Court of Common Pleas

RECEIVED

Appeal No. 2018-001279

SC Court of Appeals

Case No. 2013-CP-23-01715

Michael Stehney, Jr..... Respondent,

v.

Ronald E. Ferguson, Susan M. Ferguson,
and Ronald J. Ferguson

Of Whom Ronald J. Ferguson is Appellant.

RETURN TO MOTION

Respondent Michael Stehney, Jr., through his undersigned attorney, hereby respectfully moves to dismiss Appellant's Motion filed November 29, 2018. The grounds for this motion are as follows:

1. Appellant is once again using a filing in order to delay the case by asking for extension of time for filing his Initial Brief, which is due today, December 4, 2018.
2. This has been Appellant's modus operandus since the beginning of the case in the lower court in 2013.
3. In this instance, Appellant's delay is predicated on a Motion to Vacate regarding an August 9, 2018 Order. This Motion to Vacate is to be filed by Ronald E.

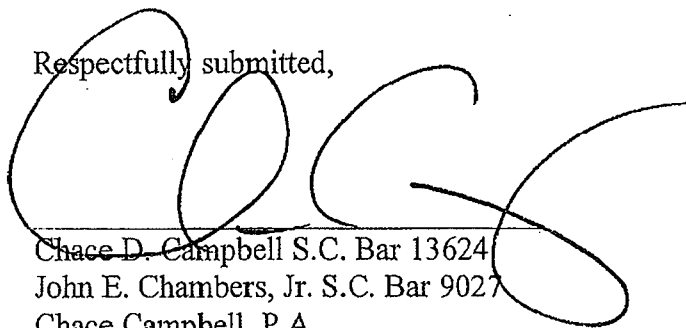

Ferguson and Susan M. Ferguson at some time in the future, but which the Appellant nevertheless proceeds to argue for in his Motion.¹

4. The August 9, 2018 Order dismissing Ronald E. Ferguson and Susan M. Ferguson from this Appeal, was based on the fact that Ronald E. Ferguson and Susan M. Ferguson did not serve a notice of appeal. Ronald J. Ferguson tried filing an appeal on their behalves – again attempting to practice law without a license.
5. As of December 5, 2018, the Appellant would be late in filing and serving his Initial Brief in this matter.

THEREFORE, the Respondent requests that the Court:

1. Dismiss the Appellant's Motion filed on November 29, 2018;
2. Dismiss the Appellant's appeal case due to his late filing of his Initial Brief; and thereby
3. Grant the Respondent permission to pursue the execution of judgments already granted to him in the Final Order of the Common Pleas matter in order that Respondent may be made whole.

Respectfully submitted,

Chace D. Campbell S.C. Bar 13624

¹ Appellant was previously admonished by trial judges not to practice law without a license, but once again he is arguing a Motion not yet filed on behalf of his parents.
