Re: The State, Respondant, V. Dae Shaun Shammond Page, Appellant
Appellate Case No. 2018-DD1913

Dear Mrs. Kitchings:

The arguable basis preserved for this appeal that the Court should be aware of, are that prior to my "N.C. vs. Alford" plea on the P.W.I.D Marijuana Charge. My co-defendant Darius Alston plead guilty to this charge in a Court of Law months before my "guilty plea" was accepted. That fact alone is why I feel as if my appeal should be approved and my charge dismissed. Two people cannot be guilty of that charge, I've maintained my innocence since the beginning. I was a back seat passenger, where as in the drugs were found up front with Darius who was the driver of the vehicle. Please take this into consideration, Thank you for your time

Sincerely,

Dae Shaun Page
Appellant
