Re: Walter McQune v. State
Appellate Case No. 2017-001915

Dear Mr. McQune:

Your pro se petition for a writ of certiorari was received by this Court on June 7, 2018. This petition raised one question.

This Court has now received what appears to be an amended petition for a writ of certiorari which raises three questions.

Since this Court has not granted you permission to file an amended petition for a writ of certiorari, I cannot accept this document for filing, and it will not be considered by this Court. Further, since you have not filed a reply to the return filed by the State, all of the filing in this case are now complete. You will be advised when the Court takes action on the petition for a writ of certiorari.

Very truly yours,
