attorneys stole it and turned it into a sword, a weapon they wield recklessly and unreasonably. The Court has not yet held that carriers deserve a way to defend themselves, and this case presents an opportunity for the Court to intervene and steer the Tyger River Doctrine towards fairness and justice.

Respectfully submitted

Re: Kenneth A. Davis as Personal Representative of Estate of Kenneth Miles Davis, Respondent vs. Cole Austin Dunn and John Richard Smith, Appellants
Appellate Case No. 2018-000735

Dear Ms. Allen:

Per your deficiency letters dated 12/10 in the above matter, enclosed are signature pages for the unbound originals of our Final Brief and Final Reply Brief. Although I believe that all bound copies of both briefs bore original signatures, I understand that original signatures must have been overlooked on the unbound copies. Hopefully, the enclosed signature pages, forwarded by facsimile and US Mail, correct the deficiency.

If I am incorrect, and anything further is needed to correct the deficiency, please give us a call or advise by email to HUDSONLAW@HUDSONLAWOFFICE.COM. My Associate, Mary Anne Graham, called and tried to speak with a couple of folks Friday afternoon. She was unable to make contact and we wanted to go ahead and get you the enclosures.

Thanking the Court for its consideration, and with best regards, I remain

J. Dwight Hudson, Esq.
