J

Appellants/Respondents hereby move pursuant to Rule 263(b), SCACR, for an extension of the time in which to and file their final briefs and in which to file the record on appeal in this case. The grounds for this motion are that there is good cause to grant the requested extension, as the following shows:

1. This deadline is presently set at October 31, 2018.
2. The undersigned been working out of the office for almost all of the last three days, handling a bench trial and three out-of-town motion hearings. One of those hearings was an emergency matter that had to be put on the front burner. He has been unable to finish the brief in the midst of that.
3. Further, he also has two trials and an out-of-town motion hearing next week.
4. Also, the undersigned has a brief due in another appeal and will have to spend time finishing the drafting of that brief in the coming days.
5. This confluence of time-consuming court events and briefing constitutes an extraordinary circumstance warranting an extension. Appellants/Respondents seek an extension of this deadline to November 16, 2018.
6. Appellants/Respondents' counsel knows of no prejudice that would be suffered by the extension of this deadline.
7. Appellants/Respondents' counsel believes there is good cause to grant the requested extension.

WHEREFORE Appellants/Respondents pray for an order extending the time in which to and file their final briefs and in which to file the record on appeal in this case to November 16, 2018.

Respectfully submitted,

Andrew S. Radeker
