RE: Prentiss Wayne Love v. State of South Carolina
Appellate Case No. 2017-001689.

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

The above captioned PCR appeal was recently transferred to the Court of Appeals from the Supreme Court. My Reply to Respondent's Return was due for service and filing on today's date after having been granted one ten (10) day extension at this stage of this appeal by the Supreme Court. I have been out sick much of the last three weeks with a bad respiratory infection. Thankfully I am finally getting better, but I was not able to complete this Reply in time for filing today. For that reason, I am requesting an additional six (6) day extension until December 13, 2018. I have oral arguments scheduled in the Supreme Court for the morning of the December 12th and will be tied up preparing for that argument until then. This Reply is nearly complete and I will be able to finish it up and get it filed on December 13th, if not sooner. I was not able to reach opposing counsel, Johnny James concerning this request inasmuch as he was in Court this week. I would ask that he convey any objections he might have to this request directly to the Court. Thank you for your assistance in this matter. I remain,

Sincerely yours,
