RE: Trey Williams V. State
Appellate Case No. 2016-001553

Motion to Relieve Counsel and Go pro se
Reply/Additional motion

Dear South Carolina Court of Appeals:

I would like to Request that the totality of motions, letters etc that I have written to the Courts since the initial DATE of me being on APPEAL IN THIS CASE MATTER be Reviewed by the Courts in the "Interest of Justice," furthermore upon such Review will RAISE many colorable claims, concerns, ISSUES and Requests that WAS MADE IN Good Faith, AMBITIOUS and due diligence. I have extraordinary writs to file, Records And documents to obtain, file and fix/complete. In Advance I Am notifying the Courts that Immediately upon me becoming pro se I ASKED to AGAIN have the court of Appellant Indigent Defense be ASSIGNED to my case for the exclusive purposes of copies for my proof of service etc. Also intend on getting harmless incontrovertible evidence/documents on the Record that will not prejudice ANY party, only ensure justice that will prevent A complete MISCARriage of justice. I Also need A copy of my Amended PCR Application that need be PLACED on the Record which the court has MY COPY. Prior to me having counsel I WAS pro se by Supreme court while having copies handled From Indigent Appellate Defense. upon me being pro se, I feel I have merit to motion the S.C. Supreme Court Chief Justice Regarding extraordinary circumstances, ISSUES AND Requests. ~~Very~~ Very
