Re: Lamont Jeremiah McCauley V. Paul Wickensimer

Appellate Case No. 2018-000741

To Whom It may Concern:

Upon speaking to a representative from your office, there was some confusion about two Motion documents sent in the same envelope. This letter seeks to clarify my intentions regarding the Motion for Time Extension and a previously submitted Motion to Amend the Designation of Matters. The 50.00 dollar money order payment that accompanied those two documents, was for the correct amount of 25.00 dollars previously received by your office on November the 8, 2018 for the Motion to Amend the Designation of Matter. If a tracking number is needed to locate this money order I can provide it upon request but it was included in that mailing. The 50.00 fee that I am submitting in this correspondence is for the Motion for Time Extension for the Record on Appeal due 12/11/18.

I hope this helps to clarify any mistakes on my behalf. I greatly appreciate your time concerning this matter.

Sincerely,

Auth Rep.
