TIFFANY QUINASIA JAMES - CROSS BY HAZZARD

1011

1 A. I guess.

2 Q. You guess. And you obviously didn't tell them
3 initially, before they told you all they knew, when you just 4 through they were asking questions and they didn't know the 5 answers, you obviously told them that the Greg was someone
6 other than Greg Floyd, right?

7 A. Right.

8 Q. And then that's where the whole Greg Hemmingway thing
9 got started, right?

10 A. I guess. I don't remember what I told them.

11 Q. You guess so. You -- you even gave them a description
12 of the guy. You said he was a light-skin fellow, right?
13 Right?

14 A. I don't remember what I told them.

15 Q. Okay. But you do not deny it.

16 A. No.

17 Q. Okay. And after this crime occurred, between the time
18 that the crime occurred and the time that you spoke with the 19 police, you spoke with Donell James, correct?

20 A. When?

21 Q. Okay. The crime occurs sometime on the afternoon of 22 April 14th. You talked to the police for the first time on 23 April 16th. I believe it was in the morning if I remember
24 correctly. Between the time occurred and the time you spoke 25 with the police you spoke with Donell James, correct.

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Yes. And in fact, you were over there braiding his
3 brother's hair and he walks in and y'all have a long
4 discussion, right?

5 A. Not, not really.

6 Q. The discussion wasn't long, or it didn't happen.

7 A. The discussion wasn't long.

8 Q. Okay. All right. And you talked to him more than one
9 time between the time the crime occurred and the time you
10 spoke to the police, right?

11 A. Right.

12 Q. Right, cause he's your first cousin, right?

13 A. Right.

14 Q. Okay. And you talked to Gregory Floyd between the time
15 the crime occurred and the time you talked to the police,
16 right?

17 A. Right.

18 Q. And you talked to your brother, Andrew, between the 19 time the crime occurred and the time you talked to the police,
20 right?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. Okay. So the whole gang we've got here. We've got the 23 James Gang plus, if you were married, your child's uncle, all
24 y'all talking about April 14th, but before any of y'all talk
25 to the police, right?

1013

1 A. You forgot Ladorrean. She ain't in no James.

2 Q. Yes Ma'am. Because obviously for you to get the help
3 you need from the State Ladorrean and Quentin gotta be in 4 there somewhere, don't they?

5 A. I guess.

6 Q. You guess. No, you know it, don't you?

7 A. They is in there.

8 MS. von HERRMANN: Object to that.

9 THE COURT: I'm going to allow it. Thank you very 10 much. You may continue.

11 Q. Now you told the Prosecutor -- let's walk through this.
12 Your brother, Andrew, brings over -- well, let me ask you
13 this, first of all. How long had you known Andrew to have 14 that shotgun, Ma'am?

15 A. I'm not sure how long he had it.

16 Q. Are we talking weeks, months, years?

17 A. Probably weeks. I don't remember.

18 Q. Okay. And when did he first disclose to you that this 19 shotgun was broke, as you say?

20 A. I want to say New Years -- I want to say New Years, but 21 I don't know.

22 Q. New Years Eve of 2008?

23 A. Uh uh (NODS NEGATIVE) No. I think it was sometime
24 around my birthday.

25 Q. When is your birthday again, Ma'am?

1 A. April the 6th.

2 Q. April the 6th.

3 A. Yeah.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. I don't remember when he told me it was broke.

6 Q. Okay. All right. That's fine. That's fine. I know
7 it's been three years ago. But at some point before this home
8 invasion you and your brother discuss, or end up discussing 9 the fact that this shotgun is broken, correct, or in the 10 condition that it is in, correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Okay. And is that something that you and he, as 13 brother and sister, would normally discuss?

14 A. No.

15 Q. I mean, is this a shotgun that he owned legally?

16 A. No.

17 Q. So why is it that he felt the need, or how did it come
18 about that he's discussing with you State's Exhibit -- I guess
19 that's 69, what everyone is referring to, and I guess it is --
20 I don't know -- it's referred to as a sawed-off shotgun.

21 THE COURT: I think the sticker might be on the box.

22 MR. HAZZARD: It's -- there's one right here, Your 23 Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. Very good.

25 MR. HAZZARD: So we looked at it correctly. It's 69.

1 THE COURT: All right. Very good.

2 Q. Okay. How is it as brother and sister that that even
3 comes up in discussion, that hey, sis, my stolen sawed-off
4 shotgun is malfunctioning?

5 A. I'm not quite sure how we got on that subject.

6 Q. Maybe he needed it to put in some more -- put in a job
7 somewhere.

8 A. What you mean by put in a job?

9 Q. Go home invade someone else, ---

10 MS. von HERRMANN: Your Honor, object to ---

11 Q. ---Rob them for what they've got.

12 THE COURT: I'm going to allow it.

13 Q. I mean, honestly, what did he use it for?

14 A. How I suppose to know? It's his gun.

15 THE COURT: You need to speak up, Ma'am.

16 Q. So what did he use it for?

17 A. How do I pose to know? It's his gun.

18 Q. Okay. So you didn't know. But at some point you had a 19 discussion and the information came to you, in talking with 20 him, that there may have been some problem, or that his 21 shotgun might have been broken, or malfunctioning, correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Okay. So now on the date in question, at some point
24 your brother, Andrew James, comes over, and he's got his 25 shotgun, right?

1 A. Can you repeat that?

2 Q. Okay. On the day in question, the day of the incident,
3 the day that Mr. Smith's home was invaded and he ended up
4 dead, your brother brought over that shotgun to Donell and 5 Tanheshia's apartment, correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Okay. And you testified that he also brought over and 8 left his .22, right?

9 A. I'm not sure.

10 Q. Not sure. Not sure if he left a .22. All right. Now, 11 Ma'am, you indicated that you were incarcerated for about 12 thirty-three months, right?

13 A. Right.

14 Q. And Mr. McCollum, apparently, did not major in Math at 15 Clemson in undergrad, so that is approximately a thousand
16 days, right? Thirty days a month times thirty, that's nine
17 hundred, and then you add some more on top of that, right?

18 A. I guess. You did the math.

19 Q. Okay. And when did you get out on bond?

20 A. February the 9th.

21 Q. February the 9th of which year?

22 A. 2011.

23 Q. February the 9th of this year, that's when you got out
24 on bond.

25 A. Correct.

TIFFANY QUINASIA JAMES - CROSS BY HAZZARD

1 Q. Did they reduce your bond, or your family just happen
2 to come up with enough money, or what happened that, after 3 thirty-three months in jail, you were suddenly able to get 4 out?

5 A. Because they set me a bond. The whole time I was there
6 I did not have no bond.

7 Q. Oh, you didn't have a bond before that, because of the 8 serious nature of your charges, right?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. Okay. And you talked with -- you and your attorney, 11 and Ms. von Herrmann sat down and talked on January 5th of 12 2011; is that correct?

13 A. I don't remember the date, but yeah.

14 Q. Yes. That was about a month before you got out on 15 bond, right?

16 A. Right.

17 Q. So on January 5th you tell them what they want to hear,
18 all of a sudden, and now you are back walking the streets,
19 charged with murder, kidnapping, armed robbery, and burglary
20 first degree; isn't that right?

21 A. No.

22 Q. No, you are not charged with all that? What, did they 23 drop those charges too?

24 A. No. You said I tell them what they wanted to hear.
25 What you mean by that?

1 Q. You gave them a statement on January 5th of 2011,
2 right, Ma'am?

3 A. Right.

4 Q. And less than thirty -- or thirty-three days, or 5 thereabouts after that, all of a sudden you are back on the 6 streets after being in jail for almost a thousand days; isn't 7 that right?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Couldn't get no bond set.

10 A. Nope.

11 Q. So once you, like you say, you got it off your chest, 12 all of a sudden you are back walking the street, back to your 13 old ways, right?

14 A. What you mean, back to my old ways?

15 Q. Whatever your old ways are, Ma'am, driving people
16 around, apparently, and setting up home invasions.

17 A. Excuse me.

18 Q. Driving people around and setting up home invasions.

19 A. Who I drove around when I got out and set up a home
20 invasion?

21 THE COURT: Stop for a second. All right. I'm talking
22 to the audience. This is not theater, this is not T.V., this 23 is not the movies. If you cannot keep quiet the deputies will 24 remove you.

25 Continue, Mr. Hazzard.

TIFFANY QUINASIA JAMES - CROSS BY HAZZARD

1 MR. HAZZARD: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 Q. But just to make sure we are clear, there's no question
3 that when you first talked with the police this gentleman here
4 had to be the fall guy, you gave up his name, and said he did
5 it all, he master-minded it, he told me where to drive them,
6 everything. That's what you told the police, right?

7 A. Is that what I said?

8 Q. Do you deny saying that, Ma'am?

9 A. No, I'm not quite sure what I said.

10 Q. Okay. All I'm -- what I can ask you is, do you deny 11 saying it?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Okay. Fair enough. All right. And you sat in jail
14 for the better part of a thousand days, correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. And then on January 5th of 2011, or thereabouts, you
17 and your attorney and the Prosecutor had a little sit-down out
18 at J. Reuben Long Detention Center; is that right?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. And during that little sit-down you tell them that you
21 will testify against this gentleman here, and you will testify
22 against this lady here, right?

23 A. Did I just up and tell them that?

24 Q. No Ma'am. As part of the discussion and negotiation
25 did you tell them that?

1 A. We ain't have no kind of negotiation.

2 Q. No negotiation. So there were no document that said
3 proffer on it and all like that.

4 A. No.

5 Q. Okay. All right. But your attorney is there, the 6 Prosecutor is there, because the information you've got, or 7 whatever you want to sell, you've got to sell it to the 8 Prosecutor, right?

9 A. I got to sell it to her?

10 Q. Yes. Because you want some help on this, right? You
11 don't want to go away for two life terms plus sixty years, do
12 you?

13 A. No, I don't.

14 Q. Of course not. So you are hoping this woman here will 15 give you some help, right?

16 A. No.

17 Q. No. So you are just ready to stand up, stand trial,
18 and just belly on up to the bar and see what happens, right?

19 A. Right.

20 Q. So at any point in the last three years and two months
21 did you ever bother to say, let's get me -- get me into court;
22 I'm ready to go; I'm ready to face justice; I'm ready to see
23 twelve, pick twelve and say I didn't nothing. Did you ever do
24 that?

25 A. No, I didn't.

TIFFANY QUINASIA JAMES - REDIRECT BY von HERRMANN

1021

1 Q. So after -- but after talking with the Prosecutor
2 approximately a month later you are out on the street, and you
3 are back in street clothes living your life, right?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. And you don't want to go back to jail, do you, Ma'am?

6 A. No.

7 Q. All right.

8 MR. HAZZARD: Thank you. No further questions.

9 THE COURT: Redirect.

10 MS. von HERRMANN: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 REDIRECT-EXAMINATION BY MS. von HERRMANN:

12 Q. Mr. Hazzard just asked you about why you didn't -- why
13 you hadn't pled guilty, and did you want to -- why weren't you
14 here on trial. That's what he said, wasn't it? Why aren't 15 you in here on trial today?

16 MR. HAZZARD: Objection. That's actually a
17 mischaracterization of what asked.

18 THE COURT: Just ask a question. The witness can 19 answer, Ma'am.

20 Q. Are you sitting there, instead of there, because you
21 are willing to accept responsibility for what you did?

22 A. Yes Ma'am.

23 Q. You are willing to accept responsibility for your part 24 in this bad business that resulted in Allen Smith's death?

25 A. Yes Ma'am.

1 Q. And Mr. McCollum asked you some questions earlier about
2 whether you knew what was going to happen when you drove them
3 over to that house. Do you remember that?

4 A. Yes Ma'am.

5 Q. You didn't know what was going to happen when they went 6 in that house, did you?

7 A. No Ma'am.

8 Q. You knew what the plan was, correct?

9 A. I knew what they was coming to do, but I ain't know
10 what was going to happen when they went in the house.

11 Q. All right. You had discussed that with Greg, right?

12 A. Did I?

13 Q. Did you?

14 A. Discuss the ---

15 Q. Let's talk -- let me make sure I'm clear about this.
16 The first time, the first time that they went over, Andrew,
17 Donell and Greg, right?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. You had testified before that you had been at 20 Ladorrean's house ---

21 A. Yes Ma'am.

22 Q. ---And that she said that she had a lick for them.

23 A. Yes Ma'am.

24 Q. And you knew what a lick meant, right?

25 A. Yes Ma'am.

TIFFANY QUINASIA JAMES - REDIRECT BY von HERRMANN

1 Q. And you weren't going to participate in the lick,
2 right?

3 A. Right.

4 Q. You were going to participate in driving them over
5 there, correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. So your part in this was never to go inside that house,
8 right?

9 A. Right.

10 Q. And are you taking responsibility for what you did in 11 driving them over there?

12 A. Yes Ma'am.

13 Q. And have you told the police from the beginning, and 14 from the time that we took that proffer agreement, that you
15 drove them over there?

16 A. From when?

17 Q. That you drove them over to Allen Smith's house.

18 A. Yes Ma'am.

19 Q. And ever since you and your lawyer contacted the police
20 and talked to them you have been consistent about the fact
21 that you drove Bait's four-door red car over there, right?

22 A. Right.

23 Q. And you have been consistent about the fact that Greg 24 was in the car.

25 A. Correct.

- 1 Q. You've been consistent about the fact that he had .22.
2 A. Yes Ma'am.
3 Q. You have been consistent about the fact that Donell was 4 in the car.
5 A. Yes Ma'am.
6 Q. And that he had a shotgun.
7 A. Yes Ma'am.
8 Q. You've been consistent about the fact that Bait was in 9 the car with a camo shotgun.
10 A. Yes Ma'am.
11 Q. You were consistent about the fact that Greg kicked in 12 the door.
13 A. Yes Ma'am.
14 Q. You were consistent about the fact that you heard
15 gunshots.
16 A. Yes Ma'am.
17 Q. You were consistent about the fact that you drove to 18 TaTa's residence.
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. You were consistent about the fact that you and Bait
21 and Donell and Greg went your separate ways at TaTa's, 22 correct?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. You showed the gun in the woods to the police, correct?
25 A. Correct.

1025

1 Q. And you have told them about how Ladorrean busted out
2 Allen's window.

3 A. Yes Ma'am.

4 Q. So in the important matters you have been consistent in 5 this case; is that correct?

6 A. Yes Ma'am.

7 Q. All right. Mr. McCollum seemed to want to make some 8 big deal about you leaving your child with somebody while you
9 rode them over there, I mean, did you want to drive your child
10 over there while somebody is going to rob somebody?

11 A. No Ma'am.

12 Q. Who said this was going to be an easy lick anyway; who 13 said that?

14 A. Ladorrean.

15 Q. And how long had it been since you had seen this 16 Defendant, Quentin Gause, before all this happened?

17 A. I really don't be seeing him.

18 Q. All right. So -- but they would have you -- they would 19 have this jury believe that you just ---

20 MR. HAZZARD: Objection.

21 Q. ---Out of thin air ---

22 THE COURT: Solicitor, rephrase your question.

23 MS. von HERRMANN: Thank you.

24 Q. You just came up with Quentin Gause; is that -- is that 25 right; you just came up with it?

- 1 A. No, I didn't come up with him.
- 2 Q. Why did you give them his name?
- 3 A. When I got questioned by the police?
- 4 Q. Yes. Why did you -- why did you tell them Bait was
- 5 there?
- 6 A. Cause Ladorrean told me to tell the truth.
- 7 Q. All right. And the truth is that he was there.
- 8 A. Right.
- 9 Q. How many times have you talked to Quentin after this
- 10 happened?
- 11 A. None.
- 12 Q. Do you know -- did he try to contact you?
- 13 A. No.
- 14 Q. Did you try to contact him?
- 15 A. No.
- 16 Q. Did you know where he was?
- 17 A. When?
- 18 Q. After ---
- 19 A. After it happened? No.
- 20 Q. When did you get arrested?
- 21 A. When I had went to go turn myself in, on April 16th.
- 22 Q. Do you know when he got arrested?
- 23 A. No.
- 24 Q. Let's talk a little bit about the agreement that you
- 25 and your lawyer made with the State. The agreement, which is

1 called a Proffer Agreement, right, is that you will provide
2 testimony ---

3 MR. HAZZARD: Objection. She is not asking a question.
4 She's testifying.

5 THE COURT: Ask a question, Solicitor, please.

6 Q. Is the Proffer Agreement that you will provide 7 testimony in court?

8 A. I forgot what that said.

9 Q. Okay. Did you agree to come here and testify today?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And in return for that, have I -- anybody in the 12 Solicitor's Office promised you anything?

13 A. No Ma'am.

14 Q. No promise was ever made.

15 A. No promises.

16 Q. You hope -- certainly you hope that something -- that 17 you will get some benefit from it, right?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. But you don't know what benefit that will be.

20 A. No Ma'am.

21 Q. And the only promise we have said at this point is that 22 we would let the Judge be made aware of your testimony here
23 today; is that correct?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. You have no other promise.

1 A. No Ma'am.

2 Q. When you and I discussed this, did I give you any 3 instructions about how to answer questions, or what you should 4 say to questions?

5 A. No Ma'am.

6 Q. What did I tell you that you should do here today?

7 A. You said that I should just tell the truth.

8 Q. And have you done that here today?

9 A. Yes Ma'am.

10 MS. von HERRMANN: Thank you. I don't have any further 11 questions.

12 THE COURT: Mr. McCollum.

13 MR. McCOLLUM: May it please the Court.

14 THE COURT: Yes sir.

15 RECROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. McCOLLUM:

16 Q. Ms. James, you understand me when I talk, right?

17 A. Yes sir.

18 Q. And you understand the Prosecutor when she talks,
19 right?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And we are speaking the same language, and that's your 22 language too, right?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. Why is it so much easier to answer her questions than 25 mine?

TIFFANY QUINASIA JAMES - RECROSS BY HAZZARD

1029

1 A. I guess cause how you rephrase your questions. I don't 2 know.

3 MR. McCOLLUM: That's all I have, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Hazzard.

5 MR. HAZZARD: Very briefly, Your Honor.

6 RECROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HAZZARD:

7 Q. Ma'am, I'm still a little confused about this agreement
8 the Prosecutor was talking about, how you are not expecting
9 anything but hoping for something. If you accepted
10 responsibility you can go ahead and enter your guilty plea to 11 whatever you accepted responsibility to, right?

12 A. Excuse me.

13 Q. If you are accepting responsibility, like the 14 Prosecutor says, you know, cause you told your story on 15 January 5th of 2011, so you could get out of jail, if that was 16 your accepting responsibility you could have just gone ahead
17 and stood in front of a Judge and accepted responsibility and 18 said I did such and such, whatever you think you did wrong,
19 right?

20 A. No.

21 Q. You couldn't do that.

22 A. No.

23 Q. Why not, Ma'am? They could bring you back in ---

24 A. Because I'm not guilty on the charges that I'm charged 25 with.

JURY OUT/BREAK/ON RECORD

1030

1 Q. So you are not guilty of anything?

2 A. I ain't say I'm not guilty of anything. I say I'm not
3 guilty with the charges they charged me with, as in murder,
4 kidnapping, burglary first and armed robbery.

5 Q. You are not guilty. Okay. Because I was going to say,
6 they -- you could -- they could just drive you back from the 7 Department of Corrections to testify. You didn't have to wait
8 on that, did you?

9 A. Excuse me.

10 Q. You could go ahead and enter your guilty plea and 11 accept your responsibility ---

12 MS. von HERRMANN: Objection. That's a legal ---

13 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Hazzard, you've asked the 14 question and it has been answered. Move along.

15 MR. HAZZARD: All right. Thank you, Your Honor.

16 That's all I've got. I'm not going to belabor the 17 point.

18 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. You may step down, Ma'am.
19 All right, ladies and gentlemen, we are going to take a 20 break, about ten minutes. Go to your jury room, and we will 21 resume after that.

22 Just leave your pads and pens, please. Thank you.

23 Everyone else remain seated.

24 (THE FOLLOWING TAKES PLACE OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE 25 JURY.)

JURY OUT/BREAK/ON RECORD

1031

1 THE COURT: All right. We'll be at ease for about ten
2 minutes. Thank you very much.

3 (THE FOLLOWING TAKES PLACE AFTER A BREAK, AND OUTSIDE
4 THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY.)

5 MS. von HERRMANN: Mr. McCollum and Mr. Hazzard, while 6 we were taking the break, and we talked about the -- about the 7 -- excuse me -- the calendar here, with the month of April,
8 2008, and I was -- I was just going to have it marked as a
9 State's exhibit, and ask Your Honor to take judicial notice of 10 that. I don't believe they have any objection to it.

11 THE COURT: All right. Mr. McCollum -- oh, well, let's 12 mark it as an exhibit first, so I know what number we are 13 talking about.

14 MS. von HERRMANN: Okay.

15 (CALENDAR SHOWING APRIL, 2008, MARKED STATE'S EXHIBIT
16 NUMBER 76, FOR IDENTIFICATION ONLY.)

17 THE COURT: What's the number, Solicitor?

18 MS. von HERRMANN: Your Honor, I apologize. This is 19 State's Exhibit 76. It is a calendar showing April of 2008.
20 It is just blank. It doesn't have any markings on it.

21 I have discussed it with Defense counsel, and it's my 22 understanding that they do not have any objection to this 23 coming into evidence and ---

24 THE COURT: All right. Mr. McCollum, is there any 25 objection to that?

1 MR. McCOLLUM: No, Your Honor, I mean that's -- I'm
2 taking it as a valid calendar. I've referred to it. I don't
3 see any problem with it.

4 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Hazzard.

5 MR. HAZZARD: No objection.

6 THE COURT: All right. And again -- I'm sorry, the 7 number again, please Ma'am.

8 MS. von HERRMANN: I'm sorry. Number 76.

9 THE COURT: 76 is in evidence without objection. All
10 right.

11 Is the State ready for the jury to come back in?

12 MR. SPRATLIN: Your Honor, there's one matter that we 13 wanted to address. I believe Mr. McCollum is going to have an 14 objection to this. Within the next -- within the next couple 15 of witnesses the State intends to call law enforcement
16 officer, Daniel Cradic, who -- was a former law enforcement
17 officer -- that he responded to the scene of the broken window
18 back on April 8th, 2008, and Your Honor, essentially the 19 testimony the State intends to elicit from that witness is,
20 first of all, that the window was, in fact, broken, and that 21 there was a note left at the scene. The Officer is going to 22 testify that the note has since been destroyed since no arrest
23 was made, under standard police protocol, and that it wasn't
24 done in any sort of bad faith. And then I intend on asking
25 the officer what the note said, which I believe is what Mr.

1 McCollum is going to have an objection to, which is -- is the
2 exact quote of the note that the Officer is going to testify
3 to is contained in his report, and he remembered what it says
4 based on refreshing his recollection with the report.

5 THE COURT: All right. Mr. McCollum, what's your 6 objection, please?

7 MR. McCOLLUM: Judge, the note says that -- has some 8 foul language in it, apparently. Well, actually, first of all
9 let me rephrase it. There's not a note. This is an Incident
10 Report. The note -- whatever the note said was destroyed. We 11 would submit that it's not admissible. They talked about her
12 going over there, breaking a window and leaving a note. I
13 didn't know that -- that this was going to arise.

14 THE COURT: All right. Well, I appreciate that. Tell
15 me how -- as I understand it, what the State is going to do is 16 ask this witness, you know, did he, as a police officer, 17 investigated the matter, he found this information -- I assume 18 he's going to testify that he read the note, and they are 19 going to ask him what did the note say, and he may say, I
20 remember, or I don't remember, but I did put it on my police
21 Incident Report, and then the Solicitor is going to say, would 22 looking at your Incident Report help refresh your memory, and 23 if he says yes, then he can read it and put it down, and then
24 the Solicitor can ask the question and he can respond to it.
25 So, I don't understand that to be a basis for the objection.

1 From what -- I'm struggling with the grounds for your 2 objection.

3 MR. McCOLLUM: And I apologize, Your Honor. The police
4 incident Report says, the victim states he has had a problem
5 with the subject breaking a window at his -- at his before.
6 Victim states, when he returned home he had a note stating,
7 bitch, I will be back -- some other language in here -- and 8 that's what it says. The victim said ---

9 THE COURT: All right. Well, I mean, if the -- if the 10 Officer is going to testify that he didn't see the note, he 11 didn't collect the note, he didn't read the note, and all he 12 knows about the note is what somebody else told him, I'm not 13 going to allow him to say that. You will have to explore that 14 with the officer, but if he testifies that, as a result of the 15 incident he collected the note, he read it, this is what his 16 memory of the note is, I'm going to allow him to testify about 17 that.

18 MR. McCOLLUM: Understood.

19 THE COURT: All right. So we'll just have to see what 20 his testimony is, and then if you have an objection at that 21 point in time I'll hear from you, Mr. McCollum.

22 MR. McCOLLUM: Thank you, Judge.

23 MR. SPRATLIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. Let's bring the jury in,
25 please.

DANIEL CRADIC - DIRECT BY SPRATLIN

1065

1 MR. McCOLLUM: No objection.

3 MR. HAZZARD: No objection.

4 THE COURT: All right, Ma'am, you are released from 5 your Subpoena. You may go back to your regular activities.

6 Next witness, Solicitor.

7 MR. SPRATLIN: Your Honor, the State would then call
8 Daniel Cradic to the stand.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 All right, Mr. Cradic, you can come on all the way up
11 here to be sworn, sir.

12 DANIEL CRADIC, being first duly
13 sworn, testifies as follows:

14 DIRECT-EXAMINATION BY MR. SPRATLIN:

15 Q. Mr. Cradic, where are you currently employed?

16 A. Currently employed with Corner Cars Towing Service.

17 Q. And what kind of work is that?

18 A. Wrecker service, towing vehicles.

19 Q. Okay. Where were you working back in 2008?

20 A. 2008, I was employed with the County Police Department
21 here in Horry County.

22 Q. How long were you with the Horry County Police
23 Department?

24 A. From October of 2006 to in January of this year.

25 MS. von HERRMANN: Excuse me, Your Honor.

DANIEL CRADIC - DIRECT BY SPRATLIN

1 THE COURT: All right. You need to speak up, sir.

2 MR. McCOLLUM: And slow down.

3 Q. Again, Mr. Cradic, let me ask you, how long were you
4 with the Horry County Police Department?

5 A. From October of 2006, to January of this year.

6 Q. So you just left law enforcement.

7 A. Yes sir.

8 Q. What were your job duties with the Horry County Police
9 Department?

10 A. Responding to calls for service in the area of 544 in 11 Conway, or countywide, any other police assistant duties.

12 Q. So 544 would have been, in layman's terms, your beat.

13 A. That -- that's correct.

14 Q. Were you working back on April the 8th of 2008, which 15 would have been a Tuesday?

16 A. Yes, I was.

17 Q. And what were you doing on that day?

18 A. Responding for calls for service in my beat area.

19 Q. All right. Did you have a chance to respond to [REDACTED]

20 [REDACTED], here in Conway?

21 A. Yes, I did.

22 Q. All right. Do you remember at approximately what time
23 of the day you responded?

24 A. It was probably about four-thirty in the afternoon.

25 Q. What type of incident was it that you were responding

1 to?

2 A. We received a call for a malicious damage. Somebody
3 had broke a window at a residence.

4 Q. What, if anything, did you notice when you pulled up to 5 the residence?

6 A. When I pulled up the homeowner was there, the front
7 window was broken, and there were several of the neighbors
8 hanging around outside.

9 Q. Do you remember who the homeowner was?

10 A. I believe the last name was Smith.

11 Q. Do you remember the first name?

12 A. No, I do not.

13 Q. Is there anything that would refresh your recollection?

14 A. A copy of the report, Mr. Cradic, what am I showing
15 you?

16 A. A copy of the written -- or a copy of the handwritten 17 Incident Report.

18 Q. Okay. Does that refresh your recollection as to who 19 Mr. Smith -- what Mr. Smith's first name was?

20 A. Yes, it does.

21 Q. What was that first name?

22 A. Allen.

23 Q. Okay. When you were at the scene did you develop a 24 suspect, or have a person of interest as to who broke the 25 window?

DANIEL CRADIC - DIRECT BY SPRATLIN

1068

1 A. When I arrived on the scene Mr. Smith had stated that -
2 --

3 MR. McCOLLUM: Your Honor, I'm going to ---

4 Q. Without going into what Mr. Smith stated.

5 THE COURT: All right. Don't -- I'm not going to allow 6 that. Just ---

7 Q. Without going into what --- anything Mr. Smith stated.
8 Based on your investigation did you determine a suspect, or a
9 person of interest in the breaking of the window?

10 A. During the investigation, it was two females in a white
11 Expedition.

12 Q. Okay. Were you able to -- or was either name -- were 13 you able to develop a name of that person, or was it people,
14 either one?

15 A. As far as any witness statements or -- only by the 16 victim's accord.

17 Q. But as far as one of the persons of interest, were you
18 able to develop a name for one of those people?

19 A. One of the suspects, yes.

20 Q. Who was that?

21 MR. McCOLLUM: Your Honor, I object. It's the same
22 thing. He's getting it the same way.

23 THE COURT: I -- I'm -- sustained.

24 Q. Did you notice when you were at the scene any sort of a
25 writing, or a letter of any kind?

DANIEL CRADIC - DIRECT BY SPRATLIN

1069

1 A. There was a note found on the scene.

2 Q. Okay. And did you personally see that note?

3 A. Yes, I did.

4 Q. Did you personally look at the contents of that note?

5 A. Yes, I did.

6 Q. All right. What, if anything, did you do with that 7 note?

8 A. I copied down what was said on the note in my report,
9 and then I took the note back to evidence, and placed into 10 evidence.

11 Q. Okay. And did you copy that note down verbatim, or 12 exactly as it was written?

13 A. Yes, I did.

14 Q. All right. Now you say you took it into evidence.
15 Is -- to your knowledge is that note still in evidence?

16 A. As far as I know.

17 Q. Is it common for evidence to be destroyed if no arrest
18 is made in the case?

19 A. To my knowledge, yes. After a certain amount of time
20 they will purge evidence.

21 Q. Okay. And purging evidence, what is purging evidence?

22 A. If there's no more use for it -- they believe there's 23 no more use for the evidence, or there's no evidentiary value
24 to the evidence they will get rid of it to make space for new 25 evidence.

1 Q. Okay. And Mr. Cradic, did you ever make an arrest on 2 this case?

3 A. No, I did not.

4 Q. Okay. So, in your opinion, as a law enforcement
5 officer at the time, would there have been any evidentiary
6 value to that note since no arrest was made?

7 A. Yes, there would.

8 Q. Was it pretty standard practice when an arrest was not 9 made a case to purge that evidence?

10 A. For -- for a case like this.

11 Q. So that evidence would have been purged?

12 A. To my knowledge.

13 Q. Okay. So that note would not still be in evidence.

14 A. To my knowledge, it would not be.

15 Q. Okay. And would that have been done in the intent to 16 avoid it being brought into court in any way?

17 A. No, it wouldn't.

18 Q. Okay. What did the note say that you saw that day?

19 A. I can't remember exactly, so I'm going to have to look
20 back to the Report.

21 MR. McCOLLUM: Your Honor, I do have some issues with 22 that, if he can't remember what the note said.

23 THE COURT: All right. Solicitor, have you ---

24 Q. Is there anything that would refresh your recollection,
25 Mr. Cradic, as to what the note said exactly?

DANIEL CRADIC - CROSS BY McCOLLUM

1 A. Briefly looking at the Report that I had written.

2 Q. If you would, please look at the report, and then place
3 it down and state exactly what the note said.

4 A. According to my report, bitch, I will be back, nigger,
5 fuck you. F.Y. bitch ass; AIDS-infected bitch. Yeah, we all
6 got it. D-baby.

7 Q. And that's exactly what the note said.

8 A. Yes, it was.

9 MR. SPRATLIN: All right. Thank you, Mr. Cradic. I
10 have no other questions for you. Please answer any questions
11 Mr. McCollum or Mr. Hazzard may have.

12 THE COURT: Mr. McCollum, cross-examination.

13 MR. McCOLLUM: Just briefly, Your Honor.

14 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. McCOLLUM:

15 Q. Mr. Cradic, you left the Department in 2011?

16 A. Yes, I did.

17 Q. And where are you employed now?

18 A. Corner Cars Towing Service.

19 Q. And had you been a police before 2006?

20 A. Yes, I did.

21 Q. Okay. So how long have you been a police officer?

22 A. Civilian, six years -- I'm sorry -- military, six 23 years, and civilian, approximately five.

24 Q. So eleven years. And was there any particular reason
25 why you left law enforcement?

- 1 A. Yes. Personal reasons.
- 2 Q. Personal reasons.
- 3 A. Uh huh (indicating positive)
- 4 Q. Was that related ---
- 5 A. Financial reasons.
- 6 Q. All right. And so you resigned and went and got -- and
- 7 started driving a tow truck?
- 8 A. Yes sir.
- 9 Q. Okay. And that's more lucrative than being a police
- 10 officer?
- 11 A. I had to get some more money for the family.
- 12 Q. You got called to a broken window, right?
- 13 A. Yes, I did.
- 14 Q. Yes. That's what you refer to as a malicious damage,
- 15 or malicious injury to property, right?
- 16 A. Yes.
- 17 Q. And that's an offense that's punishable in Magistrate's
- 18 Court, thirty days in jail, Two Hundred Dollar fine, that sort
- 19 of thing, right?
- 20 A. Yes, it is.
- 21 Q. And if a person is charged with that usually they can
- 22 pay the fine without going to court, right?
- 23 A. Yes.
- 24 Q. Unless the damage is greater than, at that time
- 25 probably a Thousand Dollars, right?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And there wasn't a Thousand Dollars worth of damage
3 done from your assessment, right?

4 A. To -- from my assessment and my knowledge, no, it
5 wasn't.

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And as far as you know, and maybe you don't know, the 9 note itself has been destroyed, right?

10 A. I have been informed.

11 Q. And you've been informed the note is destroyed, so we 12 don't have the benefit of the note, right? Yes.

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And did you make an arrest on that case?

15 A. No, I did not.

16 Q. Did you further investigate that case?

17 A. No, I didn't.

18 Q. At the time were you concerned that anything would 19 happen as a result of somebody breaking out a window and 20 leaving a note?

21 A. At the time I was concerned, but that was it.

22 Q. So -- and you see this kind of stuff, right?

23 A. Yes sir.

24 Q. Where unfortunately people get mad, right?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And people break windows, right?

2 A. Yes, they do.

3 Q. And people, unfortunately, write each other, sometimes,
4 nasty notes, right?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And many times that happens, and it's not something
7 that even -- you even have to really go pursue as a police
8 officer, right?

9 A. We will pursue it if the victim thinks that there's an 10 actual threat.

11 Q. Oh, I guess what I'm trying to say is, when you -- when 12 you evaluated that situation, and looked at it, it was 13 something that was -- it was a -- I mean, it's -- I know it's 14 serious, but the police have to deal with a lot of serious 15 stuff, right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. So -- and I know you don't want to prioritize stuff,
18 necessarily, but that's a fairly unofficially low priority
19 thing, a window being broke, right?

20 A. It can be.

21 Q. But you are not -- you don't want to prioritize crimes
22 and what the police are working on, right?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. And that's policy, right?

25 A. Yes, it is.

DANIEL CRADIC - CROSS BY McCOLLUM

1 Q. You don't -- you are not suppose to be out there saying
2 that this isn't high priority, right?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And they tell you -- that's pretty clear when you work
5 for the police department, right?

6 A. That is correct.

7 Q. But the reality of it is, is if it's a broken window,
8 and an angry note, it's not something that everybody has to go
9 jump on, right?

10 A. It can be taken -- it needs to be taken seriously.

11 Q. And -- but in this situation it wasn't even followed up 12 with an arrest, right?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. Okay. Because you didn't think that much of it at the 15 time, right?

16 A. No sir. It wasn't my opinion.

17 Q. Okay.

18 MR. McCOLLUM: Thank you, sir. I appreciate you being 19 here.

20 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Hazzard.

21 MR. HAZZARD: No questions, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. Any redirect, Solicitor?

23 MR. SPRATLIN: No further questions, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. Do you wish the witness to be 25 excused?

JURY OUT/MOTIONS

1 You decide the case solely and completely on the evidence you
2 hear in the courtroom, and from no other source.

3 With that, I'll see you back tomorrow morning, nine
4 o'clock.

5 Please leave your pads and pens. Thank you very much.

7 JURY.)

8 THE COURT: All right, Mr. McCollum, I'll be glad to 9 hear your motions first.

10 MR. MCCOLLUM: May it please the Court, Your Honor,
11 first I would like to move for a directed verdict of not 12 guilty on the two indictments of which Ms. Collington is 13 standing trial, that being the indictment for burglary in 14 the -- accessory before the fact of burglary in the first 15 degree, and accessory before the fact of armed robbery.

16 Additionally, Your Honor, at this time I would like to 17 renew all motions previously made, including those made
18 pretrial, all written motions, all motions that were made
19 orally, in court, on the record, and also, Your Honor, at this 20 time I would like to take this time to renew all the 21 objections ---

22 THE COURT: All right. Well, how about -- we'll just 23 deal with these things one at a time. All right. Let's start 24 off with the directed verdict motion. All right. Any 25 arguments you want to make on that?

1 MR. McCOLLUM: Your Honor, I would just move for a
2 directed verdict of not guilty on the two charges.

3 THE COURT: Solicitor.

4 MS. von HERRMANN: Your Honor, I think there's ample
5 evidence in the record, and I don't think that is appropriate.
6 I would ask the Court to let this go to the jury.

7 THE COURT: All right. Regarding your motions for a
8 directed verdict, the standard is, the defendant is entitled
9 to a directed verdict when the State fails to produce evidence
10 of the offense charged. It's my job as the Trial Judge to 11 look at the existence of the evidence, not with it's weight,
12 believability or credibility, that is, does the evidence exist
13 that would substantiate the charges that have been levied
14 against the Defendant by the State. If there's any direct
15 evidence or substantial circumstantial evidence reasonably
16 tending to prove the guilt of the accused then the case is 17 properly submitted to the jury. It would be my duty to grant
18 a directed verdict motion when the evidence merely raises a
19 suspicion that the accused is guilty of the crimes charged.

20 Further, if I would find that the jury would be merely 21 speculating as to the guilt of the accused, or where there's 22 evidence is only -- sufficient only to raise some mere 23 suspicious of guilt a directed verdict would be properly
24 granted.

25 In this particular matter I do find there is more than

1 sufficient evidence, that that evidence exists in the record
2 which would substantiate the charges, if so believed by the 3 jury, again, that being their job and responsibility, but if 4 that evidence is so believed that would be sufficient evidence
5 to convict the Defendant, beyond a reasonable doubt, of the 6 crimes of accessory before the fact of a felony, that being
7 the crime of burglary in the first degree, and accessory
8 before the fact of a felony, that being armed robbery,
9 Understanding that the standard would be reasonably tending to 10 prove the guilt of the accused the Court is saying that, in my 11 opinion, there is more than sufficient evidence, if that 12 evidence is so believed by the jury, which would prove the 13 Defendant guilty of those crimes beyond a reasonable doubt, 14 there being more than reasonably tending to prove the 15 Defendant's guilt, therefore, I respectfully decline to grant
16 your motions for a directed verdict on the two charges levied
17 against Ladorrean Chukell Collington by the State in (10-GS-18 26-01626), and (10-GS-26-01627).

19 Further motions by the Defense.

20 MR. McCOLLUM: Your Honor, all the motions that were 21 made previously -- they are in the record -- Your Honor has 22 heard arguments on all of them, ruled on them, but at this 23 time, just for the record, I would just like to renew those 24 motions.

25 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to respectfully

1 decline to reconsider those previous rulings. I find that the
2 matters have been previously presented and ruled on by the 3 Court. Further, the evidence that has developed so far in 4 this trial does not give the Court any reason or pause to find
5 that the previous decisions were in error. I respectfully
6 decline to grant your motions to change the Court's decision
7 in those previously filed motions.

8 Anything else, Mr. McCollum?

9 MR. MCCOLLUM: Just the same thing as to the objections
10 Your Honor, just -- I renew the objections previously made.

11 THE COURT: The objections that you made during the 12 course of the trial.

13 MR. MCCOLLUM: Yes sir, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right. I will reaffirm the Court's 15 rulings regarding any objections you made during the course of 16 the trial, and respectfully decline to thereby grant your 17 motions in that regard.

18 Any other motions?

19 MR. MCCOLLUM: No, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. Very good.

21 All right, Mr. Hazzard, on behalf of the Defendant,
22 Gause.

23 MR. HAZZARD: Your Honor, at this time Defendant, 24 Quentin Gause, moves for a directed verdict. It is my 25 understanding, on the counts of kidnapping, armed robbery,

JURY OUT/ON RECORD

1 any questions about the three verdict forms then.

2 (BENCH CONFERENCE TAKES PLACE OFF THE RECORD.)

3 MS. von HERRMANN: I have no objection to those.

4 MR. HAZZARD: No objection, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Thank you very much.

6 All right. Let me go over briefly what I have pulled 7 together so far as a charge to the jury, and then I'll be glad 8 to hear from each of you as to any additions or changes that 9 you would like to this charge to the jury.

10 Obviously I'm going to talk to them, as I mentioned to 11 them at the very beginning about their job as the judges of 12 the facts, and the issues about credibility and believability
13 and their particular responsibilities in that regard, and I'll 14 talk to them about the note taking. I will reaffirm to them
15 that, you know, some people are better notetakers than others,
16 and the notes shouldn't be given any greater weight than some 17 other jurors' recollection. I will remind them about that as 18 I told them that at the very beginning.

19 Regarding expert witnesses, I'll explain to them that,
20 sometimes because of a person's education, employment, certain
21 qualifications, that the Court may allow a particular witness
22 to give their opinion, since we don't normally allow witnesses
23 to give their opinion, but I will tell the jury that doesn't 24 give them any greater -- they shouldn't give it any greater 25 weight than any other witnesses, they look at all the

JURY OUT/ON RECORD.

1 witnesses and the evidence the same, and they judge
2 everybody's credibility and believability the same.

3 I'll talk to them about the direct and circumstantial
4 evidence that -- that the law doesn't make a distinction
5 between the two, a greater degree of certainty isn't required
6 of one over the other, they weigh all the evidence in the 7 case, and after weighing all the evidence if they are not
8 convinced of the guilt of the defendant of a particular crime,
9 beyond a reasonable doubt, they would find the defendant not 10 guilty.

11 Prior record of a witness: I'll tell them that the Rule
12 of Evidence provides that testimony of a witness can be 13 discredited or impeached by showing the witness has been
14 convicted of a crime for which he could have been imprisoned
15 for more than one year, or a crime that involved dishonesty;
16 it's offered on the issue of credibility, and for no other
17 purpose.

18 As I indicated to Ms. Collington and Mr. Gause, I will 19 tell the jury the fact that the Defendants did not testify is 20 not a factor to be considered by them in any way; it must not 21 be considered by them, the fact that they did not testify
22 cannot even be discussed in the jury room, and the State has 23 the burden of proof to prove the Defendants guilty beyond a 24 reasonable doubt.

25 I will talk to them about the presumption of innocence,

1 that it's an important rule of law that, unless guilt has been
2 proven by evidence satisfying them of the guilt beyond a
3 reasonable doubt the presumption of innocence doesn't end --
4 I'll tell them it doesn't -- as I usually do, presumption of 5 innocence didn't end at the beginning of trial, it hasn't 6 ended now, and it doesn't end if, and until they believe the 7 State has proven to them, by evidence they believe, the guilt
8 of the particular defendant of the crime charged beyond a 9 reasonable doubt, and usually -- I don't know that I always
10 do, but I usually talk about the robe of righteousness, and I
11 assume that I will do so in this particular matter. I don't 12 have that specifically written down, but that's something I
13 often do.

14 Reasonable doubt: The kind of doubt that would cause a 15 reasonable person to hesitate to act; and the State has the 16 burden of proving the defendant guilty of each crime charged,
17 beyond a reasonable doubt, and if they are not firmly
18 convinced that the defendant is guilty of the crime charged 19 they must give the defendant the benefit of the doubt and find 20 them not guilty of the crime charged.

21 I will tell them that there are two Defendants in this
22 case. I will tell them that Ladorrean Collington is charged
23 with accessory before the fact to armed robbery, and accessory
24 before the fact of burglary first degree, Quentin Lavant Gause
25 is charged with murder, armed robbery and burglary in the

1101

1 first degree, that the case of each Defendant, and the 2 evidence and the law considering -- or concerning that
3 Defendant is to be considered separately and individually,
4 their verdict does not have to be the same for both
5 Defendants; they can find one Defendant guilty or not guilty,
6 and that doesn't control their verdict as to the other
7 Defendant, and each particular crime is a separate matter to 8 be considered separately. So I will instruct them as to that,
9 and they would arrive at and write a separate verdict, either
10 not guilty or guilty, for each individual Defendant on each
11 charge charged against them.

12 I will talk about accessory before the fact -- probably 13 one general charge, a definition of accessory before the fact,
14 indicating, again, that the Defendant is charged with two 15 separate crimes, and I will mention both of them, accessory
16 before the fact of armed robbery, and accessory before the 17 fact of burglary in the first degree, and that there's two 18 crimes they've got to make two separate decisions. But then 19 I'll go on and define accessory before the fact to them after 20 I say that. I won't read it to them twice, the basic 21 definition of it.

22 After that it will be my intention to charge the law of 23 murder, the State must prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, the 24 defendant killed another with malice aforethought, defining 25 malice, and you know, that malice aforethought doesn't require

1 that malice exist for any particular time before the act is
2 committed, but malice must exist in the mind of the defendant
3 just before, and at the time the act is committed; it has to 4 be that combination of the previous evil intent and the act,
5 and
6 go on to talk about the -- as far as malice, could be express
7 or inferred, and go ahead and talk to jury about that. When 8 we get to the -- I will tell them that inferred malice can 9 arise when the deed is done with a deadly weapon, a deadly
10 weapon is an article, instrument or substance which is likely 11 to cause death or great bodily harm, whether an instrument has 12 been used as a deadly weapon depends on the facts and 13 circumstances of each case. I will not give examples, because 14 I don't want to go into the area of commenting on the facts,
15 so I'm not going to give examples of what might be a deadly
16 weapon. I'll just leave it at definition.

17 Go on, talk about the charge of armed robbery, that the 18 State must prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the 19 Defendant took personal property from the person or presence
20 of another, the State must also prove, beyond a reasonable 21 doubt, the Defendant carried the property away, intending to 22 permanently deprive the owner of the property, and to keep the 23 property for the Defendant's own use, and that slightest
24 removal can be -- the property is in the presence of a person
25 if it's within the person's reach or inspection, so the person

JURY OUT/ON RECORD

1 could keep it if not overcome with violence or prevented by 2 fear.

3 And the State also has to prove, beyond a reasonable
4 doubt, the Defendant was armed with a deadly weapon, and 5 again, I will read that statement, what -- a deadly weapon is 6 any article, instrument or substance likely to cause death or 7 great bodily harm, whether an instrument has been used as a
8 deadly weapon depends on the facts and circumstances of each
9 case. Again, I will not give examples.

10 And finally, I will charge first degree burglary; the 11 State must prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, the Defendant
12 entered a dwelling without consent, define dwelling, that any 13 entrance is sufficient, the smallest entry, it could be any 14 part of a body, and the State does not have to prove that 15 force was used to gain entry, if they entered by deception,
16 artifice, trick or misrepresentation, and they also have to 17 prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, the Defendant intended to 18 commit a crime, either felony or misdemeanor.

19 And obviously I will, at the very end, tell them that 20 their decision has to be unanimous, and it's twelve zero, not 21 any combination thereof.

22 Anything that you are aware of at this point in time,
23 Solicitor? And if y'all want to think about it overnight and 24 come to me first thing in the morning and ask me to think 25 about something else I'll be glad for you to do so, but at

1 this point in time is there anything else, Solicitor?

2 MS. von HERRMANN: There is, Your Honor. If Your Honor
3 would consider charging hand of one is the hand of all, also,
4 the felony murder inference.

5 THE COURT: All right. Let's deal with those one at a
6 time.

7 MS. von HERRMANN: All right.

8 THE COURT: Hand of one. What's your -- I'll just ask
9 both of you. Mr. McCollum, what's your position on that?

10 MR. McCOLLUM: As to the -- I think as to the 11 Defendant, Collington, it could be a little bit confusing to 12 charge that. Obviously if someone is present, aiding and 13 abetting they could be convicted as a principal, and that's 14 basically my position on it, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. And Mr. Hazzard.

16 MR. HAZZARD: If the jury believes the testimony of 17 Gregory Floyd, I guess, which is the only actual testimony of 18 uniting, combining and conspiring for some common goal and 19 purpose, then I would -- I would think that it might be 20 appropriate.

21 THE COURT: All right, sir. Solicitor, what about the 22 point that Mr. McCollum has brought up as to his particular
23 client, about the confusion that there might be by the jury
24 thinking about hand of one and charge of accessory before the 25 fact?

1105

1 MS. von HERRMANN: Well, I think that Your Honor can
2 explain to the jury that the charge with regard to the hand of 3 one is the hand of all applies to principals, that she has not 4 been charged as a principal, and so that legal concept would
5 not apply to her, it would, rather, only apply to Mr. Gause.

6 MR. HAZZARD: Which then kind of gives greater
7 inference and impetus that it does -- that it does, in fact,
8 apply to him as someone who is guilty.

9 MS. von HERRMANN: And here's the situation, Your 10 Honor. I mean, it comes up in several different ways. You've 11 got -- you've got Mr. Floyd, who said that he fired a shot
12 while he was in there, you've got Mr. James, who admits to 13 taking property out of there. If Mr. James takes property out
14 of there, under the hand of one is the hand of all they are 15 all responsible for taking that property out of there, which 16 would make Mr. Gause and Mr. Floyd responsible for taking that 17 property as well, which is, of course, one of the elements of 18 the armed robbery.

19 MR. HAZZARD: And I understand that, Your Honor, but 20 the -- and maybe this argument is more for Mr. McCollum, but 21 the State chose to try these two together; we tried to sever
22 them; they chose to try these two together, and I don't think
23 they can now get the benefit of possible confusion.

24 THE COURT: Well, I appreciate that. I guess the point
25 that -- and what -- I should have probably been more clear

JURY OUT/ON RECORD

1 about getting a comment from you. The State was suggesting to
2 me that, in the charge that, you know, I was going to talk
3 about accessory before the fact first, and then I was going to 4 talk about murder, armed robbery and burglary in the first 5 degree. That was the order in which I was going to talk to 6 them about that.

7 Regarding the hand of one charge, as I understand it,
8 Solicitor, you were suggesting that I make it clear that it
9 applies to the charges of murder, armed robbery, and burglary
10 in the first degree, and not accessory before the fact. Is 11 that what you were requesting of me?

12 MS. von HERRMANN: Yes sir.

13 THE COURT: All right. That's the question then to 14 you, Mr. Hazzard.

15 MR. HAZZARD: If it can be made specific in that 16 fashion, without the Court saying, now this doesn't apply to 17 Ladorrean Collington, you know, which ---

18 THE COURT: No, I'm going to say that, with regard to 19 hand of one it applies to the crimes of murder, armed robbery
20 and burglary in the first degree, and then I would read to 21 them what the hand of one, hand of all is.

22 MR. HAZZARD: Okay.

23 THE COURT: All right. That's how I would say it to 24 them. I don't want to say anything else, honestly, other than 25 that, to try and invade their provence. I'll say it applies

1 to the crimes of murder, armed robbery and burglary in the
2 first degree. That's all I'm going to say.

3 MR. HAZZARD: Okay. And obviously I would just -- if 4 possible I would like to see the form, the Court's charge on 5 that beforehand.

6 THE COURT: On hand of one.

7 MR. HAZZARD: Yes sir.

8 THE COURT: All right. Let me just -- I'll go over it
9 right now. How about that. Hand of one. If a crime is 10 committed by two or more people who are acting together in 11 committing a crime the act of one is the act of all. A person
12 who joins with another to accomplish an illegal purpose if 13 criminally responsible for everything done by the other 14 person, which occurs as a natural or probable consequence of 15 the acts done in carrying out the plan and purpose. The act
16 of one is the act of all, or as sometimes said, the hand of 17 one is the hand of all. Prior knowledge that a crime is going
18 to be committed, without more, is not sufficient to make a
19 person guilty of that crime. Mere knowledge that another 20 person is going to commit a crime, even if the defendant is 21 present when the crime is committed, is not sufficient to 22 convict the defendant; the State must prove, beyond a 23 reasonable doubt, by competent evidence, the theory of the 24 hand of one is the hand of all. A principal in a crime is one
25 who either actually commits the crime, or who is present

1 aiding, abetting or assisting in committing the crime. When a
2 person does an act in the presence of, and with the assistance
3 of another, the act is done by both. Where two or more,
4 acting with a common plan or intent are present at the 5 commission of a crime it does not matter who actually commits
6 the crime, all are guilty; the hand of one is the hand of all.
7 Present at the commission of a crime means to be sufficiently
8 near, to aid, abet and assist in the commission of the crime,
9 however, mere presence at the scene of a crime is not 10 sufficient to convict. Intent is also a necessary element,
11 for there must have been a common design or intent to commit
12 the crime, and the crime must have been committed with the 13 person aiding or abetting by some overt act, not accidentally 14 or involuntarily. Intent may be shown by acts and conduct of 15 the defendant, and other circumstances from which you may 16 naturally and reasonably infer intent. The State must prove 17 all these elements beyond a reasonable doubt.

18 That's what I would intend to charge them, Mr. Hazzard.

19 MR. HAZZARD: Okay, Your Honor. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: All right. Any problems with that then?

21 MR. HAZZARD: None from the Defendant, Gause, Your 22 Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right. Very good.

24 And Mr. McCollum, as I indicated, my intention is to 25 charge accessory before the fact, and then go into murder,

1 armed robbery and burglary in the first degree, and before I
2 talk about hand of one, hand of all I'm going to say, you
3 know, the following theory applies to murder, armed robbery,
4 and accessory -- I'm sorry -- murder, armed robbery, and 5 burglary in the first degree, and then I'll read what I just 6 read.

7 Do you have a problem with that?

8 MR. McCOLLUM: No, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. Just one second.

10 MR. McCOLLUM: And Judge, if you are going to charge it
11 I don't object to it. There's so much language in there 12 explaining it that, in some ways, I think it maybe even would 13 benefit Ms. Collington ---

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 MR. McCOLLUM: ---Now that I listen to it again, so I
16 don't -- I'm not asking for any special requirements.

17 THE COURT: Well, I appreciate that, but -- I
18 appreciate that. I think I will stick with what I told y'all 19 about.

20 All right. And I know there was something else,
21 Solicitor. I got off on this. There was something else you
22 wanted me to charge and ---

23 THE COURT: I just had two other issues, Your Honor.
24 The first would be that I would ask the Court to consider
25 charging the felony murder inference.

1110

1 THE COURT: All right. Hold on a second. All right,
2 again, this would be -- and let me just read it, as I
3 understand the felony murder inference charge, so everybody
4 understands -- and I would have to do something to make it
5 clear it doesn't apply to Ms. Collington. As I understand it
6 the felony murder inference says, if one intentionally kills
7 another during the commission of a felony the inference of 8 malice may arise if facts are proved, beyond a reasonable 9 doubt, sufficient to raise an inference of malice to your 10 satisfaction. This inference would simply be an evidentiary
11 fact to be taken into consideration by you, along with all the 12 other evidence in the case, and you may give it the weight
13 that you decide it should receive.

14 I appreciate what you are asking, Solicitor, but in the 15 definition of murder -- and let me go back to that.

16 MS. von HERRMANN: Judge, it's not going to give me --
17 I'll withdraw my request on that.

18 THE COURT: All right. I -- because I ---

19 MS. von HERRMANN: That's fine.

20 THE COURT: ---I talked about that, and ---

21 MS. von HERRMANN: I think you do.

22 THE COURT: ---And honestly, we talk about, you know,
23 malice can be inferred by conduct showing a total disregard of 24 human life. Inferred malice may arise when the deed is done
25 with a deadly weapon. I think ---

1 State of South Carolina, again, reaffirming that I find that
2 there is more than sufficient evidence, if that evidence is so
3 believed by the jury, to sustain the verdicts of guilty as to 4 the Defendant on both charges, beyond a reasonable doubt.

5 And then you had also made the motions -- renewed your 6 motions on the pretrial motions; is that correct?

7 MR. McCOLLUM: Yes sir, Your Honor. At this time, on 8 behalf of the Defendant, Collington, I hereby renew all
9 motions made; all written motions, all motions heard, all
10 motions made verbally or orally on the record, and also renew
11 all objections made before the Court, which were overruled,
12 and additionally, Your Honor, renew the -- specifically also 13 renew the motion for the request for a mistrial based on the 14 evidence of threats. And that's -- that's all I have from the 15 Defendant at this time, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. Very good. Again, I would 17 respectfully decline to grant your motions regarding all of 18 the pretrial motions. I'll just reaffirm the rulings that the 19 Court made, and will indicate that nothing that transpired
20 during the course of the trial has caused me to reconsider
21 those decisions in any way, and I reaffirm the decisions made
22 by the Court during the course of the trial; and respectfully
23 decline to grant your motions in that regard.

24 All right. I'm sorry. Anything else on behalf of the 25 Defendant, Collington?

1 minutes, then I'll have you come back in, I will give you the
2 law that you will apply to the facts that you find to be true
3 in this matter, and then I will submit the case to you for 4 your deliberation and your unanimous decision on the matters
5 presented.

6 So with that I'll turn it over to the lawyers for their 7 closing arguments.

8 Solicitor.

9 MS. von HERRMANN: Thank you very much. May it please
10 the Court.

11 THE COURT: Yes Ma'am.

12 MS. von HERRMANN: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 Good morning, ladies and gentlemen of the jury, I
14 appreciate your attention that you've given to this case this 15 week. We've been looking at you from time to time, and I know
16 that y'all have paid a lot of attention to the witnesses that 17 have come up here and testified.

18 Before we get to that, to the witnesses and to the 19 evidence, I want to talk to you about a couple of different
20 things that just sort of come into a trial. There are two 21 different kinds of evidence that are presented to you in a
22 trial. The first kind of evidence is evidence which is called 23 direct-evidence. Direct-evidence is the evidence that someone
24 perceives through their senses; they see it, they hear it,
25 they taste it, they smell it, they touch it. Direct-evidence.

STATE'S SUMMATION (von HERRMANN)

1 The different kind, the second kind of evidence is
2 circumstantial evidence. And you hear people all the time,
3 just kind of a general vernacular, saying things like, well,
4 they don't have anything against that guy; it's just all a
5 bunch of circumstantial evidence, which makes it sound like 6 there's something wrong with circumstantial evidence, but 7 there's not, and in fact, most evidence is circumstantial
8 evidence, most evidence, and the Judge will tell you, when you
9 go back there to consider this case you are to make no
10 distinction between evidence which is direct evidence, and 11 evidence which is circumstantial evidence. Circumstantial
12 evidence just means that it's something -- it's the kind of 13 evidence from which you can draw a conclusion.

14 Now, Supreme Court Justice Costa Pleicones, told me a 15 story many, many years ago about his nephew. He said that his 16 nephew was over at his house, and his wife was cooking dinner, 17 and his nephew was a little boy, and the little boy came up to 18 him and said, Uncle Costa, I'm hunger, can I have that banana
19 up there, and Judge Pleicones said, look, we are getting ready
20 to have dinner; you can't have that banana right now. The 21 banana is sitting up there on the counter. Well, Judge
22 Pleicones goes and he leaves, and he hears the little boy
23 going, I want that banana, and so he goes out of the room.
24 Well, he comes back a few minutes later and he looks on that 25 same counter and guess what's there, banana peel, no banana.

1 So he looks at the little boy and he goes, did you eat that
2 banana, and the little boy looks back at him, and he leans
3 down and he says, let me smell your breath, and the little boy
4 goes, huh, banana, and he looks on the side of his mouth and
5 he sees a little piece of banana. Did he see that child eat
6 that banana, no, he didn't see that child eat that banana.
7 Did the child eat the banana? Sure he did. Of course he did,
8 and anyone can take kind of information and put it together
9 and know that the child ate the banana. The peel is gone, the 10 child wanted the banana, he's got a little piece of banana on 11 his face, and the banana is on his breath. That's 12 circumstantial evidence. That's what it is.

13 The Judge is also going to give you an instruction about 14 reasonable doubt, and I know you all have all heard about 15 reasonable doubt. You hear about it on television shows, and 16 we just, as citizens of this Country, know, or have a general
17 idea about what we think reasonable doubt is. I want to talk
18 to you about reasonable doubt.

19 There are many things in life that we know, but there
20 are very few things in life that we can know with absolute
21 certainty, and the law does not require that we know something
22 with absolute certainty. The law requires, what reasonable 23 doubt requires, is that you be firmly convinced that what the 24 fact is that you -- whatever the fact is, that you are firmly
25 convinced about that particular fact. So that's what it is,

1 proof that leaves you firmly convinced. What is it not? It's 2 not an absolute certainty. We can't prove anything to an
3 absolute certainty. There's a pretty good chance that the sun
4 is going to rise tomorrow, but nobody can prove that to an
5 absolute certainty. It's not beyond all doubt. You can have 6 some doubt. You can have some doubt. And we all have some 7 doubt about almost everything, and it's not beyond some sort
8 of moral certainty, so again, what reasonable doubt is is you
9 want -- we have to give to you -- the State is required to 10 give to you proof that leaves you firmly convinced. It's 11 something that you use every day in your life. You don't act
12 on something if you are not firmly convinced. If you feel 13 like it's appropriate for you to act on something then you are 14 firmly convinced. That's reasonable doubt.

15 There are also some matters of law that the Judge is 16 going to talk to you about, and as you know, the two different
17 Defendants in this case have been charged with different
18 things, and so I want to take them separately, because it
19 really is confusing, and so I'm going to start over here with 20 Mr. Gause, and I'm going to talk to you about what Mr. Gause
21 is charged with. The first thing that he's charged with is 22 burglary in the first degree. Now, here is the definition,
23 elements, if you will, of burglary in the first degree.
24 Entering a place where people live, without consent, and with 25 an intent to commit a crime therein. While entering, or while

1 in the house, or when fleeing, the defendant -- and you don't
2 have to have all of these -- you can have one, any single one
3 of these -- is armed with a deadly weapon, or causes injury to 4 anyone not participating in the crime, or uses threats, or the 5 use of a dangerous instrument, or displays a knife or a
6 firearm. I would submit to you that in this case there is no
7 question that he entered into a place where people live. He 8 entered into Allen Smith's house. He didn't have consent to 9 go into that house. And they intended to commit a crime once
10 they got in there. While they entered that residence they 11 were armed with deadly weapons. He was armed with a deadly 12 weapon, he caused an injury to a person who was a non-13 participant. You remember Frankie Davis testifying about the 14 injury that she received when she slid down under the bed, had 15 to be taken away by E.M.S.. Use of a dangerous instrument.
16 Firearm is certainly a dangerous instrument. And here again,
17 displays a knife or firearm. So I would submit to you that 18 with regard to the burglary in the first degree he doesn't 19 just meet one of these elements, he meets all of the elements,
20 all of the elements of burglary first.

21 In addition to the burglary first he's also charged with 22 armed robbery. Now these are the elements of armed robbery.
23 The taking or -- taking or attempted taking -- you don't even 24 have to take something, if you just go in there and try to 25 take something -- taking, or attempted taking, and carrying

STATE'S SUMMATION (von HERRMANN)

1 away of the personal property of another, with intent to 2 deprive him of possession by use of force, threats or 3 intimidation, while armed with a deadly weapon.

4 There was money in that house, according to Frankie
5 Davis, when they went in. When Robert Deal from Crime Scene
6 got there there was no money. Somebody took that money.

7 And you also heard Donell James testify about the fact
8 that he took that gun, that .410 out of the bedroom there in 9 that house. So you may be saying to yourself, well, wait a 10 minute, Donell said that he took it, so does that -- does that 11 count if a co-defendant takes it? Sure it does. Yes, it
12 does. And this is what -- it counts. And the Judge is going 13 to instruct you on all these things as well, because there is 14 a theory in the law which is called the hand of one is the 15 hand of all, and that theory states that, if a crime is 16 committed by two or more people who are acting together in 17 committing the crime, the act of one is the act of all, both,
18 or all, are equally responsible. If Mr. Spratlin and 19 Detective Townsend and I go into a residence, and while we are 20 in that residence I take a jewelry box and I leave, I took the 21 jewelry box, he's responsible for taking the jewelry box, he's 22 responsible for taking the jewelry box, because the hand of 23 one, when you are acting in concert, is the hand of all.

24 And by that same token, each of these co-defendants that 25 you heard testify here, you heard that they were all charged

1 with the same crime, they are all charged with the same crime,
2 because the hand of one is the hand of all, and everything
3 that Mr. Gause did, they did, and that's why they are charged
4 the same way that he's charged. All right, so the hand of one
5 is the hand of all. So if Donell James takes a weapon out of 6 that residence, carries it away, then we had a taking of the 7 personal property of another, with the intent to deprive him
8 of possession by use of force, threats, or intimidation, while 9 armed with a deadly weapon. That's your armed robbery. Okay.
10 That's it. That's what we are looking for, and that's what 11 we've got to prove with regard to the armed robbery.

12 Finally, Mr. Gause is charged with murder. Murder is 13 the killing of another with malice aforethought. Well, what 14 in the world is malice aforethought? I've got to tell you,
15 before I went to law school I had heard malice. I had no idea
16 what malice aforethought was. Here's what it is. Malice is 17 the intentional doing of a wrongful act, or ill will, hatred,
18 hostility toward another, or reckless disregard for the lives
19 and safety of others. You don't have to have all of these,
20 again. You can have any one of them. Killing of another
21 while you were doing a wrongful act. If you kill a person
22 while you are committing a burglary, if you kill another
23 person while you are committing an armed robbery, then you
24 have committed that killing with malice aforethought. You can
25 infer that malice by the use of a deadly weapon. There is a -

STATE'S SUMMATION (von HERRMANN)

1 - often a presumption -- and I've talked to jurors after cases
2 before and they told me that they had gotten back in their
3 jury room and that there was a lot of talk back there about --
4 people having discussions about premeditation. Premeditation
5 is not a requirement. Premeditation has never been a
6 requirement for murder. There are other states which have
7 different degrees of murder. They've got murder one, murder
8 two, murder three, that sort of thing, and some of those
9 levels of murder require premeditation. In South Carolina
10 that's not what we have. This is the definition of murder
11 right here. This is it. This is the only definition.
12 Killing of another with malice aforethought. All right. And 13 so it's not that they have to plot out, oh, we are going to go
14 in here and shoot this guy, oh, I'm planning on shooting this 15 guy. If you are holding a gun on somebody, and you pull that 16 trigger, and that happens, in the course of a burglary, in the 17 course of an armed robbery, or even if you just pull it with 18 reckless disregard, that, ladies and gentlemen, is murder,
19 murder. And those are the charges that apply to Quentin
20 Gause.

21 Now, with regard to the Defendant, Ladorrean Collington,
22 she has been charged -- she's got two charges, accessory
23 before the fact to burglary first, and accessory before the 24 fact to armed robbery, and here is what that means. The 25 Defendant, Ladorrean Collington, did one of these things: She

1 advised, and agreed with, or she urged, or she hired, or in
2 some way aided, counseled, encouraged the perpetrator -- would
3 be the perpetrators in this case -- to commit a felony,
4 burglary, and armed robbery -- defendant is not present --
5 nobody is saying Ms. Collington was present; that's not the 6 State's position -- and the principal committed the crime.
7 Well, we know the principal committed the crime. We know that 8 there was a burglary committed, and we know that there is an 9 armed robbery committed. So in order for you to convict her
10 of accessory before the fact of burglary, and accessory before
11 the fact of armed robbery, all you've got to believe is that 12 she urged somebody to go break into his house, and try to rob
13 him, that she counseled them to try to break into his house
14 and commit an armed robbery, that she encouraged, aided -- any 15 of these -- urged, hired, advised -- she advised them, that 16 she told them, you should go break in that house and you
17 should rob. That's it. She doesn't have to drive them there.
18 She doesn't have to do anything other than encourage them to 19 do it. So that's what we've got our two Defendants charged 20 with. All right.

21 In a homicide case it's a little bit different, the way
22 the police deal with it, than they do with other cases. In a
23 homicide case they just want to divide it into two parts.
24 It's divided into a crime scene part, a part handled by crime
25 scene, and then a part that's handled by someone who is

STATE'S SUMMATION (von HERRMANN)

1135

1 designated as the lead detective in that case.

2 Now, Investigator Deal came up and he testified for you
3 about the crime scene, and we put a whole lot of pieces of 4 evidence in, and all of those things -- all of those items
5 will go back with you to your jury room, and so you can look
6 at as many of those, or as few of those as you care to look
7 at. But his role is to collect that evidence, to preserve the 8 evidence in order to bring it here to court today, and if any 9 of those items need to be tested that they be sent off for 10 testing.

11 The lead detective in the case is a separate part of the 12 equation. The lead detective's role is that he goes out and 13 he follows up on leads, he develops leads, he looks for 14 people, he interviews people, they may get some search
15 warrants so that they can collect evidence and that sort of 16 thing, and that's what the lead detective does. The lead
17 detective doesn't have any personal knowledge about what 18 happened at that scene. All right. So defense attorneys like 19 to make a big deal about the lead detective not testifying,
20 but the lead detective could only testify about what somebody
21 else said, and since we've brought those somebodies to you,
22 and put them up there, there's no need for him to be up there.
23 He is here today. He can't tell you what they said. We have 24 to bring the people that he has put together up here and 25 present them to you. He's the gatekeeper, so that's why he

1 didn't testify in this matter. Okay.

2 All right. So that being said, the Defendants in this
3 case have been represented by two very fine defense attorneys.
4 They have gotten a good defense. I can tell you that Mr.
5 McCollum and Mr. Hazzard are two of the best lawyers that we 6 have here in Horry County, and they've done a good job for 7 their clients, but here's what their job is. Their job is to 8 get a not guilty verdict for their client. Their job is not 9 to present the truth to you, to enlighten you, to let you know
10 what really happened. Their job is to take your attention
11 away ---

12 MR. HAZZARD: Your Honor, I'm going to object to that 13 characterization.

14 THE COURT: I'm going to allow, at this point in time,
15 the Solicitor to continue.

16 You may continue, Ma'am.

17 MS. von HERRMANN: Thank you.

18 Their job is the draw your attention away from the 19 evidence that incriminates their client. That's their job.
20 That's what they are there to do. So what they are going to 21 talk to you about is minor inconsistencies, little bitty
22 pieces. They are going to pick, pick, pick, pick, pick, pick,
23 pick the little bitty pieces, and they are going to want you
24 to look at one little tree here and there. What I want you to 25 do is, I want you to look at the forest. I want you to look

1 at the big picture, and everything that you heard in it's 2 totality.

3 Now let's talk a little bit about the physical evidence
4 that we have in this case. We've got two shotgun shells, all
5 right, and we laid those out for you. We've got one .22
6 casing -- this is what was found at the scene, and you'll have 7 this back there -- two shotgun shells, one .22 casing. We've 8 got a broken door frame, we've got some bedroom -- dresser
9 drawers that are pulled open, and we've got a missing .410
10 shotgun. We had a lot of other stuff, but those, in 11 particular, are important things, because you heard the 12 testimony of the firearms expert, Ira Parnell, who came in,
13 and he took this shotgun right here, and he compared this 14 shotgun to the two shotgun shells that were collected from the 15 house. And you remember what he said about that. Those two 16 shotgun shells, which were the only shotgun shells collected
17 from the house, were not fired from this weapon. He told you
18 that the .22 casing found in the house was fired from this 19 weapon. The only conclusion that we could logically come to 20 from that is that there's another gun in that house that fired
21 those two shotgun shells.

22 Now Donell James told you that he took a shotgun out of 23 there, a .410 shotgun. A .410 shotgun doesn't shoot a .12
24 gauge shotgun shell - that gun didn't fire that shell, all 25 right, so there's another gun out there, and it's the

1 camouflage gun, and it's the gun that Quentin Gause brought.

2 Greg -- Greg Floyd -- excuse me -- admits to this .22.

3 He admits to this. And Dr. Proctor came in then and he talked
4 to you about the cause and manner of death, and he told you
5 that the cause of death was the shotgun wound, was a -- were 6 shot -- excuse me -- gunshot wounds. He told you that there
7 was a large shotgun wound, which was a fatal wound, and he 8 also told you that there was a .22 wound in that victim.

9 All right, now, let's move off of that physical 10 evidence, talk a little bit about the witnesses in this case.
11 There are two kinds of witnesses that we have here. We've got 12 our victims, Mr. Graham and Ms. Frankie Davis, and then we've 13 got our cooperating co-defendants. Let's talk about Frankie
14 Graham -- excuse me -- let's talk about Anthony Graham, just 15 for a few minutes. Anthony Graham is a good -- Frankie Graham
16 is a -- I mean -- excuse me -- Anthony Graham was a good
17 witness, kind of just to lay things out for you, and what he 18 told you was that his friend, Allen Smith, had come -- had 19 come and picked him up, and that -- somewhere around this time
20 period, and then that on April the 8th, that Allen Smith and 21 Ladorrean Collington got into an argument. Remember he says
22 that's where they got in the argument and she pulls the chain
23 off, and tried to, like kick him in the crotch, and they ran
24 off and down the road, and then they see her, she's at the end
25 of the road in her car, and she drives down and breaks out the

1139

1 window and leaves a note there. That's what's happening here
2 on the 8th. And then the next sort of big event -- and I
3 think I talked to you about some of these in opening argument,
4 is the 10th, Thursday the 10th. That's the day that this,
5 what I call the failed attempt, took place. That's the day
6 when Andrew James, Donell James, and Greg Floyd go over to 7 their house, to Allen Smith's house, and they end up
8 basically, for lack of a better word, chickening out, and 9 heading back to Ladorrean's house, and just had a bad feeling
10 about it, they said.

11 The next day that is important is Friday, the 11th.
12 This is the day that Frankie Davis told you that she ran into 13 Ladorrean Collington there over in Aynor at the Dollar Store,
14 and at that time she, you know, bless her heart, you know,
15 this is the woman who really and truly is an innocent victim
16 in this thing. I mean, she gets over there and this woman,
17 Ladorrean Collington, is yelling at her, she's calling her
18 names, and what does Ms. Davis do? She says, I'm old enough
19 to be your mom; I'm not getting in any kind of fight with you,
20 and she leaves, and defuses that scene. She didn't want to be 21 involved with Ladorrean Collington. She didn't want to have 22 anything to do with this woman. And she goes -- you know, on 23 that day she goes home, and that's when, the next thing you
24 know Anthony Graham gets a message on his telephone, and 25 here's what that message said -- y'all will have this back in

1 your jury room too. You can listen to this once you get back
2 there.

3 (PUBLISHES A PORTION OF STATE'S EXHIBIT NUMBER 72.)

4 We might want to do something about that. Check that 5 out. Take that and check that out before we put that back in 6 there. We'll get back to that, and again, y'all -- I -- we
7 don't need to play it in here. Y'all will have it back there
8 and you can hear it. And y'all have heard that threat before.
9 But Frankie, on that day, runs into Ladorrean.

10 And then finally we have the incident date on the 13th.
11 This chart is also going to go back there with you. I know we 12 didn't enter it into evidence in your presence, but you all
13 can use that when you get back there, if you need to, to kind
14 of sort through some things.

15 Frankie Davis, what does she tell us in addition to 16 that? She says she sees a text that Ladorrean Collington sent 17 to Allen Smith, where she threatens Allen and his mother, and 18 physically sees that on his telephone.

19 And then, of course, she goes into what happens that 20 day. She is laying there in the bed -- I'm not going to 21 belabor it. You all have heard the testimony. She hears
22 people coming in the house. She says she sees three, and 23 hears three voices, she slides down between the side of the 24 bed, she's under there, and she looks out, she sees two sets 25 of shoes under there, she sees somebody going through the

STATE'S SUMMATION (von HERRMANN)

1141

1 dresser, and some things that are falling out. She says
2 that -- she describes those shoes. By the way, one pair of 3 those was black, and one pair is black and gold. She runs
4 out, and what does she see? She sees her beloved Allen,
5 laying there, dead, and who can't sympathize with that woman.
6 She calls the police on 911, and she tells them immediately
7 that she suspects Ladorrean Collington, because by this day
8 all of these other things have already happened. There aren't 9 people coming in and out of that house. She didn't have 10 reason to suspect anybody else. That was the only person that 11 she had any problem with.

12 Then we have some testimony from our cooperating co-
13 defendants, and let's talk about those. Would I like to put 14 up a nun and a priest and a rabbi up here to tell you the 15 story of what happened about Allen Smith being murdered, and 16 his house being burglarized, and him being armed robbed? Sure
17 I would. Absolutely. But the fact of the matter is, drug
18 dealers don't hang around with nuns and priests and rabbis.
19 People who are engaged in this kind of activity hang around
20 with other people who are engaged in this type of activity, 21 and so the witnesses to this crime are going to be people who 22 are willing to participate in this type of crime. Every one
23 of those people, every one of them that came up there and 24 talked to you is charged in this case. And there was some 25 testimony about a proffer agreement, and I just want to make

1 sure that we are clear about what a proffer agreement is. A
2 proffer agreement -- and once you hear this you will be going,
3 why would anybody enter into a proffer agreement -- but here's 4 what a proffer agreement is. The State says to the defendant,
5 defendant, if you want to come forward and talk to the police,
6 and give us some information about the case in which you were 7 involved, then we will let the Judge know about your level of 8 cooperation, and that may help you out on your sentence, may 9 help you out on your sentence, but there are no promises being 10 made. So those -- are those people hoping that they are going 11 to get some consideration? Sure they are. Absolutely.
12 Because at some point probably somebody is going to come, me,
13 or some other prosecutor, and say, Judge, if we hadn't had 14 this information from this person then we never would have 15 known about these other people, and we wouldn't have been able 16 to solve this crime. So they are looking and hoping for 17 something in return, but no promises are made to them. And so 18 that's where they stand. They are hopeful, but not assured of 19 anything.

20 So here's what we've got. We've got Andrew James who 21 gets up there. You saw Andrew James, dark skinned, real -- a 22 real dark-skinned guy, okay, and he is the one who went on the 23 first attempt, the failed attempt, brought the gun and the 24 ammo back to Donell's on the 14th. He told you there -- he 25 told you he was there for a short period of time, that he was

1 dealing with the eviction matter. His girlfriend, fiancé,
2 Cecily Hillard, comes up; she confirms that. There's a note
3 up here in evidence showing where they went by the Social 4 Department, and a signature was actually notarized on that 5 day, so that's Andrew James. All right.

6 He also told you that he talked with Tiffany later on 7 that day, that Tiffany said, Bait shot the man, and he was the 8 one who told the police, during their interview with him -- he 9 went to the interview with them, and he's wearing yellow and 10 black shoes, okay, yellow and black shoes. He's in the Police
11 Department, and you just -- I mean, Frankie Davis had told the 12 police there were some black and gold shoes. He's in the 13 Police Department with black and yellow shoes. He just -- you 14 know, you can draw your own conclusion from that. Black and 15 gold shoes ain't the same as black and yellow shoes. All
16 right. He's in the Police Department with those shoes.

17 All right. Mr. McCollum, I think, asked him about,
18 well, you drive Ladorrean Collington to work sometimes now,
19 don't you, and he said, yeah, yeah, I do, I drive her
20 sometimes. Well, if he's driving her to work he isn't mad at 21 her. He isn't trying -- he isn't trying to hurt her. If he 22 was up here trying to hurt her he wouldn't be driving her to 23 work. He's up here telling the truth because that's what he 24 needs to do. He needs to tell the truth. He doesn't like 25 being up there, being called a snitch, he doesn't like it, but

1 he needs to tell the truth, and that's what he did.

2 Donell James, he's the guy who came out from lock-up,
3 he's still in his jumpsuit, he's still in jail. Other people
4 have gotten out but he hasn't. He lays the whole thing out.
5 And again, I'm not going to -- I'm not going to belabor the 6 testimony, because you all heard it, but he tells you about
7 hospital he had talked to Ladorrean, Ladorrean had told him
8 that there would be things, the money and/or drugs will be in 9 the dresser drawer there in the house, where the house would 10 be, what kind of money there would be there, lays out the 11 details. He's got people coming over to his house.

12 Greg Floyd. Now here's a guy who's basically never been 13 in trouble with the law in his life until this, and Donell
14 calls him about this lick, and he says, this is the -- of 15 course he goes on the first one, and he discusses that with 16 Ladorrean. She gives him that same information. But the 17 second time Donell calls him on the phone, says, what are we 18 going to do about that lick, come on, let's go on that lick.
19 And he says, ah, you know, I don't know, maybe, maybe not. He 20 gets a call from his friend, Bait. He talks to Bait, he says,
21 I've got this lick; do you want to go on this lick. Bait says
22 sure, I'll go on the lick.

23 Greg Floyd doesn't have his own car. He's got -- I
24 think he said his girlfriend had a gold Maxima. Quentin Gause
25 comes, picks him up in his red vehicle, takes him over to

STATE'S SUMMATION (von HERRMANN)

1145

1 Donell James' house. When they get to Donell's he tells you
2 that Quentin Gause has got a camouflage shotgun, that he's got
3 a ski mask, that he's got gloves, that he's got some duct
4 tape, that they are dressed in black, and he says he's got a
5 green shirt that he put over his face. He essentially tells 6 the same story that Donell and Andrew told you. But there's 7 something different about Greg Floyd, because Greg Floyd gets 8 up there and he tells you that he took this gun and that he
9 shot a man. Do you know how many times somebody stands up
10 there on that witness stand and admits that they shot a man?
11 I would submit to you that if he's going to tell you the truth
12 about shooting a man, he isn't going to lie to you about 13 anything else. If he's going to lie to you about anything
14 he's going to lie to you about shooting somebody. So, I would 15 submit to you that his credibility is way, way, way up here,
16 and he's the one who tells you that Quentin Gause was in on 17 this thing. He tells you -- and they all tell you that, but 18 he's the one who tells you how Quentin actually gets into it.

19 And here -- here's the other thing about him, is this 20 guy has been his friend for fifteen years. If he's going to 21 put somebody in this thing he isn't going to put his friend of 22 fifteen years in there if it isn't true. He could make 23 somebody up to put in there, but he doesn't. He tells you the 24 truth about his friend, Quentin Gause, and he tells you the 25 truth, that he shot that man.

1 Then we have Tiffany James. What can I say about
2 Tiffany James? Here's a twenty-one year old girl who's barely
3 got a ninth grade education, and they want you to believe that 4 she has written a letter which says, I am available for 5 further inquiry regarding this matter. I want to tell you
6 that one, Ladorrean Collington was not involved in the 7 homicide. If you believe that then we need to just stop right
8 here. Ladorrean Collington was like a sister to her. And 9 this is a girl who, unfortunately, was younger, who needed, or 10 wanted a role model. This was an older girl who was friendly
11 to her, who took her out, and she would have done whatever
12 Ladorrean Collington told her to do, and she did, she did do 13 what -- Ladorrean told her to drive them over there. She 14 drove them over there. Ladorrean told her to write this 15 letter. She wrote the letter. Ladorrean told her to go -- to 16 call Greg or Donell -- and these people can hear Ladorrean in 17 the back, but Ladorrean gets her to do it. She's using her.
18 She used her.

19 This girl is not smart enough to plan a tea party.
20 She's surely not smart enough to plan all of this, and get 21 everybody on the same page and all of that. Tiffany James, no
22 way.

23 And the last person that you heard from was Officer
24 Cradic. He's the one who went over there and he grabbed --
25 saw the broken window and he grabbed the note. How about this

1 note? Here's what he testified to. He's got a note on the
2 door, written by Ladorrean Collington. Tiffany James told you
3 she wrote it over there. "Bitch, I will be back. Nigger,
4 fuck you and Fa, bitch ass...., and it goes on. Is that a note
5 from someone who is pregnant and just a little bit hormonal,
6 just a little bit. For those of us women who have children,
7 no, hormonal means you might get a little upset when you watch
8 a movie, you might cry when you break something. You don't 9 leave a note that says, bitch, I'll be back. Nigger, fuck you
10 and Fa, bitch ass. That's not what hormonal and pregnant
11 women do.

12 These Defendants, co-defendants, they differ in some 13 ways, but they were all consistent about these things. All
14 right. Ladorrean planned it, Andrew brought the ammo,
15 shotgun, the .22, Bait, who had dreads back then, brought a
16 camouflage gun, he had a red car, Tiffany drove it, Gregory
17 was in the passenger seat, Donell and Quentin were in the 18 back, Greg kicked in the door, they ran in the first room
19 where there was an air mattress, then Bait and Quentin ran
20 down to the master bedroom, there were three shots, Donell
21 brought out a long case, they drove to TaTa's, Quentin's
22 sister's house, Bait drove off, Tiffany, Donell and Greg walk
23 to Huckabee Heights, they threw a shotgun in the woods, Greg 24 gave the .22 back to Tiffany. All of them told you that 25 same -- they may have differed a little, but they all told you

1 those things, and ladies and gentlemen, those things, that's
2 the crime. That's the burglary first, that's the armed
3 robbery, that's the murder, and it's certainly the accessory
4 before the fact, certainly.

5 Now Quentin Gause, most of the co-defendants told you
6 they didn't know him very well, again, before that day, and 7 they didn't -- they didn't, and that's because, as Greg Floyd
8 told you, he's the one who brought him in. So the connection
9 between him and these other people is Greg Floyd, and that's 10 what they told you.

11 And Ladorrean, she is -- and I -- look back at your 12 notes when you go back. Y'all, she's the only connection any 13 of these people have to Allen Smith. Every one of them told
14 you that, before this time period, none of them knew Allen
15 Smith, none of them. And so, in order not to convict her of 16 accessory before the fact of burglary, and accessory before
17 the fact of armed robbery, you would have to believe that 18 these people got together, absent her, and just miraculously
19 came up with this person, Allen Smith, that they were going to 20 go in there and burglarize and rob. That's what you would 21 have to believe, that they -- they came up with it all on 22 their own, because she is the single, only connection. She's 23 it. She's told them it was going to be an easy lick. Let me
24 tell you what -- let me tell you what this woman did. She 25 sent those people in there. She said, it's going to be an

1 easy lick; it's going to be a sweet lick; you won't have to 2 worry about guns. We know there were guns in there. She 3 didn't give a rat's ass what happened to them when they got in 4 that home. She didn't care. All she wanted to do was get 5 them to go in there so she could serve her purpose, which was 6 to hurt him, because he didn't want to be with her. She 7 didn't care about Donell or Tiffany. She didn't care about
8 Greg; she didn't care about Quentin. It didn't matter to her
9 what happened to any of them. The only thing that mattered to 10 her was that she got her revenge.

11 This is Allen Smith. He's somebody's son; he's 12 somebody's family; he's somebody's boyfriend; he's somebody's
13 father, and he may have been a drug dealer, but his life is 14 worth the same amount as yours and mine.

15 Quentin Gause went in there with that camouflage shotgun
16 and he fired a shot, bamb, bamb. He killed Allen Smith, and 17 she made it happen. She made it happen.

18 I want you to go back to that jury room, and I want you
19 to find them guilty, on all these counts.

20 Thank you.

21 Thank you, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. Mr. McCollum, closing argument.

23 MR. McCOLLUM: May it please the Court.

24 THE COURT: Yes sir.

25 MR. McCOLLUM: Ladies and gentlemen, good morning.

1 There's a couple of things in this case. One is that,
2 when the case started Ms. von Herrmann gave her opening
3 statement, and it seemed like at that time she had a case, but
4 she didn't, she doesn't, she didn't. What she said to you
5 happened didn't happen. She hasn't proved it. What I said to 6 you was that the killers, the burglars, the Defendants, the 7 criminals, who all admitted, finally, their involvement, they 8 are not on trial. They are the State's witnesses, and that's 9 what has come true.

10 The other thing I want you to think about too, just 11 briefly, or over and over as we go through this, is that 12 throughout the trial the witnesses who haven't been promised
13 anything, oh, want to come clean and bear their sole, if they 14 would say, well, what's your name, they would say, well Dorrea
15 did it. Mr. Hazzard would question them, say, well, you were 16 in there, didn't you. Well, Dorrea told us to go. They 17 signed a proffer. Now, after lying and lying, and lying some 18 more they finally, in different degrees, admitted different
19 involvement in it. But once the police have everybody it
20 doesn't do -- it doesn't do Greg Floyd any good to say Donell
21 James did it, because the police are like, well, we know that.
22 It doesn't do anybody any good to say well, Tiffany drove them
23 and she did it, and they go, we know that. So when everybody
24 involved is being called, and there's evidence against them,
25 they can't help themselves unless they come up with somebody

1 else.

2 Now, I promise you -- it's 10:15 -- that I will not talk
3 as long as the Solicitor. I think about you in here this
4 week. I used to go to movies all the time. Sometimes I don't 5 even go to a movie because I don't want to sit still that 6 long. I don't want to sit in the theater for two hours, and 7 you've been in here all day, every day, listening to us, and I
8 thank you for that. I really appreciate it. And I know
9 nobody, when you got summoned here this Monday, this past
10 Monday, have any idea that you were going to be in here all
11 week and have to go through this. And it's been unpleasant,
12 and I'll talk about some of that. It's important, obviously.

13 Now, you've seen some things that, even for me, are 14 pretty amazing. Years ago -- I've been practicing since '88,
15 so I -- we know my math isn't that good, but I think maybe
16 it's about twenty-three years, I think, and when I started my 17 career it wasn't in this courthouse; it was the old courthouse
18 across the street, but I worked for the Solicitor's Office and 19 I prosecuted cases, and I tried cases, and when you present
20 the case, especially something like this, a murder case, and 21 sometimes even an armed robbery and stuff, you've got to try
22 to figure out what happened, and sometimes it's a daunting
23 task as a prosecutor. There were times I was very 24 uncomfortable as a prosecutor, because you make these God like
25 decisions about people's lives. If I had a reasonable doubt

1 about the case, even some murder cases, there were cases I
2 dismissed, because -- and my mother couldn't believe that I
3 could do that, that I could make that kind of decision and 4 there wasn't somebody else, a judge or a governor, or 5 somebody, looking over my shoulder. But that's the power that
6 the Solicitor has, and nobody is perfect. But when you get a
7 case like this, and you've got these stories, and you've got 8 these bad actors -- and they are bad, and I've seen bad, and 9 they are bad -- you have to try to decide what happened, and 10 you try to do what's right, and you try to pick the right
11 people, and sometimes you don't get it right. Sometimes as a 12 prosecutor you prosecute the wrong people, sometimes you get 13 the evidence wrong. And Ms. von Herrmann who I have -- who I
14 like, personally, and who I have high regard for, when she got 15 up here and started talking to you she's almost, in the 16 beginning, it's just apologizing to you for not having a case,
17 or saying, well, reasonable doubt, it's not that high of a
18 standard; we can't prove anything beyond all doubt, so don't 19 be too tough on us because somebody got killed.

20 Now, murder, obviously and Ms. Collington -- and she's 21 not charged with murder, okay, but murder requires malice, it
22 requires a heart fatally bent on mischief, a heart -- a black
23 heart, and Donell James, Andrew James, Tiffany James, and Greg 24 Floyd, they have that. The James Gang, I think as Mr. Hazzard
25 referred to them, those are some bad people. Okay. When I --

CHARGE BY THE COURT

1193

2 (THE FOLLOWING TAKES PLACE OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE 3 JURY.)

4 THE COURT: We will be at ease for about five minutes.
5 Thank you very much.

6 (THE FOLLOWING TAKES PLACE AFTER A BREAK, AND WITHIN THE 7 PRESENCE OF THE JURY.)

8 THE COURT: All right, it has come now to the stage of 9 the trial where I am going to instruct you, and tell you the 10 law that you are going to apply to the facts as you so find 11 them to be in this particular case. And I told you at the 12 very beginning that I would not indicate, or intimate to you
13 in any way what I thought the facts of this case were because 14 that's not my job, that's your job, and your responsibility.
15 In the same vein, if you came into this courtroom with any 16 pre-conceived ideas of what the law is, what it ought to be,
17 what it should be, what you hoped it would be, you will 18 disregard that. You will take the law as I now give it to 19 you, and apply it to the facts as you so find them to be.

20 I told you at the very beginning, one of your jobs in 21 this particular case was to judge the credibility and 22 believability of witnesses that come before you and testify
23 under oath. In doing so you can believe one witness against 24 several, several against one.. You can believe a portion of 25 what a witness says and disregard the remaining portion of it.

CHARGE BY THE COURT

1 You could disregard the testimony of a particular witness in
2 it's entirety, if you've got a good and sound reason for doing
3 so. How do you do this? As I told you at the very beginning,
4 you use your good common sense, your good judgment that you
5 use in conducting your own affairs, apply it to the facts and 6 evidence you've heard in this case, and find that evidence
7 which convinces you of it's truth. You don't have any friends
8 to reward, you don't have any enemies to punish. Your result
9 can't be the -- can't be the result of -- your verdict can't 10 be the result of any kind of passion or prejudice, or 11 sympathy. It has to be an examination of the facts and 12 evidence in the case, find the facts and evidence which 13 convince you that they are true, and then weigh that evidence
14 against the State's burden to prove the Defendant guilty of 15 the crimes charged against them, beyond a reasonable doubt.

16 Now, in this particular matter I allowed you to take 17 some notes. I told you at the time, when I allowed this, and 18 I'll remind you again, some people are better notetakers than 19 others, and just because somebody has something written down
20 on a piece of paper does not make it, in and of itself, better
21 than somebody's memory of what happened at the -- or what the 22 witness said. The Court is relying on, and expecting that you
23 will use your collective memory and your collective knowledge
24 regarding the facts and evidence in this case to find that 25 evidence which convinces you of it's truth.

1 There are two Defendants in this case. Ladorrean
2 Collington is charged with accessory before the facts to armed
3 robbery, and accessory before the fact to burglary first
4 degree. Quentin Lavant Gause is charged with murder, armed
5 robbery, and burglary in the first degree. The case of each
6 Defendant, and the evidence and the law concerning that 7 Defendant must be considered by you separately and 8 individually. There are two cases. Each Defendant has 9 separate charges. You consider them separately and 10 individually. Your verdict does not have to be the same for 11 both Defendants. It doesn't have to be the same on the 12 charges that are levied against them by the State of South
13 Carolina. You might find one Defendant guilty of a particular 14 crime, or not guilty of a particular crime; and that doesn't 15 impact your decision, or make your decision as to the 16 remaining charges against that Defendant, or the charges
17 against the other Defendant.

18 You can convict one, acquit one, acquit both, convict
19 both, any combination thereof regarding all of the charges.
20 It depends upon your view of the testimony, your examination
21 of the testimony on each Defendant and each charge, finding 22 the evidence which convinces you of it's truth, and again,
23 weighing that evidence against the State's burden to prove 24 each Defendant, on each charge, guilty beyond a reasonable
25 doubt. You will be required to reach a separate verdict on

1 each charge, and then, Mr. Foreman, you are going to have to
2 report that, and I'll talk to you about that at the very end.

3 In this particular case I qualified a couple of 4 witnesses to give their opinion. Sometimes they are called
5 expert witnesses. The reason I qualify, and state I qualified
6 to give them their opinion -- give their opinion is, we don't 7 normally allow people to testify as to their opinion. They 8 have to tell you about what they know, what they saw, what 9 they heard, what actually occurred. But some witnesses, by 10 reason of their experience, training, knowledge, are entitled,
11 if so qualified by the Court, to give their opinion on a
12 certain matter. That doesn't give them any special status.
13 That doesn't give them any greater weight than any other 14 witness. You judge all the witnesses the same. You look at 15 all the evidence the same, and find that evidence which 16 convinces you of it's truth.

17 Now there's two types of evidence, and these two types
18 of evidence are direct and circumstantial evidence. In 19 virtually every case that's tried we will have some type of 20 direct and circumstantial evidence. Direct evidence is the 21 testimony of a person who asserts, or claims to have actual 22 knowledge of a fact. Circumstantial evidence is proof of a
23 chain of facts or circumstances indicating the existence of a
24 fact. The Law doesn't make any distinction between the two.
25 A greater degree of proof is not required of one over the

1197

1 other. You look at all the evidence and again, find that
2 evidence which convinces you of it's truth, and weigh that
3 evidence against the State's burden to prove the Defendant
4 guilty beyond a reasonable doubt of the crime charged. After 5 weighing all the evidence if you are not convinced of the 6 guilt of the Defendant beyond a reasonable doubt you would 7 find the Defendant not guilty of that particular offense.

8 Our Rules of Evidence provide that the testimony of a
9 witness may be discredited or impeached by showing the witness
10 has been convicted, and that means not only charged with, but 11 actually convicted of a crime for which that person could have 12 been imprisoned for more than one year, or if the crime
13 involves dishonesty. As to this evidence, you only use it on 14 the issue of credibility or believability, and for no other
15 purpose.

16 In this case neither Defendant testified. I instruct 17 you, I tell you, this is not a fact in this case. It is not 18 to be considered by you in any way. You may not discuss it in 19 your jury room. It cannot be used in any way to arrive at 20 your decision. Defendants have the Constitutional Right to 21 remain silent. The assertion of the right cannot, and must 22 not be used against them in anyway. And again, as I told you
23 at the very beginning, it is the State's responsibility to 24 bring you the evidence. It's the State's responsibility to 25 prove, if they can, the Defendants guilty of the crimes

1 charged beyond a reasonable doubt. The Defendants have
2 nothing to show to you; the Defendants have nothing to prove
3 to you.

4 In conjunction with that, when we talk about the
5 indictments, or the charges against each Defendant -- and I
6 told you that those were the charges the State had brought 7 against them, and the Defendants had pled not guilty to those 8 charges. At that point in time the burden of proof came upon 9 the State of South Carolina to prove the Defendants guilty of 10 the crimes charged beyond a reasonable doubt, the Defendants
11 being presumed innocent, if, and until the State can prove 12 their guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. No matter what the 13 seriousness of the charges may be, every Defendant is entitled 14 to this right to be presumed innocent of that crime for which 15 the indictment was issued. That presumption of innocence
16 didn't end at the start of the trial. It hasn't ended now.
17 It only ends when you, the jury, collectively believe, if this 18 is your belief, that the State has proved to you the guilt of 19 the Defendant of a particular crime, have proved them guilty
20 beyond a reasonable doubt. That presumption of innocence is 21 likened to a robe of righteousness that's placed on the 22 shoulders of the Defendant, and it stays on the shoulders of 23 the Defendant until you, the jury, believe the State has 24 convinced you of the guilt of that Defendant, or that crime,
25 beyond a reasonable doubt.

1199

1 Reasonable doubt. It's the kind of doubt that causes an
2 ordinary, reasonable person to hesitate to act. Proof beyond
3 a reasonable doubt is proof that leaves you firmly convinced
4 of the Defendant's guilt. There are very few things that we
5 can know with absolute certainty, and the law doesn't require
6 the State of South Carolina to give you that kind of proof.
7 What is required, if based upon your consideration of the 8 evidence, evidence you find to be true, you are firmly
9 convinced the Defendant is guilty of the crime charged, you
10 must find the Defendant guilty. On the other hand, if you are 11 not firmly convinced that the Defendant is guilty of the crime
12 charged, then you must give the Defendant the benefit of the 13 doubt and find him not guilty.

14 The Defendant, Collington, is charged with being an 15 accessory before the fact of armed robbery, and accessory
16 before the fact of burglary first degree. These are two 17 crimes; you will need to make two decisions. In order to 18 prove each crime the State must prove to you, beyond a
19 reasonable doubt, that the Defendant, Collington, either
20 advised, agreed, urged, counseled, hired, or in some way aided 21 or abetted another person to commit the particular crime, and 22 the Defendant, Collington, was not present when the crime was 23 committed. Aid means to help, to promote the course or 24 accomplishment of, to give support to, or to give assistance
25 to. Aid means to encourage or support. That's the definition

1200

1 for both of those accessory before the fact charges.

2 The Defendant, Gause, is charged with three crimes, and 3 I'll go over each of those, the first one being murder. The 4 State must prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that this
5 Defendant, Defendant Gause, killed another person with malice
6 aforethought. Malice is hatred or ill will, or hostility
7 toward another person. It's the intentional doing of a
8 wrongful act, without just cause or excuse, and with an intent
9 to inflict an injury on a person under circumstances that the 10 law would infer an evil intent. Now, this malice aforethought
11 does not require that the malice exist for any particular time
12 before the act was committed, but it has to exist in the mind
13 of the Defendant just before, and at the time the act is 14 committed. There has to be this combination of that evil
15 intent and act.

16 Now, malice aforethought can either be expressed or 17 implied. Express, as you might imagine, means that somebody
18 did something in a manner which expressed this malice. The -- 19 it could be a person speaks words, or when a person prepared
20 beforehand to do the evil act which was later accomplished.
21 Malice can be inferred from conduct showing a total disregard
22 of human life. Inferred malice can also arise when the deed
23 is done with a deadly weapon. A deadly weapon is any kind of 24 article; instrument or substance which is likely to cause
25 death or great bodily harm. Whether an instrument has been

1 used as a deadly weapon depends upon the facts and
2 circumstances of each case.

3 The Defendant is also charged with the crime of armed
4 robbery. In order to prove this offense the State must first
5 prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the Defendant took 6 personal property from the person, or from the presence of 7 another person. Property is in the presence of a person if it
8 is within that person's reach, inspection, observation or 9 control, so that the person could, if not overcome with 10 violence, or prevented by fear, keep possession of that 11 particular product.

12 The State also has to prove to you, beyond a reasonable
13 doubt, that the Defendant carried the property away, intending 14 to permanently deprive the owner of the property, and to keep 15 the property for the Defendant's own use. The slightest 16 removal of the property, or the complete possession of the 17 property even for an instance by the Defendant is sufficient
18 to show a taking and carrying away. The taking and carrying 19 away of the property must have been done with violence, or 20 putting the owner of the property in fear of violence.

21 Finally, the State has to prove to you, beyond a
22 reasonable doubt, that the Defendant was armed with a deadly
23 weapon during the robbery. A deadly weapon, again, any kind
24 of article, instrument, or substance which is likely to cause
25 death or great bodily harm, and whether an instrument has been

1 used as a deadly weapon depends on the facts and circumstances
2 of each case.

3 The Defendant is also -- the Defendant, Gause, is also
4 charged with the crime of first degree burglary. The State
5 must prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the Defendant
6 entered the dwelling without consent. A dwelling is any kind
7 of building, or portion of a building in which a person
8 ordinarily sleeps.

9 In order to prove that the Defendant entered the 10 dwelling the State does not have to show that the Defendant's
11 entire body entered the dwelling. The smallest entry is 12 sufficient. It may be any part of the body, such as a hand or 13 a foot, or even an instrument. In addition, the State does 14 not have to prove that force was used to gain entry. It could 15 have been done by some kind of deception, or trick, or 16 otherwise.

17 The State must prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that 18 the Defendant intended to commit a crime, either a felony or a
19 misdemeanor at the time of the entry into the dwelling.

20 If the intent to commit a crime is formed after the 21 entry into the dwelling it is not a burglary. On the other
22 hand, if the Defendant intended to commit a crime at the time
23 of the entry, and even if the intent was abandoned after the 24 entry, that would still be burglary. Intent may be shown by 25 acts and conduct of the Defendant and other circumstances from

1203

1 which you could infer intent.

2 Finally, the State has to prove, beyond a reasonable
3 doubt, that when entering, or while in the dwelling, or when
4 fleeing, the Defendant, or an accomplice, was armed with a
5 deadly weapon. And again, I won't define deadly weapon. It's 6 the same as for murder and armed robbery.

7 This following theory that I'm going to -- theory of law
8 that I'm going to talk to you about applies to these crimes of 9 murder, armed robbery, and the burglary in the first degree.
10 It's called the hand of one. If a crime is committed by two 11 or more people who are acting together in committing a crime
12 the act of one is the act of all. A person who joins with 13 another to accomplish an illegal purpose is criminally
14 responsible for everything done by the other person which 15 occurs as a natural or probable consequence of the act done in 16 carrying out that common plan or purpose. The act of one is 17 the act of all, or it's sometimes said, the hand of one is the 18 hand of all.

19 Prior knowledge that a crime is going to be committed,
20 without more, is not sufficient to make a person guilty of 21 that crime. Mere knowledge that another person is going to 22 commit a crime, even if the defendant is present when the 23 crime is committed, is not sufficient to convict the 24 defendant. The State must prove to you, beyond a reasonable
25 doubt, the theory of the hand of one is the hand of all. A

CHARGE BY THE COURT

1 principal in a crime is one who either actually commits the 2 crime, or who is present, aiding, abetting or assisting in 3 committing the crime. When the person does an act in the 4 presence of, and with the assistance of another, the act is 5 done by all. Where two or more, acting with a common plan or 6 attempt are present at the commission of the crime, it does 7 not matter who actually commits the crime; all are guilty; the 8 hand of one is the hand of all.

9 Present at the commission of a crime means to be 10 sufficiently near to aid, or abet, or assist in the commission 11 of the crime, again remembering, mere presence at the scene of 12 a crime is not sufficient to convict.

13 Intent is also a necessary element. There must have 14 been some common design or intent to commit the crime, and the 15 crime must have been committed with the person aiding and 16 abetting by some kind of overt act. The State has to prove 17 all these to you beyond a reasonable doubt.

18 That, ladies and gentlemen, is the law that you are 19 going to apply to the facts as you so find them to be. Now,
20 I've had prepared for you a verdict form in this particular
21 matter to aid you at recording your unanimous verdict. There
22 are two verdict forms for the Defendant, Ladorrean Collington, 23 and the caption of the case says, Accessory Before the Fact of 24 the Felony of Armed Robbery: On the charge of accessory
25 before the fact of the felony of armed robbery we, the jury,

1 by unanimous consent, find the Defendant, Ladorrean Collington
2 -- and there's two choices -- and I have to put one before the
3 other so don't assign anything to that, two blocks, not guilty
4 or guilty. Once you have reached a verdict on that particular
5 charge you go to the next charge, Accessory Before the Fact of 6 the Felony of Burglary First Degree: On the charge of 7 accessory before the fact of the felony of burglary in the 8 first degree we, the jury, by unanimous consent, find the 9 Defendant, Ladorrean Collington, again, not guilty or guilty.

10 Once you have arrived at those verdict, and completed
11 those verdicts, you will continue on and consider the verdict
12 and the charges against the Defendant, Quentin Lavant Gause.
13 I have the verdict forms that are prepared for you regarding 14 these three charges. On the charge of murder we, the jury, by 15 unanimous consent, find the Defendant, Quentin Lavant Gause,
16 again, two choices, not guilty or guilty. If you reach a
17 verdict on that particular charge you go to the next charge,
18 that being armed robbery. On the charge of armed robbery we,
19 the jury, by unanimous consent, find the Defendant, Quentin
20 Lavant Gause, again, not guilty or guilty. If you reach a
21 verdict on that particular charge you go to the last charge,
22 burglary first degree. On the charge of burglary first degree
23 we, the jury, by unanimous consent, find the Defendant,
24 Quentin Lavant Gause, not guilty or guilty.

25 You can see, and I'll remind you again, these are two

CHARGE BY THE COURT

1206

1 separate Defendants, separate charges, separate decisions on
2 all these matters. Your decision on one does not govern your
3 decision on another. They are all separate, independent
4 matters.

5 Now, I've said unanimous I don't know how many times, at 6 the beginning and now. It means exactly what you think it
7 means. It means twelve zero, not eleven one, ten two, any 8 combination thereof. Whatever the verdict is on each
9 Defendant, and on each charge, it must be unanimous. So, Mr.
10 Foreman, when you take these verdict forms and you check the 11 appropriate block, and you sign your name down at the bottom
12 and put today's date, you are indicating to the Court that 13 each and every member of the jury agrees that's their verdict;
14 everybody is in unanimous agreement that what you place on 15 that piece of paper is what everybody agreed to.

16 What I'm going to ask at this point in time, Mr.
17 Foreman, is if you will take the twelve members of the jury --
18 I'm going to ask the two alternates -- gentlemen, if y'all
19 will stay with us, please -- you take the twelve members of 20 the jury to the jury room. Do not begin your deliberations
21 until the bailiff comes in and hands to you -- probably with 22 the assistance of maybe some deputies because we've got some 23 exhibits -- the verdict forms and the exhibits. When the 24 verdict form and the exhibits come into your jury room then 25 you may begin your deliberations, Mr. Foreman.

1 All right, take your jury to the jury room at this time,
2 please.

3 And the two alternates, if you will remain with us,
4 please.

5 (THE JURY RETIRED AT 12:10 P.M.. THE FOLLOWING TAKES 6 PLACE OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY.)

7 THE COURT: All right. As to the two alternates, is 8 there any reason the Court should not excuse the two 9 alternates at this time, from the State?

10 MS. von HERRMANN: No objection from the State.

12 MR. McCOLLUM: No, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: And Mr. Hazzard.

14 MR. HAZZARD: No objection.

15 THE COURT: Very good.

16 All right, gentlemen, regarding your service in this 17 matter, I want to thank you for your service. Your job was to 18 step in the shoes -- if any one of the twelve members of the 19 jury were, you know, to become ill, or some way could not go
20 forward with the duties -- they seem already willing and able 21 to do so, therefore I'm going to excuse you and discharge you
22 from your responsibility in this case.

23 Obviously you are free to stay if you wanted to, but 24 that's your choice. You are discharged from your duties and 25 responsibilities.

1 P.M. AS COURT'S EXHIBIT NUMBER 4.)

2 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Foreman, based upon your
3 note, what I'm going to do is recharge just the particular
4 crimes and their elements. If -- at the end of it if there's 5 something else you want then please tell me, or if we get to a
6 point and you've heard what it is that you would like to hear,
7 then, you know, please indicate and I will -- I will stop. We 8 are here at your request. All right.

9 FOREMAN: Yes sir.

10 THE COURT: All right. Very good.

11 All right. As to the crime and the law on Accessory
12 Before the Fact. The Defendant, Collington, is charged with 13 being an accessory before the fact of armed robbery, and 14 accessory before the fact of burglary first degree. Again,
15 these are two crimes, and two decisions that have to be made
16 by the jury. In order to prove each of them, each crime, the 17 State has to prove to you, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the 18 Defendant, Collington, either advised, agreed, urged,
19 counseled, hired, or in some way aided or abetted another
20 person to commit that particular crime, and the Defendant,
21 Collington, wasn't present when the crime was committed.

22 Aid means to help, to promote the course of, or 23 accomplishment of, to give support to, or give assistance to.
24 Abet means to encourage or support. So that's accessory
25 before the fact. And again, that's two -- there's two charges

3 Ladorrean Collington, on the charge of accessory before the 4 fact of the felony of armed robbery we, the jury, by unanimous
5 consent, find the Defendant, Ladorrean Collington, guilty.

6 Indictment Number (2010-GS-26-01626), on the charge of 7 accessory before the fact of the felony of burglary first
8 degree we, the jury, by unanimous consent, find the Defendant,
9 Ladorrean Collington, guilty.

10 Indictment number (2008-GS-26-03133), on the charge of 11 murder we, the jury, by unanimous consent, find the Defendant
12 guilty.

13 (2011-GS-26-01274), The State of South Carolina versus 14 Quentin Lavant Gause, on the charge of armed robbery we, the 15 jury, by unanimous consent, find the Defendant, Quentin Lavant
16 Gause, guilty.

17 Indictment number (2008-GS-26-03135), The State of South
18 Carolina versus Quentin Lavant Gause, on the charge of 19 burglary first degree we, the jury, by unanimous consent, find 20 the Defendant, Quentin Lavant Gause, guilty.

21 Dated June 10th, 2011, signed by Foreperson, twenty-two.

22 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, if this is your 23 verdict so signify by raising your right hand.

24 (AT THIS TIME ALL JURORS RESPONDED BY RAISING OF THEIR

1 MR. McCOLLUM: Yes, Your Honor, most respectfully. At 2 this time the Defendant would make a motion for a new trial.
3 We would renew the motion for a directed verdict made earlier.
4 We would also renew all motions made earlier, and renew all
5 objections before the Court, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. Very good. I will reaffirm my 7 prior rulings in this matter. The -- as you indicated, the -- 8 when I denied your motion for a directed verdict, and the 9 motion at this point in time is for a new trial. I do find,
10 as I did earlier, that there is more than sufficient evidence,
11 and more than sufficient competent evidence to sustain the 12 jury's verdict as against the Defendant, Collington; as to the 13 charges of accessory before the fact of armed robbery and 14 burglary first degree, and having found that this competent 15 evidence exists to sustain the jury's verdict beyond a 16 reasonable doubt, I will not overturn that verdict. Your 17 motion for a new trial is denied.

18 Anything further as to any motions of any kind by the -- 19 by your client, other than that?

20 MR. McCOLLUM: No, not other than those motions and the 21 motion -- specifically the motion for a new trial, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. Very good. Thank you very 23 much.

25 Gause.

1 MR. HAZZARD: Yes sir. At this time, on behalf of the
2 Defendant, Quentin Lavant Gause, we would make a motion for a
3 new trial. At this time we would renew all motions made
4 during the course of the trial, and the pretrial motions made,
5 and would renew and request reconsideration of all objections
6 raised during the course of the trial proceeding, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Thank you very much. The Court reaffirms
8 it's prior rulings that I have made during -- before the 9 trial, during the course of the trial in these matters.
10 Having denied your previous motions for a directed verdict, ad
11 ruling that the evidence was sufficient to submit the question
12 of guilt to the jury; the question would now be whether or not
13 there is competent evidence to sustain the jury's verdict. I
14 do find that there is more than sufficient competent evidence 15 to sustain the jury's verdict beyond a reasonable doubt as to 16 the charges levied against the Defendant, Gause, for murder, 17 armed robbery, and burglary in the first degree, and therefore 18 respectfully decline to grant your motion for a new trial, and 19 reaffirm all my prior rulings.

20 Thank you very much, sir.

21 Solicitor, is the State ready to proceed with 22 sentencing?

23 MS. von HERRMANN: Your Honor, the State is ready to 24 proceed. Mr. -- the victim, Mr. Smith's, mother is here

1 in preparing this case for trial, and we ask for whatever
2 mercy that the Court may see fit to give.

3 THE COURT: Thank you very much. Y'all can just have a
4 seat while I consider the sentences. Thank you.

5 Would the Defendant, Collington, please stand at this
6 time.

7 Regarding (2010-GS-26-01626), that is accessory before
8 the fact of a felony, that felony being burglary in the first 9 degree, the Court hereby sentences -- the Defendant is
10 committed to the State Department of Corrections for a
11 determinat term of twenty-two years. The Defendant is given
12 credit for the time she has already served.

13 Regarding (2010-GS-26-01627), accessory before the fact
14 of a felony, that being armed robbery, the Defendant is
15 committed to the State Department of Corrections for a
16 determinat term of twenty-two years, concurrent with (2010-17 GS-26-01626).

18 You may be seated.

19 Will the Defendant, Gause, please stand.

20 Regarding (2008-GS-26-03133), State of South Carolina, 21 County of Horry, versus Quentin Lavant Gause, regarding the 22 crime of murder. The Defendant is hereby committed to the 23 State Department of Corrections for a determinat term of 24 forty-two years. The Defendant is given credit for any time

1 allegations as to time and place as required by law, if 2 they charge the crime substantially in the language of 3 the common law or of the statute prohibiting the crime so
4 that the nature of the offense charged may be easily under-
5 stood; that if the offense be a statutory offense, the 6 offense be alleged contrary to the statute and in such 7 cases made and provided.

8 Thus to pass legal muster, it must charge the crime
9 substantially in the language of the statute prohibiting 10 the crime or such that the nature of the offense charged
11 may be easily understood.

12 Whether the indictment could be made more definite 13 or certain is irrelevant. The State is not required to 14 prove its evidence in the indictment.

15 I find in this particular matter that neither Defen-
16 dant was prejudiced by any lack of information as alleged.
17 I find that the indictments are more than sufficient to 18 place the Defendant or Defendants on notice of the crimes
19 with which they are charged and for which they can defend,
20 if they so choose.

21 The motions to quash the indictments are denied.

22 Mr. Hazzard, I would have the Clerk make you a copy
23 of the burglary first indictment. Thank you, sir.

24 Further motions, Mr. McCollum?

25 MR. MCCOLLUM: I would have a motion to exclude

1 -- I would ask Your Honor to hear a motion to exclude evi-
2 dence of prior difficulties between Ladorrean Collington
3 and the alleged victim.

4 Before I do that, Your Honor, it's my understanding
5 -- this may be a little bit premature, and it may not be 6 necessary, but it is my belief that there is some evidence
7 out there that Ms. Collington is alleged to have gone
8 over to the Allen's house -- they live across from each
9 other and they had a relationship as far as having a child
10 together -- and she had taken up I think a little baton
11 or bat or something and had hit his car, beat on the car or 12 something to that effect. I may be wrong there.

13 I don't know if the State is planning to introduce 14 this kind of prior difficulty or not and this motion may 15 not be necessary, but if they are then we would move to 16 suppress previous or prior difficulties between Defendant
17 Collington and the victim.

18 At this point, we would object to that and would like
19 to be heard on it.

20 THE COURT: I would say that -- correct me if I'm 21 wrong, Solicitor, but is it your position that there were 22 prior actions between the Defendant and the victim?

23 SOLICITOR: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: And do you intend to present any in the 25 presentation of the case?

1 SOLICITOR: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: All right. I'll be glad to hear from 3 you on that, Mr. McCollum.

4 MR. MCCOLLUM: Your Honor, we don't have that partic-
5 ulate witness here. Is it possible the State could sum-
6 marize we could anticipate being used against the Defen-
7 dant? In other words, is what I have stated essentially
8 correct?

9 THE COURT: Solicitor, is there some brief summary
10 that you could give as to what may have occurred?

11 SOLICITOR: Yes, sir, Your Honor. There were a num-
12 ber of threats made by the Defendant Collington directly 13 to the victim, to the victim through a third party, and 14 Anthony Grant, and by a note that was left at the victim's 15 residence.

16 She did also break out a window at the victim's resi-
17 dence and evidence would be introduced on all of those 18 instances in my case in chief.

19 These incidents happened within a very short time, a
20 couple of days, prior to the time the victim was killed.

21 It is my position that that information would come
22 in under 404 B. Also 401 and 403, in conjunction with 23 404 B, and also pursuant to a res gestae theory.

24 I have handed up to the Court a Response to the Mo-
25 tion of the Defendant and cited a number of cases . .

1 THE COURT: Well, let me hear Mr. McCollum's argu-
2 ment. Yes, sir, Mr. McCollum.

3 MR. MCCOLLUM: Just very briefly, the Defendant,
4 Ladorrean Collington, has filed an objection or a Motion
5 to exclude evidence of prior difficulties or a Motion to 6 exclude evidence of just what the Solicitor described.

7 That is, alleged difficulties or threats between her
8 and the deceased. We also filed a Motion about threats
9 either to Anthony Grant or made through him regarding the 10 victim.

11 Your Honor, I would ask that -- I have a couple of 12 cases cited here, and I would make the Court aware; that 13 until the testimony is presented that the Court reserve
14 Ruling on this.

15 THE COURT: In general -- that's all I could give 16 you right now is a general rule because I haven't heard
17 any questions nor the answers.

18 I can't issue a ruling on that, and you would have 19 to obviously object to it at that time, but again, gener-
20 ally, certainly in this prior conflict between the parties 21 it is proper to establish the context of a crime and to 22 establish the presentation of the particular matter so
23 that a full explanation of the situation is given to a
24 jury. I can't take it in a vacuum that on certain days
25 this thing happened and Lord only knows why it happened --

1 it just happened out of the blue. Who knows why?

2 If there is information that is reasonably tied to and
3 would give context to that particular matter, in general
4 that is allowed under the rules.

5 Whether or not any particular statements are improper
6 I don't know. If you object to them I would make a rul-
7 ing at that point in time.

8 Certainly in general it is a good principal of law
9 that is relied on in the State of South Carolina. Do you
10 disagree?

11 MR. McCOLLUM: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: You disagree that as a general rule of 13 law in the State of South Carolina that to give context to 14 a crime prior difficulties can be testified to? You don't 15 think that is a general principal of law in this State?
16 That this is proper evidence?

17 MR. McCOLLUM: Your Honor, I think you've narrowed
18 it down. I would lean more toward agreement, but I do
19 think that in general certainly prior difficulties are 20 admissible by a defendant to show a basis for feeling
21 threatened and to justify the action.

22 In other words, in a self-defense context certainly 23 I think defendant has to . .

24 THE COURT: You're telling me that you client speci-
25 fically threatened the well-being of the victim within a

1 few days of the victim being killed -- that's not allowed?

2 Is that what you're telling me?

3 MR. McCOLLUM: It depends on the circumstances. It
4 depends on the degree of prejudice, and it depends on, you
5 know, whether it is related or relevant. If the Defendant
6 has a physical relationship with someone and they have a
7 child together and then they get mad at that person, I
8 don't know that is automatically admissible.

9 If the State's theory is that somebody concocted a
10 plan and recruited others to go and rob someone, I don't 11 know that automatically ties in the Defendant or is tied 12 together.

13 I don't think I need to belabor this at this point,
14 and I have to file Motions . . .

15 THE COURT: I appreciate that, but I cannot rule on 16 that Motion at this point in time. I appreciate your 17 bringing it to my attention but when I hear the questions
18 and answers you can make a proper objection.

19 I can't rule on it at this time, but just for your 20 guidance it is certainly the Court's position that in 21 general prior difficulties, prior threats, prior actions,
22 are certainly -- is certainly evidence that could be rele-
23 vant and admissible in the trial of a person charged with 24 a crime such as your client is charged.

25 What those particular things are, I don't know, but

1 it is certainly a good principal of law. If you take a
2 position that it is not a general principal of law in our
3 State, then obviously we fundamentally disagree.

4 MR. McCOLLUM: With all respect, Your Honor, it
5 would not be the first time that . .

6 THE COURT: I understand. Just so we'll be clear,
7 you are really telling me that if there is evidence of a
8 prior difficulty that is related to the crime, and the 9 Court goes through the analysis and finds it is related to 10 the crime, is in context to the crime, gives a factual
11 understanding of the crime to the jury, that that is just 12 not proper in our State?

13 MR. McCOLLUM: Your Honor, I think you are -- there
14 was mention of res gestae, and there is also an issue as 15 to introducing evidence of the character of the accused.
16 That is basically what this will all evolve into, is that 17 the State cannot introduce evidence that the Defendant is 18 a person of bad character absent proper evidence by Defen-
19 dant that they are of good character.

20 In terms of res gestae, certainly the appellate 21 courts of this State have ruled that a thing that would 22 not be admissible can be admitted when it is part of the 23 res gestae.

24 As I understand res gestae, res gestae is in the imme-
25 diacy or in the relevance of the act, or whether it is so

1 interwoven with what the accused is charged with doing it
2 does not make any sense to take that . . .

3 THE COURT: Well, there has to be established a time
4 line before -- I mean, there is no time limit, but it has 5 to be interwoven.

6 MR. McCOLLUM: I'm just saying that any prior diffi-
7 culty between Ms. Collington and the deceased is not auto-
8 matically admissible.

9 THE COURT: I certainly agree with that. Just 10 became something happened does not automatically mean it
11 is admissible.

12 I will hear the testimony -- the questions and the 13 answers and rule upon any objections.

14 SOLICITOR: Let me let the Court know this. The in-15 cidents we are talking about in this case happened within 16 a one week period of when this homicide occurred.

17 It is so intertwined that I don't see how I can make an 18 opening argument without mention of this, and I want the 19 Court to be aware of that I will be referring to that.

20 THE COURT: I appreciate that and I understand. I
21 am sure the Defense will understand as well. I will re-
22 serve ruling on this particular matter.

23 (Portion of discussion not audible on tape. End 24 of tape one.)

25 THE COURT: We will take that up at the time the

1 Medical Examiner testifies, but as to crime scene
2 photos do you know which ones that you all have an objec-
3 tions to?,

4 SOLICITOR: I would ask after the motion hearing to-
5 day that they take a look at the photographs I intend to 6 introduce to see which ones they might have objections
7 to.

8 THE COURT: All right. That will be great.

9 If you would obviously identify to him whatever ones
10 you might be using through the Medical Examiner.

11 All right. You can take time to do that and review
12 the photos.

13 MR. McCOLLUM: We'll do that.

15 MR. HAZZARD: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: Very good. Anything else that you are 17 aware of? Anything, Mr. McCollum?

18 Are there further motions, Mr. Hazzard, on behalf of 19 Mr. Gause? First, Mr. McCollum?

20 MR. McCOLLUM: I have none.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Hazzard?

22 MR. HAZZARD: I have a Motion to sever the trials,
23 Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: I'll be glad to hear you on that.

25 (Statement of Mr. Hazzard not audible on tape)

1 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. All right, Mr.
2 McCollum. Do you have a position?

3 MR. MCCOLLUM: Your Honor, I would join that motion.
4 I don't have anything to add.

5 THE COURT: Solicitor, I'll hear from you.

6 SOLICITOR: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

7 I would just say that the testimony of the individ-
8 uals with the exception of two would be from the exact
9 same witnesses. I think that the jury will have 10 the ability to differentiate between the Defendants.

11 I certainly don't think it is necessary to have two 12 separate juries impaneled, and it would be more judicious
13 to try these together.

14 Thank you. The witnesses would be the same, the 15 testimony would be the same.

16 THE COURT: Thank you. The Defendants before the 17 Court are not due separate trials as a matter of right.
18 What the Court needs to look at is whether I would speci-
19 fically find reason, as the case law indicates, that there
20 is a serious risk that a joint trial would compromise a 21 specific right of a codefendant or prevent a jury from 22 making a reliable judgment about a defendant's guilt.
23 I do not find such a risk in this particular case.

24 I find that a single jury is proper. I find that 25 the arguments presented by Mr. Gause do not impact his

1 ability to get a fair and just trial by a single jury.
2 The State does not in its case in chief intend to present
3 a statement of Ms. Collington.

4 The fact that there might be some mutually antago-
5 nistic defenses that might be presented in itself is not 6 a reason.

7 I do not find, based upon an examination of this case,
8 that the rights of either Defendant are substantially im-
9 paired or harmed in any way by being tried together before
10 a jury, a single jury.

11 Therefore, that Motion to sever is denied.

12 THE COURT: Further motions, Mr. Hazzard?

13 MR. HAZZARD: No, sir, nothing further.

14 THE COURT: Very good.

15 MR. MCCOLLUM: Your Honor, the Solicitor has asked
16 that I bring up--Your Honor, there were a number of arrest
17 warrants for the Defendant, Ms. Collington, and we have 18 been told there were indictments and reindictments. We 19 have discussed whether or not they would be served upon
20 the Defendant, physically served upon her.

21 I would state that we have received copies of those 22 indictments, and as far as the Defendant Collington is concer
23 there is no issue regarding the service of the indictments.
24 We have the indictments provided to us.

25 There is not any kind of issue in terms of jurisdiction

 FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

State of South Carolina,

STATE'S RESPONSE TO DEFENDANTS'
 MOTION TO SUPPRESS EVIDENCE

Ladorrean Collington,
 Quentin Gause.

Case Number: 2008-GS-26-03315 (Kidnapping), 03116 (Burglary 1st), 03117 (Murder), 03118
 (Armed Robbery)
 2010-GS-26-01225 (Acc. To Kidnapping), 01626 (Acc. to Burglary 1st), 01627
 (Acc. to Armed Robbery)

TO: HONORABLE STEVEN H. JOHN, CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE JUDGE
 FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT:

Comes now the State of South Carolina, by and through Heather von Herrmann, with its Response to Defendants' Motion to Suppress Evidence, stating that Defendants do not have the requisite standing to challenge the sufficiency of the Search Warrants and concomitant Affidavits sworn to and subscribed on April 15, 2008.

I. Void of Statutory Violation

The South Carolina General Assembly, within S.C. Code Ann. Section 17-13-140 (1985) ("Section 17-13-140"), requires that search warrants be issued "only upon affidavit sworn to before the magistrate . . . establishing the grounds for the warrant." A warrant may be issued when
 "the grounds for the application exist or . . . there is probable cause to believe that they exist." Id.

In challenging the legality of the premises searched, Defendants rely on State v. McKnight, 291 S.C. 110 (1987), holding that respondents were not required to establish standing on constitutional grounds, but could contest the legality of a defective search under Section 17-13-140 on statutory grounds. However, in McKnight, the relevant search warrant was executed without an

3

affidavit, evidencing an overt statutory violation of Section 17-13-140. McKnight, 291 S.C. at 113-14.

Additionally, subsequent state case law relying on McKnight evidences clear statutory violations of Section 17-13-140. See State v. Covert, 368 S.C. 188 (2007) (upholding a statutory challenge when the Magistrate's signature on the search warrant was dated two days after the search of defendant's residence); State v. Dunbar, 354 S.C. 479 (2003) (upholding a statutory challenge when an affidavit did not accompany the search warrant); State v. Jones, 342 S.C. 121 (2000) (upholding a statutory challenge when an affidavit did not accompany the search warrant); State v. Freeman, 319 S.C. 110 (1995) (upholding a statutory challenge when the State could not produce the original search warrant and a signed, sworn return).

Unlike McKnight and subsequent state case law relying on the decision, the record in this matter evidences the requisite compliance with Section 17-13-140. The search warrants executed on April 15, 2008 were accompanied by Affidavits sworn to and subscribed on April 15, 2008, and all other statutory requirements were met. Accordingly, Defendants' reliance on McKnight in order to challenge the sufficiency of the search warrants based on statutory grounds is not instructive in this matter.

II. Void of Fourth Amendment Standing

To challenge the sufficiency of a search warrant under Section 17-13-140 on constitutional grounds, Defendants must establish that the search resulted in a violation of "[their] own Fourth Amendment rights." McKnight, 291 S.C. at 114-15. The Fourth Amendment of the United States Constitution guarantees "the right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures." U.S. Const. Amend. IV.

Although McKnight held that defendants had standing to challenge a search warrant based on statutory grounds because "the primary benefit of [Section 17-13-140] is to the person arrested or searched," state case law provides that such a benefit is enumerated to ultimately advance the criminal process in its entirety rather than to merely benefit the individual. State v. Sachs, 264 S.C. 541 (1975).

The purpose of the statute [Section 17-13-140] is to provide for timely recording of facts presented to a judicial officer. Memories wane and facts will often not be available when the issue of probable cause is raised at a preliminary hearing or at trial. Thus, the primary benefit of the statute is to the person arrested or searched and to the general public. When properly complied with, the police also benefit. This has a very wholesome, salutary effect on our criminal process. (emphasis added).

Because Sachs provides that the purpose of Section 17-13-140 is to benefit the criminal process in its entirety, rather than only the person arrested or searched, consideration of whether constitutional grounds provide standing for Defendants to challenge the existence of probable cause is warranted alongside Defendants' statutory contentions. Similar to the purpose of the statute as enumerated in Sachs, scrutiny of Fourth Amendment jurisprudence requires a balancing of individuals' rights with subsequent effects on the criminal process Section 17-13-140 aims to benefit:

The substantial social costs exacted by the exclusionary rule for the vindication of Fourth Amendment rights have long been a source of concern. Our cases have consistently recognized that unbending application of the exclusionary sanction to enforce ideals of governmental rectitude would impede unacceptable the truth-finding functions of judge and jury. An objectionable collateral consequence of this interference with the criminal justice system's truth-finding function is that some guilty defendant may go free or receive reduced sentences as a result of favorable plea bargains. . . . the magnitude of the benefit conferred on such guilty defendants offends basic concepts of the criminal justice system. Indiscriminate application of the exclusionary rule, therefore, may well generate disrespect for the law and administration of justice.

United States v. Leon, 468 U.S. 897 (1984) (citations omitted) (quotations omitted) (emphasis added).

Because the application of the exclusionary rule results in substantial societal costs, Rakas v. Illinois, 439 U.S. 128 (1978) provides that "misgivings as to the benefit of enlarging the class of persons who may invoke that rule are properly considered when deciding whether to expand standing to assert Fourth Amendment violations."

The Defendants do not have the requisite standing to challenge the sufficiency of the Search Warrants and concomitant Affidavits sworn to and subscribed on April 15, 2008. One who seeks to have evidence suppressed on Fourth Amendment grounds must establish that his or her rights were violated. McKnight, 291 S.C. at 115. Additionally, he or she must "demonstrate a legitimate expectation of privacy in connection with the searched premises in order to have standing to challenge the search." Id. (emphasis added). State v. Bowie, 360 S.C. 210 (2005), provides that a defendant who seeks to have evidence suppressed on Fourth Amendment grounds "bears the burden of proving he had a reasonable expectation of privacy in the area searched or the item seized."

To decide whether a defendant has discharged his burden of proof, Rakas provides that "Fourth Amendment rights are personal rights which, like some other constitutional rights, may not be vicariously asserted." Rakas, 439 U.S. at 133-34 (emphasis added). Additionally, "[a] person who is aggrieved by an illegal search and seizure only through the introduction of damaging evidence secured by a search of third person's premises or property has not had any of his Fourth Amendment Rights infringed." Id. at 134 (emphasis added).

To determine whether a defendant's expectation of privacy is reasonable, "a subjective expectation of privacy is legitimate if it is one that society is prepared to recognize as reasonable." State v. Bowie, 360 S.C. at 224. Rakas limits such an expectation to "more than a subjective expectation of being discovered." Rakas, 439 U.S. at 144. Although ownership of property is not required to establish an expectation of privacy, a minimal possessory interest to the searched premises is weighed. See Jones v. United States, 362 U.S. 257 (1960); Katz v. United States, 389 U.S. 347 (1967); Bowie, 360 S.C. at 225; State v. Crane, 296 S.C. 336 (1988); Leon, 468 U.S. at 904, FN 3.

Unlike Jones, holding that the defendant had a legitimate expectation of privacy in an apartment to which he possessed a key to enter and had permission to use, the Defendants in this matter neither possessed a key to any of the searched premises nor did they have permission to enter any of the said premises. Likewise in Katz, the Court held that the defendant had a legitimate expectation of privacy in a telephone booth to which he could exclude all others and pay a toll. Katz, 389 U.S. at 352.

Similar to Bowie, holding that defendant did not have a legitimate expectation of privacy in a motel room to which he did not occupy, the Defendants in this matter did not occupy any of the said searched premises. Bowie provided that, "the fact that Bowie had associates staying in Room 309 [searched premises] is not enough to grant him an expectation of privacy in that room." Bowie, 360 S.C. at 225. Likewise in Crane, the Court held that the defendant did not have a legitimate expectation of privacy in another individual's woods located on searched premises "100 to 150 yards away from appellant's outhouse." Crane, 296 S.C. 341-42.

Finally, in Leon, the Court reversed the appellate court's decision to refuse to apply a good faith exception to the Fourth Amendment exclusionary rule after it upheld the District Court's decisions on the defendants' standing. Leon, 468 U.S. at 901-05, 926. In establishing a good faith exception to the federal exclusionary rule, the Court in Leon recognized the District Court's decisions on the defendants' standing to challenge the sufficiency of the relevant search warrants. Id. There, the District Court found that three defendants had standing to contest the legality of searched premises of their residence. Id. at 901-05. Additionally, the District Court found that none of the defendants had established a legitimate expectation of privacy to contest the legality of searched premises where "material activity" of the relevant drug involvement occurred. Id. As established, the Defendants in this matter do not reside at any of the searched premises and, according to Leon, do not have a legitimate expectation of privacy at any of the searched premises where "material activity" occurred.

III. Good Faith Exception if Fourth Amendment Standing Found

Should this Court find that the Defendants have the requisite standing to contest the legality of the searched premises, and a violation is subsequently found, the South Carolina Supreme Court has recognized a good faith exception to the federal exclusionary rule. In McKnight, the Court held that a defective warrant's seizure can be valid under the good faith exception to the federal exclusionary rule established by the Supreme Court in United States v. Leon. McKnight, 291 S.C. at 114. However, McKnight makes clear that the rule only applies when a search warrant is defective on Fourth Amendment grounds. Id. Should the Court hold for the Defendants, the case at bar is susceptible to a Fourth Amendment violation, and accordingly, the good faith exception is permissible. Additionally, the requirements for Leon have been met because:

[t]he Fourth Amendment exclusionary rule should not be applied so as to bar the use in the prosecution's case in chief of evidence obtained by officers acting in reasonable reliance on a search warrant issued by a detached and neutral magistrate but ultimately found invalid. Leon, 468 U.S. at 897.

Because the information provided to police was: (1) legitimate and (2) critical evidence was discovered as result of the execution of the search warrant, the good faith provision is instructive in this matter.

In State v. Herring, 387 S.C. 201 (2009), the Supreme Court stated that there was a "good faith" exception to the statute's [Section 17-13-140] requirements where the officers make a good faith attempt to comply with the statute's affidavit procedures. Because the Court in State v. Covert did not discuss whether a warrant should be valid if acted upon in good faith, the Court in Herring decided that:

[g]iven our recognition of an exception for officers' good faith attempt to comply with the affidavit requirement, we find no reason not to extend such a good faith exception to a warrant reasonably believed to be valid, but later determined invalid. Accordingly, even if we were to determine the affidavit was improper, we would find the SLED agents acted in good faith and reasonably believed the warrant valid, such that the search should be upheld. Id. at FN6.

The Court held that the actions of officers in Herring warranted the good faith exception. Id. The matter at hand presents circumstances that reflect those worthy of the good faith exception in Herring. Horry County Detectives made a good faith attempt to comply with the affidavit procedures, as evidenced by their prompt attention to the requisite documentation and requirements of Section 17-13-140. Accordingly, should this Court find that the Defendants have the requisite standing to contest the legality of the searched premises, and a violation is subsequently found, the good faith exception should be applied and the concomitant warrants upheld.
