Re: Susan Anne Bell Lynch v. Carolina Self Storage Centers, Inc.
C/A No: 10-CP-21-2170 / Appellate Case No. 2012-212109
ELS File No. 434-00008

Dear Ms. Allen:

I have received your letter dated December 19, 2012 with which you returned the initial brief of respondent/appellant. I also received your letter dated November 16, 2012 seeking to be made aware of when the transcript was received by counsel for appellant/respondent. Because that instruction did not appear to apply to me, as counsel for respondent/appellant, I took no action. However, to clear up any confusion, I have enclosed a copy of the letter by which the transcript of the post-trial motion hearings was transmitted to me by the court reporter. We received that transcript on October 19, 2012, which was why we filed the initial brief of respondent/appellant on November 19, 2012. I am returning our brief to you with this explanation. Please let me know if you need anything else from me. Many thanks.

By copy of this letter, I am informing opposing counsel of this communication with you.

Sincerely,

Kirby D. Shealy III
