Re: John B. Leopard v. Greenwood County
Appellate Case No. 2012-212169

Dear Counsel:

It has come to the Court's attention that a respondent's initial brief and designation of matter have not been received by this Court. In addition, the appellant has already served and filed the record on appeal and appellant's final brief.

If you would like to serve and file the respondent's brief late, then you may serve and file a motion and the brief within fifteen days of the date of this letter. See Rules 208, 209, and 240, SCACR. If we have not received the brief and motion within this time frame, we will presume that you do not intend to file a brief and the appeal will proceed in accordance with the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

CLERK
