Reporter's Note: All Exhibits were filed with the York
County Clerk of Court's Office.

1 (COURT IN SESSION THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2018 IN THE
2 MATTER OF THE STATE VERSUS BRUCE STANLEY JONES, AT 10:20
3 AM.)

4 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Can we have Bruce Jones from the 5 holding cell, please.

6 (DEFENDANT BRUCE JONES, BLACK MALE, ENTERS COURTROOM.)

7 THE COURT: All right, Solicitor.

8 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Thank you, your Honor.

9 The next matter for your consideration is the State
10 versus Bruce Jones. As a preliminary matter, your Honor,
11 Mr. Jones is on loan at the Detention Center from the South
12 Carolina Department of Corrections. He has been in the 13 Department of Corrections for several months where he pled
14 guilty -- He's been in the Department of Corrections for a 15 hundred and fourteen days. Prior to that he was in the 16 Lancaster Detention Center where he had pled guilty to a
17 burglary charge when he was represented by the Public
18 Defender's Office.

19 When he was -- And his warrants were issued he was not 20 approved for the public defender, but he has been 21 incarcerated in SCDC for a hundred and forty-four days and 22 prior to that in Lancaster.

23 I have provided the entire discovery file to Mr.
24 McKinnon for his review. For the purposes of this plea I
25 would ask that Mr. Jones be appointed Mr. McKinnon as his

1 representation.

2 THE COURT: All right. I'll appoint him.

3 I'll appoint Mr. McKinnon to represent him.

4 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Thank you, your Honor.

5 Mr. Jones is here on three True Billed Indictments.

6 Number 2018-GS-46-00431, one charge of burglary in the 7 second degree violent. That is a statutory felony and it
8 carries up to fifteen years.

9 Indictment 2018-GS-46-00432 Malicious Injury to 10 Property, however that is enhanced per the enhancement
11 statute. That is a statutory felony that carries up to ten 12 years.

13 And Indictment 2018-GS-46-00435 another count of 14 Burglary in the second degree violent. Felony, up to 15 fifteen years. All of those indictments have been True
16 Billed before the York County Grand Jury.

17 Your Honor, the negotiation in this case is for a six-
18 year active sentence to be served concurrently with his 19 current SCDC sentence.

20 At the conclusion of the plea the State will also be 21 dismissing two counts of possession of burglary tools and 22 two counts of petty larceny enhanced that are directly
23 related to the indictments in which he is pleading.

24 Your Honor, additionally at the conclusion of the 25 factual summation, the State and the Defense do have a

-6-

1 minor disagreement regarding his time served credit that I
2 believe needs a ruling on the Court regarding it.

3 THE COURT: All right. All right, Mr. McKinnon, you
4 represent Bruce Jones on these charges?

5 MR. MCKINNON: I do, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: How does he indicate he wishes to plead?

7 MR. MCKINNON: He indicates he wishes to plead guilty,
8 your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Jones, how old are you?

10 MR. JONES: Be fifty-eight Saturday.

11 THE COURT: Fifty-eight. How far did you go in 12 school?

13 MR. JONES: Eleven.

14 THE COURT: Have you ever been treated for any mental 15 or emotional disability?

16 MR. JONES: No, sir.

17 THE COURT: You understand what you're doing here?

18 MR. JONES: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: How much time you serving in the 20 Department of Corrections now?

21 MR. JONES: Three years.

22 THE COURT: Is that for a burglary?

23 MR. JONES: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: Where was that from?

25 MR. JONES: Lancaster.

-7-

1 THE COURT: Lancaster. I didn't sentence you did I?
2 Did I sentence you?

3 MR. JONES: Yeah. Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: I thought I recognized you. All right,
5 Mr. Jones, have you ever been treated for any mental or 6 emotional disability?

7 MR. JONES: No, sir.

8 THE COURT: Again, you understand what you're doing
9 here?

10 MR. JONES: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Jones, I have two indictments for 12 burglary second degree violent. Indictment 2018-435, that 13 indictment alleges on or about June the 30th, 2016 here in 14 York County you did enter a building, the Tienda La
15 Calentana, in York County in the nighttime and you could 16 get up to fifteen years in prison for that. That's a
17 serious violent offense and I'm gonna talk to you about 18 that in just a moment.

19 How do you plead to that charge?

20 MR. JONES: Guilty.

21 THE COURT: 2018-431 alleges that on, or about, June 22 the 30th of 2016 here in York County you did break into 23 Carolina E-Cigs building without consent in the nighttime,
24 you get fifteen years, that's a serious violent offense.

25 How do you plead to that charge?

1 MR. JONES: Guilty.

2 THE COURT: 2018-432 is an indictment for Malicious
3 Injury to Property. Because of your prior record this 4 would be a third or greater property offense. That
5 indictment alleges here in York County, on or about, June 6 the 30th of 2016 you did damage personal property of 7 another or a cash register. Because of your prior record
8 you could get ten years in prison for that.

9 How do you plead to that charge?

10 MR. JONES: Guilty.

11 THE COURT: The burglaries are what we call violent,
12 serious offenses. It appears that you were sentenced back
13 in September. I guess that was in Lancaster for a burglary
14 second violent; is that correct?

15 MR. JONES: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: Well, this would be your third, a
17 conviction for your third serious offense on your record.
18 And even though you're pleading to two today, it appears
19 that they took place on two separate distinct occasions and 20 so under our three-strikes law you are subject to in the 21 future anytime you're convicted, if you're convicted of a
22 serious offense in the future, or a most-serious offense in 23 the future, the State could seek a life without parole
24 sentence because of this plea today. This is under our 25 three strikes law. You really have three strikes today.

1 Do you understand that?

2 MR. JONES: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: And in addition these are violent
4 offenses. This affects your status in the Department of 5 Corrections and your parole eligibility.

6 Do you understand that?

7 MR. JONES: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: How do you -- And, again, you want to go
9 forward with your pleas on these charges?

10 MR. JONES: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: I have a Plea Waiver Form that has been 12 provided to me. It appears that you, and Mr. McKinnon,
13 have been over your rights on the plea waiver form and that 14 you signed and dated it yesterday stating it that -- you
15 actually went over this with Mindy Lipinski from the Public
16 Defender's Office, another lawyer, and you stated that you
17 understood the rights that are in this form and you're 18 giving them up in order to plead guilty; is that correct?

19 MR. JONES: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: Included in all those rights are your 21 rights to a jury trial and the rights that are included in 22 a jury trial. Your right to appeal within ten days.

23 MR. JONES: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: Among a number of other rights and you
25 initialed those, indicated that you understood those

-10-

1 rights; is that correct?

2 MR. JONES: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: Do you have any questions about any of 4 your rights?

5 MR. JONES: No, sir.

6 THE COURT: Are you satisfied with Mr. McKinnon and 7 Mrs. Lipinski in the way they've represented you?

8 MR. JONES: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: Are you pleading to these charges of your 10 own free will?

11 MR. JONES: Yes, sir.

12 THE COURT: All right, Solicitor.

13 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Thank you, your Honor.

14 May I beg the Court's indulgence?

15 (PAUSE.)

16 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Your Honor, before I begin the 17 factual recitation, I just spoke to Mr. McKinnon, one of 18 the indictments, the indictment that alleges a burglary
19 second degree violent from the Carolina Cigarette Store,
20 the date is incorrect. I would move the Court to amend
21 that date to read June 17th.

22 MR. MCKINNON: No objection, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: I think when I read it and what's dated is 24 June the 30th, and so if there's no objection I'm going to 25 strike through June 30th and put June 17th.

-11-

1 MR. MCKINNON: No objection, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: And I placed that and I'll initial that 3 change.

4 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Thank you, your Honor. My 5 apologies. On June the 17th at approximately 3:30 in the 6 morning Deputy Williams of the York County Sheriff's
7 Officer responded to an alarm at 3160 Highway 21, Suite 101
8 in Fort Mill, South Carolina the Carolina Cigarette Store
9 which is in the County of York.

10 Upon arrival officers noticed that the business had a
11 broken out window and entered and saw that the register --
12 the cash register had been damaged and some cash had been 13 taken from the register. Officers reviewed a surveillance
14 video and were able to identify a vehicle, a white Ford
15 Thunderbird, in that robbery.

16 On June the 30th of 2016 officers responded to 3312
17 Highway 21 in Fort Mill, South Carolina in reference to a 18 burglary that had occurred at Tienda La Calentana. They 19 arrived at the store and saw that a similar situation, a
20 rock had been taken through the glass and the cash register
21 had been damaged. They were also able to confirm that a
22 white Thunderbird had been involved in the robbery.

23 The white Thunderbird was entered into -- A be on the 24 look out was entered and it came up in Pineville Police
25 Department where the defendant was driving a white

-12-

1 Thunderbird after fleeing from a burglary. The defendant
2 was marandized and officers spoke to him. He did provide a
3 full confession to the York County Sheriff's Office that he
4 had committed the two burglaries in York County.

5 He does have prior qualifying offenses for the 6 enhancement under the property crime statute, in 2012 and 7 2013. Those would be the substantive facts, your Honor,
8 but again, we do have a minor issue regarding his time
9 served credit at the appropriate time.

10 THE COURT: And I will state that in the Plea Waiver
11 From there appear to be a pretty comprehensive list of his 12 prior convictions. I do have a comprehensive list of his 13 convictions and there is a factual basis for the prior 14 property offenses.

15 Mr. McKinnon, I'd be glad to hear from you and your 16 client; bear in mind I'm gonna follow the negotiations.

17 MR. MCKINNON: Thank you, your Honor, may it please
18 the Court. There are a few things I'd like to tell you.

19 Your Honor, Mr. Jones got here this week. As you just 20 heard we were not appointed at the time until this morning.
21 Mr. Newkirk did give me discovery and I went down yesterday
22 morning and spoke to my client in the jail, went over
23 discovery and his rights and things like that with him .
24 And as your Honor noted Mrs. Lipinski was good enough to go
25 over the Plea Waiver Form and sign up yesterday while I was

-13-

1 in front of your Honor yesterday afternoon.

2 Also I think it's important to note that this was the 3 investigation of this -- these two burglaries was tied in 4 all part and partial to the investigation in Pineville and 5 in Lancaster in which your Honor sentenced him to last
6 September as you recalled. It was one investigation kind
7 of jointly between the three different agencies. One
8 confession, he went through and confessed to all of them on 9 one piece of paper.

10 The last thing as Mr. Newkirk has mentioned is, there
11 is a somewhat confusing issue as to the time-served credit.
12 Your Honor gave him, in Lancaster, four hundred and twenty 13 days of credit. And in all candor to the Court I spoke to 14 his attorney at the time in Lancaster and she indicated
15 that that was not based on a ruling of your Honor's at the 16 time. Essentially the State did not contest that and the 17 basis of that time was going back to the time that the day
18 that he was arrested in Pineville, to the Pineville
19 charges, and not to the date of the Governor's Warrant
20 where the hold that was placed on him by either York or 21 Lancaster Counties.

22 Your Honor, --

23 THE COURT: Well let me ask you that.

24 MR. MCKINNON: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: What is written on the top of the Plea

-14-

1 Waiver Form is that he is to have credit since July the 2 18th, 2016. Is that the day he was arrested in Pineville?

3 MR. MCKINNON: I believe it was -- Yes, I believe that 4 is correct.

5 THE COURT: So your argument would be that his credit
6 should begin from that date?

7 MR. MCKINNON: Your Honor, I think that the maximum
8 that he could get would be that four twenty plus the time
9 since the day that he was sentenced in Lancaster where your 10 Honor gave him the four hundred and twenty days. So that 11 total would be five hundred and seventy, so I believe that 12 would be the absolute maximum he could get.

13 THE COURT: Well I'm sort of lost. What's the 14 difference between, if he was arrested on July the 18th, 15 2016, are you arguing that he's entitled -- and he's been 16 in jail ever since then, right?

17 MR. MCKINNON: He has been either being held in
18 Pineville ---

19 THE COURT: He's been incarcerated ---

20 MR. MCKINNON: --- or Lancaster. Yes, he has been 21 incarcerated yes.

22 THE COURT: --- since then? And are you arguing that 23 he is entitled to more time than credit from July 18th,
24 2016?

25 MR. MCKINNON: No, your Honor.

-15-

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 All right, Mr. Newkirk, I'll be glad to hear from you.

3 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Thank you, your Honor, and Mr.
4 McKinnon is correct. His calculation takes into account
5 his arrest in Pineville. However, my understanding of the 6 case law, which I do have to provide to the Court if 7 necessary, is that Mr. Jones would not be entitled to his 8 credit for these charges until a hold has been placed on 9 him by our county for these warrants. Additionally, that 10 time served credit, pursuant to the statute, must stop when 11 he begins serving an SCDC sentence for an unrelated
12 offense.

13 So, I have calculated the time served credit at three 14 hundred and sixty-seven days. That is from the day Nikki
15 Haley signed the Governor's Warrant in September, September 16 the 16th of 2016 until he pled before your Honor in 17 September 18th of 2017. That's three hundred and sixty-
18 seven days. I do believe he is entitled to all of that;
19 however, once he began serving his SCDC sentence I do not 20 believe he is entitled to that additional hundred and 21 forty-four days.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 MR. MCKINNON: Your Honor, and I understand that 24 argument. I would say that the bear minimum I think that 25 he would be entitled to would be one sixty-eight.

-16-

1 THE COURT: Well, here's what I'm gonna do. I'm gonna
2 give him credit from the day July the 18th, 2016. That
3 will be the order of the Court. Of course if the State
4 wants to appeal that they can. He was confined on that 5 date, he certainly whether there was a formal hold in place
6 it appears that he did not -- He was never released and --
7 I assume that -- And it appears that the authorities in 8 York County and Lancaster County were aware that he was 9 arrested and in jail in Matthews -- In Huntersville -- not 10 Huntersville -- in Pineville on July the 18th so in effect
11 there was a -- and that awareness was in effect, and I
12 don't know when the actual hold was placed, but I'm gonna
13 give you credit from July the 18th, 2016.

14 MR. MCKINNON: Thank you, your Honor. And by my 15 calculation that number will be five seventeen.

16 THE COURT: All I'm gonna do is just write July the 17 18th, 2016 on the sentencing sheet. The Department of 18 Corrections will deal with that.

19 MR. MCKINNON: Very good. Thank you, your Honor.

20 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Thank you, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Hold on, hold on a minute, Mr. Newkirk.

22 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: I'm not quite through.

24 Anything you want to say, Mr. Jones?

25 MR. JONES: No, sir.

-17-

1 THE COURT: All right, let me ask you one other and be
2 sure that we're clear on one thing. Here in York County
3 you were just appointed a lawyer yesterday; is that 4 correct?

5 MR. JONES: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: Now that's only been twenty-four hours and 7 you're here in court with your lawyer that you just met
8 today. I want to be sure the record is clear that you are 9 satisfied with the way those lawyers have represented you.

10 MR. JONES: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: And you've had plenty of time to talk to 12 them?

13 MR. JONES: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: And do you have any complaints about the 15 way they've represented you in the last twenty-four hours?

16 MR. JONES: No, sir.

17 THE COURT: And again, its your desire to go forward
18 with this plea for this negotiated six years, and based on 19 what your lawyers have done you have no complaints about 20 their representation?

21 MR. JONES: No, sir.

22 THE COURT: All right. The sentence of the Court on 23 each of those indictments is he be committed to the 24 Department of Corrections for a period -- for a determinat
25 term of six years, credit to begin July the 18th, 2016.

-18-

1 Thank you.

2 MR. MCKINNON: Thank you, your Honor.

3 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Thank you, your Honor.

4 (COURT IN RECESS IN THE MATTER OF STATE V. BRUCE JONES
5 THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2018 AT 10:35 AM.)

6 (COURT BACK IN SESSION IN THE MATTER OF STATE V. BRUCE
7 JONES FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9TH, 2018 AT 10:21 AM.)

8 (WHEREUPON, COURT'S EXHIBIT NUMBER ONE REMARKED FOR 9 IDENTIFICATION.)

10 THE COURT: All right, let me place on the record,
11 this is a hearing on the State's Motion to Reconsider a 12 Sentence on Indictments 2018-GS-46-431 and 432 and 435.

13 The State -- This is the State versus Bruce Jones.

14 He was sentenced by the Court yesterday, February the 15 8th, 2018. The State timely filed a Motion to Reconsider
16 the Sentence with the Court yesterday and the Court did 17 schedule this hearing, on the record today, to give the 18 State an opportunity and the Defense an opportunity to be 19 heard on the State's Motion to Reconsider.

20 So, Mr. Newkirk, I'll be glad to hear from you.

21 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Thank you, your Honor.

22 First and foremost allow me to place a procedural
23 matter on the record. I did speak with you in chambers
24 with Mr. McKinnon regarding this motion. I informed the 25 Court, at that time, my intention to file an amended Motion

-19-

1 to Reconsider Sentencing and first and foremost I had a
2 scribblers error in my original motion and additionally my
3 motion -- my initial motion made the issue that I'm going
4 to argue before the Court a little less clear.

5 I believe my amended motion makes it more clearer than 6 what my argument would be. Your Honor, may I approach?

7 THE COURT: Yes.

8 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Your Honor, I have provide -- 9 providing you now a copy of State's Amended Motion to 10 Reconsider. It has included -- Its been marked as Court's 11 Exhibit One. I ask at the conclusion that it go with the 12 file. I've also provided a copy of that Amended Motion to 13 Mr. McKinnon.

14 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. I do have Court's
15 Exhibit One and I will make that a part of the file.

16 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Thank you, your Honor.

17 (WHEREUPON, COURT'S EXHIBIT NUMBER ONE, IDENTIFIED AND 18 MARKED, RECEIVED INTO EVIDENCE.)

19 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Thank you, your Honor.

20 Your Honor, there's two things I want to get out
21 before I make my argument. First is a procedural history
22 of Mr. Jones' case. And second is, for the record, a
23 rehash of the sentence from yesterday.

24 Mr. Jones is before the Court on three indictments
25 however, procedurally he was arrested in July 20th of 2016

-20-

1 in North Carolina for attempted burglary and B&E charges.
2 Subsequent to his arrest on the 20th of 2016, of July, I'm
3 sorry, not September, July, York County Sheriff's Office
4 had a signed warrant by a judge in this county for the 5 charges for which he pled yesterday. Most relevant are the 6 three indictments; there were two counts of burglary second
7 degree violent and one count of malicious injury to 8 property third or subsequent property crime.

9 There were additional charges however those were 10 dismissed pursuant to plea agreement. That warrant was 11 signed by a York County Magistrate on the 28th of July
12 2016. On September the 16th of 2016 Mr. Jones -- The State
13 of South Carolina sought a Governor's Warrant in the State
14 versus Mr. Jones, that warrant on September the 16th of 15 2016 was signed by Governor Nikki Haley.

16 That warrant was served on the Defendant. The 17 Governor's Warrant was served on the Defendant October the 18 10th of 2016.

19 Your Honor, from July 20th of 2016 to March 23rd of 20 2017 the defendant, Mr. Jones, was serving a sentence in 21 North Carolina for offenses related to his arrest in 22 Pineville. He was released from that sentence on March --

23 THE COURT: Tell me, when was he arrested in 24 Pineville?

25 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: July the 20th of 2016.

-21-

1 THE COURT: All right. And then when was -- Do we
2 have a date or a factual -- where there's not a factual
3 dispute of when officers from Lancaster and York County
4 interviewed him in the Pineville --

5 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: No, sir. I would concede that it
6 was several days after the 20th. It was in the --

7 THE COURT: On or about the 20th?

8 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Yes, sir. It was when he was in 11 custody by Pineville police.

12 THE COURT: But at the initial arrest?

13 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

15 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Thank you, your Honor.

16 He finished his sentence on March the 23rd of 2017 and 17 was transported and booked into the Lancaster County jail
18 on that date. On -- He was not released between March the 19 23rd of 2017 and September the 18th of 2017. On September
20 the 18th of 2017 he pled guilty to one count of burglary
21 second degree violent on Indictment 27-GS-29-0-0-9-0-6. He 22 was given a three year sentence by the Court for that 23 offense.

24 THE COURT: All right, tell me again that date?

25 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: That was September the 18th of 1 2017.

2 THE COURT: And that was in Lancaster?

3 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

5 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: He was subsequently transported to 6 the Department of Corrections to begin serving that
7 sentence. On October the 6th of 2017 the York County
8 warrants were served on him in the Department of 9 Corrections. Those were the warrants for which he plead
10 yesterday and those were the same warrants that were 11 originally signed by the York County Magistrate on July the 12 28th of 2016.

13 And lastly, the last procedural matter, is he pled
14 guilty to those indictments yesterday which was February
15 the 8th of 2018.

16 THE COURT: All right. Thanks.

17 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: Let me be sure, Mr. McKinnon, as far as 19 the factual time line, there is no question of fact about 20 any of those dates that the Solicitor has --

21 MR. MCKINNON: Your Honor, I don't believe so. And 22 just to clarify, I'm looking at his signed confession. It
23 was done in North Carolina July 20th where he confessed to 24 Mecklenburg police, Lancaster police, and the York police
25 to all three events all at once.

-23-

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 MR. MCKINNON: So it was precisely as to July 20th of 3 2016.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Newkirk, do you have any factual
5 dispute about the fact that the defense argued as indicated
6 that they have a confession that was given to all three law
7 enforcement agencies on July the 20th?

8 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: None whatsoever.

9 THE COURT: All right. So we agree on the factual
10 time. There is no dispute about any of the times?

11 MR. MCKINNON: Yes, your Honor, the Defense agrees to 12 that time line. Yes.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

14 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Your Honor, however I did
15 misspeak. He pled guilty in Lancaster on September the 16 12th of 2017, not the 18th. That's my fault. September
17 the 12th.

18 And so procedurally that's the time line. As Mr.
19 McKinnon said the State and the Defense do not disagree on 20 the time line. And the case's already been pled and the 21 negotiation accepted by the Court.

22 The State's Motion to Reconsider is limited only in 23 the amount of time served credit in which the Court granted
24 the Defendant. Your Honor, the Defendant was in the 25 Department of Corrections from September the 12th of 2017

-24-

1 to yesterday and is still in the Department of Corrections,
2 but for my argument, until he pled yesterday that is a
3 total of one hundred and fifty days.

4 The State would argue and the State respectfully moves
5 the Court to reconsider not granting Mr. Jones that one
6 hundred and fifty days credit based on the statute which is 7 South Carolina Code of Laws 24-13-40. The title of that 8 Statute is Governing the Computation of Time Served by 9 Prisoners.

10 Your Honor, in the State's opinion the relevant
11 portion is B Subsection (2) which states in relevant part,
12 that credit for time served prior to trial and sentencing
13 shall not be given when the prisoner is serving a sentence
14 for one offense and is awaiting trial and sentence for a
15 second offense in which case he shall not receive credit
16 for time served prior to trial in a reduction of his 17 sentence for the second offense.

18 Your Honor, the State's argument is pretty
19 straightforward. When Mr. Jones pled guilty on September
20 the 12th of 2017, he began serving a sentence for one
21 offense. Coincidentally he was also awaiting trial or 22 sentence on a second offense which would be the York County
23 charges Indictments 18-GS-46-0-0-4-3-1; 4-3-2 and 4-3-5.

24 He pled yesterday February 8th, 2018 making that a
25 total of one hundred and fifty days where he was serving

1 both a sentence for which he had pled and a sentence for 2 which he was waiting at trial.

3 The State believes pursuant to that statute that it
4 specifically prohibits the granting of that one hundred and 5 fifty days time served credit. And I would respectfully
6 request the Court to reconsider and not grant that one
7 hundred and fifty days.

8 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

9 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Thank you, sir.

10 THE COURT: Mr. McKinnon, anything you want to put on 11 the record?

12 MR. MCKINNON: Your Honor, we will simply say that we 13 agree that your Honor's ruling for time served credit
14 dating back to July of 2016 that you honored yesterday is 15 appropriate and correct.

16 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

17 I'm gonna deny the motion to reconsider. In my 18 research last night I could find no reported case in which 19 the State appealed a granting of time served. All the 20 reported cases are where the Court -- Either the Court
21 denied a time served under certain circumstances, or they 22 were appeals from the Administrative Court ruling on how 23 the Department of Corrections may have interpreted a
24 sentence in the calculation of time served. And so, this 25 is an unusual case in that the State is appealing the

1 granting of time served.

2 It does appear that I did find one case, it's an
3 unpublished opinion by the Court of Appeals, it's Opinion
4 No. 2008-UP-680. Granted that's not precedent, however,
5 this Court was persuaded by the Court of Appeals or 6 reasoning and rationale in that particular case. In that
7 particular case the Defendant Mr. Suber -- State v. Suber
8 -- Mr. Suber was arrested in Lexington County, South
9 Carolina on some forgery -- a fraudulent check charge,
10 forgery charges, and he was -- when he was arrested he was 11 also charged with similar offenses from Richland County.

12 And in that case when he was -- And so he was 13 sentenced in Lexington County, got a year and a half
14 sentence, and then sometime after that he was taken to 15 Richland County and pled to the charges in Richland County.
16 In that particular case the sentencing judge denied him, or 17 wrote on the sentencing sheet that he had no credit for 18 time served.

19 That issue was appealed, the Court of Appeals did look
20 at it, it appears and the analysis is not very detailed,
21 however, they did indicate -- and obviously the issue in 22 that one was how much credit would he get for time served
23 prior to the Richland County sentence, and they did look at 24 the -- and obviously they looked at 24-13-40. And 25 certainly as Mr. Newkirk has correctly stated, the matter

1 of credit of time served under this particular statute is 2 not discretionary with the trial court as a matter of law.

3 However, the way they did interpret that is that the 4 statute they indicated, you know, there are two -- He's to 5 be given credit for time served unless there are two 6 exceptions. One: Either the prisoner was an escapee which 7 would certainly indicate that they were aware that if a
8 prisoner escaped, and he's not in prison for a period of 9 time and then he's later picked up, he's not entitled to 10 the time where he was escaped.

11 And then secondly, the prisoner was already serving a 12 sentence. Well the statute says under Two: When the 13 prison is serving a sentence for one offense, and is 14 awaiting trial and sentence for a second offense, and so
15 the question then becomes what is a second offense, is it a 16 second offense in time. Or it appears as they analyzed or 17 that because in Mr. Suber's case, the defendant in that 18 case, there was never a break in his incarceration from the 19 time he was arrested in Lexington County, he was never 20 released.

21 He certainly didn't commit a second offense while he 22 was incarcerated, and so, the Court reasoned that in 23 essence he was confined without interruption on those all 24 similar charges where he was in essence being detained for 25 all of those charges from the date he was arrested in

1 Lexington County.

2 I find that based on that analysis that in this
3 particular case factually he was arrested on July the 20th,
4 2016.

5 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Your Honor, may I --

6 THE COURT: Well actually he was arrested on July the 7 18th.

8 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: The 18th. Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: 2016. He was interviewed by South
10 Carolina Law Enforcement. It appears what's been stated
11 today by Lancaster County Sheriff's Department, or law
12 enforcement officials, York County law enforcement
13 officials, and Pineville officials, on -- two days later on 14 July the 20th his confinement in the Department of 15 Corrections or a county Detention Center has been 16 uninterrupted for that time, and, therefore I find that to 17 be similar to the -- what they did in the State v. Suber
18 case, and so therefore, the Court finds as a matter of law
19 that he is entitled to time served beginning at his date of 20 arrest on July the 18th, so I'm gonna deny your motion.

21 Thank you.

22 SOLICITOR NEWKIRK: Thank you, your Honor.

23 MR. MCKINNON: Thank you, your Honor.

CLERK OF COURT
YORK COUNTY, SC

The State, through Assistant Solicitor, Ryan R. Newkirk, respectfully moves this Court to reconsider the sentence of Bruce Stanley Jones, Defendant, on the above-captioned indictments. Contained below is a brief procedural summary and the State's argument regarding reconsideration.

On February 8, 2018, Defendant appeared with his attorney, Mark T. McKinnon, before the Honorable Dan D. Hall to enter a negotiated plea to true-billed indictments 2018-GS-46-00431 (Exhibit A) (Burglary 2nd Degree, Violent), 2018-GS-46-00432 (Exhibit B) (Malicious Injury to Property, Third or Subsequent Property Crime), and 2018-GS-46-00435 (Exhibit C) (Burglary 2nd Degree, Violent). The plea was accepted by the Court and the negotiated sentence of six years imposed. During the calculation of time served credit, the Court granted Defendant credit dating back to July 18, 2016. (Exhibit D) for a total of 570 days; the State maintains, however, that Defendant is entitled 420 days credit.

Defendant entered a plea of guilt in Lancaster County on September 12, 2017, to indictment 2017-GS-29-00906 (Burglary Second Degree, Violent) and was given a three-year sentence by the Court. Defendant's three-year sentence began at the time of the plea, and he was transported to the South Carolina Department of Corrections for service of the sentence. Defendant was subsequently transported from the South Carolina Department of Corrections to York County for his court appearance and subsequent guilty plea on February 8, 2018, while still serving his sentence from Lancaster County. In ordering that Defendant receive time served credit dating back to July 18, 2017, Defendant received 150 days credit to which he is not entitled by law.

South Carolina Code of Laws § 24-13-40 (1976, as amended) governs the computation of time served by prisoners. It states in relevant part that "that credit for time served prior to trial and sentencing shall not be given . . . when the prisoner is serving a sentence for one offense and is awaiting trial and sentence for a second offense in which case he shall not receive credit for time served prior to trial in a reduction of his sentence for the second offense." (Emphasis added.) Based on this statute the Court should have ordered time served be granted from July 18, 2016, to September 12, 2017, (420 days) when the defendant began serving his sentence at the Department of Corrections. The statute specifically prohibits credit being given to defendants as it was in this case.

Based on this argument, the State moves this honorable Court to reconsider the computation of time served credit and grant 420 days as is appropriate under the statute.

Respectfully submitted,

The State, through Assistant Solicitor, Ryan R. Newkirk, respectfully moves this Court to reconsider the sentence of Bruce Stanley Jones, Defendant, on the above-captioned indictment. Contained below is a brief procedural summary and the State's argument regarding reconsideration.

On February 8, 2018, Defendant appeared with his attorney, Mark T. McKinnon, before the Honorable Dan D. The plea was accepted by the Court and the negotiated sentence of six years imposed. During the calculation of time served credit, the Court granted Defendant credit dating back to July 18, 2016, for a total of 570 days; the State maintains, however, that Defendant was not entitled to 150 days of that credit by law.

Defendant entered a plea of guilt in Lancaster County on September 12, 2017, to indictment 2017-GS-29-00906 (Burglary Second Degree, Violent) (Exhibit D) and was given a three-year sentence by the Court. Defendant's three-year sentence began at the time of the plea, and he was transported to the South Carolina Department of Corrections for service of the sentence. Defendant was subsequently transported from the South Carolina Department of Corrections to York County for his court appearance and subsequent guilty plea on February 8, 2018, while still serving his sentence from Lancaster County. time served credit dating back to July 18, 2017, Defendant received 150 days credit to which he is not entitled by law.

South Carolina Code of Laws § 24-13-40 (1976, as amended) governs the computation of time served by prisoners. It states in relevant part that "that credit for time served prior to trial and sentencing shall not be given . . . when the prisoner is serving a sentence for one offense and is awaiting trial and sentence for a second offense in which case he shall not receive credit for time served prior to trial in a reduction of his sentence for the second offense." (Emphasis added.) Based on this statute the Court should not have ordered time served be granted from September 12, 2017, to February 8, 2018, (150 days) when the defendant began serving his sentence at the Department of Corrections. The statute specifically prohibits credit being given to defendants as it was in this case.

Based on this argument, the State moves this honorable Court to reconsider the computation of time served credit and deny granting the additional 150 days as appropriate under the statute.
