Re: The State, Respondent, v. Daeshaun Shammond Page, Appellant
Appellate Case No. 2018-001913

Dear Mrs. Kitchings:

Enclosed is a copy of the letter sent to Mr. Page informing him of the (20) twenty-day deadline to inform the court of his basis for appeal and that such issue(s) were preserved for appellate review. Additionally, this letter informs him of the correct case name and number and the Court's address for future communication.

I do want to make the Court aware of information that I learned after the appeal was mailed to the Court. I received written communication on October 29, 2018 from Mr. Page identifying his basis for his appeal as his co-defendant accepted responsibility for the drug charge that he pled guilty to prior to his entry of guilt before the Court, therefore, he believes this charge against him should have been dismissed.

Sincerely,

Melinda Knowles

Attorney for Defendant
