SC Court of Appeals

RE: William C. Mitchell v. James T. Helwig
Appellate Case # 2012-211963

Dear Madam Clerk;

I am writing you just to confirm my phone conversation yesterday, between myself and the case manger Ms. Elizabeth Carter, regarding the erroneously filed order of dismissal in the above captioned case.

On November 14, 2012, I received an order of dismissal from the court dated November 13, 2012. The reason stated for the dismissal was because the Appellant failed to provide proof of service of the record on appeal, under Rule 210 SCACP.

Immediately upon receiving the above notice, I called the court and spoke to the case manger, Ms. Elizabeth Carter. As I stated in our phone conversation yesterday, based on the court's letter of July 17, 2012, which notified me that the timelines for this appeal was being held in abeyance until further notice from the court.

At that time I had also had phone conversations with Ms. Cater and confirmed that until I received further written notice from the court that I need not to file anything

As of today's date I have received no written notice from the court to proceed in the filings in this case.

It is my understanding from my phone conversation with Ms. Carter, that the above mentioned, order of dismissal, was issued erroneously and that an order reinstating this case will be issued and filed and this case allowed to continue.

If there is any problem or question please call me immediately;

Sincerely
