Re: Terry Capone v. City of Columbia
Appellate Case No. 2018-001364

Dear Mr. Capone:

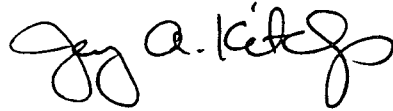

This office received your request for information dated November 30, 2018. If you would like a copy of your complete file, it is available on our website at the following address: <https://www.sccourts.org/ACMS/index.cfm>. If you would like for us to make a copy of your file, the copying fee is $244.10. Our records reflect your file is 842 pages, at a copying cost of $0.25 per page, plus $33.60 for mailing. All communication between this Court and the Workers' Compensation Commission is included in the public file of this case.

The only votes and/or decisions of the members of the Court of Appeals in this case are reflected in our orders dated September 20, 2018, and November 2, 2018. You were mailed copies of these orders by the Court, and as noted above, you can also view these orders for free on our website.

Regarding your request for any internal communications, the South Carolina Court of Appeals is part of the unified Judicial Branch of state government. Thus, the federal Freedom of Information Act is inapplicable to the Court. Furthermore, we do not maintain records of the type requested other than the documents reflected in the official case file. Any internal communications between members of the Court of Appeals, between the Court of Appeals and its staff, and between the staff of the Court of Appeals relating to this case are privileged and cannot be provided to you.

Very truly yours,
