Subject: SC Court of Appeals Case 2018-1713: City of Barnwell et al. v. County of Barnwell et al. -- Timing for appellant's brief and other deadlines
Attachments: DM 5564625-v1 Matthews Letter to Kitchings, Clerk of Court.PDF

Gentlemen: I wanted to advise you that this morning I spoke again with Jessica Lucas of the Office of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals regarding the consent motion to hold deadlines in abeyance pending the trial court's resolution of the attorneys' fees motion. She advised that the Court has the motion before it, along with my letter on this subject of October 9 (copy attached), but has not yet issued its order. She said to expect that, when the order is issued, it would indicate what the schedule would be from that point. She confirmed that appellant's brief would not be required this Monday (which would have otherwise been the due date), and that we should wait to hear back from the Court.
