Re: Ellis Smith v. Arthur Vereen
Appellate Case No. 2016-001075
Our Client Matter No. 064758.00001

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am writing regarding the appeal captioned Ellis Smith, et al., Respondents v. Arthur Vereen, et al. Appellants, Appellate Case No.: 2016-001075. I represent the Appellants in this appeal, and we are in the process of preparing the Record on Appeal. The Record on Appeal is quite voluminous, totaling 12,738 pages and spanning 26 volumes of 250 double-sided pages. My staff has spoken with the case manager for this appeal, and during this conversation, the case manager indicated that the Court does not have the capacity to store 15 copies of this Record, which is typically required by Rule 210(b), SCACR. Therefore, the case manager suggested that I send this letter to the Court, requesting permission to deliver a reduced number of copies of the Record on Appeal to the Court.

Accordingly, because of the voluminous nature of the Record on Appeal, the Appellants respectfully request relief from the requirement in Rule 210(b), requiring the Appellants to file 15 copies of the Record on Appeal.

Sincerely,

McNAIR LAW FIRM, P.A.
