Dear Madame Clerk,

This is a belated response to your letter of October 24, 2018, to me and the opposing attorney. I believe the opposing attorney has indicated to you that we are in agreement that the reconstructed record does not allow for a meaningful appellate review. I believe opposing counsel has further indicated that we are in agreement to re-try this case in the Court of Common Pleas.

Thanking you in advance for indulging the parties to the extent you have regarding this appeal, I am

Very truly yours,

Wm. Thurmond Bishop
