bills. She maintains the yard
16 through the help of a neighbor who continues to cut
17 it and keeps it maintained. She maintains and 18 continues to get mail, she or her sister, there at 19 that house, checks on the mail daily. She's stayed 20 there one night since the sister's death. She 21 maintains personal items of clothes at [REDACTED] Foreman
22 Street. In response to cross-examination, she 23 admitted that she had personal belongings in that 24 house and she is still considering moving into the 25 house.

1 So, as I said, at this stage of the game, it's
2 the existence of the evidence, not the weight of the
3 evidence. So I find that a jury -- it is a jury
4 question as to whether or not the premises located
5 at the address in question is, in fact, a dwelling
6 or building. That will be a decision for the jury.
7 I find there's evidence in the record that if they
8 found she had an intent to return, if that's how 9 they construe the evidence, that it could be a
10 dwelling. If they find she does not have any intent
11 to return, then it could be construed to be a
12 building. I find that to be a jury question.

13 I will submit to the jury burglary first and 14 the lesser included offense of burglary second, the 15 distinction simply being whether it's a dwelling --
16 the building is a dwelling or simply a building.
17 And I will advise them accordingly. So motion for 18 directed verdict is respectfully denied for those 19 reasons and relying on the cases that I have cited.

20 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge.

21 THE COURT: Yes.

22 MR. MCMILLIAN: If I may also make a motion
23 with regard to the other charges. Taking the 24 evidence in the light most favorable to the State,
25 we'd also move for a directed verdict of not guilty

1 on the charges of possession of burglary tools and
2 possession of stolen vehicle.

3 THE COURT: What's the basis for that?

4 MR. MCMILLIAN: I don't believe that there is
5 sufficient evidence in the record, Judge, that he
6 was in possession of the tool or that he had
7 knowledge of -- that the vehicle was stolen.

8 THE COURT: Well, the vehicle was with a warm
9 engine, had been camouflaged or painted or altered
10 sitting in the driveway, he had the keys in his 11 pocket, his jacket was found in the car with his 12 billfold which contained his social security card
13 and driver's license. So that's ample evidence that 14 the jury could find that he was in possession of a
15 stolen vehicle. And the guy testified -- the owner
16 of the vehicle testified that it was taken out of 17 his yard.

18 MR. MCMILLIAN: He testified that he had no
19 idea who stole it some two weeks prior. Judge, you
20 mentioned that he had the keys. Certainly the 21 vehicle was camouflaged, but one may also view
22 having the key as vehicle is not hot-wired, it's 23 not -- I mean, usually people who have the keys have 24 some sort of right to have the vehicle.

25 THE COURT: Well, people who leave their cars

1 in the yard with the keys in it, sometimes they get
2 stolen. That may not be the smartest thing to do,
3 but he certainly has the right to have his keys in 4 the car.

5 There's ample evidence in the record, if they
6 believe that, to convict him on the possession of 7 burglary tools. My goodness, when they find him in 8 the yard covered up with leaves just within a few
9 feet of the back door of the house, there's a
10 crowbar up underneath him. And, obviously, that 11 could be viewed as being in possession of an object
12 or a tool to commit a crime. And, obviously, they 13 could find or believe the police officer who showed 14 the picture of it being -- the crowbar being lined
15 up with the pry marks on the back door. So
16 respectfully denied.

17 MR. MCMILLIAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. Mr. McCladdie, I need
19 to inquire as to whether or not you plan to take the 20 witness stand and testify in your own defense or 21 whether or not you're going to exercise your right
22 to remain silent. And before you answer that 23 question, good morning. How are you?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Good morning.

25 THE COURT: Do you have any questions you need

1 to ask me about anything other than that?

2 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

3 THE COURT: Everything okay?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: I just need to know so I can figure
6 out where we're going on the rest of the trial,
7 whether you want to testify or whether you're not
8 going to testify.

9 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir. I don't want to 10 testify.

11 THE COURT: Well, then you'll be entitled to my 12 jury instruction about they cannot hold the fact
13 that you didn't testify in any manner whatsoever.
14 You'll hear that when I go through it. Thank you.

15 THE DEFENDANT: Thank you, sir.

16 THE COURT: All right. Jury charge, anything
17 in particular either one of you want? I'm going to 18 charge the lesser included offense of burglary
19 second.

20 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, I provided the State
21 with a copy of this with regard to the definition of 22 dwelling.

23 THE COURT: All right. Well, the first
24 paragraph is the same, the second paragraph is out
25 of -- what's your take on that, Mrs. Hall?

1 MS. HALL: The State does not object to the
2 proposed charge of burglary and dwelling.

3 THE COURT: All right. Anything else we need
4 to charge?

5 MS. HALL: Your Honor, just the possession of 6 tools capable of being used in a crime and 7 possession of stolen vehicle less than 2,000. And,
8 Judge, just to clarify, in charging the lesser
9 included offense, we wanted to make sure that that 10 was burglary second degree violent as opposed to 11 nonviolent, based on this occurring in the 12 nighttime.

13 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, our only objection to 14 that would be referring to it as violent. Certainly 15 don't have any problem with, obviously, charging
16 burglary second, but referring to it as violent is 17 prejudicial. The Court could certainly charge it as 18 burg second, subparagraph B.

19 MS. HALL: Your Honor, so long as it's clear
20 that the actual elements of the crime are burglary
21 second degree violent and as long as it's clear on 22 the verdict form which charge -- which subsection of 23 burglary second it would be, that would be fine with 24 the State.

25 THE COURT: Well, all I'd simply do on that

1 would be -- I would simply say if you find the State
2 has failed to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that
3 the defendant committed the offense of first degree
4 burglary, you may consider whether the State has
5 proved beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant
6 committed second degree burglary. Second degree
7 burglary includes all of the elements of the first
8 degree, except that the entry was into a building
9 and not a dwelling. And I would define building as 10 any structure, so forth and so on.

11 But I would not use the words violent crime. I
12 would simply say burglary second with the 13 understanding that if he's convicted, it's burglary
14 second degree violent. Is that correct,
15 Mr. McMillian?

16 MR. MCMILLIAN: Yes, sir, Your Honor. Our only
17 objection would be referring to it as burglary
18 second violent. And your instruction would remedy
19 that.

20 THE COURT: Well, the instruction would not 21 include violent, with the understanding if they 22 convict him of burglary second degree is violent as 23 opposed to nonviolent. Stipulate that?

24 MR. MCMILLIAN: Yes, sir, Your Honor. It would
25 be pursuant to subsection B.

1 MS. HALL: That's fine with the State, Your
2 Honor. And we could actually, on the verdict form,
3 include which subsection of the burglary statute
4 we're referring to, if we can't include the word
5 violent on the verdict form.

6 THE COURT: I normally don't put the statute on 7 there, I put it on the sentence sheet. If he's 8 convicted of burglary second, we're all under the 9 understanding, notwithstanding, it won't be charged
10 to the jury as violent and it won't be on the 11 verdict form as violent, but if he's convicted of 12 burglary second, it is violent. Correct, by the 13 State?

14 MS. HALL: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Correct, by Mr. McMillian?

16 MR. MCMILLIAN: Yes, sir, Judge.

17 THE COURT: Anything else in particular?

18 MS. HALL: Nothing from the State, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right. With the defendant not 20 putting up any witnesses, they get the last 21 argument. Everybody in agreement with that?

22 MS. HALL: Yes, Your Honor.

23 MR. MCMILLIAN: Certainly, Judge.

24 THE COURT: All right. Y'all ready to start?

25 MS. HALL: Yes, Your Honor.

1 MR. SLOCUM: Judge, we'll have demonstrative.
2 Would you like us to go ahead and set that up?

3 THE COURT: Please.

4 THE COURT: Anything else before we bring the 5 jury in?

6 MS. HALL: Nothing from the State, Your Honor.

7 MR. MCMILLIAN: Nothing from the Defense.

8 THE COURT: All right. Bring the jury in,
9 please.

10 (The jury enters the courtroom at 9:55 AM.)

11 THE COURT: Good morning. Okay. Mr. Foreman,
12 ladies and gentlemen, we had a few things we had to 13 do this morning, so I'm sorry for the 30 minutes you
14 had to wait. But we've completed all of the 15 testimony now. There will be no more testimony.
16 And then we had to talk about other things before we
17 argue. That's what caused the delay. And I
18 apologize.

19 We're now -- what's left are the final
20 arguments, as I told you when we stopped yesterday.
21 The State will go first, Mrs. Hall will present
22 hers, and Mr. McMillian will go second. Please bear
23 in mind that you've heard all of the evidence from 24 which you'll make your decision. The arguments are 25 simply how the lawyers perceive the evidence and

1 what they think it shows. Please listen carefully.

2 Once they've completed their arguments, I will
3 instruct you or charge you on the law. That won't
4 take very long, and then we'll be in a position to 5 start deliberating. And it depends on what time
6 we're at at that point as to whether you want to
7 order some sandwiches. But it takes us about 45
8 minutes to get everything here. So if you want to 9 order and while you deliberating it will be sent in 10 or however you want to do it. Fair enough? Okay.

11 Mrs. Hall.

12 MS. HALL: Thank you, Your Honor. May it
13 please the Court.

14 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

15 MS. HALL: Mr. McMillian, Judge.

16 At the beginning of this case, Mr. McMillian
17 asked you to close your eyes, use your imagination.
18 But, ladies and gentlemen, you'd have to close your
19 eyes to all this evidence to find William McCladdie
20 not guilty. At this point in the trial, I get to 21 talk to you about all of the evidence in this case.
22 But after I sit down, Mr. McMillian gets to get
23 up and talk about the case. And I don't get to come
24 back up before you, so I have to anticipate what Mr.
25 McMillian might say and what his arguments are might

1 be.

2 Throughout this trial, Mr. McMillian put a lot
3 of attention on the fact that law enforcement wasn't
4 able to fingerprint the house. But you heard from 5 Officer Hess, the resources weren't available for
6 Jackson Police Department, they weren't able to get 7 fingerprints, and fingerprints aren't done in every
8 case. Just because this house wasn't fingerprinted
9 doesn't mean William McCladdie is not guilty.

10 There was also a lot of questioning about how 11 many people it would take to move a washer and 12 dryer, how many people it would take to move a
13 freezer. Ladies and gentlemen, if someone helped 14 William McCladdie, that's also irrelevant today.
15 What we're for today is the actions of William 16 McCladdie. The person on trial today is William
17 McCladdie.

18 This case can be boiled down to a few simple
19 but profound facts. On the night of this burglary,
20 around midnight, William McCladdie was found right
21 outside the house, hiding in the bushes, and laying 22 on top of a crowbar. And in his pocket was a key to 23 a stolen vehicle that had been backed into the 24 driveway. And in that stolen vehicle was William
25 McCladdie's ID, William McCladdie's social security,

1 card, and multiple items that had been stolen from
2 inside that house, to include Margaret McDaniel and
3 Evelyn Clark's checkbook, address [REDACTED] Forman street,
4 to include mail for Margaret McDaniel at [REDACTED] Foreman
5 Street.

6 So let's talk about each of the charges
7 Mr. McCladdie faces today. We'll start with the 8 possession of a stolen vehicle. The law says it's 9 unlawful for someone to be in possession of a
10 vehicle they know is stolen. And under the law
11 there are multiple ways that someone can be in 12 possession of something.

13 Obviously, William McCladdie can't hold a car
14 in his hand. The law states that someone can be in 15 constructive possession of an item. And 16 constructive possession just means dominion and 17 control over the car. William McCladdie had 18 dominion and control over the car because he had the 19 key in his pocket. He was the only one who could 20 crank that car. You heard from Officer Mike Hess
21 who said the hood of this car was still warm when he 22 got there, someone had recently gotten out of that 23 car. And whose ID was in the car? Whose social 24 security card was in that car? Ladies and 25 gentlemen, William McCladdie had possession of that

1 car.

2 Now, how do we know he knew it was stolen?
3 Well, for starters, this car was backed into the 4 driveway, which makes for an easy get-away if you're
5 in a hurry, but it also keeps that license plate
6 from view of the public street where law enforcement
7 could run the tag and find out it's stolen. He was 8 concealing the license plate because he knew it was 9 stolen. And you heard from Officer Mike Hess about 10 the over-spray on this car. This car was 11 hand-spray-painted primer gray. Why would you spray
12 paint a car unless you're trying to conceal the 13 identity because it's been reported stolen?

14 And, ladies and gentlemen, if William McCladdie
15 got this car from somebody else -- he didn't have to 16 steal it himself. We don't have to prove that he 17 stole it. But if you get into a car that's 18 hand-spray-painted primer gray, this can that was 19 found in the trunk, you know something is not right.

20 Ladies and gentlemen, I also ask that you take
21 a look at these pictures of the car. You see all
22 the stuff inside this car. There was no room for 23 another person to come in this car. All of this 24 stuff in this passenger's seat, all the shoes, that 25 wasn't claimed by Ms. Clark or her grandson; this

1 stuff was already in the car. Where is another
2 person going to fit in that car?

3 Possession of tools capable of being used in a
4 crime. The law says it's unlawful for someone to be
5 in possession of a tool that's commonly used in a
6 burglary under circumstances showing an intent for 7 it to be used in the commission of a crime. Well,
8 ladies and gentlemen, William McCladdie was caught
9 red-handed with that burglary tool. And you heard
10 from multiple law enforcement officers, he was 11 laying on the ground hovering over something,
12 wouldn't show his hands. He was ordered to put his 13 hands up, and he wouldn't put his hands up because 14 he had a crowbar under him. He had possession of a
15 crowbar, a burglary tool.

16 And we know his intent was to use it in the 17 crime, because his intent had already been carried
18 out. That crowbar that they found matched and lined
19 up with the marks on the door frame where the house
20 had been broken into. His intent had been carried 21 out. William McCladdie is guilty of possession of 22 burglary tools.

23 Now we're going to move on to burglary in the 24 first degree. And I've written this out for you
25 because there are multiple elements to burglary in

1 the first degree. Someone commits the crime of
2 burglary in the first degree if they enter a
3 dwelling without consent, with the intent to commit
4 a crime in there, and the entering or remaining
5 occurs in the nighttime. Well, there's no dispute
6 that William McCladdie was found at this house just 7 before -- well, it was reported that his car was 8 reported there just before midnight. He was found
9 sometime shortly before midnight. It had been 10 nighttime for a long time at that point. This 11 element is satisfied.

12 Intent to commit a crime. Ladies and 13 gentlemen, you know that items were stolen from that 14 house because items that were identified by 15 Ms. Evelyn Clark and her grandson were found in the 16 stolen vehicle. A larceny had already occurred, the 17 items had already been taken, there was an intent to 18 commit a crime. This element is also satisfied.

19 Without consent. You heard from Ms. Evelyn
20 Clark and from her grandson, they didn't give 21 permission for anybody to be in the house. They 22 didn't know of anybody else who should have been in 23 that house. And we know that house was entered 24 without consent because there were pry marks on the 25 door, the screens had been prayed off of the back

1 window, the screen on the back had been cracked, and
2 someone had shattered the door on the side that had
3 also been pried open. This house was entered
4 without consent. This element is also satisfied.

5 So we move now to the dwelling. At the
6 beginning of this trial, I told you Ms. Evelyn
7 Clark, she didn't have to be in that house that 8 night, she didn't have to be in that house the 9 majority of the time. People can have more than one
10 dwelling. A lot of people have vacation homes. If 11 a house is burglarized when someone is not at their 12 vacation home or their beach house, it's still a
13 dwelling.

14 And the secondary house doesn't have to be a
15 vacation home. My in-laws, for instance, they have 16 a house in Jackson, that's where they raised their 17 children, where they spent most of their adult life,
18 but they bought a house in Edgefield, South
19 Carolina. They fell in love with this house. After 20 their kids were grown, they moved into the house in 21 Edgefield, South Carolina.

22 But they still have that house in Jackson, it's 23 fully furnished, the lights are on, the power is on.
24 And they come to stay in that house in Jackson
25 periodically because that's where their family is

1 at, that's where their grandson is at. They come to
2 stay in that house periodically so they can be close
3 to their family. If either of those houses are 4 burglarized, regardless of where they're at, both of 5 those houses are dwellings.

6 The statute for burglary defines a dwelling as
7 a building, a house, an outhouse, a shed, a box
8 where someone sleeps with the view to protect the 9 property. Ladies and gentlemen, if a shed or a box
10 where someone sleeps is a dwelling, this house, [REDACTED]
11 Foreman Street, is certainly a dwelling. You heard
12 from Ms. Evelyn Clark this house was still fully 13 furnished, she paid for the lights and water to stay
14 on, the yard was maintained, and this little 15 77-year-old woman, she raked the yard at this house.
16 She was at the house every single day, checking the 17 mail, and she told you she had stayed the night, she 18 slept in that house.

19 Ladies and gentlemen, this house is either a
20 dwelling or it's just a building. If it's a
21 dwelling, William is guilty of burglary in the first
22 degree. But if this is just a building where no one
23 sleeps, it's burglary in the second degree.

24 Ladies and gentlemen, Evelyn Clark slept in 25 that house. That house was fully furnished, the

1 lights were on, she maintained that house. This
2 element is also satisfied. This house is a
3 dwelling.

4 At the beginning of this case I told you that
5 the State, myself, Mr. Slocum, we had the burden of 6 proving the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable
7 doubt. But that doesn't mean beyond all doubt.
8 Reasonable doubt is the kind of doubt that would
9 cause a reasonable person to hesitate to act. There
10 are very few things in life that we know with 11 absolute certainty. And that's not what the law
12 requires. The law states that if after seeing all
13 of the evidence, hearing the testimony, you're left
14 firmly convinced of the defendant's guilt, we've met
15 our burden and the defendant is guilty.

16 I'd ask that y'all go through all of this
17 evidence, look through it; this checkbook, address
18 [REDACTED] Foreman Street, it's got Margaret McDaniel's
19 name on it, it's also got Evelyn Clark's name on it,
20 because that house on [REDACTED] Foreman Street was also 21 her dwelling.

22 In a few moments you're going to hear from 23 Mr. McMillian, and it's his job to make you look at 24 other things, to try and take the focus off the fact
25 that William McCladdie was found outside this house.

1 on a crowbar. But I ask that you stay focused and
2 not forget the important facts, the profound facts.
3 William McCladdie was found right outside this
4 house, hiding in the bushes, covered in leaves, and
5 laying on top of a crowbar; he had a stolen car key
6 in his pocket, and in that car was William
7 McCladdie's ID, his social security card, and
8 multiple items that Ms. Clark identified, that her
9 grandson identified as having come from that house.

10 Ladies and gentlemen, on the night of February
11 20th, 2015, William McCladdie didn't just steal
12 stuff from Evelyn Clark; he stole the only thing she 13 had left of her sister, and that was the peace and 14 security she felt when she was in the house that her
15 sister left her.

16 William McCladdie is guilty of burglary in the 17 first degree. William McCladdie is guilty of
18 possession of tools capable of being used in a
19 crime, and William McCladdie is guilty of possession
20 of a stolen vehicle. Thank you.

21 THE COURT: Mr. McMillian.

22 MR. MCMILLIAN: Your Honor, Ms. Hall.

23 Ladies and gentlemen, we started yesterday and
24 I reminded you of what your sworn oath was, what you
25 promised me, Mr. McCladdie, the Judge and, whether

1 they want to admit it or not, what you promised the
2 State; that you would look at all of the evidence,
3 or the lack thereof, and make a decision. Has the 4 State met their burden? That scale is tipped. The 5 scales of justice are always tipped in the 6 defendant's favor. And they're not tipped a little 7 bit. Remember that. They're tipped a lot. The 8 State's burden is heavy.

9 Ladies and gentlemen, the State entered this 10 picture of [REDACTED] Foreman Street, a little house in 11 downtown Jackson. Ms. Evelyn Clark sat right here,
12 sweet little lady, and she told you that she lived
13 on First Street, that her sister passed away six
14 weeks prior, six weeks. Is it odd that Ms. Clark
15 kept paying the light bill or the power bill? No.
16 To turn it back on, there's a fee, I'm sure.

17 The important thing to consider: Did she live
18 there? Was she planning on returning? How many 19 nights did she stay? One night in six weeks.
20 Bigger than that, ladies and gentlemen, she sat
21 right here and told you that she still, to this day,
22 was not sure she wanted to live at [REDACTED] Foreman
23 Street. Ladies and gentlemen, what makes a dwelling
24 a dwelling is the intent to return. And she didn't 25 have it, and she doesn't have it now.

1 The State made a big deal about the fact the
2 Ms. Clark's name was on this lady's checkbook. And
3 I don't know about y'all, but my mother's name is on
4 my grandmother's checkbook. It's because things
5 seed through the courts different ways. It doesn't
6 mean she lived there. Did the State provide any 7 mail that showed that she got mail there; a power
8 bill, a light bill showing that they were even in 9 her name? Nope. They simply asked, did you keep 10 paying the bill?

11 You know, my granddad has been dead since 1991.
12 And when I return home to Union, South Carolina, I
13 stay at my grandma's house with her. And I'll check
14 her mail for her because it's out by the highway and 15 she doesn't get around real well. You know whose 16 name that light bill and the water bill are still
17 in? Everett Hank, my grandfather, some 25 years
18 later. He doesn't live there anymore.

19 Ladies and gentlemen, before we even get to 20 whether this is burglary in the first degree or 21 burglary in the second degree, you have to determine
22 that he did this; that he entered a building or a
23 dwelling, not that he pried on the outside of the 24 door, not that the windows were broken, not that the 25 screens were taken out. They have to convince you

1 beyond a reasonable doubt that he entered.

2 Officer Hess sat up here and Officer Hess
3 entered a whole bunch of pictures. And Officer Hess
4 told you that he found several items outside that
5 came from inside, and that he tested them -- or he
6 tested them for fingerprints or he sent them to be 7 tested. Ladies and gentlemen, he admitted to me and 8 to y'all, never checked that doorway because the 9 resources weren't available; never checked the glass
10 door that was there, the handle, the glass, the 11 doorknob, the shattered window, nothing.

12 Ladies and gentlemen, he said that as he and an
13 Aiken County Sheriff's deputy cleared the house,
14 there was a freezer on the porch and there was a
15 removed screen. He didn't test any of those either
16 because the resources weren't available. He didn't 17 test a freezer that had very obviously been moved.
18 I don't know about y'all, but I've moved large
19 furniture before, and you put big, oily handprints
20 on large furniture when you have to spread your 21 fingers and lift with your legs. But he didn't test
22 them because the resource s weren't available.

23 Ladies and gentlemen, he told you before backup
24 got there, he secured the residence, he went around
25 and looked at all the different stuff, and that he

1 came to the front door and that he couldn't get in,
2 but he couldn't tell you that door was shut. And on
3 redirect he said, well, I shined my flashlight and
4 it looked shut. As he went back through the house,
5 ladies and gentlemen, this door was open. If you
6 accept his story that that door was secure, the only
7 way somebody left that house was through this door.

8 I want y'all to break that down and think about 9 it with me. How do you -- it seems innocuous. But
10 think about the little steps that you take to walk
11 out the door, much less the little steps you take to 12 walk out the door if you think the police are there.
13 The shades, maybe you push them open and touch the 14 window to look and see if anybody is there. You
15 have to palm that doorknob. You have to unlock it,
16 palm the doorknob, and open it, and then you have to 17 push the screen door handle. Maybe you touched the 18 glass. Ladies and gentlemen, what's more, this 19 little house [REDACTED] Foreman Street in Jackson has 20 railings. Did anybody even look? The resources
21 weren't available.

22 Ladies and gentlemen, the resources aren't
23 available is something you hear in city hall
24 meetings when you're talking about the money, time,
25 expenses. The resources weren't available is not a

1 reason you should accept when a man's life is in the 2 balance. It's just not. It's just not.

3 Now, regarding the car -- and y'all bear with
4 me just a minute, I'm kind of shuffling through
5 these. The State had Mr. Ayers come up here and 6 testify about his car and that it was missing, and
7 that it went missing on February 8th, a little
8 Nissan Altima. And he told you that that car was 9 tan, I believe, the last time he saw it in Augusta,
10 Georgia. I don't know exactly how far his house is 11 or how the car got from there to here. We've never 12 offered anything on that. But just that he waited a
13 couple days because he wasn't sure if he left it
14 somewhere or who knows, needed to call his dad or 15 friends. We don't know. He doesn't remember.
16 Maybe they had permission.

17 I'll tell you one thing: Whoever left had the 18 key. He explained that a ways that the key was just 19 up here because it was broken. That's a perfectly
20 reasonable explanation. But let's just say somebody
21 brings you a car and they've got the key. How often
22 do you see that? Usually people who have keys have 23 permission to be in use of the car. Would it be 24 reasonable for him to think he -- whoever had this 25 car had permission? Maybe.

1 Have they convinced you that he knew this car
2 was stolen? Mike Hess got up here and gave a great
3 speech about over-spray and -- I think this is a
4 prime example. There's some paint. Who knows? Who
5 knows? I only offer that, ladies and gentlemen,
6 because we can't be sure.

7 Ms. Hall talked kind of briefly about what it
8 meant to be in possession of burglary tools. And 9 the testimony was that they found him on top of a
10 pry bar. Was it a burglary tool? The only evidence
11 we have, if you choose to accept it -- frankly, the 12 best picture we have, State's Exhibit 17. I think
13 there were two, but this one actually puts the pry
14 bar up next to it. If you believe the story that he
15 had a tool -- but they haven't shown you any intent
16 to use it, they didn't give you any evidence that he 17 was the one using this door. They want you to use
18 your common sense. And you know why? Because the 19 resources weren't available. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Foreman, ladies and gentlemen,
21 my charge or instructions are about 10 or 15
22 minutes. Anybody need a bathroom break or are we 23 okay? Everybody fine?

24 Okay. First of all, let me remind you, the 25 fact, in this case, that the defendant has been

1 arrested, charged, and indicted, that is not
2 evidence in the case and cannot be considered by you
3 as evidence of guilt in the case, nor does it create
4 any presumptions of guilt or inference of guilt.
5 The indictments are simply the formal instruments by
6 way this case comes into the courtroom.

7 There are three indictments in the case;
8 burglary first, possession of burglary tools, and 9 possession of a stolen vehicle. Each separate 10 indictment is a separate and distinct offense, and 11 you must decide each indictment separately on the 12 evidence applicable to it, uninfluenced by your
13 decision as to any of the other indictments.

14 You'll have three verdict forms. You'll be 15 asked to consider each one of those separate and 16 apart from the other. He may be convicted on one
17 and acquitted on one, convicted on two, acquitted on 18 one, any combination. So found not guilty on all
19 three, found guilty on all three, it's just whatever
20 combination. You'll have to write a separate
21 verdict form to each one, and you'll have to decide
22 each one of those separate and apart from the 23 others. And I'll give you a verdict form at the 24 conclusion for you to do that.

25 To these three indictments, the defendant has

1 pled not guilty. And a plea of not guilty obviously
2 puts the burden on the State of South Carolina to
3 prove his guilt to you beyond a reasonable doubt. A
4 person charged with committing a criminal offense in
5 our state is never required to prove himself
6 innocent. I charge you that it is an important
7 constitutional rule of law that the defendant in a
8 criminal trial, no matter how serious the crimes may 9 be and the charges may be, will always be presumed 10 to be innocent of the charges for which the 11 indictments were issued, unless guilt has been 12 proven by evidence satisfying you of that guilt
13 beyond a reasonable doubt.

14 And the presumption of innocence does not end
15 when you start your deliberations, but it stays with 16 the defendant throughout the trial until you reach a
17 verdict of guilt based on evidence satisfying you of 18 that guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. The 19 presumption of innocence is not a mere legal theory
20 or just a legal phrase. As I said, it is a
21 substantial constitutional right to which every 22 defendant is entitled, unless you the jury are 23 satisfied from the evidence of the defendant's guilt
24 beyond a reasonable doubt.

25 Now, our Supreme Court has defined on many

1 occasions the term reasonable doubt, and they define
2 it basically two ways. They say a reasonable doubt
3 is the kind of doubt that would cause a reasonable
4 person to hesitate to act. It's the kind of doubt
5 that would cause a reasonable person to hesitate to 6 act. It's also been said that reasonable doubt is 7 proof that leaves you firmly convinced of the 8 defendant's guilt. There are very few things in 9 this world that we know with absolute certainty.
10 And in criminal cases, the law does not require
11 proof that overcomes every possible doubt.

12 If, based on your consideration of the 13 evidence, you're firmly convinced that the defendant
14 is guilty of the crimes charged, then you must find 15 him guilty; if, on the other hand, you think there's 16 a real possibility that the defendant is not guilty,
17 then you must give him the benefit of the doubt and 18 find him not guilty.

19 Let me remind you that during the trial of this
20 case you and I have had certain duties to perform.
21 My job has been to rule on the admissibility of 22 evidence. And there were very few things that were 23 objected to during the trial, so all that evidence
24 has come in to the trial of the case. My other 25 responsibility is to charge and instruct you on the

1 law. And, as I told you in the beginning, if you
2 have some preconceived idea about what the law is or
3 should be and it doesn't agree with what I say,
4 please set that aside and accept the law as I give
5 it to you, the law of the state. So I'm the judge
6 of the law.

7 As I told you earlier, the most important
8 judges in the courtroom are you. The 12 of you
9 collectively acting as one, you're the judges of the 10 facts in this case. So it's up to you to determine
11 and judge what the true facts are. So if at any 12 time during the trial of the case you've looked over
13 here at me and I've smiled or frowned or yawned or 14 made some facial expression, chewed on my glasses,
15 whatever, and you think I've got some opinion about 16 the facts, please set that aside. I cannot have any 17 opinion about the facts in the case. I try cases
18 all over the state, and I'm not allowed to have any 19 opinion about the facts. So please don't infer
20 anything from what I may have done, said, or not did
21 that I have any opinion about the facts. That is 22 your job and your job solely. You are the judges of 23 the facts.

24 And necessarily by being the judges of the 25 facts, you have to determine the credibility of the

1 witnesses who have testified in this case.
2 Credibility simply means believability. It becomes
3 your duty as jurors to analyze and evaluate the
4 evidence and determine which evidence convinces you
5 of its truth. In determining the believability of 6 the witnesses who have testified in the case, you
7 may believe one witness over several or several
8 witnesses over one, you can believe a little bit
9 about what somebody says and disregard the rest, a
10 part, not the rest, you can disbelieve everything
11 somebody says, believe everything somebody says. In 12 other words, you have the right to determine what
13 the true facts are by judging the credibility.

14 You can consider whether any witness has 15 exhibited to you any interest, bias, prejudice or 16 other motive in the case, and you may consider the 17 appearance and manner of the witness while on the 18 witness stand. As I said earlier, please use your 19 everyday common sense dealing with people to 20 determine what the true facts are. And your duty
21 is, once you determine what the true facts are, then 22 you take those true facts and apply it to the law as 23 I give it to you, and then you determine whether or
24 not the State has proven its case to you beyond a
25 reasonable doubt, and then you'll be in a position

1 to render a true and just verdict. Verdict simply 2 means to speak the truth.

3 Let me further instruct and emphasize to you
4 that there's an important constitutional right that
5 in a trial such as this or any trial where the 6 defendant does not testify, he has the absolute
7 right, constitutional right to remain silent. The 8 fact that he's remained silent and did not testify
9 is not, is not, not, a fact to be considered by you
10 at all in your deliberation and in your
11 consideration on the question of the guilt or 12 innocence of the defendant. It must not be 13 considered by you in any manner whatsoever.

14 As I said, he has the constitutional right to 15 remain silent, and the assertion of this
16 constitutional right must not be considered by you
17 in your deliberations. Under your oath, you're to 18 draw no conclusion whatsoever of the fact that the 19 defendant in this case did not testify. The fact
20 that he did not testify should not even be discussed
21 in the jury room.

22 Burden of proof, as I've stated to you, is on 23 the State. The defendant is not required to prove 24 his innocence. The burden remains on the State to 25 prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

1 Now, ladies and gentlemen, that is general law
2 dealing with criminal cases that we charge all over
3 the state dealing with all criminal cases. It
4 applies to all crimes, general -- constitutional,
5 general law. Let's now talk about the specific
6 indictments in this case. I'll start with burglary.

7 In our state, burglary is divided in degrees.
8 And the defendant in this case is charged with 9 burglary in the first degree. The State must first
10 prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant
11 entered a dwelling without consent. Prove to you
12 beyond a reasonable doubt that he entered a dwelling
13 without consent.

14 Now, a dwelling is defined in our law as any
15 building or portion of a building in which a person
16 ordinarily sleeps. A building is a dwelling even if 17 the occupants are temporarily absent from the 18 building. Now, a dwelling is further defined in our 19 statutes as any house or outhouse or apartment or 20 building, shed, or box in which there sleeps a
21 person -- in which there sleeps a person who lodges
22 there with a view to the protection of that
23 property. It's further defined as the living
24 quarters of a building used or normally used for 25 living or sleeping or lodging by a person.

1 In order for a building to be considered a
2 dwelling, the building must have an identifiable
3 occupant sleeping or residing there. While the
4 temporary absence of occupants will not prevent a
5 residence from becoming the subject of a burglary,
6 it is required that the occupant leave with the 7 intention of returning in order for the building to 8 be a dwelling, thus the test of whether a building
9 is a dwelling turns on whether the identified
10 occupant has left with the intention to return. If 11 the identifiable occupant or occupant has left with 12 no intention to return, then the building not a
13 dwelling. And I'll tell you what the distinction of 14 that is in just a few minutes.

15 But to prove burglary in the first degree, the 16 State must prove to you beyond a reasonable doubt
17 that the defendant entered a dwelling without 18 consent. And I've defined to you what a dwelling
19 is.

20 Second, the State must prove to you beyond a
21 reasonable doubt that the defendant intended to 22 commit a crime at the time of the entry. Mere entry
23 into a dwelling without consent is not burglary. If 24 the intent to commit a crime is formed after the 25 entry, it is not a burglary; on the other hand, if

1 the defendant intended to commit a crime at the time
2 of the entry, it's a burglary.

3 And, finally, the third element the State must 4 prove to you beyond a reasonable doubt is that the 5 defendant entered or remained in the dwelling in the 6 nighttime. Nighttime is exactly what it is, the 7 period between sunset and sunrise during which there
8 is not enough daylight to recognize a person's face
9 except by artificial light or moonlight.

10 Now, I told you we have different degrees of 11 burglary. We also have what's called a lesser
12 included offense of burglary; it's second degree
13 burglary. And if you find that the State has failed
14 to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that he committed
15 first degree burglary, then you must consider
16 whether the State has proved beyond a reasonable
17 doubt that the defendant committed second degree
18 burglary.

19 Second degree burglary includes all of the 20 elements of first degree burglary, except that the 21 entry was into a building, not a dwelling. A
22 dwelling is where someone sleeps, and a building is 23 defined by our statutes as any structure or place
24 where people assemble for the purpose of business,
25 government, education, religion, entertainment,

1 public transportation or public use or where goods
2 are stored. In other words, it's a building where
3 people don't normally sleep, that's the distinction,
4 and return to the place where you sleep.

5 So if you find that the place that was entered
6 was not a dwelling, then you must consider whether 7 it was a building and whether he entered without 8 consent and with intent to commit a crime therein in 9 the nighttime. Those are the two distinctions
10 between first and second degree burglary.

11 Now let's turn to the other two indictments.
12 The other indictment that I -- don't put any 13 significance in the way I'm reading these; one's got 14 to come before the other one. But let's talk about 15 possession of a stolen vehicle. He's charged with 16 possession of a stolen vehicle in which the value of 17 the vehicle is less than $2,000.

18 The State must prove to you beyond a reasonable
19 doubt that the defendant either received or 20 possessed or concealed or sold or disposed of a
21 vehicle knowing it to be stolen or converting it
22 under circumstances constituting a crime. The State
23 must also prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the 24 value of the vehicle was less than $2,000. So they 25 must prove to you beyond a reasonable doubt that the

1 defendant received, possessed, concealed, sold, or
2 disposed of a vehicle knowing it to be stolen.

3 And the other indictment is for the offense of
4 possession of tools capable of being used in a
5 crime. That's set out in section 16-11-20. In
6 order to prove that, the State must prove to you
7 beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant
8 possessed any implement or thing adapted, designed,
9 or commonly used for the commission of burglary,
10 stealing, safe-cracking, or other crimes under 11 circumstances evincing and attempt to use, employ,
12 or allow the same to be used or employed in the 13 commission of a crime or knowing that the same or 14 intended it to be so used. That's exactly what it
15 says; it's being in possession of a tool that's used
16 to commit a crime. The State must prove that to you
17 beyond a reasonable doubt.

18 Now, Mr. Foreman, ladies and gentlemen of the 19 jury, your verdict has to be unanimous on all three 20 indictments. So you'll have to consider each one of 21 them separate and apart. And you'll have a verdict
22 form for possession of a stolen vehicle, possession
23 of burglary tools, and the burglary. The possession
24 of the burglary tools and the possession of a
25 stolen vehicle is pretty simple, it's either not

1 guilty or guilty. The verdict has to be unanimous,
2 all 12 of you have to agree on each indictment.

3 Now, on the burglary, that's a little different
4 because you will first consider burglary in the 5 first degree to prove -- to find out whether or not
6 the State has proved to you beyond a reasonable
7 doubt if he entered a dwelling in the nighttime
8 without consent with the intent to commit a crime
9 therein. Dwelling, I've defined that for you.

10 If you fail to -- find that the State has 11 failed to prove any of those elements of the crime,
12 then you would consider whether or not he committed 13 the offense of burglary in the second degree, and 14 the distinction being building versus dwelling. If 15 you find that he didn't enter the building or 16 dwelling at all or didn't enter it with intent to 17 commit a crime or it wasn't in the nighttime, then,
18 obviously, you find him not guilty.

19 But if you find that dwelling versus building,
20 you find him not guilty of burglary first, you have
21 to consider burglary second. If you find him guilty
22 of burglary first, then you don't consider the 23 burglary second. That make sense? Okay.

24 Now, couple last things: As I said, the 25 verdict has to be unanimous, all 12 of you have to

1 agree. We're not here to punish any enemies or
2 reward any friends. Your civic duty is to go back
3 and consider the evidence, deliberate on the 4 evidence, determine what testimony convinces you of 5 its truth, apply those true facts to the law as I've 6 given it to you to determine whether or not the 7 State has proven their case to you beyond a
8 reasonable doubt. Once you reach that decision,
9 mark the appropriate checkmarks, sign it, knock on 10 the door, Mr. Whittle will tell me when y'all are 11 ready to come out.

12 Sometimes jurors have questions, that's not
13 usual. And the protocol is this: If you do have a 14 question about something, write it out on a piece of 15 paper or legal pad, knock on the door, and he'll 16 send it to me. Sometimes I can answer it, sometimes 17 I can't. It just depends on what the question is.
18 But you'll have a response back one way or the 19 other.

20 I'll ask that you to return to your jury room.
21 It's 11:00. You make the choice, Mr. Foreman, after 22 talking to your fellow members about what you want
23 to do about lunch. As I said, it takes about an 24 hour to get here.

25 Don't start deliberating quite yet. I have to

1 do two things; I have to ask the lawyers if I've
2 left anything out, and then I have to gather up all
3 of the evidence. We'll send the evidence back in 4 the jury room along with the three verdict forms.
5 Once the bailiff brings the verdict forms and the
6 evidence to you, then you can start deliberating.
7 It shouldn't be but about two or three minutes, five
8 at the most. Okay. Separate my alternates, please.
9 I'll send this all back to you in just a few
10 minutes.

11 Mr. Foreman, if y'all want to order lunch, you
12 need to do that right out the chute. And you can
13 deliberate shortly or long and wait for your lunch
14 to get here or however you want to do it.

15 THE FOREMAN: Yes, sir.

16 (The jury exits the courtroom at 10:50 AM.)

17 THE COURT: All right. Any objections,
18 requested additions or deletions to the charge by
19 the State?

20 MS. HALL: Your Honor, the only thing that I
21 noticed that wasn't part of your charge was the 22 instruction on direct and circumstantial evidence.
23 I thought that was part of your general charge, and 24 that's why it was not specifically requested.

25 THE COURT: Okay. I'll stand by it.

1 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, I don't have anything to 2 add.

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 All right. Y'all please come up and review the 5 exhibits to make sure we have everything. You know
6 we had the agreement that we were going to send the 7 candelabra and the lamp back and take out that
8 picture 59, I think. Make sure we do that, review
9 the verdict form, please.

10 (Brief pause in the proceedings.)

11 THE COURT: Let the record reflect that both
12 the State and Defense have reviewed all exhibits,
13 they're in order; they've reviewed all three verdict
14 forms, have no objections. Is that correct,
15 Mrs. Hall?

16 MS. HALL: Correct, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Mr. McMillian?

18 MR. MCMILLIAN: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right. It's 10:58. We'll 20 stand at ease.

21 (The jury begins deliberations at 10:58 AM.)

22 THE COURT: Mr. McMillian, Mr. Slocum, look
23 here. Any objection to this? I received a note
24 from the jury: Can we get jury instructions in 25 written form? I shared this with both counsel. My

1 response is: No. I can reread the charge if you
2 need me to.

3 Any objection to that by the State?

4 MR. SLOCUM: Nothing from the State.

5 THE COURT: By the Defense?

6 MR. MCMILLIAN: Nothing by the Defense.

7 (Court's Exhibit No. 1 marked for
8 identification.)

9 (The jury continues deliberations at 11:32 AM.)

10 THE COURT: All right. Next question: Could
11 we please have the definition of a dwelling versus a
12 building in writing, two definitions. My response:
13 I can only recharge; I cannot provide these 14 definitions in written form.

15 Any objection by the State?

16 MS. HALL: Nothing from the State.

17 THE COURT: By the Defendant?

18 MR. MCMILLIAN: None from the Defense, Your

19 Honor.

20 (Court's Exhibit No. 2 marked for
21 identification.)

22 (The jury continues deliberations at 11:37 AM.)

23 THE COURT: We have another one. The question
24 is: Was the bracelet found with the crowbar stolen
25 from the house or was it stolen by the suspect? My

1 answer was: I can't answer this question.

2 MS. HALL: No objection from the State.

3 MR. MCMILLIAN: Nothing from the, Defense,
4 Judge.

5 (Court's Exhibit No. 3 marked for
6 identification.)

7 (The jury continues deliberations at 11:52 AM.)

8 THE COURT: Is the State ready to receive the 9 verdict?

10 MS. HALL: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Mr. McMillian, are you ready?

12 MR. MCMILLIAN: Yes, sir, Judge.

13 THE COURT: All right. Bring the jury in,
14 please.

15 (The jury enters the courtroom at 1:18 PM.)

16 THE COURT: Mr. Foreman, have y'all reached a
17 verdict?

18 THE FOREMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Pass it to the bailiff, please.
20 Thank you.

21 All right. Stand up please, Mr. McCladdie.

22 THE CLERK: Your Honor, we have the State of 23 South Carolina vs. William Herbert McCladdie.

24 Indictment 15-GS-02-01105, as to the offense of 25 possession of stolen vehicle, we the jury find the

1 defendant guilty.

2 Indictment 15-GS-02-01104, as to the offense of
3 possession of implements capable of being used in a
4 crime, we the jury find the defendant guilty.

5 Indictment 15-GS-02-01103, as to the offense of
6 burglary in the first degree, we the jury find the 7 defendant guilty.

8 All of them signed by Foreman Michael Fowler,
9 dated July 8th, 2015.

10 Mr. Foreman, ladies and gentlemen of the petit
11 jury, if this is your verdict, please indicate by 12 the raising of your right hand.

13 THE COURT: Let the record reflect all have 14 raised their hand.

15 Anything else for the jury before I release
16 them, by the State?

17 MS. HALL: Nothing from the State, Your Honor.

18 MR. MCMILLIAN: Nothing, Judge.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Foreman, ladies and gentlemen
20 of the jury, I can't thank you enough. It was a
21 short trial, but y'all have paid wonderful
22 attention, and I've enjoyed having you. I will now
23 excuse you for the balance of the week and you'll be 24 exempt for three years.

25 It's an important civic duty. You know, when

1 someone is accused of something, we don't have a
2 one-man dictator or a firing squad, we have 12
3 citizens in the community who listen to everything
4 and make a decision. It's the best judicial legal
5 system that we have in the world, and I appreciate
6 y'all participating in it. Y'all did a wonderful
7 job, and I agree with your verdict. If anyone needs
8 a work excuse -- nobody needs a work excuse. The 9 clerk's office will be mailing out checks in the 10 next day or two; it's not large, but it's a little
11 something. I'm going to excuse you now. Have a
12 wonderful summer.

13 (The jury is excused at 1:22 PM.)

14 THE COURT: Okay. We'll delay sentencing until 15 2:15.

16 (Trial in recess at 1:22 PM.)

17 THE COURT: All right. We're back on the 18 record with the State vs. William Herbert McCladdie
19 for sentencing. The jury found him guilty on all
20 three indictments; burglary in the first degree,
21 possession of a stolen vehicle enhanced, and
22 possession of burglary tools.

23 Ms. Hall, anything we need to add to what has 24 already transpired other than prior record?

25 MS. HALL: Just his prior record. The victim,

1 Ms. Evelyn Clark, is present in court today and
2 would like to address the Court.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Prior record, please?

4 MS. HALL: 1998, possession of marijuana; 2007,
5 theft by taking --

6 THE COURT: Theft by taking.

7 MS. HALL: -- out of Georgia. Yes, Your Honor.
8 2008, obstruction of law enforcement officers; 2012,
9 possession of cocaine and two counts of possession
10 of marijuana second or subsequent offenses; 2012,
11 out of Ohio, a theft without consent; 2013, out of 12 Ohio, another misdemeanor theft, and in January of 13 this year, a false information to police.

14 THE COURT: So three thefts, two of them were 15 misdemeanors. Is that like shoplifting or what is 16 that?

17 MS. HALL: From looking at the charging
18 documents from the other states, it appears that at 19 least two of them were shoplifting, and it's not 20 clear what the other one was.

21 THE COURT: Do you know the disposition of the 22 one from '07 was.

23 MS. HALL: A $400 fine, one year probation, and 24 community service with restitution.

25 THE COURT: Sounds like a petit larceny or --

1 so, really, no major record other than maybe, I
2 guess, the drug cases.

3 All right. Mr. McMillian.

4 MR. MCMILLIAN: Thank you, Your Honor.
5 Mr. McCladdie is -- I have 46, but I believe he had 6 a recent birthday. Right, Will?

7 THE DEFENDANT: October.

8 MR. MCMILLIAN: He's about to be 47, Your 9 Honor. He's not originally from Aiken County, but 10 he moved here with his mom to North Augusta some 11 time ago. Judge, he has a CDL, he's an 12 over-the-road truck driver by trade. He tells me
13 that he came off the road sometime back to help with 14 his mom, to take care of his mom.

15 His mom and a friend of hers have been here in 16 court for the balance of the trial. Judge, he has a
17 good family support system. I think his brothers
18 came to his preliminary hearing.

19 In light of his, with what we do, Judge,
20 relatively minimal record, we're asking the Court to 21 consider the minimum sentence and run it concurrent.

22 THE COURT: Well, he realizes it's an
23 85-percent sentence.

24 MR. MCMILLIAN: He does, Judge. And he and I
25 discussed that in the back.

1 THE COURT: Mr. McCladdie, anything you want to 2 tell me?

3 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

4 THE COURT: You said Ms. Clark wanted to speak?
5 She can come on up.

6 MS. CLARK: Your Honor, I just wanted to come
7 and say that this has renewed my faith, my hope, and 8 my strength. And I want to thank all the people who
9 worked so diligently, so hard on this case. I know
10 how hard you all worked, and it means so much to me.
11 I'm so grateful.

12 I hope that Mr. McCladdie will see the error of 13 his ways, he'll have time to think about it, and 14 turn his life over to God, and God will make a
15 change in his life, because he will.

16 THE COURT: You're very kind. You know who did
17 the most work for you?

18 MS. CLARK: I'm sorry?

19 THE COURT: Do you know who did the most work
20 for you?

21 MS. CLARK: I can't hear him.

22 MS. HALL: He said, do you know who did the 23 most work for you?

24 MS. CLARK: No, I don't.

25 THE COURT: She's standing right there.

1 MS. CLARK: I thought so. Yes, I do. Thank
2 you all so much. I owe you my life.

3 THE COURT: Thank you for your forgiveness too.

4 MS. CLARK: Thank you.

5 THE COURT: You're welcome.

6 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, I would just add,
7 Ms. Alves told me that his mother would like to 8 speak on his behalf if you'd hear from her.

9 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

10 MR. MCMILLIAN: Ms. McCladdie, if you would 11 come up and stand right here.

12 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am?

13 MS. MCCLADDIE: First I would just like to say
14 I'm sorry for the inconvenience that has been caused 15 due to my son since he's been charged guilty of 16 these crimes that I'm -- this is not his character.
17 That's number one. And I just -- it's hard for me
18 to believe it, but it's been done, so I have to go
19 along with it.

20 Prior to this, him being arrested on February
21 21st, I think it was, he was left beat up so bad,
22 left for dead back in January -- I mean, in 23 December. And it's just been like a cycle with him.
24 But --

25 THE COURT: What happened with that? What

1 caused that?

2 MS. MCCLADDIE: He was working and he got
3 robbed. He got jumped on, somebody beat him up real
4 bad and just left him for dead. Somebody just 5 happened to see the truck. He was cutting grass and 6 somebody just happened to see the truck and went to 7 the truck and find him in there. But ever since
8 then, it's kind of been a cycle with him.

9 But regardless of the circumstances, sir, I ask
10 for lenience for my son. He's my son and I love
11 him, regardless of the circumstances.

12 THE COURT: Nobody loves their children like 13 their mama.

14 MS. MCCLADDIE: Thank you.

15 THE COURT: And I'll be lenient.

16 All right. Mr. McCladdie, the sentence of the 17 Court on the burglary first is that you be committed
18 to the state department of corrections for a period
19 of 15 years. That's the minimum under the statute,
20 minimum the law allows me to give. I think we 21 discussed all of that a couple days ago.

22 On the possession of the vehicle, that's a
23 ten-year sentence; possession of the burglary tools,
24 that's a five-year sentence. They'll all run
25 concurrent. You'll be given credit for the time

1 you've served to date. Good luck to you.

2 MS. HALL: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 MR. SLOCUM: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 MR. MCMILLIAN: Judge, may we approach?

5 THE COURT: Yes.

6 (Sidebar conference.)

7 THE COURT: Mr. McMillian, I'll give you
8 whatever time the rules allow to file any posttrial
9 motions.

10 MR. MCMILLIAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: You'll be protected.

William H. McCladdie, #364614,

Applicant,

v.

State of South Carolina,

Respondent.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
FOR THE SECOND JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

2015-CP-02-02458

RETURN

The Respondent, making its Return to the application for post conviction relief (PCR) filed October 19, 2015, would respectfully show this Court:

I.

The Applicant is presently confined in the South Carolina Department of Corrections pursuant to orders of commitment of the Aiken County Clerk of Court. The Applicant was true bill indicted at the July 2015 term of the Aiken County Grand Jury for burglary – first degree (2015-GS-02-01103); possession of tools capable of being used in crime (2015-GS-02-0104); possession of a stolen vehicle (2015-GS-02-01105). Michael B. McMillian, Esquire represented Applicant. On July 8, 2015, Applicant was found guilty on all charges. The Honorable Doyet A. Early, III. Judge Early sentenced Applicant to fifteen year term of imprisonment for burglary – first degree, five year term of imprisonment for possession of tools capable of being used in a crime, and ten year term of imprisonment for possession of a stolen vehicle with all sentences running concurrently.

Applicant filed a notice of appeal. On August 19, 2015, The South Carolina Court of Appeals dismissed the notice of appeal for untimely service. The remittitur was returned to the circuit court on September 28, 2015.

Attached herewith and incorporated herein are the records of the Aiken County Clerk of Court regarding the subject conviction, the Applicant's records from the South Carolina Department of Corrections, appellate records, and the transcript will be sent upon receipt. The Respondent reserves the right to amend this Return upon receipt of any relevant materials.

II.

In his current Application, the Applicant alleges that he is being held in custody unlawfully for the following reasons:

1. Ineffective assistance of counsel
 - a. Failed to file appeal in time.
2. Subject matter jurisdiction
 - a. Sham indictments
3. Illegal sentence
 - a. Sentence exceeds and or does not coincide with charge.

Any claims not specifically enumerated in the PCR application or amendments will be opposed by the State at an evidentiary hearing, and the State will seek summary dismissal of vague or general claims at an evidentiary hearing. S.C. Code §17-27-50. All amendments should be made well in advance of an evidentiary hearing by counsel of record. Rule 11, SCRCP.

III.

The Respondent asserts the Applicant's allegation that his attorney was ineffective is without merit. The Respondent asserts the Applicant's attorney rendered effective assistance well within the standard of "reasonableness within professional norms" for a defense attorney.

Where ineffective assistance of counsel is alleged as a ground for relief, the Applicant must prove that "counsel's conduct so undermined the proper functioning of the adversarial process that the trial cannot be relied on as having produced a just result." Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 686, 104 S. Ct. 2052, 2064 (1984); Butler v. State, 286 S.C. 441, 442, 334 S.E.2d 813, 814 (1985).

The proper measure of performance is whether the attorney provided representation within the range of competence required in criminal cases. The courts presume counsel "rendered adequate assistance and made all significant decisions in the exercise of reasonable professional judgment." Strickland, 466 U.S. at 690, 104 S. Ct. at 2066. The Applicant must overcome this presumption in order to receive relief. See Cherry v. State, 300 S.C. 115, 118, 386 S.E.2d 624, 625 (1989).

A two-pronged test is used in evaluating allegations of ineffective assistance of counsel. First, the applicant must prove counsel's performance was deficient. Under this prong, attorney performance is measured by its "reasonableness under prevailing professional norms." Cherry v. State, 300 S.C. at 117, 386 S.E.2d at 625 (quoting Strickland, 466 U.S. at 688, 104 S. Ct. at 2065). Second, counsel's deficient performance must have prejudiced the Applicant such that "there is a reasonable probability that, but for counsel's unprofessional errors, the result of the proceeding would have been different." Cherry, 300 S.C. at 117-18, 386 S.E.2d at 625. "A reasonable probability is a probability sufficient to undermine confidence in the outcome of trial." Johnson v. State, 325 S.C. 182, 186, 480 S.E.2d 733, 735 (1997) (citing Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 104 S. Ct. 2052 (1984)).

The Respondent submits the Applicant cannot satisfy either requirement of the Strickland v. Washington test. However, the allegation of ineffective assistance of counsel probably raises questions of fact that cannot be conclusively refuted by the record. The Respondent requests an evidentiary hearing to fully resolve this issue. See Sharper v. State, 279 S.C. 264, 265, 305 S.E.2d 247, 248 (1983) (citing Norman v. State, 276 S.C. 278, 277 S.E.2d 707 (1981)).

IV.

Applicant's allegation regarding subject matter jurisdiction is without merit. Subject matter jurisdiction is the power of a court to hear a particular class of cases. State v. Gentry, 363 S.C. 93, 100, 610 S.E.2d 494, 498 (2005). An applicant may challenge the subject matter jurisdiction of the trial court at any time. Id. However, "[c]ircuit courts obviously have subject matter jurisdiction to try criminal matters." Id. at 101, 610 S.E.2d at 499. Thus, an applicant challenging subject matter jurisdiction must present evidence that his case is of some class over which the circuit court does not have the authority to preside. Furthermore, "subject matter jurisdiction of the circuit court and the sufficiency of the indictment are two distinct concepts[.]" Id. at 101, 610 S.E.2d at 499. An indictment is a notice document and any insufficiency in the indictment does not deprive the circuit court of jurisdiction. Id. at 102, 610 S.E.2d at 500. Rather, challenges to the indictment must be raised prior to the swearing of the jury or they are waived. Id. (citing S.C. Code Ann. § 17-19-90). Thus, a PCR applicant may only raise challenges to the sufficiency of an indictment by alleging ineffective assistance of counsel for failing to properly move to quash the indictment in accordance with section 17-19-90. Because Applicant has failed to do so, and because Applicant's attempted robbery plea involved criminal charges in the Court of General Sessions, Respondent contends this subject matter jurisdiction allegation should be dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCPP.

V.

Applicant must specify any claims he intends to raise at the PCR trial. Any claims not specifically laid out in this PCR application or in amendments will be opposed by the State at an evidentiary hearing. S.C. Code § 17-27-10 et seq; SCRCPP 71.1. All claims should be made well in advance of the PCR hearing. If Applicant has an attorney appointed, the attorney, and not the inmate, is the only one authorized to file amendments. SCRCP Rule 11. Filings by inmates will not be considered at the PCR hearing.

VI.

Each and every allegation contained within the application not hereinbefore either expressly admitted, qualified or explained is hereby denied.

VII.

WHEREFORE, having made its Return, the State requests that an evidentiary hearing be held.

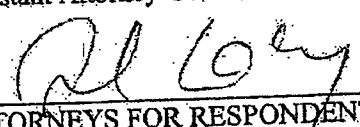

Respectfully submitted,

ALAN WILSON

Applicant filed a notice of appeal. On August 19, 2015, The South Carolina Court of Appeals dismissed the notice of appeal for untimely service. The remittitur was returned to the circuit court on September 28, 2015.

II.

This Court agrees that Applicant did not waive his right to a direct appeal. In the absence of an intelligent waiver by the defendant, counsel must either initiate an appeal if requested or comply with the procedure required by Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 87 S.Ct. 1396 (1967). White v. State, 263 S.C. 110, 208 S.E.2d 35 (1974). Where the post-conviction relief judge determines that the applicant did not freely and voluntarily waive his appellate rights, the applicant may petition the South Carolina Supreme Court for review of direct appeal issues pursuant to White v. State, See Rule 227(g) (1), SCACR; Davis v. State, 288 S.C. 290, 342 S.E.2d 60 (1986).

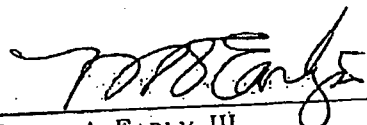

This Court affirmatively finds the Applicant did not knowingly and voluntarily waive his right to a direct appeal. The Court concludes that the Applicant is entitled to a belated review of his convictions. A petition for belated review pursuant to White v. State can remedy Applicant's lack of a direct appeal.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That this current Application for Post-Conviction Relief be dismissed with prejudice.
2. That the Applicant is granted a belated review of direct appeal issues pursuant to White v. State, 263 S.C. 110, 108 S.E.2d 35 (1974). Within thirty days of service of this Order, counsel for Applicant must file a Notice of Appeal to secure the appropriate review of Applicant's convictions. Counsel and the Applicant are directed to Davis v. State, 288 S.C. 290, 342 S.E.2d 60 (1986) and South Carolina Appellate Court Rule 227(g) for the appropriate procedure for securing belated appellate review.

3. That Applicant be remanded to the custody of Respondent.
