Dear Counsel:

Good afternoon. Thank you for your responses to my email. The oral argument scheduled for Wednesday, November 7, 2018, is continued. The Court will contact the parties regarding rescheduling in December, with alternative counsel if necessary. We hope Ms. Quinn gets well soon.

Please reply to this email to confirm receipt.

Thank you.

Thank you, Mr. Robinson. The Phenergan prescribed by the doctor is not helping relieve Ms. Quinn's nausea. She has contacted the doctor this morning about possible alternative treatments. The eye patch is helping her scratched eye, but she still is not able to see well.

I appreciate the Court's consideration of her request for a continuance.

Best Regards,
Kevin T. Hardy, Esq.

Dear
Counsel:

Good

afternoon. We have learned that Mrs. Quinn is feeling ill and that she requests a continuance of the oral argument scheduled for Wednesday, November 7, 2018, at 11:20 am.

While the panel considers Mrs. Quinn's request for a continuance, we ask for an update regarding Mrs. Quinn's health by noon tomorrow to aid the panel in making a decision.

Many thanks to all for your assistance.
