Whom it May Concern,

Please find a copy of the attached correspondence letter dated November 1, 2018. This letter was sent to the wrong address. I have included and copy of an email from Riley, Pope & Laney, LLC stating they received the letter in error from the South Carolina Court of Appeals.

The original appeal for S&A Construction and More LLC, was based on the fact we never received proper notice. This is yet another example of not receiving proper notice to complete a task that is time sensitive.

Please add this information into case file.

If you have any questions or concerns, please give me a call.

Thanks,

Scott Calder

Re: Robert D'Espies v. S&A Construction and More, LLC
Appellate Case No. 2018-001477

Dear Mr. Calder:

Upon reviewing your correspondence filed on October 30, 2018, which this Court construes as a motion to allow late filing of the respondent's initial brief and designation of matter for respondent S&A Construction and More, LLC, the following deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and each deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or your motion will not be considered:

- The required filing fee has not been submitted. The correct filing fee is $50.00.
- A proof of service has not been provided. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

CLERK
