Re: Cedric L. Woods v State
Appellate Case No: 2016-002367

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I hope this correspondence finds you well. I am representing the State of South Carolina in the above-referenced matter. On December 7, 2018 your office mailed Mr. Woods a letter instructing him to provide proof of service for the record on appeal within ten days. I wanted to make the Court aware that an actual record on appeal has not been served as of the date of this letter.

On December 7, 2018, Mr. Woods filed a proof of service of the record on appeal. I have enclosed a copy what Mr. Woods styled as his record on appeal. As you can see, this is document does not constitute a record on appeal. Additionally, on December 19, 2018, I received Mr. Woods' final brief, motion to amend record on appeal, amended record on appeal, motion to limit number of copies, covers and binding, and proof of service. I have also enclosed Mr. Woods amended record on appeal, which you will see also does not meet the requirements of a record on appeal.

In light of the fact that a proper record on appeal has not been filed, it is not possible for the State to file a final brief in this matter. Thank you for your attention to this matter, and please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Harley L. Kirkland
Assistant Attorney General
