RE: Notice Of Appeal And Explanation
Cooper v. State
Lower Court Case # 2017-CP-46-1923
Appellate Case # 2018-1925

Dear Hon. Shearouse;

Your office has received my Notice Of Appeal and Explanation. However, I recently discovered that the Notice Of Appeal and Explanation was submitted prematurely being that the Final Order I received was actually the PROPOSED Final Order, not the signed copy. I falsely assumed that the unsigned Final Order was sufficient which led me to subsequently submit the Notice Of Appeal and Explanation prematurely.

Since Judge Daniel D. Hall never signed the first proposed Final Order, assistant Attorney General Janell H. Gregory sent Judge Hall a second proposed Order to sign. (see attached).

As soon as I receive the signed Final Order, I will mail it to your office. My question is this: Do you want to hold this case in abeyance until you receive the signed Final Order from me? Or do you want me to resubmitt the Notice Of Appeal and Explanation with the signed Final Order?

Sincerely,

Duval Cooper #340970

Re: Duval M. Cooper, #340970 v. State of South Carolina
2017-CP-46-01923

Dear Judge Hall:

Enclosed please find an original proposed Final Order of Dismissal in the above-captioned case. If this Order meets your approval, please sign and return to me in the enclosed envelope, and I will then forward it to the York County Clerk of Court to be filed and served.

Sincerely,

Janell H. Gregory
Assistant Attorney General
