SC Court of Appeals

TO THE COURT OF APPEALS AND OPPOSING COUNSEL:

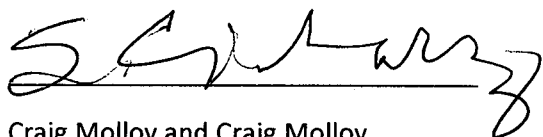

The Plaintiffs' counsel, Lauren Martel and the Plaintiffs Craig Molloy and Carolina Cleaning hereby agree to consent to allow the Plaintiffs' counsel to be released of all duties as counsel of record for the Appeal of this case. The Plaintiff has been made aware of the need to seek new counsel or proceed pro se to Appeal this matter. The Plaintiff has time to move forward with the Appeal and has been advised of the requirements moving forward from the executed Court Order(s) in this trial. The Release of Lauren Martel does not prejudice the Plaintiffs moving forward in the Appeal. By Consent of the parties the acknowledge the understanding of Rule 264 and execute this Release of Counsel.

Pursuant to RULE 264
SUBSTITUTION OF ATTORNEYS OR GUARDIANS

(a) Continued Representation. The attorneys and/or guardians ad litem of the respective parties in the court below shall be deemed the attorneys and guardians of the same parties in the appellate court until withdrawal is approved and notice is given as provided in this Rule.

(b) Withdrawal. An attorney of record in a matter pending before an appellate court may not withdraw from representation of his client without justifiable cause, or the consent of his client; and then only after proper written notice to his client, on petition to and by written order of the appellate court, and with notice to the adverse party.

I SO Agree:

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Craig Molloy", written over a horizontal line.
