Lower court case:
Appellate case no. 2017-002867

Motion for extension of time to file writ of certiorari in the Supreme Court under the court's original jurisdiction
along with Affidavit

Petitioner Anthony Brooks request a extension of time of 30 days to file an extraordinary writ in the South Carolina Supreme Court under the court's original jurisdiction of the Supreme Court. Petitioner has grounds of whether the court of appeals erred in denying petitioner infamia pauperis in affecting the lower court's judgment requiring petitioner to pay the filing fee etc. petitioner is currently being denied law library access and has been denied law library services to brief this issue since the order of July 31st 2018 was issued by the Appellate court denying petitioner's motion for reinstatement. Petitioner moves for the court to grant him a extension of time to brief the issues for a timely appeal as provided by Rule 245(A)(B) of Appellate Court Rules, due to SC02 state wide lock up it has prevented and has obstructed the effects of paying filing fees and briefing the meritorious issues in this case and on those grounds and more petitioner request an extension.

I swear under penalty and perjury that the foregoing is true and correct this 30th day of August 2018.
