State v. Cribb

3

1 (On the record, October 1, 2015. Defendant is sworn by
2 the clerk.)

3 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Cribb, give me your
4 attention, sir. You come before the Court pleading guilty to 5 the crime of property crime enhancement or property crime
6 under the enhancement statute, also a financial transaction
7 card fraud value more than $500, malicious injury to property
8 again under the enhancement statute, another malicious injury
9 to property under the enhancement statute and a third one. So
10 you have three malicious injury to property crimes under the 11 enhancement statute, one under the property crime enhancement
12 statute and another one financial transaction card fraud value
13 more than $500. Is that correct?

14 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: All right, sir. Now, regarding all of those 16 matters, so that's five of them, and in total, each one of 17 them the sentence could be up to ten years. You understand
18 that?

19 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: All right, sir. Now, regarding this 21 particular matter, you understand -- do you have the 22 indictments?

23 MS. RICHARDSON: There are going to be several that are 24 nolle prossed, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. Well, let me look at -- I'll have

1 to look at the three here and see which ones we've got here.

2 All right. So the ones you are nolle prossing,
3 Solicitor, as I understand it, would be 2015-GS-22-411, a
4 malicious injury to personal property enhancement crime; 2015-
5 GS-22-412, forgery value less than 10,000; 2015-GS-22-407,
6 another malicious injury under the enhancement statute; 2015-
7 GS-22-403, financial transaction card fraud value more than 8 500; 2015-GS-22-404, financial transaction card fraud more
9 than 500; and 2015-GS-22-405, financial transaction card fraud
10 more than 500. Would that be correct?

11 MS. RICHARDSON: That's correct, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right. Very good. All right. Now, in 13 this matter, Mr. Cribb, regarding the offenses of the 14 financial transaction card fraud 2015-GS-22-406, the property
15 enhancement crime, 2015-GS-22-413, the malicious injury to 16 property enhancement crime found in 2015-GS-22-408, another
17 one in 2015-GS-22-409 and 2015-GS-22-410, those would all be 18 concurrent sentences. You understand that?

19 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: All right, sir. But they are to be 21 consecutive to, and I'm assuming these are prior crimes that 22 he pled guilty to? Is this correct?

23 MS. RICHARDSON: They are, Your Honor. He pled on 24 October 1st, 2014, in Georgetown County to those three other
25 charges, 2013-GS-22-620 and 621, two counts of petit larceny

State v. Cribb

5

1 enhanced as third offenses, and 2014-GS-22-829, forgery. He
2 received 10 years on each of the petit larceny enhanced, five
3 years on the forgery, all concurrent. He was in drug court.

4 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So regarding -- the ones
5 you're pleading here today the State's recommendation is that
6 those run concurrent. It's a five-year sentence to run
7 concurrent, but that that sentence is consecutive to the prior
8 sentences, the ones in 2013-GS-22-620 and 621 and 2014-GS-22-
9 829. Do you understand that?

10 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: All right, sir. And you understand I'm not 12 bound by that recommendation? You understand that?

13 MR. CRIBB: Sir?

14 THE COURT: I'm not bound by that recommendation. I do
15 not have to give you that sentence. Do you understand that?

16 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: All right, sir. Understanding all these
18 things that we have talked about, do you want to now go
19 forward with the five guilty pleas?

20 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir. I'll take the plea.

21 THE COURT: All right, sir. Very good.

22 Are you currently under the influence of any drugs or 23 intoxicants of any kind or currently have them in your system?

24 MR. CRIBB: No, sir.

25 THE COURT: Are you suffering from any kind of physical,

1 mental, emotional problem that would keep you from
2 understanding what you're doing here today?

3 MR. CRIBB: No, sir.

4 THE COURT: When you plead guilty you give up certain
5 constitutional rights, among those right to remain silent.
6 You speak to me you give those rights up. You understand
7 that?

8 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: Other rights are the presumption of 10 innocence, the right against self incrimination at a trial.
11 The State has to prove your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.
12 You plead guilty you give those rights up. You understand
13 that?

14 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: You're entitled to a jury trial. Twelve men
16 and women would look at the facts presented by the State to 17 see if there are, indeed, enough facts in evidence to prove 18 you guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. You plead guilty you
19 give up those rights. You understand that?

20 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: In that jury trial with your attorney you can
22 question the witnesses and the evidence presented by the State
23 if you wanted to. You could present a defense. You can
24 testify, call witnesses on your behalf. You plead guilty you
25 give up those rights. You understand that?

State v. Cribb

7

1 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: Now, you come before the Court and you're
3 pleading guilty to the three malicious injury to property
4 crimes under the enhancement statute, the one property crime
5 enhancement statute violation and then the financial
6 transaction card fraud value more than $500. Are you pleading
7 guilty to all five of those freely and voluntarily?

8 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: Of your own free will and accord?

10 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: Pleading guilty because you are indeed guilty
12 of those crimes?

13 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: Did anybody promise you anything or threaten
15 you or force you in any way to get you to plead guilty?

16 MR. CRIBB: No, sir.

17 THE COURT: You're here today with your attorney, Ms.
18 Bessent; is that correct?

19 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: Did you tell her everything you need to tell
21 her about this case or these cases?

22 MR. CRIBB: I told her, all right, I'm going to tell the 23 truth from the beginning about them.

24 THE COURT: All right, sir. So you've, you've talked to 25 her and told her everything that you've wanted to tell her?

1 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: All right, sir. Have you had enough time to
3 talk to her?

4 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: All right, sir. If there's something you
6 need to tell her you understand now is the time to do it
7 because later on it's going to be too late. So if there's 8 anything you want to tell your attorney please do it now.

9 (Ms. Bessent and Mr. Cribb confer.)

10 MS. BESSENT: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Cribb, you had an opportunity
12 to ask the question to your attorney. Do you need to ask her
13 anymore questions?

14 MR. CRIBB: No, sir, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: You satisfied with her help and
16 representation?

17 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: Any complaints about her help or
19 representation?

20 MR. CRIBB: No, sir.

21 THE COURT: Ms. Bessent, you represent the interest of 22 your client, Mr. Cribb, in this matter?

23 MS. BESSENT: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: He comes before the Court to tender his pleas
25 of guilty to the five offenses named. Do you concur?

State v. Cribb

9

1 MS. BESSENT: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: And do you believe he's come before the Court
3 of his own free will and accord?

4 MS. BESSENT: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: And have you explained to him his
6 constitutional rights, any defenses he might have, as well as
7 the information, the evidence in the possession of the State?

8 MS. BESSENT: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: Thank you very much. All right, Solicitor,
10 the facts of the five cases, please.

11 MS. RICHARDSON: Your Honor, as for the forgery, and 12 that's 2015-GS-22-413, and that's $10,000 or less but enhanced
13 as a third offense, between January 30th and January 31st of 14 this year the victim's vehicle had been broken into. A gun
15 and a checkbook were stolen. This Defendant deposited two of 16 those stolen checks, forged signature and deposited them to 17 himself into his account at an ATM on Front Street. He was 18 caught on video with that, Your Honor.

19 As for the malicious injury to personal property $2000 or
20 less third offense, each, each of those occurred in the City
21 of Georgetown and involved damaging vending machines, Pepsi
22 and, and Coke machines. On January 29th, 2015, he damaged the 23 Pepsi machine at Southern Coastal Cable. Damages were $800.
24 On February 12th, 2015, he damaged the Pepsi Machine at Tupacz
25 Liquor Store and that was $200 in damage. He was on video on

1 that one, and then between February 10th and February 11th,
2 2015, he damaged two Pepsi machines and a Coke machine at Food
3 Lion in the City of Georgetown. He confessed to all of these,
4 Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, ma'am.

6 MS. RICHARDSON: As for the financial transaction card
7 fraud greater than $500 third offense, the victim's credit
8 card was stolen. This Defendant used it at Wal-Mart in the 9 City of Conway, I mean, in the City of Georgetown and was 10 caught on video doing that, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, ma'am.

12 MS. RICHARDSON: The -- all the other charges that are 13 being nolle prossed are related to either the same victims or 14 the same type scenarios, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, ma'am.

16 All right. Mr. Cribb, you heard those facts of the five
17 cases stated by the Solicitor, and a brief summary of those 18 same facts are set forth in your five indictments. My 19 question to you is are those facts true and correct?

20 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: And you understood when you engaged in that
22 kind of activity you were committing crimes. You understood
23 that?

24 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: Have you understood my questions here today?

State v. Cribb

11

1 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: Have all your answers to me been the truth?

3 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: Anybody tell you how to answer my questions?

5 MR. CRIBB: No, sir.

6 THE COURT: And you understand you have the right to 7 appeal your guilty pleas within 10 days?

8 MR. CRIBB: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: I find he's been -- yeah, I find there's been
10 a substantial factual basis for the pleas. I find the 11 Defendant's decision to plead guilty is being done freely,
12 voluntarily, knowingly and intelligently made. He's had the 13 advice of competent counsel with whom he's satisfied.
14 Therefore, Mr. Cribb's decision to plead guilty to the three 15 counts of malicious injury to personal property under the 16 enhancement statute, the property enhancement crime and the 17 financial transaction card fraud value more than 5000 -- $500
18 is accepted.

19 Yes, ma'am, Ms. Bessent.

20 MS. BESSENT: Thank you, Your Honor. Chad has been
21 battling his addiction for years and years and years. He 22 comes from a great family. I don't even know if you're aware 23 of it, but Judge Sidney T. Floyd is his -- was his uncle, and 24 I imagine Judge Floyd's turning over in his grave right about
25 now he's so annoyed with him. He has brought a lot of shame

1 to his family name, and it's a crying out loud shame to what
2 he's done to his family all because of drugs. He's Jekyll and
3 Hyde. When he's good, he's very, very good. When he's bad,
4 he starts beating up soda machines for some reason.

5 I had hoped he would make it in drug court. I really
6 did, and he did do okay for a while. Unfortunately, he
7 started using again, and here we are. Chad wrote to me
8 immediately saying, "Okay. This is what happened. Get me
9 into court. I want to go ahead and plead." I mean, he's 10 never argued. He'll plead when he's done something wrong,
11 absolutely he doesn't try to play games. He'll admit
12 liability and culpability, and he's ready to go do his time
13 and serve his sentence out.

14 Drug court obviously did not work, and while I understand
15 why Deputy Solicitor Richardson is requesting that it run
16 consecutive, I don't believe that a consecutive sentence is 17 going to do him anymore good. What I think he needs is to be 18 ordered into alcohol treatment unit, which of course he did
19 not have with his drug court sentence. We didn't even address
20 that with Judge McMahon. That is what he needs. He needs
21 treatment. Additional prison time will not do Chad a bit of 22 good. We both understand if you do decide to run it
23 consecutive to instead of concurrent with; however, we do
24 request that you consider running it concurrent at least
25 starting as of today. He's not eligible -- his projected

State v. Cribb

13

1 release date is 10-31-2020, and this sentence, therefore,
2 would not kick in until that day, which is again a lot --
3 another reason why I'm asking that you at least let it run
4 concurrent to today, starting today. In addition, I am
5 requesting that you put alcohol treatment unit on there.

6 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am.

7 MS. BESSENT: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 MS. RICHARDSON: Your Honor, do you want his prior 9 record?

10 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am, please.

11 MS. RICHARDSON: This is the reason for the State's
12 request that this be consecutive. He has misdemeanor charges
13 in 1994; 1996, a grand larceny, B and E auto; 1998 two
14 forgeries, a narcotics possession, a petit larceny; 1999 six
15 counts of forgery; 2002 some driving offenses; 2003 19 counts
16 of receiving stolen goods, 19 counts of petit larceny, grand
17 larceny, trespassing; 2005 malicious injury to personal
18 property, two counts, trespass, forgery, grand larceny, B and 19 E two counts, burglary third; 2010 forgery three counts, B and 20 E auto two counts, and another property enhancement and then
21 the charges I already put on the record that he received drug,
22 drug court for last year, which was the two property enhanced,
23 petit larcenies and FTC fraud or forgery.

24 MS. BESSENT: Forgery.

25 MS. RICHARDSON: Forgery.

1 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am.

2 MS. RICHARDSON: His release date I've got is projected
3 release 12-4, 2019, parole eligibility is next year.

4 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, ma'am.

5 MS. BESSENT: I apologize, Your Honor, but the correct
6 date is the one I gave you. That's printed out from May.

7 MS. RICHARDSON: May. Yes.

8 MS. BESSENT: And I checked it today.

9 THE COURT: Okay. I, I appreciate that. I'm -- just 10 tell you both, I'm not taking that in account in issuing the 11 sentence. It's not impacting how I'm issuing the sentence.
12 Thank you though.

13 2015-GS-22-408, malicious injury to personal property,
14 under the enhancement statute, Mr. Cribb, I've taken into 15 consideration what your attorney has said on your behalf and 16 your request, and I've received the information from the 17 State. Taking all that in consideration, I do believe that 18 based on the matters before me that the sentence requested by 19 the State is appropriate. The Defendant is committed to the 20 State Department of Corrections determinant term of five years
21 consecutive to 2013-GS-22-620 and 621 and 2014-GS-22-829. He
22 is going to be given credit for the time he has served. I am
23 recommending the addictions treatment unit. Regarding 2015-
24 GS-22-409, 410, both of those malicious injury to personal
25 property under the enhancement statute, the sentence is the

State v. Cribb

15

1 same to run concurrent with 2015-GS-22-408. Regarding then.
2 2015-GS-22-406, financial transaction card fraud value more
3 than $500, the sentence there is for, again, five year
4 sentence run concurrent with 2015-GS-22-408 and 2015-GS-22-
5 413, the property enhancement crime the sentence is the same,
6 again to run concurrent with 2015-GS-22-408. Thank you very 7 much.

8 MS. BESSENT: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 MS. RICHARDSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

State of South Carolina,

Respondent.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

2016-CP-22-0776

RETURN

Respondent, making its Return to the Application for Post-Conviction Relief (PCR) filed on August 31, 2016, would respectfully show this Court:

I.

Applicant is presently confined in the South Carolina Department of Corrections pursuant to orders of commitment of the Clerk of Court for Georgetown County. Applicant was indicted by the May 2015 term of the Grand Jury for Georgetown County for financial transaction card fraud – value more than $500 (2015-GS-22-0406), two counts of malicious injury to property – value $2,000 or less (2015-GS-22-0408, 0410), malicious injury to property – value $10,000 or less (2015-GS-22-409), and forgery – value less than $10,000 (2015-GS-22-0413). While these are the charges which resulted in the convictions currently challenged by Applicant, he had other indictments which were not prosecuted in exchange for his guilty plea. Not prosecuted were indictments for two counts of malicious injury to personal property – enhanced (2015-GS-22-0407, 0411), forgery – value less than $10,000 (2015-GS-22-0412), and three counts of financial transaction card fraud – value more than $500 (2015-GS-22-0403, 0404, 0405). Applicant was represented by Wyn Bessent, Esquire. On October 1, 2015, Applicant pled guilty as indicted to the five prosecuted charges. Applicant was sentenced on October 1, 2015, by the Honorable

Steven H. John to five (5) years' imprisonment for each of the five charges, to be served concurrently. Applicant had previously pled guilty on October 1, 2014, and been sentenced by the Honorable R. Knox McMahon to concurrent ten (10) year sentences for each of two counts of petit larceny – enhanced as third offenses (2013-GS-22-0620, 0621), and five (5) years for one count of forgery (2014-GS-22-0829), all concurrent. The presently challenged sentence from October 1, 2015, runs consecutive to the sentence from October 1, 2014. Applicant did not appeal his convictions or sentences.

Attached herewith and incorporated herein by reference are the records of the Georgetown County Clerk of Court regarding the subject convictions, the transcript from Applicant's plea, and Applicant's records for the Department of Corrections. Respondent reserves the right to amend its return upon the receipt of other relevant records.

II.

In his Application, Applicant alleges he is being held in custody unlawfully for the following reasons:

1. Ineffective Assistance of Counsel
 - a. "Counsel didn't give Applicant his Rule 5 or plea agreement until a year later, but 7 and ½ months after sentencing."
 - b. "Counsel did not notify Applicant that he had ten days for motion for reconsideration."

III.

Applicant claims ineffective assistance of counsel in his application. Respondent contends Applicant's counsel rendered adequate assistance and provided representation within the range of competence required by attorneys in criminal cases. See Butler v. State, 286 S.C. 441, 334 S.E.2d 813 (1985). In a post-conviction relief proceeding, Applicant bears the burden of proving the allegations in their application. Id. Where ineffective assistance of counsel is alleged as a ground for relief, Applicant must prove that "counsel's conduct so undermined the proper functioning of the adversarial process that the trial cannot be relied upon as having produced a just result." Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 104 S.Ct. 2052, 2064, 80 L.Ed.2d 674, 692 (1984); Butler, 334 S.E.2d 813.

The proper measure of performance is whether the attorney provided representation within the range of competence required in criminal cases. The courts presume that counsel rendered adequate assistance and made all significant decisions in the exercise of reasonable professional judgment. Strickland, 80 L.Ed.2d 674. Applicant must overcome this presumption in order to receive relief. Cherry v. State, 300 S.C. 115, 386 S.E.2d 624 (1989).

A two-pronged test is used in evaluating allegations of ineffective assistance of counsel. First, Applicant must prove that counsel's performance was deficient. Under this prong, attorney performance is measured by its "reasonableness under professional norms." Cherry, 300 S.C. at 117, 386 S.E.2d at 625, citing Strickland. Second, counsel's deficient performance must have prejudiced Applicant such that "there is a reasonable probability that, but for counsel's unprofessional errors, the result of the proceeding would have been different." Cherry, 300 S.C. at 117-18, 386 S.E.2d at 625. With respect to guilty plea counsel, Applicant must show that there is a reasonable probability that, but for counsel's alleged errors, he would not have pled guilty and would have insisted on going to trial. Hill v. Lockhart, 474 U.S. 52, 106 S.Ct. 366, 88 L.Ed. 2d 203 (1985).

Respondent submits that Applicant cannot satisfy either requirement of the Strickland test. However, the allegation of ineffective assistance of counsel probably raises questions of fact that cannot be conclusively refuted by the record. Respondent requests an evidentiary hearing to fully resolve this issue. See Sharper v. State, 279 S.C. 264, 305 S.E.2d 247 (1983).

IV.

Applicant must specify any claims he intends to raise at the PCR trial. Any claims not specifically laid out in this PCR application or in amendments will be opposed by the State at an evidentiary hearing. S.C. Code § 17-27-10 et seq; SCRCP 71.1. All claims should be made well in advance of the PCR hearing. If Applicant has an attorney appointed, the attorney, and not the inmate, is the only one authorized to file amendments. SCRCP Rule 11. Filings by inmates will not be considered at the PCR hearing.

V.

Each and every allegation contained within the application not either expressly admitted, qualified, or explained is hereby denied.

[Signature block to follow]

VI.

WHEREFORE, having made its Return, Respondent requests that a hearing be held on the claims of ineffective assistance of counsel.

Respectfully submitted,

1 (The hearing commenced at approximately 3:21 p.m.)

2 MR. JAMES: If it may please the Court, Your
3 Honor, this is the matter of Chadwick Cribb versus
4 State of South Carolina, Docket No. 2016-CP-22-0776.
5 Mr. Cribb is present here in the courtroom today, and
6 he is represented by Mr. Steve Fowler, Esquire.

7 Mr. Cribb has a rather lengthy and diverse set of 8 charges he is applying for relief from today, Your 9 Honor. He was indicted at the May 2015 term of the 10 Georgetown County Grand Jury for financial transaction
11 card fraud, value over $500, two counts of malicious
12 injury to property valued $2,000 or less, a malicious
13 injury to property value $10,000 or less and forgery,
14 value less than $10,000.

15 A variety of other indictments were not prosecuted
16 in exchange for his plea. And I will not go into the 17 details of all of those various charges. Mr. Cribb was 18 represented by Ms. Wyn Bessent, Esquire, on all of the 19 charges. On October 1st, 2015, Mr. Cribb pled guilty
20 as indicted to the five indictments I have previously
21 set forth. He was sentenced on October 1st, 2015, by
22 the Honorable Stephen H. John to five years
23 imprisonment for each of the five charges to be served
24 concurrently with each other but consecutive to other
25 terms that he was then serving.

1 He had previously pled guilty on October 1st,
2 2014, and then sentenced by the Honorable R. Knox
3 McMahon to concurrent ten-year sentences for two counts
4 of petty larceny enhanced as thirds and five years for
5 one count of forgery, all concurrent. He did not
6 appeal his convictions or his sentences.

7 Your Honor, it appears to me -- since I was 8 reminded in the middle of the previous hearing to 9 double check the relief requested -- it appears that
10 the Applicant, quote, "would like the five years ran 11 concurrent with the indictment numbers," and then he 12 cites to the indictments on which he was convicted,
13 that sentence by Judge McMahon.

14 And, Your Honor, I don't think that relief is 15 available in a post conviction relief action. And so I
16 would respectfully request you engage in a colloquy
17 with the Applicant, see if he's interested in the 18 relief that's available.

19 THE COURT: Is that the only thing he's asking
20 for?

21 MR. JAMES: That appears to be the only thing that 22 he is asking for.

23 THE COURT: Well, let me hear from you, Mr.
24 Fowler.

25 MR. FOWLER: Your Honor, my client has indicated

1 that he is willing to go back to square one on these
2 issues, Your Honor. And he's ready to testify and
3 discuss these matters. That is something that
4 apparently was put in there, but it isn't the -- it is
5 in addition to the basic foundation of a PCR appeal in 6 terms of wanting his charges overturned and go back to 7 square one and start over with this.

8 And I've discussed this with him. I've discussed
9 that portion of the application, and I've also 10 discussed with him what a PCR hearing is. And he's 11 indicated to me that he is aware of what this PCR
12 hearing is, and he would like to move forward.

13 THE COURT: All right. Mr. James, any objections?

14 MR. JAMES: No objection as long as he understands
15 that it's a start over, and that's all he can get.

16 THE COURT: All right. He'll get more time if
17 he's not careful, but either way. Are you ready, Mr.
18 Fowler, to move forward?

19 MR. FOWLER: Your Honor, I would like to call
20 Mr. Cribb to the stand.

21 CHADWICK CRIBB, after being duly sworn, testified
22 as follows:

23 THE CLERK: Have a seat, please. State your name
24 for the Court, please.

25 THE APPLICANT: Chadwick Madison Cribb.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

1
2 BY MR. FOWLER:

3 Q Mr. Cribb, you and I have spoken about this
4 matter; is that correct?

5 A Yes, sir.

6 Q And we've gone over what a PCR hearing is; is that
7 correct?

8 A Yes, sir.

9 Q Okay. And you did file an application for relief
10 through the PCR court; is that correct?

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q And in this you allege in paragraph ten
13 ineffective assistance of counsel; is that correct?

14 A Yes, sir.

15 Q Okay. And later on in this application you
16 mentioned a few things that seem to be relevant here.
17 You indicated in paragraph 11 that, counsel didn't give
18 Applicant his Rule 5 or plea agreement until a year
19 later until -- okay, explain this to me.

20 Counsel did not give the Applicant his Rule 5 or 21 plea agreement until a year later but seven and a half
22 months after sentencing. So what was the timeline on 23 you getting your discovery?

24 A I got arrested on -- well, I turned myself in to 25 the authorities on February 17th of 2015. At that time

1 I was issued my warrants on the 17th of February at 2 Georgetown County Detention Center. I was already
3 under another sentence from violating my drug court
4 case. At that time I was -- I wrote letters and asked
5 to have my Rule 5 and all the evidence they had on the 6 new charges on me. I never would -- I never could get
7 a clear letter back or anything. I have proof in my
8 paperwork of where I wrote the letters.

9 I eventually -- I ended up receiving my Rule 5. I
10 got sentenced October the 1st of 2015 to five years. I
11 received my Rule 5 and all of the evidence in my motion
12 of discovery on May 23rd, 2016. So that's -- I
13 received my Rule 5 seven months after I was sentenced,
14 but over a year after my arrest I never received
15 anything. That's what I mean by that.

16 Q All right. So with that being said, so what --
17 how did you and your attorney go over the charges
18 against you?

19 A She brought me back to Georgetown County. When I
20 had contacted her office and talked with her secretary
21 and told her secretary that I would like to plead
22 guilty to the charges of seven years, seven to ten
23 years to run concurrent with the time that I'm doing
24 now, if there is any way possible, she said she would 25 pass that on.

1 Well, I never heard anything back about it. And
2 then I got brought into Georgetown County courtroom.
3 They took me into the holding cell. My lawyer came to
4 me and set down and said, this is what the solicitor's
5 office is offering you is five years on each count that
6 you got now to run consecutive with the time you're 7 doing now.

8 I said, I don't want a consecutive sentence. At 9 that time, I said, well, can you go back and ask the 10 prosecutors on the case if she would take the seven or,
11 ten years to run concurrent with what I've got. And 12 her exact words was, you can either take this five
13 years here today, or we'll send you back to the 14 Department of Corrections. And then you can come back
15 after you finish up the time that you're doing, and 16 then they can try on you each one of these charges and
17 give you more time on the charges, the choice is yours.

18 I said, well, I'll take the five years because I
19 don't want any more extensive time. I said, I'll take
20 the five years, but I would ask that you ask the Court
21 that it be run concurrent. She did ask the Court would 22 it be run concurrent after the sentencing. Before the 23 sentencing, the judge said he's going with the 24 recommendation of the State.

25 At that time with her being my lawyer, I felt like

1 she should have filed a reconsideration at that time
2 knowing that I didn't want the five years, to have the
3 Court reconsider giving me a concurrent sentence. It
4 was not five.

5 And then after receiving my Rule 5 and getting all
6 of the copies of all of the evidence, the search
7 warrants on my telephone, search warrants on my e-mail,
8 search warrants on my Facebook to be able to track my
9 Facebook and all, were signed by my fiance's father,
10 which was the judge.

11 So a lot of stuff to sign, all of my warrants,
12 everything, was signed by Judge Robert O'Donnell, which
13 I was engaged to his daughter, Elizabeth Gibbs
14 O'Donnell, which is all in my paperwork. So I feel
15 like there's been a lot of conflict in this. And then
16 in the pictures that they have, the lineup --

17 MR. JAMES: Objection, Your Honor, relevance. It
18 has nothing to do with the allegations set forth in the 19 application.

20 Q Well, let's get back to the discovery. So if you
21 would have had your discovery earlier before you pled,
22 would that have made a difference in your mind?

23 A Yes, it would have made a difference. If I would 24 have seen my plea bargain before she ever brought me to 25 the jail, I would have told her I would not -- I didn't

1 even want a consecutive sentence. I would have not
2 took the charge, I would not have pled guilty to it.

3 Q So are you saying that the consecutive
4 documentation that -- or lack -- well, the lack of
5 currency with the sentence -- strike that, I'm sorry.

6 So you're saying that if you had seen the 7 discovery before pleading...

8 THE COURT: Why don't you ask a direct question.

9 MR. FOWLER: I apologize, Your Honor. I got
10 caught up in that one.

11 Q So you're saying that --

12 THE COURT: No, why don't you ask a direct
13 question.

14 Q You got the discovery seven and a half months
15 after you were sentenced; right?

16 A After I signed the plea bargain, yes, sir.

17 Q Did you discuss with her before the plea that you
18 wanted your discovery before you actually pled before
19 the Court?

20 A Yes, sir. Several times I asked for it. I
21 have -- the last letter that I wrote and I got copies
22 of from the mailroom where I threatened with the 23 Supreme Court because I wanted my Rule 5. And I think
24 it was like anywhere from 10 to 13 days later I
25 received my Rule 5 on all of the evidence they have.

1 Q Did she indicate to you why the delay in --

2 A No, sir, she never did.

3 Q Okay.

4 A The only thing that I have is they sent me copies
5 of all of the charges that was nolle prossed and said
6 that she would send me my Rule 5, and it was over 400
7 pages long. And she sent my Rule 5 at a later date.
8 And that was back in March, I believe, if I'm correct.
9 I can look in my papers and give you the exact date,
10 but I believe it was back in March was when that letter
11 was sent. And it was May 23rd, 2016 before I ever
12 received the Rule 5.

13 Q All right. Earlier you mentioned that your lawyer
14 mentioned to you that she would not advocate for the 15 sentences to be concurrent; is that right? She would
16 not ask for them to be concurrent; is that what you
17 said earlier?

18 A She would not leave out in losing the rules, she
19 wouldn't go back and get the -- talk to the prosecutor
20 before we went in. But she said that she would bring 21 it up in front of the judge. Well, she did ask the 22 judge about, would he consider running them concurrent.
23 I can't say that she didn't.

24 Q Right.

25 A My thing is that the reconsideration wasn't filed

1 in a timely frame knowing -- knowingly that I didn't
2 want this plea.

3 Q Well, let's talk about the reconsideration.
4 What -- did you tell her that day you wanted a
5 reconsideration, or did you write her, or how did you
6 express to her that you would like a reconsideration?

7 A By not wanting the five years when I told her in
8 the courtroom that I didn't want -- in the holding
9 tank, that I just didn't feel right with the five years
10 consecutive.

11 Q But you clearly asked for a reconsideration;
12 correct?

13 A No, sir.

14 Q You did not?

15 A No, sir.

16 Q Well, how did she know to do that for you?

17 A Because of the ten-day grace period that the judge
18 said when we was standing up that I have a ten-day
19 grace period. So her being my lawyer, I figured she 20 would knowingly that I didn't want the five years to 21 begin with. When we was in the tank, I tried to get
22 her to go talk to the prosecutor, and she didn't go
23 talk to the prosecutor. I figured she would at least 24 file the consideration within the ten-day period for 25 me.

1 Q So you felt that that was just a part of her job;
2 right?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 Q After what you had discussed with her; right?

5 A Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: You can ask him a direct question if
7 you want to.

8 MR. FOWLER: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 Q You mentioned Robert O'Dell?

10 A Robert O'Donnell.

11 Q Robert O'Donnell. How does that relate to your 12 PCR here today?

13 A That -- well, when I started --

14 MR. JAMES: Objection, relevance. I can't 15 conceive of what anybody else would have to do with 16 what counsel did or did not do.

17 MR. FOWLER: It's my understanding, Your Honor,
18 that he didn't get -- he didn't know that O'Donnell
19 signed this information until he got his discovery.

20 THE COURT: Signed what information?

21 MR. FOWLER: That O'Donnell signed various
22 documents in this matter, legal documents.

23 THE COURT: Go ahead, I'll let you ask it. You
24 can answer it.

25 THE APPLICANT: I mean, he signed search warrants

1 and all for my telephone, which was in his daughter's
2 name anyway, so...

3 Q Was that in the discovery?

4 A It was in the discovery. That's when I discovered
5 that when I got my discovery that all of that was in 6 there.

7 Q And when did you get the discovery again?

8 A May 23rd, 2016.

9 Q And that was after?

10 A That was way after I got sent -- I got sentenced
11 December 1st of '15.

12 Q Okay. Why do you think --

13 A I mean, October the 1st -- strike that, October
14 the 1st of '15.

15 Q Why do you think knowing that information would
16 have been important to your attorney?

17 A It would have been a conflict of interest in my 18 case with him being the father of my fiance at the 19 time.

20 Q And you still would like the -- what's your 21 position now on the these sentences; are you still 22 wanting them to run concurrently, or --

23 A That's all I would like for them to be run
24 concurrent. That's all I'm asking for. I'm trying to 25 get back, trying to straighten my life out. And I got

1 a good job, $25 an hour in Colorado. I'm trying to
2 leave the State, I'm not even going to be a resident of
3 South Carolina anymore. I'm trying to better my life.
4 I ended up getting ready to start the ATU program in 5 SCDC, which is the last program that I can do. I've
6 done everything that I know to do with my problem that
7 I've had with drugs.

8 And that's all I ask the State is to let the five
9 years run concurrent with the ten. I mean, I know I
10 did wrong, you know, I understand that I did wrong.
11 And everything that I did, I did it under the influence
12 of drugs and I know I did wrong. And it's not -- and 13 it's not fair to anybody in society, no. But I don't
14 think 15 years for breaking into a soda machine with a
15 credit card is -- there's people, murdering people got 16 less time than me in SCDC right now.

17 MR. FOWLER: No further questions, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. Cross?

19 MR. JAMES: Very briefly, Your Honor.

20 CROSS-EXAMINATION

21 BY MR. JAMES:

22 Q Do you recall -- isn't it true that the Court
23 asked you if you were satisfied with your attorney?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q All right. And isn't it true that at that time

1 you wanted to ask your attorney a question?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q All right.

4 A If I remember correctly.

5 Q And after speaking with your attorney, isn't it
6 true that you told the Court that you had had enough
7 time with your attorney?

8 A Yes. When I was at the table, if I recall
9 correct.

10 Q All right. And isn't it true that you told the 11 Court that you had no complaints about her help or 12 representation?

13 A No.

14 MR. JAMES: No further questions, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. FOWLER:

18 Q You mentioned several things. Why have you
19 changed your tone or mind since that time, or have you
20 in the case?

21 A Because I didn't know all of the evidence that was
22 in the case at the time. And when I got in SCDC and I
23 started thinking about the day that all this happened,
24 and I'm like, I asked her to go and talk with the 25 prosecutor before we ever came in the courtroom. And

1 she never walked out of the thing. It was more or less
2 like she was on their side when she said, you can
3 either take the five years or you can go back, you
4 know, brought back to SCDC today. And then you can
5 just come back for each charge and be tried on each
6 charge. And when she said each charge, I thought she
7 meant each eleven charges, and I'm facing five to ten
8 years on each charge, that's a hundred and something
9 years.

10 Q All right.

11 MR. FOWLER: No further questions, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 RECROSS-EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. JAMES:

15 Q Again, very briefly, you're expressing these 16 reasons why you were dissatisfied with counsel at the 17 time of your plea hearing, but you told the Court that 18 you were satisfied with counsel and that you had had 19 all the time you needed with her. So were you
20 satisfied with your counsel at the time of the guilty
21 plea?

22 A At the time of the guilty plea when we was in the 23 courtroom, it was a misunderstanding of what the judge
24 was asking me about, that part of the whole question.
25 So I don't know how to answer that question, because

WYN BESSENT-DIRECT BY MR. JAMES

1 I'm not satisfied with what happened because -- it's
2 obvious or I wouldn't be here.

3 MR. JAMES: I have no further questions, Your
4 Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. You may step down. Thank
6 you.

7 (Witness excused.)

8 THE COURT: Call your next witness.

9 MR. FOWLER: If I may speak with my client. Thank
10 you.

11 (Discussion off the record.)

12 MR. FOWLER: No further witnesses, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Mr. James?

14 MR. JAMES: The State calls Wyn Bessent.

15 WYN BESSENT, after being duly sworn, testified as 16 follows:

17 THE CLERK: Have a seat, please. State your name
18 for the Court, please.

19 THE WITNESS: Wyn Bessent.

20 DIRECT EXAMINATION

21 BY MR. JAMES:

22 Q Good afternoon, Ms. Bessent.

23 A Good afternoon.

24 Q As a preliminary matter I would like to thank you
25 for being patient today, I understand that you are

1 feeling under the weather.

2 A No worries.

3 Q About how long have you been licensed as an
4 attorney in the state of South Carolina?

5 A November of 1999.

6 Q And how much of that experience has been criminal?

7 A May 2012 through the present.

8 Q What were you doing prior to May 2012, if I may 9 ask?

10 A I did probate and real estate.

11 Q All right. About how many times did you meet with 12 Mr. Cribb?

13 A He had been at SCDC, so the only time we met was 14 when he was transported to the courthouse on 15 October 1st of 2015. Then we met in the courtroom
16 lockup to discuss his charges that day.

17 Q So you only met that one time?

18 A Yes. Because he had been transported directly
19 from Georgetown County. He had been revoked on his 20 drug court sentence, so he had been sent directly to 21 SCDC.

22 Q Did you have any other communications with him?

23 A He had called our office in August indicating that
24 he wanted to plead guilty and that he did not want it
25 to run consecutive.

WYN BESSENT-DIRECT BY MR. JAMES

20

1 Q Did you file for discovery pursuant to Rule 5 and
2 Brady?

3 A Yes. We received discovery on or about May 19 of 4 2015, and we received a plea offer the same day.

5 Q Did you have any time to go over the discovery
6 with Mr. Cribb prior to his pleading guilty?

7 A We discussed it in courtroom lockup, yes, sir.

8 Q All right. Did he have any questions for you
9 about the discovery at that time?

10 A His only concern was that Deputy Solicitor Alicia
11 Richardson was asking that it run consecutive instead
12 of concurrent. I explained to him that I had spoken
13 with Deputy Solicitor Alicia Richardson since June of 14 2015 trying to get her to come off of the consecutive
15 versus concurrent, that I didn't see that it was going
16 to serve any useful purpose for Mr. Cribb, as he was a
17 drug addict. And he did, in fact, have a position in 18 Colorado and was ready and willing to leave the State
19 as quickly as possible.

20 Deputy Solicitor Alicia Richardson refused to come
21 off of the consecutive offer, it was what it was. She 22 said, take it or leave it.

23 Q And you communicated that to Mr. Cribb?

24 A I did tell him that it was -- the offer was five
25 consecutive, she would not come off of it, and it was

1 what it was. She had given it to us as a
2 take-it-or-leave-it offer.

3 Q He never wanted to go to trial on this?

4 A No. He specifically requested to plead guilty.

5 Q Okay.

6 A Mr. Cribb has always owned up to his crimes. He
7 has always been very honest with the Court, always been
8 very honest with me. If Mr. Cribb does something
9 wrong, he is the first to say, I have done something
10 wrong and I need to pay my debt to society. He's very 11 honest and forthcoming.

12 Q Did you give him his own personal copy of the Rule
13 5 discovery when you met with him or...

14 A According to our database, Ms. Carter, our 15 administrative assistant, mailed it out after we 16 received it in May. And I took a copy upstairs with 17 me, according to my notes in the database, and gave it
18 to him. It would not have included the 11 different
19 copies of his NCIC which did constitute quite a bit of 20 that 400 pages to which he referred.

21 Do I specifically recall taking it up to him, no.
22 Does the database indicate that I did, yes.

23 Q Did he ever ask you to file a motion for 24 reconsideration?

25 A No, sir.

1 Q Did he ever ask you to file for an appeal?

2 A No, sir.

3 Q Did you tell him about his appellate rights?

4 A He was informed of his right to appeal within ten
5 days from the date of the entry of the guilty plea. As
6 a matter of course, I do not tell our clients that they
7 have to ten days to file a motion to reconsider.
8 Generally there is no basis for the motion to 9 reconsider. So it has always been my practice to not 10 say, you have ten days to file a motion to reconsider.
11 They are well aware of the ten days notice of the 12 intent to file an appeal.

13 MR. JAMES: No further questions.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 CROSS-EXAMINATION

16 BY MR. FOWLER:

17 Q When did he receive his discovery in relation to 18 the date of the plea appearance in court?

19 A To my knowledge, he received it prior to calling
20 my office in August, because at that point he knew the 21 offer was five years consecutive. Because in the 22 database it specifically noted that he wanted to accept 23 the offer, but he did not want it to run consecutive
24 to, he wanted it to run concurrent to his drug court
25 plea.

1 So when before August he would have received it
2 from our administrative assistant, I have no idea. I
3 know it's her practice to send it out as soon as she
4 gets it.

5 Q But you've said there was additional information
6 that he did not receive that created most of the 400
7 pages; is that correct?

8 A She would have sent the NCIC as well. It was 11
9 different copies of his NCIC. For every single charge
10 the State gives us a copy of a persons's NCIC.

11 Q Okay. You mentioned that he had mentioned to you
12 that he wanted to plead guilty, but he wanted to make
13 sure it was not consecutive; is that correct?

14 A He wanted it to be concurrent, not consecutive,
15 that is correct.

16 Q Now, you and he had a discussion before he pled
17 that day; is that correct?

18 A We discussed the charges in the courtroom lockup
19 and the discovery related to that.

20 Q Did you discuss reconsideration if it did go
21 consecutive and not concurrent?

22 A No, sir.

23 Q But he -- it seems like on your testimony that
24 he -- that that was something he was adamant for is 25 that it run concurrent and not consecutive; is that

1 correct?

2 A He requested that it run consecutive [sic], I told
3 him it would be up to the Honorable Judge John, and
4 that I would do everything in my power to get him to
5 run it concurrent but that I could not control it.

6 Q Okay. After Judge John ruled that it was
7 consecutive and not concurrent, what could your office
8 have done to make sure -- to see it was run
9 concurrently and not consecutively?

10 A The only thing we could have done is ask Judge
11 John to reconsider it, to file a motion to reconsider.

12 Q And you didn't do that; did you?

13 A No, sir, I did not.

14 Q Okay. And my client, that was one of the things
15 that he was particularly interested in; correct?

16 A Yes. Mr. Cribb wanted it to run concurrent. I
17 wanted it to run concurrent.

18 Q When did he see his plea, a written version of his
19 plea?

20 A He should have received it at the same time he
21 received his discovery which we received on May 19th.
22 He called our office in August, so sometime between May 23 of 2015 and August of 2015 when he called our office.
24 Because he was aware of the plea at that time.

25 Q But was there any written plea given to -- I mean,

1 you said you assume that that was correct. But you
2 don't know a certain date; do you?

3 A No. There is no way for me to know a date that he
4 received anything at SCDC. There was a written plea
5 offer from Deputy Solicitor Alicia Richardson, yes,
6 dated the same day we received discovery. It came as 7 one packet.

8 MR. FOWLER: No further questions, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 MR. JAMES: No further questions.

11 THE COURT: All right. Have a good day.

12 (Witness excused.)

13 THE COURT: Call your next witness.

15 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to deny that 16 application as well and ask you to prepare me an order.

17 MR. JAMES: Thank you, Your Honor. Before the end
18 of the year okay?

19 THE COURT: Before the end of the year will be 20 fine.

State of South Carolina,

FILED
GEORGETOWN COUNTY, S.C.
2018 MAR 13 AM 10:23
ALMA Y. WHITE
CLERK OF COURT

This matter comes before the Court by way of an application for post-conviction relief filed by Chadwick Cribb ("Applicant") on March 10, 2017. Respondent made its return on or about August 31, 2016. The Court convened an evidentiary hearing into the matter on Wednesday, November 29, 2017, at the Horry County Courthouse in Conway, South Carolina. Applicant was present at the hearing and represented by Steven W. Fowler, Esq. Johnny Ellis James Jr., of the South Carolina Attorney General's Office, represented Respondent.

-Applicant testified on his own behalf at the evidentiary hearing. Applicant's plea counsel, Wyn N. Bessent, Esq. ("Counsel") also testified. The Court had before it Applicant's records from the South Carolina Department of Corrections, a copy of the original trial transcript, the records of the Georgetown County Clerk of Court regarding the subject convictions, and the pleadings. The Court finds as follows:

I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Applicant is confined in the South Carolina Department of Corrections pursuant to orders of commitment of the Georgetown County Clerk of Court. Applicant was indicted at the May 2015 term of the Georgetown County Grand Jury for financial transaction card fraud, value more than $500 (2015-GS-22-00406), two counts of malicious injury to property, value $2,000 or less (2015-GS-22-00408, -00410), malicious injury to property, value $10,000 or less (2015-GS-22-00409), and forgery, value less than $10,000 (2015-GS-22-00413).¹ Wyn Bessent, Esq. represented Applicant, and Alicia A. Richardson, of the Fifteenth Circuit Solicitor's Office, prosecuted the case. On October 1, 2015, Applicant pled guilty to the above charges as indicted. The Honorable Steven H. John sentenced Applicant to imprisonment for concurrent terms of five years on each charge.² Applicant did not appeal his plea or sentence.

Present Application

In his post-conviction relief application, Applicant alleges he is being held unlawfully for the following reasons:

1. Ineffective assistance of counsel, in that:
 - a. "Counsel didn't give Applicant his Rule 5 or plea agreement until a year later, but 7 and ½ months after sentencing."
 - b. "Counsel did not notify Applicant that he had ten days for motion for reconsideration."

With respect to the relief desired, Applicant gave conflicting testimony that he wished for a new trial and that he only wished for his sentences to run concurrent to those imposed by Judge McMahon.

II. FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

This Court has reviewed the testimony presented at the evidentiary hearing, observed the witnesses presented at the hearing, passed upon their credibility, and weighed the testimony accordingly. Further, this Court has reviewed the records submitted to it by the parties and the ¹ Applicant was also indicted for two counts of malicious injury to personal property, enhanced (2015-GS-22-00407, 00411), forgery, value less than $10,000 (2015-GS-22-00412), and three additional counts of financial transaction card fraud, value more than $500 (2015-GS-22-00403, -00404, -00405). These indictments were dismissed nolle prosequi as part of Applicant's plea.

² Judge John ran the sentences consecutive to unrelated terms of incarceration imposed by the Honorable Judge Knox McMahon on October 1, 2014. Judge McMahon sentenced Applicant to a total of 10 years.

legal arguments made by the attorneys. Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-80, this Court makes the following findings based upon all of the probative evidence presented.

A. Ineffective Assistance of Counsel

In a post-conviction relief action, an applicant has the burden of proving the allegations in his or her application. Rule 71.1(e), SCRCP; Butler v. State, 286 S.C. 441, 334 S.E.2d 813 (1985). When an applicant alleges ineffective assistance of counsel as a ground for relief, he or she must prove "counsel's conduct so undermined the proper functioning of the adversarial process that the trial cannot be relied upon as having produced a just result." Butler at 442, 334 S.E.2d 441 (quoting Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 686 (1984)). The proper measure of performance is whether an attorney provided representation within the range of competence required in criminal cases. Id.

"[C]ounsel is strongly presumed to have rendered adequate assistance and made all significant decisions in the exercise of reasonable professional judgment." Butler at 442, 334 S.E.2d 441 (quoting Strickland at 690). The applicant must overcome this presumption to receive relief. Cherry v. State, 300 S.C. 115, 118, 386 S.E.2d 624, 625 (1989). "Judicial scrutiny of counsel's performance must be highly deferential, as it is all too tempting for a defendant to second-guess counsel's assistance after conviction or an adverse sentence, and it is all too easy for a court, examining counsel's defense after it has proved unsuccessful, to conclude that a particular act or omission of counsel was unreasonable." Strickland, 466 U.S. at 689; Edwards v. State, 392 S.C. 449, 456-57, 710 S.E.2d 60, 64 (2011). "[W]hen counsel articulates a valid reason for employing a certain strategy, such conduct will not be deemed ineffective assistance of counsel." Smith v. State, 386 S.C. 562, 567, 689 S.E.2d 629, 632 (2010) (citing Caprood v. State, 338 S.C. 103, 110, 525 S.E.2d 514, 517 (2000)).

Courts use a two-pronged test in evaluating allegations of ineffective assistance of counsel. First, the applicant must prove that counsel's performance was deficient. Under this prong, attorney performance is measured by its "reasonableness under professional norms." Cherry at 117, 386 S.E.2d at 625 (citing Strickland at 688). Second, counsel's deficient performance must have prejudiced the applicant such that "there is a reasonable probability that, but for counsel's unprofessional errors, the result of the proceeding would have been different." Cherry at 117-18, 386 S.E.2d at 625 (citing Strickland at 694). With respect to guilty plea counsel, Applicant must show that there is a reasonable probability that, but for counsel's alleged errors, he would not have pleaded guilty and would have insisted on going to trial. Hill v. Lockhart, 474 U.S. 52, 59 (1985).

The standards do not establish mechanical rules; the ultimate focus of inquiry must be on the fundamental fairness of the proceeding whose result is being challenged. Strickland at 696. A court need not first determine whether counsel's performance was deficient before examining the prejudice suffered by the defendant as a result of the alleged deficiencies; if it is easier to dispose of an ineffectiveness claim on the ground of lack of sufficient prejudice, that course should be followed. Strickland, 466 U.S. at 696-97.

1. Failure to Provide Discovery

Applicant alleges Counsel was deficient in failing to provide discovery until many months after he was sentenced. At the evidentiary hearing, Applicant testified he was arrested after turning himself in on February 17, 2015, was sentenced on October 1, 2015, but did not get his discovery until May 2016. Applicant claimed he told Counsel he wanted to receive his Rule 5 before pleading. Applicant testified he knew he did wrong and that all he wished for was for his sentences to all be run concurrent.

Counsel testified she received Applicant's discovery and the plea offer on the same day in May 2015, and promptly sent both to Applicant. Counsel recalled Applicant's only concern was that he wanted the sentence to be run concurrent, not consecutive to his existing sentence. Counsel attempted to talk the State into changing its position, but the solicitor would not budge. Counsel testified Applicant did not receive the 11 copies of NCIC reports provided by the State. Counsel recalled telling Applicant whether or not to run the sentences concurrent or consecutive was within the discretion of Judge John.

The Court finds no deficiency on the part of counsel, nor prejudice therefrom. The Court finds credible Counsel's testimony that she forwarded Applicant's discovery at the same time as she forwarded the plea offer that was ultimately accepted, and that Applicant's only concern was that the sentence offered would run consecutive. The Court finds that Applicant knew whether or not he had his discovery at the time he pled guilty, and he opted to plead guilty anyway. Applicant knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily pled guilty, and even renewed his commendable and credible remorse at the evidentiary hearing. Accordingly, Applicant's request for relief by way of this allegation is DENIED.

2. Failure to File a Motion for Reconsideration of Sentence

Applicant alleges Counsel was ineffective for failing to tell him he had 10 days to file a motion for reconsideration. The Court is guided, in part, by the same law and reasoning that underpins the right to be informed of appellate deadlines in a guilty plea. Though counsel is required to make certain that a defendant is made fully aware of his or her right to appeal after a trial, a different standard applies to a guilty plea:

Absent extraordinary circumstances, such as when there is reason to think a rational defendant would want to appeal (for example, because there are nonfrivolous grounds for appeal) or when the defendant reasonably demonstrated an interest in appealing, there is no constitutional requirement that a defendant be informed of the right to a direct appeal from a guilty plea.

Turner v. State, 380 S.C. 223, 224-25, 670 S.E.2d 373, 374 (2008) (citations omitted).

Therefore, in a collateral action attacking a guilty plea, the "bare assertion that a defendant was not advised of appellate rights is insufficient to grant relief." Jones v. State, 382 S.C. 589, 598, 677 S.E.2d 20, 23-24 (2009) (quoting Weathers v. State, 319 S.C. 59, 61, 459 S.E.2d 838, 839 (1995)). The Court can conceive of no reason why the same logic should not apply to a motion for reconsideration.

At the plea proceeding, the Court informed Applicant that he had only 10 days to file an appeal. (Tr. 11, ll. 6-8.) At the evidentiary hearing, Applicant testified he did not ask Counsel to file a motion to reconsider the sentence, but that she should have done so. Applicant indicated his belief that filing the motion was part of her job. Applicant offered no basis for a motion for reconsideration. Counsel testified she could conceive of no basis for any motion for reconsideration.

The Court finds no deficiency on the part of counsel, nor prejudice therefrom. The Court finds the bare assertion that Applicant was not advised of the possibility of a motion for reconsideration is insufficient to grant relief. Even if such a right exists, somehow beyond the scope of the right to be informed of the right to appeal and beyond the deference given to the solemn admission of guilt that is a guilty plea, Applicant has offered no basis on which to make such a motion, and no grounds for reconsideration are apparent on the record. Accordingly, Applicant's request for relief by way of this allegation is DENIED.

III. CONCLUSION

Based on all the foregoing, this Court finds and concludes that Applicant has not established any constitutional violations or deprivations that would require this Court to grant his application. Therefore, this application for post-conviction relief must be denied and dismissed with prejudice.

This Court notifies the Applicant that he must file and serve a notice of appeal within thirty (30) days from the receipt by counsel of written notice of entry of judgment to secure the appropriate appellate review. See Rule 203, SCACR. Pursuant to Austin v. State, 305 S.C. 453 (1991), an Applicant has a right to an appellate counsel's assistance in seeking review of the denial of PCR. Rule 71.1(g), SCRCP provides that if the Applicant wishes to seek appellate review, PCR counsel must serve and file a Notice of Appeal on the Applicant's behalf. Your attention is directed to South Carolina Appellate Court Rule 243 for appropriate procedures for appeal.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That the Application for Post-Conviction Relief must be denied and dismissed with prejudice; and
2. The Applicant must be remanded to the custody of the South Carolina Department of Corrections.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED this 6 day of March, 2018.

At a Court of General Sessions, convened on May 27, 2015, the Grand Jurors of Georgetown County present upon their oath:

FINANCIAL TRANSACTION CARD FRAUD
THIRD OR SUBSEQUENT OFFENSE

CDR: 3622 16-14-0060(a), (1-5), 16-01-0057

That Chadwick Madison Cribb, did in Georgetown County on or about February 4, 2015, use a financial transaction card, namely: American Express Credit Card belonging to Jamie Curiy, that was illegally obtained or retained or received with knowledge that it was illegally obtained or retained or which he/she knew to be forged, altered, expired, or obtained as a result of a fraudulent application, with the intent to defraud the issuer or anyone else of something of value in a six-month period, in violation of Section 16-14-60(a)(1), S. C. Code of Laws, 1976, as amended, such being the defendant's third or subsequent offense for which the penalty is contingent upon the value of the property involved, in violation of Section 16-01-0057, S. C. Code of Laws, 1976, as amended.
