Dear Ms. Allen,

I am requesting a thirty-day extension to file the appellant's initial brief. I wish I could say that I writing to you for an extension due to a heavy workload, which is true, but unfortunately, I am writing to you to request a thirty-day extension because I have missed time from work due to a serious illness in my family, and the next few weeks will bring into focus what we are facing, but the best-case scenario calls for surgery and post-surgical care. I do not want to type the worst-case scenario.

While I am copying opposing counsel on this request, I have not requested his consent because Pete Balthazor is a bright star in the galaxy of the Bar, and it would be an insult to request a consent under these circumstances. I have enclosed our firm's check in the amount of $25.00 to cover this request. I thank you in advance for your consideration of this request. With kind regards, I am

Very truly yours,
